  - (b) contain a rule to the effect that the weekly rate of the pension will be not less than his guaranteed minimum (if any) under sections 14 to 16.
- (2) In the case of an earner who is a married woman or widow who is liable to pay primary Class 1 contributions at a reduced rate by virtue of section 19(4) of the <sup>M1</sup>Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, subject to the provisions of this Part, the scheme must—

  - (b) satisfy such other conditions as may be prescribed.

Changes to legislation: Pension Schemes Act 1993, Cross Heading: Requirements for certification of occupational pension schemes providing guaranteed minimum pensions is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the scheme may provide for the commencement of the earner’s guaranteed minimum pension to be postponed for any period for which he continues in employment after attaining pensionable age.

  - (b) for any such postponement after the expiration of five years from the date on which he attains pensionable age.
- (6) Equivalent pension benefits for the purposes of the former legislation are not to be regarded as constituting any part of the earner’s guaranteed minimum pension.
- (7) The benefits referred to in subsection (6) are any to which the earner may be immediately or prospectively entitled in respect of a period of employment which—
  - (a) was for him non-participating employment under that legislation; and
  - (b) was not on its termination the subject of any payment in lieu of contributions; but subsection (6) excludes only so much of those benefits as had to be provided in order that the employment should for that period be treated as non-participating.
- (8) In this section “the former legislation” means Part III of the <sup>M2</sup>National Insurance Act 1965 and the previous corresponding enactments.

- (3) In determining the guaranteed minimum in a case where—
  - (a) earnings such as are mentioned in subsection (1) have been paid to a married woman or widow who is liable to pay primary Class 1 contributions at a reduced rate by virtue of section 19(4) of the <sup>M3</sup>Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, and
  - (b) the tax week in which those earnings are paid falls in the tax year 1991-92 or any subsequent tax year, the married woman or widow shall be treated for the purposes of this section as having such earnings factors derived from those earnings as she would have had if primary Class 1 contributions had been payable, and paid, upon them otherwise than at a reduced rate.

- (4) Where the amount of a person's earnings for any period is relevant for any purpose of subsection (1) or (2) and the Secretary of State is satisfied that records of those earnings have not been maintained or retained or are otherwise unobtainable, he may for that purpose—
- (a) compute, in such manner as he thinks fit, an amount which shall be regarded as the amount of those earnings; or
  - (b) take their amount to be such sum as he may specify in the particular case.
- (5) In subsection (2) the “appropriate percentage” means—
- (a) in respect of the earner's earnings factors for any tax year not later than the tax year 1987-88—
    - (i) if the earner was not more than 20 years under pensionable age on 6th April 1978, 1.25 per cent.;
    - (ii) in any other case 25/N per cent.;
  - (b) in respect of the earner's earnings factors for the tax year 1988-89 and for subsequent tax years—
    - (i) if the earner was not more than 20 years under pensionable age on 6th April 1978, 1 per cent.;
    - (ii) in any other case 20/N per cent.;
- where N is the number of years in the earner's working life (assuming he will attain pensionable age) which fall after 5th April 1978.
- (6) Regulations may prescribe rules as to the circumstances in which earnings factors are derived from earnings for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (2) the weekly equivalent of the amount there mentioned shall be calculated by dividing that amount by 52.
- (8) In this section “relevant year” means any tax year in the earner's working life (not being earlier than the tax year 1978-79).

- (3) Where an earner’s guaranteed minimum is increased under subsection (1), the increase of that part of it which is attributable to earnings factors for the tax year 1987-88 and earlier tax years shall be calculated separately from the increase of the rest.
- (4) Where one or more orders have come into force under section 109 during the period for which the commencement of a guaranteed minimum pension is postponed, the amount of the guaranteed minimum for any week in that period shall be determined as if the order or orders had come into force before the beginning of the period.
