

Education (Schools) Act 1992

1992 CHAPTER 38

Inspections by registered inspectors

9 Inspection of certain schools.

- (1) It shall be the duty of the Chief Inspector for England to secure that every school in England to which this section applies is inspected, at such intervals as may be prescribed, by an inspector registered under section 10(1).
- (2) It shall be the duty of the Chief Inspector for Wales to secure that every school in Wales to which this section applies is inspected, at such intervals as may be prescribed, by an inspector registered under section 10(2).
- (3) The schools to which this section applies are—
 - (a) county schools;
 - (b) voluntary schools;
 - (c) special schools;
 - (d) grant-maintained schools;
 - (e) independent schools approved by the Secretary of State under section 11(3)(a) of the Education Act 1981 (schools suitable for children for whom statements are maintained under section 7 of that Act).
 - (f) city technology colleges;
 - (g) city colleges for the technology of the arts;
 - (h) maintained nursery schools.
- (4) It shall be the general duty of any registered inspector conducting an inspection under this section to report on—
 - (a) the quality of the education provided by the school;
 - (b) the educational standards achieved in the school;
 - (c) whether the financial resources made available to the school are managed efficiently; and
 - (d) the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils at the school.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Schools) Act 1992, Cross Heading: Inspections by registered inspectors. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In prescribing the intervals mentioned in subsections (1) and (2) the Secretary of State may make provision as to the period within which the first inspection of a school under this section is to begin.
- (6) An inspection which is required under this section shall not extend to denominational education [^{F1}or to the content of collective worship which falls to be inspected under section 13].
- (7) Part I of Schedule 2 makes further provision with respect to inspections under this [^{F2}Act].

10 Registration of inspectors.

- (1) No person shall conduct an inspection of any school in England under section 9(1) unless he is registered as an inspector in a register kept by the Chief Inspector for England for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) No person shall conduct an inspection of any school in Wales under section 9(2) unless he is registered as an inspector in a register kept by the Chief Inspector for Wales for the purposes of this Act.
- (3) The Chief Inspector shall not register a person under this section unless, having regard to any conditions that he proposes to impose under subsection (5)(c), it appears to him that that person—
 - (a) is a fit and proper person for discharging the functions of a registered inspector; and
 - (b) will be capable of conducting inspections under this Act competently and effectively.
- (4) An application for registration under this section—
 - (a) shall be made in such manner, and be accompanied by such particulars, as the Chief Inspector may direct; and
 - (b) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (5) On an application duly made under this section the Chief Inspector may—

- (a) register the applicant;
 - (b) refuse to register him; or
 - (c) register him subject to such conditions as the Chief Inspector considers it appropriate to impose.
- (6) Conditions imposed under subsection (5)(c) may be conditions applying generally in relation to all cases, or particular classes of case, or such conditions together with specific conditions applying in the particular case.
- (7) Where a person is registered subject to conditions imposed under subsection (5)(c), he shall be taken to be authorised to act as a registered inspector only so far as those conditions permit.
- (8) The period for which any registration is to have effect shall be determined by the Chief Inspector and shall be entered in the register kept by him.
- (9) Nothing in subsection (8) is to be taken as preventing a registered inspector from applying for a fresh registration to take effect immediately on the expiry of his current registration.

Commencement Information

- I2 S. 10 wholly in force; s. 10(4)(except sub-paragraph (a)) in force at 16.5.1992 and s. 10(1)-(3)(4)(a)(5)-(9) in force at 31.8.1992 see s. 21(3) and S.I. 1992/1157, art. 2

11 Removal from register and imposition or variation of conditions.

- (1) If the Chief Inspector is satisfied that any of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) is satisfied with respect to an inspector registered in his register, he may remove the name of that inspector from that register.
- (2) The conditions are that—
- (a) he is no longer a fit and proper person for discharging the functions of a registered inspector under this Act;
 - (b) he is no longer capable of conducting inspections under this Act competently and effectively;
 - (c) there has been a significant failure on his part to comply with any condition imposed under section 10(5)(c) and subject to which his registration has effect;
 - (d) he has knowingly or recklessly produced a report of an inspection which is, in whole or in part, seriously misleading.
- (3) If the Chief Inspector is satisfied—
- (a) that he is authorised by subsection (2) to remove the name of an inspector from his register, or
 - (b) that it would otherwise be in the public interest to act under this subsection,
- he may vary any condition subject to which the registration of that inspector has effect or vary that registration by imposing a condition subject to which it will have effect.
- (4) Either Chief Inspector may, in exercising his functions under this section with respect to a registered inspector, have regard to any action taken by the other Chief Inspector with respect to that registered inspector.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Schools) Act 1992, Cross Heading: Inspections by registered inspectors. (See end of Document for details)

12 Appeals in relation to registration.

- (1) Any person who is aggrieved by—
 - (a) the refusal of the Chief Inspector to renew his registration under section 10,
 - (b) the imposition or variation of any condition subject to which he is registered under that section,
 - (c) the removal of his name from the relevant register under section 11, may appeal against the Chief Inspector's decision to a tribunal constituted in accordance with Schedule 3.
- (2) No such decision of the Chief Inspector shall have effect until—
 - (a) the disposal of any appeal against it which is duly made under this section; or
 - (b) the period within which an appeal may be made has expired without an appeal having been made.
- (3) Subsection (2) shall not apply where the Chief Inspector—
 - (a) is satisfied that the circumstances of the case are exceptional and justify the decision in question taking effect immediately, or earlier than would otherwise be the case; and
 - (b) notifies the person concerned to that effect.
- (4) On determining any appeal under this section, the tribunal may—
 - (a) confirm, reverse or vary the decision appealed against; or
 - (b) remit the case to the Chief Inspector with directions as to the action to be taken by him.
- (5) Schedule 3 shall have effect with respect to the tribunals.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education (Schools) Act 1992, Cross Heading: Inspections by registered inspectors. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A grant-maintained school falls within this subsection if—
- (a) it was a voluntary school immediately before it became grant-maintained,
 - (b) it was established in pursuance of proposals published under section 49 of the Education Act 1993 and either any trust deed relating to the school or the statement required by paragraph 8 of Schedule 3 to that Act makes provision as to the religious education for pupils at the school, or
 - (c) it is a school in respect of which proposals for the required provision for religious education to be provision for religious education in accordance with the tenets of a particular religion or religious denomination are approved under section 98 of that Act.
- (3A) In this section—
- (a) “denominational education”, in relation to a school, means any religious education which—
 - (i) is required by section 2(1)(a) of the Education Reform Act 1988 to be included in the school’s basic curriculum, but
 - (ii) is not required by any enactment to be given in accordance with an agreed syllabus,
 - (b) “the required provision for religious education” means the provision for religious education for pupils at the school which is required as mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) above, and
 - (c) references to collective worship are references to collective worship required by section 6 of that Act.]
- (4) An inspection under this section shall be conducted by a person chosen by—
- (a) the foundation governors, in the case of a controlled school; and
 - (b) the governing body, in any other case.
- (5) The person chosen need not be a registered inspector.
- (6) Inspections under this section shall be carried out at such intervals as may be prescribed; and in prescribing the intervals the Secretary of State may make provision as to the period within which the first inspection under this section with respect to a school is to begin.
- [^{F4}(7) It shall be the general duty of a person conducting an inspection under this section—
- (a) if the inspection is conducted by virtue of subsection (1) above, to report on the quality of the denominational education provided by the school for pupils to whom denominational education is given by the school, or
 - (b) if the inspection is conducted by virtue of subsection (2) above, to report on the content of the school’s collective worship,
- and any such person may report on the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of pupils at the school.]
- (8) A person conducting an inspection under this section may do so with the assistance of such other persons chosen by him as are in his opinion fit and proper persons for carrying out the inspection.
- (9) Part II of Schedule 2 makes further provision with respect to inspections under this section.
