

Chiropractors Act 1994

1994 CHAPTER 17

The General Council and its committees

1 The General Chiropractic Council and its committees.

- (1) There shall be a body corporate to be known as the General Chiropractic Council (referred to in this Act as “the General Council”).
- (2) It shall be the duty of the General Council to develop, promote and regulate the profession of chiropractic.
- (3) The General Council shall have such other functions as are conferred on it by this Act.
- (4) Part I of Schedule 1 shall have effect with respect to the constitution of the General Council.
- (5) There shall be four committees of the General Council, to be known as—
 - (a) the Education Committee;
 - (b) the Investigating Committee;
 - (c) the Professional Conduct Committee; and
 - (d) the Health Committee.
- (6) The four committees are referred to in this Act as “the statutory committees”.
- (7) Each of the statutory committees shall have the functions conferred on it by or under this Act.
- (8) The General Council may establish such other committees as it considers appropriate in connection with the discharge of its functions.
- (9) Part II of Schedule 1 shall have effect with respect to the statutory committees.
- (10) At the request of the General Council, Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision with respect to the matters dealt with by Schedule 1 as Her Majesty considers appropriate in consultation with the General Council.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/06/1999. This version of this provision has been superseded.
