

Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992

1992 CHAPTER 52

PART II

EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATIONS

Status and property of employers' associations

130 Restriction on enforcement of awards against certain property

- (1) Where in any proceedings an amount is awarded by way of damages, costs or expenses—
- (a) against an employers' association,
  - (b) against trustees in whom property is vested in trust for an employers' association, in their capacity as such (and otherwise than in respect of a breach of trust on their part), or
  - (c) against members or officials of an employers' association on behalf of themselves and all of the members of the association,
- no part of that amount is recoverable by enforcement against any protected property.
- (2) The following is protected property—
- (a) property belonging to the trustees otherwise than in their capacity as such;
  - (b) property belonging to any member of the association otherwise than jointly or in common with the other members;
  - (c) property belonging to an official of the association who is neither a member nor a trustee.
