

Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995

1995 CHAPTER 46

PART III

BAIL

[^{F1}22A Consideration of bail on first appearance

(1) On the first occasion on which—

- (a) a person accused on petition is brought before the sheriff prior to committal until liberated in due course of law; or
- (b) a person charged on complaint with an offence is brought before a judge having jurisdiction to try the offence, the sheriff or, as the case may be, the judge shall, after giving that person and the prosecutor an opportunity to be heard ^{F2}. . . , either admit or refuse to admit that person to bail.

[^{F3}(2) Admittance to or refusal of bail shall be determined before the end of the day (not being a Saturday or Sunday, or a court holiday prescribed for the court which is to determine the question of bail, unless that court is sitting on that day for the disposal of criminal business) after the day on which the person accused or charged is brought before the sheriff or judge.]

(3) If, by [^{F4}that time] , the sheriff or judge has not admitted or refused to admit the person accused or charged to bail, then that person shall be forthwith liberated.

(4) This section applies whether or not the person accused or charged is in custody when that person is brought before the sheriff or judge.]

[^{F12}23B Entitlement to bail and the court's function

- (1) Bail is to be granted to an accused person—
 - (a) except where—
 - (i) by reference to section 23C of this Act; and
 - (ii) having regard to the public interest, there is good reason for refusing bail;
 - (b) subject to section 23D of this Act.
- (2) In determining a question of bail in accordance with subsection (1) above, the court is to consider the extent to which the public interest could, if bail were granted, be safeguarded by the imposition of bail conditions.
- (3) Reference in subsections (1)(a)(ii) and (2) above to the public interest includes (without prejudice to the generality of the public interest) reference to the interests of public safety.
- (4) The court must (without prejudice to any other right of the parties to be heard) give the prosecutor and the accused person an opportunity to make submissions in relation to a question of bail.
- (5) The attitude of the prosecutor towards a question of bail (including as to bail conditions) does not restrict the court's exercise of its discretion in determining the question in accordance with subsection (1) above.
- (6) For the purpose of so determining a question of bail (including as to bail conditions), the court may request the prosecutor or the accused person's solicitor or counsel to provide it with information relevant to the question.

23C Grounds relevant as to question of bail

- (1) In any proceedings in which a person is accused of an offence, the following are grounds on which it may be determined that there is good reason for refusing bail—
- (a) any substantial risk that the person might if granted bail—
 - (i) abscond; or
 - (ii) fail to appear at a diet of the court as required;
 - (b) any substantial risk of the person committing further offences if granted bail;
 - (c) any substantial risk that the person might if granted bail—
 - (i) interfere with witnesses; or
 - (ii) otherwise obstruct the course of justice, in relation to himself or any other person;
 - (d) any other substantial factor which appears to the court to justify keeping the person in custody.
- (2) In assessing the grounds specified in subsection (1) above, the court must have regard to all material considerations including (in so far as relevant in the circumstances of the case) the following examples—
- (a) the—
 - (i) nature (including level of seriousness) of the offences before the court;
 - (ii) probable disposal of the case if the person were convicted of the offences;
 - (b) whether the person was subject to a bail order when the offences are alleged to have been committed;
 - (c) whether the offences before the court are alleged to have been committed—
 - (i) while the person was subject to another court order;
 - (ii) while the person was on release on licence or parole;
 - (iii) during a period for which sentence of the person was deferred;
 - (d) the character and antecedents of the person, in particular—
 - (i) the nature of any previous convictions of the person (including convictions [^{F13}by courts outside the European Union]);
 - (ii) whether the person has previously contravened a bail order or other court order (by committing an offence or otherwise);
 - (iii) whether the person has previously breached the terms of any release on licence or parole (by committing an offence or otherwise);
 - (iv) whether the person is serving or recently has served a sentence of imprisonment in connection with a matter referred to in subparagraphs (i) to (iii) above;

23D Restriction on bail in certain solemn cases

- (1) Where subsection (2) or (3) below applies, a person is to be granted bail in solemn proceedings only if there are exceptional circumstances justifying bail.
- (2) This subsection applies where the person—
- is accused in the proceedings of a violent or sexual offence; and
 - has a previous conviction on indictment for a violent or sexual offence.
- (3) This subsection applies where the person—
- is accused in the proceedings of a drug trafficking offence; and
 - has a previous conviction on indictment for a drug trafficking offence.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- “drug trafficking offence” has the meaning given by section 49(5) of the Proceeds of Crime (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 43);
- “sexual offence” has the meaning given by section 210A(10) and (11) of this Act;
- “violent offence” means any offence (other than a sexual offence) inferring personal violence.
- (5) Any reference in this section to a conviction on indictment for a violent or sexual offence or a drug trafficking offence includes—
- a conviction on indictment in England and Wales or Northern Ireland for an equivalent offence;
 - a conviction in a member State of the European Union (other than the United Kingdom) which is equivalent to conviction on indictment for an equivalent offence.
- (6) Any issue of equivalence arising in pursuance of subsection (5) above is for the court to determine.
- (7) This section is without prejudice to section 23C of this Act.]

24 Bail and bail conditions.

- (1) All crimes and offences ^{F14} . . . are bailable.
- (2) Nothing in this Act shall affect the right of the Lord Advocate or the High Court to admit to bail any person charged with any crime or offence.

^{F15}(2A) Whenever the court grants or refuses bail, it shall state its reasons.

(2B) Where the court—

- (a) grants bail to a person accused of a sexual offence (having the meaning given by section 210A(10) and (11) of this Act); and
- (b) does so without imposing on the accused further conditions under subsection (4)(b)(i) below, the court shall also state why it considers in the circumstances of the case that such conditions are unnecessary.]

- (3) It shall not be lawful to grant bail or release for a pledge or deposit of money, and—
 - (a) release on bail may be granted only on conditions which subject to subsection (6) below, shall not include a pledge or deposit of money;
 - (b) liberation may be granted by the police under section 21, 22 or 43 of this Act.
- (4) In granting bail the court or, as the case may be, the Lord Advocate shall impose on the accused—
 - (a) the standard conditions; and
 - (b) such further conditions as the court or, as the case may be, the Lord Advocate considers necessary to secure—
 - (i) that the standard conditions are observed; and
 - (ii) that the accused makes himself available for the purpose of participating in an identification parade ^{F16} or other identification procedure] or of enabling any print, impression or sample to be taken from him.

(5) The standard conditions referred to in subsection (4) above are conditions that the accused—

- (a) appears at the appointed time at every diet relating to the offence with which he is charged of which he is given due notice; ^{F17} or at which he is required by this Act to appear]
- (b) does not commit an offence while on bail;
- (c) does not interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice whether in relation to himself or any other person; ^{F18} . . .

^{F19}(ca) does not behave in a manner which causes, or is likely to cause, alarm or distress to witnesses;]

- (d) makes himself available for the purpose of enabling enquiries or a report to be made to assist the court in dealing with him for the offence with which he is charged ^{F20}; and
- (e) where the (or an) offence in respect of which he is admitted to bail is one to which section 288C of this Act applies, does not seek to obtain, otherwise than by way of a solicitor, any precognition of or statement by the complainer in relation to the subject matter of the offence.]

(6) The court or, as the case may be, the Lord Advocate may impose as one of the conditions of release on bail a requirement that the accused or a cautioner on his behalf deposits a sum of money in court, but only where the court or, as the case may be, the Lord Advocate is satisfied that the imposition of such condition is appropriate to the special circumstances of the case.

[^{F21}(6A) Subsection (6) above does not apply in relation to an accused admitted to bail under section 65(8C) of this Act.]

(7) In any enactment, including this Act and any enactment passed after this Act—

- (a) any reference to bail shall be construed as a reference to release on conditions in accordance with this Act or to conditions imposed on bail, as the context requires;
- (b) any reference to an amount of bail fixed shall be construed as a reference to conditions, including a sum required to be deposited under subsection (6) above;
- (c) any reference to finding bail or finding sufficient bail shall be construed as a reference to acceptance of conditions imposed or the finding of a sum required to be deposited under subsection (6) above.

[^{F22}(7A) In subsection (5)(e) above, “complainer” has the same meaning as in section 274 of this Act.]

(8) In this section and sections 25 and 27 to 29 of this Act, references to an accused and to appearance at a diet shall include references respectively to an appellant and to appearance at the court on the day fixed for the hearing of an appeal.

 - (b) the court shall, before determining the application, give the prosecutor an opportunity to be heard.]
- [^{F33}(2B) Where the domicile of citation specified in an order granting bail ceases to be the accused's normal place of residence, the accused must make an application under subsection (2) above within 7 days of that happening.
- (2C) A person who without reasonable excuse contravenes subsection (2B) above is guilty of an offence and is liable—
- (a) on conviction in the JP court, to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 60 days or to both;
 - (b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months or to both.]
- (3) In this section “proper domicile of citation” means the address at which the accused may be cited to appear at any diet relating to the offence with which he is charged or an offence charged in the same proceedings as that offence or to which any other intimation or document may be sent; and any citation at or the sending of an intimation or document to the proper domicile of citation shall be presumed to have been duly carried out.
- [^{F34}(4) In this section, references to the court (other than in subsection (2A)) shall, in relation to a person who has been admitted to bail by the Lord Advocate, be read as if they were references to the Lord Advocate.]

Textual Amendments

F36 S. 26 repealed (9.8.2000) by 2000 asp 9, s. 3(2)

27 Breach of bail conditions: offences.

(1) Subject to subsection (7) below, an accused who having been granted bail fails without reasonable excuse—

- (a) to appear at the time and place appointed for any diet of which he has been given due notice [^{F37}or at which he is required by this Act to appear] ; or
- (b) to comply with any other condition imposed on bail, shall, subject to subsection (3) below, be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to the penalties specified in subsection (2) below.

(2) The penalties mentioned in subsection (1) above are—

- (a) a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; and
- (b) imprisonment for a period—
 - (i) where conviction is in the [^{F38}JP court] , not exceeding 60 days; or
 - (ii) in any other case, not exceeding [^{F39}12] months.

Status: Point in time view as at 13/12/2010.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995, PART III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where, and to the extent that, the failure referred to in subsection (1)(b) above consists in the accused having committed an offence while on bail (in this section referred to as “the subsequent offence”), he shall not be guilty of an offence under that subsection but, subject to subsection (4) below, the court which sentences him for the subsequent offence shall, in determining the appropriate sentence or disposal for that offence, have regard to—
- (a) the fact that the offence was committed by him while on bail and the number of bail orders to which he was subject when the offence was committed;
 - (b) any previous conviction of the accused of an offence under subsection (1)(b) above; and
 - (c) the extent to which the sentence or disposal in respect of any previous conviction of the accused differed, by virtue of this subsection, from that which the court would have imposed but for this subsection.
- [^{F40}(3A) The reference in subsection (3)(b) to any previous conviction of an offence under subsection (1)(b) includes any previous conviction by a court in England and Wales, Northern Ireland or a member State of the European Union other than the United Kingdom of an offence that is equivalent to an offence under subsection (1)(b).
- (3B) The references in subsection (3)(c) to subsection (3) are to be read, in relation to a previous conviction by a court referred to in subsection (3A), as references to any provision that is equivalent to subsection (3).
- (3C) Any issue of equivalence arising in pursuance of subsection (3A) or (3B) is for the court to determine.]
- (4) The court shall not, under subsection (3) above, have regard to the fact that the subsequent offence was committed while the accused was on bail unless that fact is libelled in the indictment or, as the case may be, specified in the complaint.
- [^{F41}(4A) The fact that the subsequent offence was committed while the accused was on bail shall, unless challenged—
- (a) in the case of proceedings on indictment, by giving notice of a preliminary objection [^{F42}in accordance with section 71(2) or 72(6)(b)(i)] of this Act; or
 - (b) in summary proceedings, by preliminary objection before his plea is recorded, be held as admitted.]

[^{F43}(4B) In any proceedings in relation to an offence under subsection (1) above or subsection 7 below, the fact that (as the case may be) an accused—

 - (a) was on bail;
 - (b) was subject to any particular condition of bail;
 - (c) failed to appear at a diet; or
 - (d) was given due notice of a diet, shall, unless challenged in the manner described in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (4A) above, be held as admitted.]

(5) Where the maximum penalty in respect of the subsequent offence is specified by or by virtue of any enactment, that maximum penalty shall, for the purposes of the court’s determination, by virtue of subsection (3) above, of the appropriate sentence or disposal in respect of that offence, be increased—

 - (a) where it is a fine, by the amount for the time being equivalent to level 3 on the standard scale; and

Status: Point in time view as at 13/12/2010.

- (b) where it is a period of imprisonment—
 - (i) as respects a conviction in the High Court or the sheriff court, by 6 months; and
 - (ii) as respects a conviction in the [^{F38}JP court] , by 60 days, notwithstanding that the maximum penalty as so increased exceeds the penalty which it would otherwise be competent for the court to impose.
- (6) Where the sentence or disposal in respect of the subsequent offence is, by virtue of subsection (3) above, different from that which the court would have imposed but for that subsection, the court shall state the extent of and the reasons for that difference.
- [^{F44}(6A) Where, despite the requirement to have regard to the matters specified in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (3) above, the sentence or disposal in respect of the subsequent offence is not different from that which the court would have imposed but for that subsection, the court shall state (as appropriate, by reference to those matters) the reasons for there being no difference.]
- (7) An accused who having been granted bail in relation to solemn proceedings fails without reasonable excuse to appear at the time and place appointed for any diet of which he has been given due notice (where such diet is in respect of solemn proceedings) shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment to the following penalties—
 - (a) a fine; and
 - (b) imprisonment for a period not exceeding [^{F45}5] years.
- (8) At any time before the trial of an accused under solemn procedure for the original offence, it shall be competent—
 - (a) to amend the indictment to include an additional charge of an offence under this section;
 - (b) to include in the list of witnesses or productions relating to the original offence, witnesses or productions relating to the offence under this section.
- (9) [^{F46}A penalty under subsection (2) or (7) above shall] be imposed in addition to any other penalty which it is competent for the court to impose, notwithstanding that the total of penalties imposed may exceed the maximum penalty which it is competent to impose in respect of the original offence.
- [^{F47}(9A) The reference in subsection (9) above to a penalty being imposed in addition to another penalty means, in the case of sentences of imprisonment or detention—
 - (a) where the sentences are imposed at the same time (whether or not in relation to the same complaint or indictment), framing the sentences so that they have effect consecutively;
 - (b) where the sentences are imposed at different times, framing the sentence imposed later so that (if the earlier sentence has not been served) the later sentence has effect consecutive to the earlier sentence.
- (9B) Subsection (9A)(b) above is subject to section 204A of this Act.]
- (10) A court which finds an accused guilty of an offence under this section may remit the accused for sentence in respect of that offence to any court which is considering the original offence.

Status: Point in time view as at 13/12/2010.

day after his arrest, such day not being, subject to subsection (3) below, a Saturday, a Sunday or a court holiday prescribed for that court under section 8 of this Act.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2) above shall prevent an accused being brought before a court on a Saturday, a Sunday or such a court holiday where the court is, in pursuance of the said section 8, sitting on such day for the disposal of criminal business.

(4) Where an accused is brought before a court under subsection (2) or (3) above, the court, after hearing the parties, may—

- (a) recall the order granting bail;
- (b) release the accused under the original order granting bail; or
- (c) vary the order granting bail so as to contain such conditions as the court thinks it necessary to impose to secure that the accused complies with the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 24(5) of this Act.

29 Bail: monetary conditions.

- (1) Without prejudice to section 27 of this Act, where the accused or a cautioner on his behalf has deposited a sum of money in court under section 24(6) of this Act, then—
 - (a) if the accused fails to appear at the time and place appointed for any diet of which he has been given due notice, the court may, on the motion of the prosecutor, immediately order forfeiture of the sum deposited;
 - (b) if the accused fails to comply with any other condition imposed on bail, the court may, on conviction of an offence under section 27(1)(b) of this Act and on the motion of the prosecutor, order forfeiture of the sum deposited.
- (2) If the court is satisfied that it is reasonable in all the circumstances to do so, it may recall an order made under subsection (1)(a) above and direct that the money forfeited shall be refunded, and any decision of the court under this subsection shall be final and not subject to review.
- (3) A cautioner, who has deposited a sum of money in court under section 24(6) of this Act, shall be entitled, subject to subsection (4) below, to recover the sum deposited at any diet of the court at which the accused appears personally.
- (4) Where the accused has been charged with an offence under section 27(1)(b) of this Act, nothing in subsection (3) above shall entitle a cautioner to recover the sum deposited unless and until—
 - (a) the charge is not proceeded with; or
 - (b) the accused is acquitted of the charge; or
 - (c) on the accused's conviction of the offence, the court has determined not to order forfeiture of the sum deposited.
- (5) The references in subsections (1)(b) and (4)(c) above to conviction of an offence shall include references to the making of an order in respect of the offence under section 246(3) of this Act.

30 Bail review.

- (1) This section applies where a court has refused to admit a person to bail or, where a court has so admitted a person, the person has failed to accept the conditions imposed or that a sum required to be deposited under section 24(6) of this Act has not been so deposited.
- ^{F51}(1A) This section also applies where a person who has accepted the conditions imposed on his bail wants to have any of them removed or varied.]
- (2) A court shall, on the application of any person mentioned in subsection (1) ^{F52} or (1A) above, have power to review (in favour of the person) its decision as to bail, or its decision as to the conditions imposed, if—
 - (a) the circumstances of the person have changed materially; or
 - (b) the person puts before the court material information which was not available to it when its decision was made.]
- ^{F53}(2A) Before determining an application under subsection (2) above, the court shall give the prosecutor an opportunity to be heard.
