

Charities Act 1993 (repealed)

1993 CHAPTER 10

PART VIII

CHARITABLE COMPANIES

63 Winding up.

- (1) Where a charity may be wound up by the High Court under the ^{M1}Insolvency Act 1986, a petition for it to be wound up under that Act by any court in England or Wales having jurisdiction may be presented by the Attorney General, as well as by any person authorised by that Act.
- (2) Where a charity may be so wound up by the High Court, such a petition may also be presented by [^{F1}the Commission] if, at any time after [^{F2}it has instituted] an inquiry under section 8 above with respect to the charity, [^{F3}it is satisfied] as mentioned in section 18(1)(a) or (b) above.
- [^{F4}(3) The Commission may make an application under section 1029 of the Companies Act 2006 (application to court for restoration to the register of companies) to restore a charitable company to the register of companies.]
- (5) The powers exercisable by [^{F5}the Commission] by virtue of this section shall be exercisable [^{F6}by the Commission of its own motion], but shall be exercisable only with the agreement of the Attorney General on each occasion.
- (6) In this section “charitable company” means a company which is a charity.

64 Alteration of objects^{F7}

- (1) Where a charity is a company or other body corporate having power to alter the instruments establishing or regulating it as a body corporate, no exercise of that power which has the effect of the body ceasing to be a charity shall be valid so as to affect the application of—
- any property acquired under any disposition or agreement previously made otherwise than for full consideration in money or money's worth, or any property representing property so acquired,
 - any property representing income which has accrued before the alteration is made, or
 - the income from any such property as aforesaid.
- ^{F8}(2) Where a charity is a company, any regulated alteration by the company—
- requires the prior written consent of the Commission, and
 - is ineffective if such consent has not been obtained.
- (2A) The following are “regulated alterations”—
- ^{F9}(a) an amendment of the company's articles of association adding, removing or altering a statement of the company's objects,]
 - (b) any alteration of any provision of its [^{F10}articles of association] directing the application of property of the company on its dissolution, and
 - (c) any alteration of any provision of its [^{F10}articles of association] where the alteration would provide authorisation for any benefit to be obtained by directors or members of the company or persons connected with them.
- (2B) For the purposes of subsection (2A) above—
- (a) “benefit” means a direct or indirect benefit of any nature, except that it does not include any remuneration (within the meaning of section 73A below) whose receipt may be authorised under that section; and
 - (b) the same rules apply for determining whether a person is connected with a director or member of the company as apply, in accordance with section 73B(5) and (6) below, for determining whether a person is connected with a charity trustee for the purposes of section 73A.]
- ^{F11}(3) Where a company that has made a regulated alteration in accordance with subsection (2) is required—
- (a) by section 26 of the Companies Act 2006 to send to the registrar of companies a copy of its articles as amended,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2009.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Charities Act 1993 (repealed), Part VIII. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) by section 30 of that Act to forward to the registrar a copy of the special resolution effecting the alteration, or
 - (c) by section 31 of that Act to give notice to the registrar of the amendment, the copy or notice must be accompanied by a copy of the Commission's consent.
- (3A) If more than one of those provisions applies and they are complied with at different times, the company need not send a further copy of the Commission's consent if a copy was sent on an earlier occasion.
- (4) Section 30(2) to (4) of that Act (offence of failing to comply with section 30) apply in relation to a failure to comply with subsection (3) above as in relation to a failure to comply with that section.]

[^{F15}68 Requirement to disclose charitable status

- (1) Where a company is a charity and its name does not include the word “charity” or “charitable”, the fact that the company is a charity must be stated in legible characters—
 - (a) in every location, and in every description of document or communication, in which it is required by regulations under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006 to state its registered name, and
 - (b) in all conveyances purporting to be executed by the company.
- (2) Where a company’s name includes the word “elusen” or “elusenol” (the Welsh equivalents of “charity” and “charitable”), subsection (1) does not apply in relation to any document that is wholly in Welsh.
- (3) The statement required by subsection (1) must be in English, except that, in the case of a document that is otherwise wholly in Welsh, the statement may be in Welsh if it consists of or includes the word “elusen” or “elusenol”.
- (4) In subsection (1)(b) “conveyance” means any instrument creating, transferring, varying or extinguishing an interest in land.

68ZA. Civil consequences of failure to make required disclosure

- (1) This section applies to any legal proceedings brought by a company to which section 68 applies to enforce a right arising out of a contract or conveyance in connection with which there was a failure to comply with that section.
- (2) The proceedings shall be dismissed if the defendant to the proceedings shows—
 - (a) that he has a claim against the claimant arising out of the contract or conveyance that he has been unable to pursue by reason of the latter’s failure to comply with section 68, or
 - (b) that he has suffered some financial loss in connection with the contract or conveyance by reason of the claimant’s failure to comply with that section, unless the court before which the proceedings are brought is satisfied that it is just and equitable to permit the proceedings to continue.
- (3) This section does not affect the right of any person to enforce such rights as he may have against another person in any proceedings brought by that person.
