

Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993

1993 CHAPTER 9

PART II

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Evidence

VALID FROM 01/10/1993

28 Prints, samples etc. in criminal investigations.

- (1) This section applies where a person has been arrested and is in custody, or is detained under section 2(1) of the ^{M1}Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 1980 (detention and questioning).
- (2) A constable may take from the person fingerprints, palmprints and such other prints and impressions of an external part of the body as the constable may, having regard to the circumstances of the suspected offence in respect of which the person has been arrested or detained, reasonably consider it appropriate to take.
- (3) All record of any prints or impressions taken under subsection (2) above shall be destroyed immediately following a decision not to institute criminal proceedings against the person or on the conclusion of such proceedings otherwise than with a conviction or an order under section 383 (absolute discharge) or 384(1) (probation) of the 1975 Act.
- (4) A constable may, with the authority of an officer of a rank no lower than inspector, take from the person—
 - (a) from the hair of an external part of the body, by means of cutting or combing, a sample of hair or other material;

Status: Point in time view as at 18/08/1993. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (b) from a fingernail or toenail or from under any such nail, a sample of nail or other material;
 - (c) from an external part of the body, by means of swabbing or rubbing, a sample of blood or other body fluid, of body tissue or of other material.
- (5) A constable may use reasonable force in exercising any power conferred by subsection (2) or (4) above.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall prejudice—
- (a) any power of search;
 - (b) any power to take possession of evidence where there is imminent danger of its being lost or destroyed; or
 - (c) any power to take prints, impressions or samples under the authority of a warrant.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

[^{F1}28A Prints, samples etc. in criminal investigations: supplementary provisions.

- (1) This section applies where a person convicted of an offence—
- (a) has not, since the conviction, had a sample, print or impression taken from him; or
 - (b) has (whether before or after the conviction) had a sample, print or impression taken from him but it was not suitable for the means of analysis for which it was taken or, though suitable, was insufficient (either in quantity or in quality) to enable information to be obtained by that means of analysis.
- (2) Where this section applies, a constable may, within the permitted period—
- (a) take from the convicted person fingerprints, palmprints and such other prints and impressions of an external part of the body as the constable reasonably considers it appropriate to take; and
 - (b) with the authority of an officer of a rank no lower than inspector, take from the person any sample mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (4) of section 28 of this Act by the means specified in that paragraph in relation to that sample.
- (3) A constable—
- (a) may require the convicted person to attend a police station for the purposes of subsection (2) above;
 - (b) may, where the convicted person is in legal custody within the meaning of the 1975 Act, exercise the powers conferred by subsection (2) above in relation to the person in the place where he is for the time being.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/08/1993. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (4) In subsection (2) above, “the permitted period” means—
- (a) in a case to which paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above applies, the period of one month beginning with the date of the conviction;
 - (b) in a case to which paragraph (b) of that subsection applies, the period of one month beginning with the date on which a constable of the police force which instructed the analysis receives written intimation that the sample, print or impression was unsuitable or, as the case may be, insufficient as mentioned in that paragraph.
- (5) A requirement under subsection (3)(a) above—
- (a) shall give the person at least seven days’ notice of the date on which he is required to attend;
 - (b) may direct him to attend at a specified time of day or between specified times of day.
- (6) Any constable may arrest without warrant a person who fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (3)(a) above.]
