SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 22

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS AS TO ELECTIONS BY REFERENCE TO PIPE-LINE USAGE

PART I

PROCEDURE FOR AND IN CONNECTION WITH AN ELECTION

The election

- 1 (1) An election shall be made by serving it on the Board, shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Board and shall contain such information as the Board may reasonably require with respect to—
  - (a) the oil field to which the election is to apply, the pipe-line by reference to which the election is being made and whether the election is to be limited in accordance with subsection (6) of section 231 of this Act;
  - (b) all other assets which, if the election were to be accepted, would at the date of the election be assets to which the election applies;
  - (c) the electing participator's interest in those assets;
  - (d) the sums to which, if the election is accepted, it is reasonable to expect that section 233 of this Act will apply and the sources, quantities and descriptions of oil which will give rise to those sums;
  - (e) any other oil field (whether taxable or non-taxable) in connection with which any of the assets referred to in paragraph (b) above is or is expected to be used or in respect of which services or other business facilities in connection with that use are or are expected to be provided; and
  - (f) the initial usage fraction and the amounts which make up the numerator and the denominator of that fraction.
- (2) The reference in sub-paragraph (1)(e) above to an oil field includes a reference to any area which the electing participator expects might be determined as an oil field under Schedule 1 to the principal Act.
- (3) An election shall include a declaration that it is correct and complete to the best of the knowledge and belief of the electing participator.
- (4) An election shall be irrevocable.

Conditions for acceptance of an election

- 2 (1) The Board shall reject an election if they are not satisfied—
  - (a) that the conditions relating to the pipe-line in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (1) or in subsection (3) of section 231 of this Act are fulfilled; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1994, Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 09 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) that the conditions relating to the oil field or the participator in subsection (2) of that section are fulfilled; or
  - (c) that, if the election were to be accepted, the assets to which the election would apply (having regard to any limitation under subsection (6) of that section) have the capacity and characteristics, and are otherwise suitable, to handle the quantities and descriptions of oil specified in accordance with paragraph 1(1)(d) above.
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, the Board shall also reject an election if it appears to them—
- (a) that any of the information required to be contained in the election by virtue of paragraph 1(1) above is incorrect; or
  - (b) that, after receiving notice in writing from the Board, the electing participator has failed to furnish to the Board on or before the specified date any information which the Board have reasonably required either with respect to the matters specified in paragraph 1(1) above or for the purpose of satisfying themselves as to the matters referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above.
- (3) Before rejecting an election under sub-paragraph (2)(a) above the Board may, if they think fit, by notice in writing give the electing participator an opportunity to correct any error in the information and, if he does so, the information shall then be treated as having been provided in the correct form.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (2)(b) above “the specified date” means such date as may be specified in the notice concerned, being a date not earlier than one month after the date on which the notice was given.
- (5) A notice under sub-paragraph (2)(b) above shall be given within the period of three months beginning on the date on which the election was received by the Board.

Notice of acceptance or rejection

- 3 (1) Notice of the acceptance or rejection of an election shall be served on the electing participator before the expiry of the period of three months beginning on whichever of the following dates is the later or latest—
- (a) the date on which the election was received by the Board;
  - (b) if a notice was given under paragraph 2(2)(b) above relating to the election, the date or, as the case may be, the last date which is the specified date, as defined in paragraph 2(4) above, in relation to such a notice;
  - (c) if a notice was given under paragraph 2(3) above relating to the election, the date on which that notice was given.
- (2) If no such notice of acceptance or rejection is so served, the Board shall be deemed to have accepted the election and to have served notice of their acceptance on the last day of the period referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above.

Appeals

- 4 (1) Where the Board serve notice on an electing participator under paragraph 3 above rejecting an election, he may appeal <sup>F1</sup>... against the notice.
- (2) An appeal under sub-paragraph (1) above shall be made by notice of appeal served on the Board within thirty days beginning on the date of the notice in respect of which the appeal is brought.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2009.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 1994, Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 09 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where, at any time after the service of notice of appeal under this paragraph and before the determination of the appeal by the [<sup>F2</sup>tribunal], the Board and the appellant agree that the notice in respect of which the appeal is brought should stand or that the election to which it related should be accepted with or without modification, the same consequences shall ensue as if the [<sup>F2</sup>tribunal] had determined the appeal to that effect.
- (4) On the hearing of an appeal under this paragraph, the [<sup>F3</sup>tribunal] shall either dismiss the appeal or allow it; and if the [<sup>F4</sup>tribunal allows] the appeal, [<sup>F5</sup>the tribunal shall] direct either—
- (a) that the election shall be accepted; or
  - (b) that the election shall have effect subject to such modifications as may be specified in the direction and shall be accepted in its modified form.
- [<sup>F6</sup>(5) In an appeal under sub-paragraph (1)—
- (a) paragraphs 14(2), (8) and (11) and 14A to 14I of Schedule 2 to the principal Act shall apply as they apply in relation to an appeal against an assessment or determination made under that Act subject to any necessary modifications including the following;
  - (b) any reference in those paragraphs to an agreement under paragraph 14(9) shall be construed as a reference to an agreement under sub-paragraph (3) above.]
- (6) Any reference in this Chapter to an election accepted by the Board shall be construed as including a reference to an election accepted in pursuance of an appeal under this paragraph.
