- (1) If, before the commencement of a trial at which a person is charged with an offence to which this Act applies, he or another person against whom the complainant may be expected to give evidence at the trial, applies to the judge for a direction under this subsection and satisfies the judge—
- that the direction is required for the purpose of inducing persons who are likely to be needed as witnesses at the trial to come forward; and
 - that the conduct of the applicant's defence at the trial is likely to be substantially prejudiced if the direction is not given,
- the judge shall direct that section 1 shall not, by virtue of the accusation alleging the offence in question, apply in relation to the complainant.
- (2) If at a trial the judge is satisfied—
- that the effect of section 1 is to impose a substantial and unreasonable restriction upon the reporting of proceedings at the trial, and
 - that it is in the public interest to remove or relax the restriction,
- he shall direct that that section shall not apply to such matter as is specified in the direction.
- (3) A direction shall not be given under subsection (2) by reason only of the outcome of the trial.
- (4) If a person who has been convicted of an offence and has given notice of appeal against the conviction, or notice of an application for leave so to appeal, applies to the appellate court for a direction under this subsection and satisfies the court—
- that the direction is required for the purpose of obtaining evidence in support of the appeal; and
 - that the applicant is likely to suffer substantial injustice if the direction is not given, the court shall direct that section 1 shall not, by virtue of an accusation which alleges an offence to which this Act applies and is specified in the direction, apply in relation to a complainant so specified.

(5) A direction given under any provision of this section does not affect the operation of section 1 at any time before the direction is given.

(6) In subsections (1) and (2), “judge” means—

- (a) in the case of an offence which is to be tried summarily or for which the mode of trial has not been determined, any justice of the peace^{F22} ... ; and
- (b) in any other case, any judge of the Crown Court [^{F23}in England and Wales].

[^{F24}(6A) In its application to Northern Ireland, this section has effect as if—

- (a) in subsections (1) and (2) for any reference to the judge there were substituted a reference to the court; and
- (b) subsection (6) were omitted.]

[^{F25}(6B) Where a person is charged with an offence to which this Act applies by virtue of section 2(4), this section applies as if—

- (a) in subsections (1) and (2) for any reference to the judge there were substituted a reference to the court; and
- (b) subsections (6) and (6A) were omitted.]

(7) If, after the commencement of a trial at which a person is charged with an offence to which this Act applies, a new trial of the person for that offence is ordered, the commencement of any previous trial shall be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (1).

- (b) modifying the application of, section 1(1) or (2) in relation to A.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, the modifications that may be made under subsection (2) (b) include increasing or decreasing the period mentioned in section 1(1)(b) or (2)(b) (the period during which publication is prohibited).
- (4) In this section, “interested party” means—
 - (a) a person who was a family member of A at the time of A’s death;
 - (b) a personal representative of A;
 - (c) a person interested in publishing matters relating to A which are prohibited from publication by virtue of section 1(1) or (2).
- (5) On an application under subsection (2), the court must make an order under that subsection if the court is satisfied that it would be—
 - (a) in the interests of justice, or
 - (b) otherwise in the public interest,to make such an order.
- (6) An order made under subsection (2) may be varied or revoked by order of a magistrates’ court on the application of an interested party where the court is satisfied that it would be—
 - (a) in the interests of justice, or
 - (b) otherwise in the public interest,to make such a variation or revocation.
- (7) An order made under this section does not affect the operation of section 1 at any time before the order was made.
- (8) In this section, “a family member of A” means—
 - (a) a person who at the time of A’s death was—
 - (i) married to A;
 - (ii) in a civil partnership with A;
 - (iii) living with A as if a spouse;
 - (b) a relative of A.
- (9) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) “relative” means parent, child, grandparent, great-grandparent, grandchild, great-grandchild, brother, sister, uncle, great-uncle, aunt, great-aunt, nephew, great-nephew, niece or great-niece;
 - (b) a relationship of the half-blood or by affinity is to be treated as a relationship of the whole blood;
 - (c) the stepchild of a person is to be treated as that person’s child.
- (10) In this section, “a person interested in publishing matters” means a person who—
 - (a) wishes the matters to be included in a publication, and
 - (b) in relation to the publication, is a person mentioned in section 5(1) (persons by whom an offence relating to publishing may be committed).
- (11) In subsections (1) and (4)(c), a reference to matters being prohibited from publication includes matters being partially prohibited from publication following the making of

[^{F44}(1A) Section 48 of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (attempts, conspiracy, [^{F45} encouragement and assistance] and aiding and abetting outside England and Wales) applies for the purposes of this Act as if the reference in subsection (3)(b) of that section to any of the following provisions of that Act were a reference to any provision of this Act.]

(2) For the purposes of this Act—

- (a) where it is alleged that an offence to which this Act applies has been committed, the fact that any person has consented to an act which, on any prosecution for that offence, would fall to be proved by the prosecution, does not prevent that person from being regarded as a person against whom the alleged offence was committed; and
- (b) where a person is accused of an offence of incest or buggery, the other party to the act in question shall be taken to be a person against whom the offence was committed even though he consented to that act.

[^{F46}(2A) For the purposes of this Act, where it is alleged or there is an [^{F47}accusation—

- (a) that an offence of conspiracy or incitement of another to commit an offence mentioned in section 2(1)(aa) to (d) or (3)(a) to [^{F48}(h)][^{F48}(hh)] has been committed, or
- (b) that an offence of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of an offence of incitement of another to commit an offence mentioned in section 2(1)(aa) to (d) or (3)(a) to [^{F49}(h)][^{F49}(hh)] has been committed, the] person against whom the substantive offence is alleged to have been intended to be committed shall be regarded as the person against whom the conspiracy or incitement is alleged to have been committed.

In this subsection, “the substantive offence” means the offence to which the alleged conspiracy or incitement related.]

(3) For the purposes of this Act, a person is accused of an offence [^{F50}, other than [^{F51}an offence under section 42 of the Armed Forces Act 2006],] if—

- (a) an information is laid [^{F52}, or (in Northern Ireland) a complaint is made,] alleging that he has committed the offence,
- (b) he appears before a court charged with the offence,
- (c) a court before which he is appearing [^{F53}commits him][^{F53}sends him to the Crown Court] for trial on a new charge alleging the offence, or
- (d) a bill of indictment charging him with the offence is preferred before a court in which he may lawfully be indicted for the offence, and references in [^{F54}subsection (2A) and in] section 3 to an accusation alleging an offence shall be construed accordingly.

[^{F55}(3A) For the purposes of this Act, a person is accused of [^{F56}an offence under section 42 of the Armed Forces Act 2006 if he is charged (under Part 5 of that Act) with the offence], and references in section 3 to an accusation alleging an offence shall be construed accordingly.]

[^{F60}SCHEDULE

Section 5(9).

OFFENCE OF BREACH OF ANONYMITY: PROVIDERS OF INFORMATION SOCIETY SERVICES

Textual Amendments

F60 Sch. inserted (N.I.) (28.9.2023) by Justice (Sexual Offences and Trafficking Victims) Act (Northern Ireland) 2022 (c. 19), ss. 11(2), 30(2); S.R. 2023/142, art. 3

Exceptions for mere conduits

- 1 (1) A service provider does not commit an offence under section 5 by providing access to a communication network or by transmitting, in a communication network, information provided by a recipient of the service, if the service provider does not—
- (a) initiate the transmission,
 - (b) select the recipient of the transmission, or
 - (c) select or modify the information contained in the transmission.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)—
- (a) providing access to a communication network, and
 - (b) transmitting information in a communication network,
- include the automatic, intermediate and transient storage of the information transmitted so far as the storage is solely for the purpose of carrying out the transmission in the network.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) does not apply if the information is stored for longer than is reasonably necessary for the transmission.

Exception for caching

- 2 (1) A service provider does not commit an offence under section 5 by storing information provided by a recipient of the service for transmission in a communication network if the first and second conditions are met.
- (2) The first condition is that the storage of the information—
- (a) is automatic, intermediate and temporary, and
 - (b) is solely for the purpose of making more efficient the onward transmission of the information to other recipients of the service at their request.
- (3) The second condition is that the service provider—
- (a) does not modify the information,
 - (b) complies with any conditions attached to having access to the information, and
 - (c) if sub-paragraph (4) applies, promptly removes the information or disables access to it.
- (4) This sub-paragraph applies if the service provider obtains actual knowledge that—
- (a) the information at the initial source of the transmission has been removed from the network,
 - (b) access to it has been disabled, or

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2023.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Sexual Offences (Amendment) Act 1992. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) a court or administrative authority has ordered the removal from the network of, or the disablement of access to, the information.

Exception for hosting

- 3 (1) A service provider does not commit an offence under section 5 by storing information provided by a recipient of the service if—
- (a) the service provider had no actual knowledge when the information was provided that its provision constituted an offence under section 5, or
 - (b) on obtaining actual knowledge that the information constituted such an offence, the service provider promptly removed the information or disabled access to it.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply if the recipient of the service is acting under the authority or control of the service provider.

Interpretation

- 4 In this Schedule—
- “information society service” means any service normally provided—
- (a) for remuneration,
 - (b) at a distance (namely, the service is provided without the parties being simultaneously present),
 - (c) by electronic means (namely, the service is—
 - (i) sent initially and received at its destination by means of electronic equipment for the processing (including digital compression) and storage of data, and
 - (ii) entirely transmitted, conveyed and received by wire, radio, optical means or other electromagnetic means), and
 - (d) at the individual request of a recipient of services (namely, the service is provided through the transmission of data on individual request);
- “recipient”, in relation to a service, means a person who, for professional ends or otherwise, uses an information society service, in particular for the purposes of seeking information or making it accessible;
- “service provider” means a person providing an information society service.]
