

Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992

1992 CHAPTER 8

PART X

COMPUTATION OF BENEFITS

135 Effect of alteration of rates of benefit under Parts II to V of Contributions and Benefits Act.

- (1) This section has effect where the rate of any benefit to which this section applies is altered—
- by a statutory provision made subsequent to this Act;
 - by an order under section 132 or 133 above; or
 - in consequence of any such statutory provision or order altering any maximum rate of benefit; and in this section “the commencing date” means the date fixed for payment of benefit at an altered rate to commence.

- (2) This section applies to benefit under Part II, III, IV or V of the Contributions and Benefits Act.
- (3) Subject to such exceptions or conditions as may be prescribed, where—
- the weekly rate of a benefit to which this section applies is altered to a fixed amount higher or lower than the previous amount; and
 - before the commencing date an award of that benefit has been made (whether before or after the making of the relevant statutory provision), except as respects any period falling before the commencing date, the benefit shall become payable at the altered rate without any claim being made for it in the case of an increase in the rate of benefit or any review of the award in the case of a decrease, and the award shall have effect accordingly.

- (4) Where—

Changes to legislation: Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, Section 135 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 August 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the weekly rate of a benefit to which this section applies is altered; and
- (b) before the commencing date (but after that date is fixed) an award is made of the benefit, the award either may provide for the benefit to be paid as from the commencing date at the altered rate or may be expressed in terms of the rate appropriate at the date of the award.

- (5) Where in consequence of the making of a statutory provision altering the rate of disablement pension, regulations are made varying the scale of disablement gratuities, the regulations may provide that the scale as varied shall apply only in cases where the period taken into account by the assessment of the extent of the disablement in respect of which the gratuity is awarded begins or began after such day as may be prescribed.
- (6) Subject to such exceptions or conditions as may be prescribed, where—
- (a) for any purpose of any statutory provision the weekly rate at which a person contributes to the cost of providing for a child, or to the maintenance of an adult dependant, is to be calculated for a period beginning on or after the commencing date for an increase in the weekly rate of benefit; but
 - (b) account is to be taken of amounts referable to the period before the commencing date,
- those amounts shall be treated as increased in proportion to the increase in the weekly rate of benefit.
