

Children (Scotland) Act 1995

1995 CHAPTER 36

PART III

ADOPTION

94 Approval of adoption society for specific services.

(1) In section 3 of the 1978 Act (approval of adoption societies)—

(a) for subsections (1) and (2) substitute—

“(1) Subject to any regulations made under section 9(1), a body which is a voluntary organisation may apply to the Secretary of State for his approval to its acting, or as the case may be continuing to act, as an adoption society, whether functioning generally or in relation to some service maintained, or to be maintained, as part of the Scottish Adoption Service and specified in the application (the service so specified being in this section and in section 4 referred to as the body’s “specified service”).

(1A) Application under subsection (1) shall be in such manner as may be specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State under this section.

(2) In considering an application under subsection (1), the Secretary of State shall take into account the matters relating to the applicant specified in subsections (3) to (5) and any other matters which appear to him to be relevant; and if, but only if, he is satisfied that, as the case may be, the applicant is likely to make, or is making, an effective contribution to the Scottish Adoption Service or to the applicant’s specified service, he shall by notice to the applicant give the approval sought.

(2A) Approval under subsection (2) shall operate from such date as may be specified in the notice or, in the case of a renewal of approval, from the date of the notice.”;

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

95 Welfare of child paramount consideration.

For section 6 of the 1978 Act substitute—

“6 Duty to promote welfare of child.

- (1) Without prejudice to sections 12(8) and 18(8), in reaching any decision relating to the adoption of a child, a court or adoption agency shall have regard to all the circumstances but—
- (a) shall regard the need to safeguard and promote the welfare of the child concerned throughout his life as the paramount consideration; and
 - (b) shall have regard so far as practicable—
 - (i) to his views (if he wishes to express them) taking account of his age and maturity; and
 - (ii) to his religious persuasion, racial origin and cultural and linguistic background.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), a child twelve years of age or more shall be of sufficient age and maturity to form a view for the purposes of that paragraph.”

96 Duty of adoption agency to consider alternatives to adoption.

After section 6 of the 1978 Act there shall be inserted—

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

“6A Duty to consider alternatives to adoption.

In complying with its duties under section 6 of this Act, an adoption agency shall, before making any arrangements for the adoption of a child, consider whether adoption is likely best to meet the needs of that child or whether for him there is some better, practicable, alternative; and if it concludes that there is such an alternative it shall not proceed to make those arrangements.”.

97 Adoption by person married to natural parent.

(1) In section 12 of the 1978 Act (making of adoption orders)—

- (a) in subsection (3), at the beginning, insert “ Subject to subsection (3A) ”; and
- (b) after subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) Where the adoption order is made by virtue of section 15(1)(aa), its making shall not operate to extinguish the parental responsibilities and parental rights which immediately before the making of the order were vested in the natural parent to whom the adopter is married.”.

(2) In section 15(1) of that Act (adoption by one person)—

- (a) after paragraph (a) insert—
 - “(aa) not being a person who may make application by virtue of paragraph (b) below, is married to a person—
 - (i) who is the natural parent of the child concerned; and
 - (ii) in whom are vested parental responsibilities and parental rights in relation to the child,”; and
- (b) in paragraph (b), at the beginning insert—

“not being a person who may make application by virtue of paragraph (aa) above,”.

(3) In section 39 of that Act (status conferred by adoption), for subsection (1) substitute—

- “(1) A child who is the subject of an adoption order shall be treated in law—
 - (a) where the adopters are a married couple, as if—
 - (i) he had been born as a legitimate child of the marriage (whether or not he was in fact born after the marriage was constituted); and
 - (ii) he were not the child of any person other than the adopters;
 - (b) where the adoption order is made by virtue of section 15(1)(aa) as if—
 - (i) he had been born as a legitimate child of the marriage between the adopter and the natural parent to whom the adopter is married (whether or not he was in fact born after the marriage was constituted); and
 - (ii) he were not the child of any person other than the adopter and that natural parent; and
 - (c) in any other case, as if—
 - (i) he had been born as a legitimate child of the adopter; and
 - (ii) he were not the child of any person other than the adopter.”.
