

Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993

1993 CHAPTER 8

PART II

MISCELLANEOUS, GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

VALID FROM 31/03/1995

Additional benefits in respect of disregarded earnings

19 Benefits in respect of earnings in excess of pension-capped salary.

- (1) This section applies in any case where—
- (a) a pension or lump sum is payable under Part I above to or in respect of a person to whom that Part applies (the “judicial officer”); and
 - (b) the amount which constitutes the judicial officer’s pensionable pay is less than it would have been, had pension-capped salary fallen to be determined under section 3(3)(b) above, in his case, without the limit imposed by reference to the permitted maximum there mentioned;
- but nothing in this subsection applies in relation to any additional benefits provided under section 10 above.
- (2) Where this section applies, payments by way of pension or lump sum shall be made to or in respect of the judicial officer amounting to the difference between—
- (a) the rate or amount payable in respect of the pension or lump sum referred to in subsection (1) above; and
 - (b) the rate or amount that would have been payable in respect of that pension or lump sum, had pension-capped salary fallen to be determined under section 3(3)(b) above, in his case, without the limit imposed by reference to the permitted maximum there mentioned.
- (3) No contributions shall be payable under or by virtue of section 9 above in respect of the cost of the liability to make payments under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 29/03/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) For the purposes of Chapter I of Part XIV of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 (retirement benefit schemes) this section shall be taken to constitute a statutory scheme, within the meaning of that Chapter,—
- (a) which is separate and distinct from any such scheme constituted by Part I above (or by any other enactment or instrument); and
 - (b) which is not capable of being a relevant statutory scheme, within the meaning of that Chapter.
- (5) The appropriate Minister may by regulations make provision for implementing this section; and any such regulations may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) for or with respect to the calculation of benefits under this section;
 - (b) for or with respect to the time at which and method by which payments under this section are to be made.

General provisions connected with the new schemes

20 Appeals.

- (1) If any person to whom this section applies is aggrieved by any decision taken by the administrators of a relevant pension scheme concerning—
- (a) the interpretation of the rules of the scheme, or
 - (b) the exercise of any discretion under the scheme,
- he shall have a right of appeal to the appropriate Minister against that decision.
- (2) On deciding an appeal under this section, the appropriate Minister may give to the administrators such directions as he considers necessary or expedient for implementing his decision.
- (3) The persons to whom this section applies are the following—
- (a) any person to whom Part I above applies or has applied;
 - (b) the widow or widower, or any surviving dependant, of a person who served in qualifying judicial office but who has died; and
 - (c) where the decision relates to the question—

Status: Point in time view as at 29/03/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) whether a person who claims to be such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) above is such a person, or
 - (ii) whether a person who claims to be entitled to become a person to whom Part I above applies is so entitled,
- the person so claiming.
- (4) Regulations may make provision as to the manner in which, and time within which, appeals under this section are to be brought.
- (5) The administrators shall be entitled to appear and be heard on any appeal under this section.
- (6) In this section—
- “regulations” means regulations made by the appropriate Minister;
 - “relevant pension scheme” means any scheme constituted under or by virtue of Part I or section 19 above for the payment of pensions or other benefits;
 - “rules”, in relation to a relevant pension scheme, means the provisions of Part I and section 19 above and of any regulations or orders made under or by virtue of that Part or that section.

- S. 20 applied (with modifications) (31.3.1995) by 1969 c. 10 (N.I.), Sch.1A para. 4(1) (as inserted (31.3.1995) by 1993 c. 8, s. 25, Sch. IV Pt. V para. 6(6); S.I. 1995/631, art. 2)
- S. 20 extended (with modifications) (16.7.1996) by S.I. 1996/1297 (N.I. 7), art. 4(4), Sch. 1 para. 6(2)(3)(4)
- S. 20 extended (with modifications) (16.7.1996) by S.I. 1996/1298 (N.I. 8), art. 5(4), Sch. 1 para. 6(2)(3)(4)

21 Pensions payable to judicial officers etc. by local authorities in England and Wales.

- (1) This section applies in any case where—
- (a) an order under section 1(8) above amends Schedule 1 to this Act by the addition of any office (“the office”) to those for the time being specified in that Schedule; and
 - (b) immediately before the coming into force of the order, a local authority was under a liability to defray, whether in whole or in part, pensions or other benefits payable in respect of service in the office.
- (2) Where this section applies, the appropriate Minister may by order made with the consent of the Treasury—
- (a) provide for the local authority to be discharged, to such extent as may be prescribed, from the liability to pay pensions or other benefits in respect of such service in the office as may be prescribed; and

Status: Point in time view as at 29/03/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) require the local authority instead to make prescribed payments to the Treasury.
- (3) In framing the provisions of an order under subsection (2) above, regard shall be had to the desirability of securing so far as reasonably practicable—
- (a) that the payments required to be made by the local authority are such as to reimburse the Treasury in respect of so much of—
- (i) any pension or lump sum payable under Part I above, or
- (ii) any sums payable by way of pension or lump sum under section 19 above,
- to or in respect of any person to whom Part I above applies as may reasonably be regarded as attributable to his service in the office; and
- (b) that the local authority is discharged, to a corresponding extent, from the liability to pay any pension or other benefit to or in respect of such a person in respect of his service in the office.
- (4) In this section—
- “local authority” means any county council, district council, London Borough Council or the Common Council of the City of London;
- “prescribed” means specified in, or determined in accordance with, an order under subsection (2) above.
- (5) Nothing in this section applies in relation to any pension or other benefits payable under or by virtue of section 10 above.
- (6) This section is without prejudice to the generality of section 29 below.

22 Application of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971.

- (1) In the ^{M1}Pensions (Increase) Act 1971, in Schedule 2 (which specifies the pensions and other benefits which fall to be increased under or by virtue of that Act) after paragraph 4 (and beneath the heading relating to the administration of justice) there shall be inserted—
- “4A A pension payable under Part I or section 19 of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, other than a pension payable under or by virtue of section 10 of that Act.”
- (2) The pensions in relation to which the ^{M2}Pensions (Increase) Act 1971 extends to Northern Ireland shall include pensions payable under Part I or section 19 above, other than pensions payable under or by virtue of section 10 above; and, accordingly, in section 19(2)(a) of that Act, after the words “Pension Fund” there shall be inserted the words “ or payable under Part I or section 19 of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (otherwise than under or by virtue of section 10 of that Act) ”.
- (3) In subsection (2) above, “pensions” has the same meaning as it has in the Pensions ^{M3}(Increase) Act 1971.

VALID FROM 31/03/1995

Retirement date for certain judicial officers etc

26 Retirement date for holders of certain judicial offices etc.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, a person holding any of the offices for the time being specified in Schedule 5 to this Act (a “relevant office”) shall vacate that office on the day on which he attains the age of 70 or such lower age as may for the time being be specified for the purpose in the enactments and instruments relating to that office, whenever passed or made.
- (2) Any reference in this section to a person’s holding an office includes a reference to his being a member of, or otherwise included in, any panel or list of persons appointed, nominated, approved or otherwise selected to serve from time to time in that office (whether or not the panel or list is required by or under any enactment); and any reference in this section or Schedule 5 to this Act to any particular office or to an office of any class or description, or to a person’s appointment to, or vacation of, an office, shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) Subject to the transitional provision referred to in subsection (11) below, subsection (1) above applies whether the person was appointed to the office before or after the coming into force of this section; but nothing in this Act, or in any amendment made by it, shall be taken—
 - (a) to preclude a person from vacating his office before the compulsory retirement date for that office in his case; or
 - (b) to prevent a person’s appointment to an office coming to an end before that date, in accordance with the terms on which he was appointed.

Status: Point in time view as at 29/03/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Subsections (5) and (6) below apply in relation to any holder (whenever appointed) of a relevant office for which the compulsory retirement date in his case falls on or after the day on which he attains the age of 70, except—
- (a) Lord of Appeal in Ordinary;
 - (b) judge of the Supreme Court of England and Wales;
 - (c) Lord President of the Court of Session, Lord Justice Clerk or other judge of the Court of Session;
 - (d) Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland or Lord Justice of Appeal, or judge of the High Court, in Northern Ireland.
- (5) If, in a case where this subsection applies, the appropriate Minister considers it desirable in the public interest that the holder of a relevant office should continue in that office after his compulsory retirement date, he may authorise the person to continue in office, either generally or for such purpose as he may notify to the person, for a period not exceeding one year and not extending beyond the day on which the person attains the age of 75.
- (6) If, on the expiration of the period for which a person is authorised to continue in office—
- (a) by virtue of subsection (5) above, or
 - (b) by any previous exercise of the power conferred by this subsection,
- the appropriate Minister considers it desirable in the public interest to retain the person in office for a further period, he may authorise him to continue in office, either generally or for such purpose as he may notify to the person, for a further period not exceeding one year and not extending beyond the day on which the person attains the age of 75.
- (7) After the day on which a person attains the age of 75, he shall not hold any relevant office nor shall he—
- (a) be a member of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, unless he is the Lord Chancellor;
 - (b) participate in the hearing and determination of any appeal, or any petition for leave to appeal, to the House of Lords, unless he is the Lord Chancellor;
 - (c) act as a judge under or by virtue of section 9(1) of the ^{M4}Supreme Court Act 1981;
 - (d) hold office as a deputy Circuit judge, within the meaning of section 24 of the ^{M5}Courts Act 1971;
 - (e) sit and act as a judge under or by virtue of section 7 of the ^{M6}Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978;
 - (f) act as a deputy, or as a temporary additional officer, under subsection (1) of section 91 of the ^{M7}Supreme Court Act 1981 by virtue of subsection (3) of that section (persons who would otherwise be disqualified by age);
 - (g) hold office as a deputy district judge in any district registry under subsection (1) of section 102 of that Act by virtue of subsection (3) of that section (persons who would otherwise be disqualified by age) or, in the case of a person who has previously held the office of district judge for a county court district, as a deputy district judge under section 8 of the ^{M8}County Courts Act 1984;
 - (h) hold any office—

- (i) to which appointments are made by or under any Act or statutory instrument;
 - (ii) for which there would, apart from this paragraph, be no compulsory retirement date; and
 - (iii) for appointment to which only persons who have held relevant office are eligible;
- and this subsection applies whether or not the person was invited to act as a judge, or was appointed to the office in question, or to some other office by virtue of which he would (apart from this subsection) hold the office in question, before the appointed day.
- (8) After the day on which a person attains the age of 70, he shall not be appointed or re-appointed as—
- (a) one of the additional members, referred to in subsection (5) of section 9 of the ^{M9}Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949, of the appeal tribunal established under that section;
 - (b) the person, or one of the persons, constituting a tribunal for the purposes of section 150(3) of the ^{M10}Mines and Quarries Act 1954, or as an assessor assisting such a tribunal;
 - (c) an assessor assisting with an inquiry under section 52 of the ^{M11}Merchant Shipping Act 1970;
 - (d) chairman of a vaccine damage tribunal in Northern Ireland constituted under regulation 7 of the ^{M12}Vaccine Damage Payments Regulations 1979;
 - (e) chairman of a tribunal constituted under section 47 of the ^{M13}Building Societies Act 1986;
 - (f) chairman of a tribunal constituted under section 28 of the ^{M14}Banking Act 1987;
 - (g) an arbitrator, or (in Scotland) an arbiter, under paragraph 9(2) of Schedule 10 to the ^{M15}Electricity Act 1989;
 - (h) chairman of a tribunal constituted under Schedule 3 to the ^{M16}Education (Schools) Act 1992;
 - (j) chairman of a tribunal constituted under section 59 of the ^{M17}Friendly Societies Act 1992.
- (9) The appropriate Minister may by order—
- (a) amend Schedule 5 to this Act by adding offices to those for the time being specified in that Schedule; or
 - (b) amend subsection (8) above by adding offices to those for the time being specified in that subsection.
- (10) As from the appointed day, the enactments and instruments mentioned in Schedule 6 to this Act shall have effect with the amendments specified in that Schedule; but those amendments are subject to section 27 below and Schedule 7 to this Act.
- (11) Schedule 7 to this Act shall have effect for the purpose of making transitional provision in relation to persons holding relevant offices immediately before the appointed day; and—
- (a) subsections (1) and (3) above are subject to the provisions of that Schedule; and
 - (b) any reference in this section to the compulsory retirement date for an office shall be construed in accordance with those provisions.

Status: Point in time view as at 29/03/1993. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, Part II. (See end of Document for details)

(12) In this section—

“the appointed day” means the day appointed under section 31 below for the coming into force of this section;

“the compulsory retirement date” for an office means the day on which a holder of that office is or, apart from any continuation power, would be required by any enactment or statutory instrument to vacate that office, being either—

- (a) the day on which he attains a particular age; or
- (b) a day falling to be determined by reference to his attaining a particular age;

“continuation power” means a power conferred by an enactment or statutory instrument on a Minister of the Crown to authorise the holder of an office to continue in that office until a later day than that on which, apart from any exercise of the power, he would be required by any enactment or statutory instrument to vacate that office; and any reference to vacating an office includes a reference to retiring from it.

anything in subsection (1) above, any remuneration that may be paid in respect of service of his in that office by virtue of that subsection shall be remuneration by payment of fees (and not a salary) and accordingly that service shall not be regarded as service in qualifying judicial office.

- (3) The offices to which this section applies are—
- (a) any relevant office, within the meaning of section 26 above;
 - (b) any office falling within any of the paragraphs of subsection (7) of that section;
 - (c) Queen’s Coroner and Attorney and Master of the Crown Office and Registrar of Criminal Appeals;
 - (d) Vice Judge Advocate General;
 - (e) Assistant Judge Advocate General;
 - (f) Deputy Judge Advocate;
 - (g) Chairman of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Board.
- (4) If and to the extent that any prohibition imposed by subsection (7) of section 26 above would not, apart from this subsection, be regarded as a prohibition on the holding of an office, it shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if it were such a prohibition, and references in this section to office, or to vacating or otherwise ceasing to hold office, shall be construed accordingly.

Miscellaneous and supplementary provisions
