

Railways Act 1993

1993 CHAPTER 43

PART I

THE PROVISION OF RAILWAY SERVICES

Franchising of passenger services

23 Passenger services to be subject to franchise agreements.

- (1) It shall be the duty of the [^{F1}appropriate designating authority] from time to time to designate [^{F2}such services for the carriage of passengers by railway (other than services which are, by virtue of section 24 below, exempt from designation under this subsection) as it considers ought to be provided under franchise agreements.].
- (2) The [^{F1}appropriate designating authority] may perform [^{F3}its] duty under subsection (1) above by designating particular services or services of a class or description.
- [^{F4}(2ZA) Where the Scottish Ministers designate Scotland-only services, they may also designate cross-border services which—
- (a) they consider should be provided under the same franchise agreement as particular Scotland-only services or a particular class of them; and
 - (b) are not exempt from designation under subsection (1) by virtue of section 24.
- (2ZB) Nothing in this section requires the Secretary of State to designate a cross-border service already designated by the Scottish Ministers.
- (2ZC) Before the Secretary of State or the Scottish Ministers designate a cross-border service he or they must consult the other.]
- [^{F5}(2A) A designation may be varied or revoked; but a variation or revocation of the designation of particular services, or services of a class or description, shall not affect any franchise agreement previously entered into with respect to those services or services of that class or description.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2016.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Railways Act 1993, Cross Heading: Franchising of passenger services. (See end of Document for details)

(2B)^{F6}.....]

(3) In this Part—

[^{F7}“the appropriate designating authority”—

- (a) in relation to Scotland-only services, means the Scottish Ministers; and
- (b) in relation to all other services, means the Secretary of State;

“the appropriate franchising authority”—

- (a) in relation to a Scottish franchise agreement, means the Scottish Ministers; and
- (b) in relation to any other franchise agreement, means the Secretary of State;]

“franchise agreement” means an agreement [^{F8}with the Secretary of State, with the Scottish Ministers or with the Secretary of State and the National Assembly for Wales jointly,]under which another party undertakes either—

- (a) to provide, or
- (b) to secure that a wholly owned subsidiary of his provides, throughout the franchise term those services for the carriage of passengers by railway to which the agreement relates;

“franchise operator”, in relation to any franchise agreement, means the person (whether the franchisee or, as the case may be, the wholly owned subsidiary of the franchisee) who is to provide the franchised services;

“franchise period”, in relation to any franchise agreement, means the franchise term, except where the franchise agreement is terminated before the end of that term, in which case it means so much of that term as ends with that termination;

“franchise term”, in relation to any franchise agreement, means the period specified in the franchise agreement as the period throughout which the franchisee is to provide, or secure that a wholly owned subsidiary of his provides, the franchised services, and includes any such extension of that period as is mentioned in section 29(3) below;

“franchised services”, in relation to any franchise agreement, means the services for the carriage of passengers by railway which are to be provided under that franchise agreement;

“franchisee” means—

- (a) in relation to a franchise agreement under which a party undertakes to secure that a wholly owned subsidiary of his provides the franchised services, the party so undertaking; or
- (b) in relation to any other franchise agreement, the person who is to provide the franchised services.

(4) Any reference in this Part to the provision of services under a franchise agreement is a reference to the provision of those services by the franchise operator; and where the franchise operator is, or is to be, a wholly owned subsidiary of the franchisee, any reference to the provision of services by the franchisee under a franchise agreement shall accordingly be construed as a reference to his securing their provision by the franchise operator.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2016.

24 Exemption of passenger services from section 23(1).

- (1) The [F⁹appropriate designating authority] may by order grant exemption from designation under section 23(1) above in respect of such services for the carriage of passengers by railway as may be specified in the order, but subject to compliance with such conditions (if any) as may be so specified.
- (2) A franchise exemption under subsection (1) above may be granted—
- to persons of a particular class or description or to a particular person; and
 - in respect of services generally, services of a particular class or description or a particular service, or in respect of part only of any such services or service;
- and a franchise exemption granted to persons of a particular class or description shall be published in such manner as the [F⁹appropriate designating authority] considers appropriate for bringing it to the attention of persons of that class or description.
- (3) If a person who provides, or who proposes to introduce, services for the carriage of passengers by railway makes an application to the [F⁹appropriate designating authority] under this subsection for the grant of an exemption from designation under section 23(1) above in respect of any such service which he provides or proposes

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2016.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Railways Act 1993, Cross Heading: Franchising of passenger services. (See end of Document for details) to introduce, the [^{F9}appropriate designating authority] , after consultation with [^{F10}the Office of Rail and Road]^{F11} . . . —

- (a) may either grant or refuse the exemption, whether wholly or to such extent as [^{F12}the appropriate designating authority] may specify in the exemption; and
- (b) if and to the extent that [^{F12}the appropriate designating authority] grants it, may do so subject to compliance with such conditions (if any) as [^{F12}the appropriate designating authority] may so specify.

[^{F13}(3A) Before granting a franchise exemption in respect of a cross-border service, the Secretary of State must consult the Scottish Ministers.]

(4) Before granting a franchise exemption under subsection (3) above, the [^{F9}appropriate designating authority] shall give notice—

- (a) stating that [^{F14}it] proposes to grant the franchise exemption,
- (b) stating the reasons why [^{F14}it] proposes to grant the franchise exemption, and
- (c) specifying the time (not being less than 28 days from the date of publication of the notice) within which representations or objections with respect to the proposed franchise exemption may be made, and shall consider any representations or objections which are duly made and not withdrawn.

(5) A notice under subsection (4) above shall be given by publishing the notice in such manner as the [^{F9}appropriate designating authority] considers appropriate for bringing it to the attention of persons likely to be affected by the grant of the franchise exemption.

(6) If any condition (the “broken condition”) of a franchise exemption [^{F15}granted by the appropriate designating authority is not complied with, it] may give to any relevant person a direction declaring that the franchise exemption is revoked, so far as relating to that person, to such extent and as from such date as may be specified in the direction.

(7) For the purposes of subsection (6) above—

“condition”, in relation to a franchise exemption, means any condition subject to compliance with which the franchise exemption was granted;

“relevant person”, in the case of any franchise exemption, means a person who has the benefit of the franchise exemption and who—

- (a) is a person who failed to comply with the broken condition or with respect to whom the broken condition is not complied with; or
- (b) provides any of the services in relation to which the broken condition is not complied with.

(8) Subject to subsection (6) above, a franchise exemption, unless previously revoked in accordance with any term contained in the franchise exemption, shall continue in force for such period as may be specified in, or determined by or under, the franchise exemption.

(9) Any application for a franchise exemption under subsection (3) above must be made in writing; and where any such application is made, the [^{F9}appropriate designating authority] may require the applicant to furnish [^{F16}it] with such information as the [^{F9}appropriate designating authority] may consider necessary to enable [^{F16}it] to decide whether to grant or refuse the franchise exemption.

(10) Any franchise exemption granted under subsection (3) above shall be in writing.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2016.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Railways Act 1993, Cross Heading: Franchising of passenger services. (See end of Document for details)

- (11) Subsections (1) and (3) above apply in relation to the grant of a franchise exemption whether it is to become effective on, or after, the day on which section 23(1) above comes into force.
- (12) Franchise exemptions may make different provision for different cases.
- [^{F17}(12A) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section by the Scottish Ministers is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Scottish Parliament.]
- (13) In this Part, “franchise exemption” means an exemption from designation under section 23(1) above granted under any provision of this section in respect of any service for the carriage of passengers by railway.

26 Invitations to tender for franchises.

- (1) [^{F37}The appropriate franchising authority may select the person who is to be the franchisee in relation to a franchise agreement] from among those who submit tenders in response to an invitation to tender under this section for the right to provide, or to secure that a wholly owned subsidiary provides, services for the carriage of passengers by railway under that franchise agreement.
- (2) The [^{F38}appropriate franchising authority] shall prepare any such invitation to tender and shall issue that invitation to such persons as [^{F39}it] may, after consultation with [^{F40}the Office of Rail and Road], think fit.
- (3) The [^{F38}appropriate franchising authority] shall not issue an invitation to tender under this section to (or entertain such a tender from) any person unless [^{F39}it] is of the opinion that the person has, or is likely by the commencement of the franchise term to have, an appropriate financial position and managerial competence, and is otherwise a suitable person, to be the franchisee.
- [^{F41}(4) [^{F42}.....
- [^{F43}(4A) The Secretary of State and the Scottish Ministers shall each publish a statement of policy about how he proposes, or (as the case may be) they propose, to exercise the power under subsection (1) above.
- (4B) The statement must in particular include the policy of the Secretary of State or the Scottish Ministers about—
 - (a) when his or their selection of the person to be a franchisee under a franchise agreement is likely to be from those submitting tenders in response to an invitation to do so;
 - (b) when it is likely such an invitation will not be issued; and
 - (c) the means by which he is, or they are, proposing that the selection will be made in cases where there is no such invitation.
- (4C) In deciding whether to select the person who is to be the franchisee under a franchise agreement by means of an invitation to tender and whom so to select, the appropriate franchising authority must have regard to its statement of policy.
- (4D) The Secretary of State or Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) may at any time alter or replace the statement of policy which he has made or (as the case may be) which they have made; and
 - (b) where that statement is altered or replaced, must publish the altered or replacement statement.
- (4E) Before preparing, altering or replacing a statement of policy—

27 Transfer of franchise assets and shares.

- (1) It shall be the duty of the [^{F47}appropriate franchising authority] before entering into a franchise agreement to satisfy [^{F48}itself] that if the franchise agreement is entered into—
- the initial franchise assets (if any) for that franchise agreement will be vested in the person who is to be the franchise operator; and
 - if the franchise agreement is to be one under which the franchisee undertakes to secure that a wholly owned subsidiary of his provides the franchised services, that the franchise operator will be a wholly owned subsidiary of the franchisee.
- (2) After a franchise agreement has been entered into, it shall be the duty of the [^{F47}appropriate franchising authority], before any property, rights or liabilities are subsequently designated as franchise assets in accordance with the terms of, or by amendment to, the franchise agreement, to satisfy [^{F48}itself] that, if the property, rights or liabilities in question are so designated, they will be vested in the franchise operator.
- (3) Without the consent of the [^{F47}appropriate franchising authority], the franchise operator shall not—
- if and to the extent that the franchise assets are property or rights—
 - transfer or agree to transfer, or create or agree to create any security over, any franchise assets or any interest in, or right over, any franchise assets; or
 - create or extinguish, or agree to create or extinguish, any interest in, or right over, any franchise assets; and
 - if and to the extent that the franchise assets are liabilities, shall not enter into any agreement under which any such liability is released or discharged, or transferred to some other person.
- (4) Where the franchise agreement is one under which the franchisee undertakes to secure that a wholly owned subsidiary of his provides the franchised services, the franchisee shall not, without the consent of the [^{F47}appropriate franchising authority], take any action which would result in the franchise operator ceasing to be a wholly owned subsidiary of his.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Railways Act 1993, Cross Heading: Franchising of passenger services. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Any transaction which is entered into in contravention of subsection (3) or (4) above shall be void.
- (6) In England and Wales, no execution or other legal process may be commenced or continued, and no distress may be levied [^{F49}and no power to use the procedure in Schedule 12 to the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 may be exercised], against any property which is, or rights which are, franchise assets in the case of any franchise agreement.
- (7) In Scotland, no diligence or other legal process may be carried out or continued against any property which is, or rights which are, franchise assets in the case of any franchise agreement.
- (8) In any case where—
- (a) there are to be initial franchise assets in relation to a franchise agreement,
 - (b) a franchise agreement is to be one which provides for subsequent designation of property, rights or liabilities as franchise assets, or
 - (c) property, rights or liabilities are to be designated as franchise assets by an amendment made to a franchise agreement,
- the [^{F47}appropriate franchising authority] shall ensure that the franchise agreement includes provision specifying, or providing for the determination of, amounts to be paid in respect of the property, rights and liabilities which, immediately before the end of the franchise period, constitute the franchise assets in relation to that franchise agreement if and to the extent that they are transferred by [^{F50}a scheme under [^{F51}section 12 of the Railways Act 2005]] at or after the end of that period.
- (9) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions that may be included in a franchise agreement with respect to the acquisition, provision, disposal or other transfer of property, rights or liabilities (whether franchise assets or not), the [^{F47}appropriate franchising authority] may undertake in a franchise agreement to exercise [^{F52}its] powers under [^{F51}section 12 of the Railways Act 2005] to transfer franchise assets to [^{F52}itself] or another in such circumstances as may be specified in the franchise agreement.
- (10) The [^{F47}appropriate franchising authority] shall ensure that every franchise agreement includes such provision (if any) as [^{F53}it] may consider appropriate in the particular case for the purpose of securing—
- (a) that the franchise assets are adequately maintained, protected and preserved; and
 - (b) that, at the end of the franchise period, possession of such of the franchise assets as may be specified for the purpose in the agreement, or by the Franchising Director in accordance with the agreement, is delivered up to the Franchising Director or such other person as may be so specified.
- (11) In this Part, “franchise assets”, in relation to any franchise agreement, means—
- (a) any property, rights or liabilities which are designated as franchise assets in the franchise agreement as originally made (in this section referred to as the “initial franchise assets”), and
 - (b) any property, rights or liabilities which, after the making of the franchise agreement, are designated as franchise assets in accordance with the terms of, or by an amendment made to, the franchise agreement, but does not include any property, rights or liabilities which, in accordance with the terms of, or by an amendment made to, the franchise agreement, have for the time being ceased to be designated as franchise assets.

(12) No rights or liabilities under contracts of employment shall be designated as franchise assets.

(13) In this section “security” has the meaning given by section 248(b) of the ^{M1}Insolvency Act 1986.

- (3) Every franchise agreement shall include provision requiring the franchise operator—
 - (a) to participate in every approved discount fare scheme,
 - (b) to charge fares, in cases to which such a scheme applies, at rates which are not in excess of the levels or, as the case may be, the maximum levels set by the scheme, and
 - (c) otherwise to comply with the requirements of every such scheme, if and to the extent that the franchised services are services, or services of a class or description, in relation to which the approved discount fare scheme in question applies.
- (4) The discount fare schemes which are to be regarded [^{F57}, in relation to a franchise agreement,] for the purposes of this section as “approved” are those which are from time to time approved for the purposes of this section by the [^{F58}appropriate franchising authority] .
- (5) In this section—
 - “discount fare scheme” means any scheme for enabling persons who are young, elderly or disabled to travel by railway at discounted fares, subject to compliance with such conditions (if any) as may be imposed by or under the scheme;
 - “discounted fare” means a lower fare than the standard fare for the journey in question;
 - “scheme” includes any agreement or arrangements.

- (a) to provide or operate network services, station services or light maintenance services; or
- (b) to store goods or consign them from a place to which they have been carried by rail; and the Scottish Ministers shall have power to provide Scotland-only services and cross-border services.

(3B) In this section “relevant franchising authority” means the person who was the appropriate franchising authority in relation to the franchise agreement that has been terminated or otherwise come to an end.]

[In this section—

^{F74}(3C) “previous franchisee”, in relation to a railway passenger service, means the franchisee in relation to the franchise agreement under which the service was previously provided; and

“Welsh service” has the same meaning as in the Railways Act 2005;

and references in this section to a Passenger Transport Executive and to a service within the area of a Passenger Transport Executive are to be construed as they are to be construed for the purposes of section 13 of that Act.]]

31 Leases granted in pursuance of franchise agreements: no security of tenure.

(1) In any case where—

- (a) a franchise agreement makes provision for the franchisee, the franchise operator or a wholly owned subsidiary of the franchisee to enter into an agreement (“the contemplated agreement”) with a person who has an interest in a network or a railway facility,
- (b) the network or railway facility is to be used for or in connection with the provision of any of the franchised services, and
- (c) the contemplated agreement creates a tenancy of any property which (whether in whole or in part) constitutes, or is comprised in, the network or railway facility, neither Part II of the ^{M2}Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (security of tenure of business premises) nor the ^{M3}Tenancy of Shops (Scotland) Act 1949 (security of tenure of shop premises in Scotland) shall apply to that tenancy.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be regarded as having an interest in a network or railway facility if he has an estate or interest in, or right over, any of the property which constitutes, or is comprised in, the network or railway facility.

(3) Any reference in this section to a network or a railway facility includes a reference to any part of a network or railway facility.
