

Carriage of Goods by Sea Act 1992

1992 CHAPTER 50

3 Liabilities under shipping documents.

- (1) Where subsection (1) of section 2 of this Act operates in relation to any document to which this Act applies and the person in whom rights are vested by virtue of that subsection—
 - (a) takes or demands delivery from the carrier of any of the goods to which the document relates;
 - (b) makes a claim under the contract of carriage against the carrier in respect of any of those goods; or
 - (c) is a person who, at a time before those rights were vested in him, took or demanded delivery from the carrier of any of those goods,that person shall (by virtue of taking or demanding delivery or making the claim or, in a case falling within paragraph (c) above, of having the rights vested in him) become subject to the same liabilities under that contract as if he had been a party to that contract.
- (2) Where the goods to which a ship's delivery order relates form a part only of the goods to which the contract of carriage relates, the liabilities to which any person is subject by virtue of the operation of this section in relation to that order shall exclude liabilities in respect of any goods to which the order does not relate.
- (3) This section, so far as it imposes liabilities under any contract on any person, shall be without prejudice to the liabilities under the contract of any person as an original party to the contract.
