

Disability Discrimination Act 1995

1995 CHAPTER 50

PART VII

SUPPLEMENTAL

[^{F1}53A Codes of practice.

[The Disability Rights Commission may prepare and issue codes of practice giving ^{F2}(1) practical guidance on how to avoid [^{F3}acts which are unlawful under Part 2, 3 or 4], or on any other matter relating to the operation of any provision of [^{F4}those Parts], to—

- (a) employers;
- (b) service providers;

[public authorities within the meaning given by section 21B;

^{F5}(ba)

- (bb) associations to which section 21F applies;]
- (c) bodies which are responsible bodies for the purposes of Chapter 1 or 2 of Part 4; or
- (d) other persons to whom the provisions of Parts 2 or 3 or Chapter 2 [^{F6}or 2A] of Part 4 apply.

(1A) The Commission may also prepare and issue codes of practice giving practical guidance to any persons on any other matter with a view to—

- (a) promoting the equalisation of opportunities for disabled persons and persons who have had a disability; or
- (b) encouraging good practice in the way such persons are treated, in any field of activity regulated by any provision of Part 2, 3 or 4.

(1B) Neither subsection (1) nor (1A) applies in relation to any duty imposed by or under sections 28D or 28E.]

[The Commission may prepare and issue codes of practice giving practical guidance to ^{F7}(1C) persons subject to duties under section 49A or 49D on how to perform those duties.]

Status: Point in time view as at 30/06/2005. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, Part VII. (See end of Document for details)

[The Commission may prepare and issue codes of practice giving practical guidance^{F8}(1D) to landlords and tenants as to—

- (a) circumstances in which a tenant requires the consent of his landlord for making a relevant improvement to a dwelling house;
- (b) circumstances in which it is unreasonable to withhold such consent;
- (c) the application of the improvement provisions in relation to relevant improvements to dwelling houses.

(1E) In subsection (1D) the improvement provisions are—

- (a) section 19(2) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1927;
- (b) sections 81 to 85 of the Housing Act 1980;
- (c) sections 97 to 99 of the Housing Act 1985;
- (d) section 49G above.]

(2) The Commission shall, when requested to do so by the Secretary of State, prepare a code of practice dealing with the matters specified in the request.

(3) In preparing a code of practice the Commission shall carry out such consultations as it considers appropriate (which shall include the publication for public consultation of proposals relating to the code).

(4) The Commission may not issue a code of practice unless—

- (a) a draft of it has been submitted to and approved by the Secretary of State and laid by him before both Houses of Parliament; and
- (b) the 40 day period has elapsed without either House resolving not to approve the draft.

[Where a draft of a code of practice that deals with performance of duties under^{F9}(4A) section 49A or 49D is submitted to the Secretary of State for approval, he shall consult the Scottish Ministers and the National Assembly for Wales before deciding whether to approve it.]

(5) If the Secretary of State does not approve a draft code of practice submitted to him he shall give the Commission a written statement of his reasons.

(6) A code of practice issued by the Commission—

- (a) shall come into effect on such day as the Secretary of State may by order appoint;
- (b) may be revised in whole or part, and re-issued, by the Commission; and
- (c) may be revoked by an order made by the Secretary of State at the request of the Commission.

[Before appointing a day under subsection (6)(a) for the coming into effect of a code of^{F10}(6A) practice that deals with performance of duties under section 49A or 49D, the Secretary of State shall consult the Scottish Ministers and the National Assembly for Wales.]

(7) Where the Commission proposes to revise a code of practice—

- (a) it shall comply with subsection (3) in relation to the revisions; and
- (b) the other provisions of this section apply to the revised code of practice as they apply to a new code of practice.

(8) Failure to observe any provision of a code of practice does not of itself make a person liable to any proceedings^{F11} . . .

Status: Point in time view as at 30/06/2005. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, Part VII. (See end of Document for details)

[But if a provision of a code of practice appears to a court, tribunal or other body hearing ^{F12}(8A) any proceedings under Part 2, 3 or 4 to be relevant, it must take that provision into account.]

(9) In this section—

“code of practice” means a code of practice under this section;

^{F13}

“40 day period” has the same meaning in relation to a draft code of practice as it has in section 3 in relation to draft guidance.

[^{F14}“relevant improvement” means an improvement (within the meaning of section 49G(9)) to premises which, having regard to the disability which a disabled person who lawfully occupies or is intended lawfully to occupy the premises has, is likely to facilitate his enjoyment of the premises.]]

 - brought proceedings against A or any other person under this Act ; or
 - given evidence or information in connection with such proceedings brought by any person; or
 - otherwise done anything under this Act in relation to A or any other person; or
 - alleged that A or any other person has (whether or not the allegation so states) contravened this Act ; or
 - A believes or suspects that B has done or intends to do any of those things.
- (3) Where B is a disabled person, or a person who has had a disability, the disability in question shall be disregarded in comparing his circumstances with those of any other person for the purposes of subsection (1)(a).
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to treatment of a person because of an allegation made by him if the allegation was false and not made in good faith.

[^{F28}56 Help for aggrieved persons in obtaining information etc. E+W+S

- (1) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) a person who considers that he may have been—
 - (i) discriminated against in contravention of Part 2 or 3, or
 - (ii) subjected to harassment in contravention of Part 2 or section 21A(2), is referred to as “the person aggrieved”; and
 - (b) a person against whom the person aggrieved may decide to institute, or has instituted, proceedings in respect of such discrimination or harassment is referred to as “the respondent”.
- (2) With a view to helping the person aggrieved decide whether to institute proceedings and, if he does so, to formulate and present his case in the most effective manner, the Secretary of State shall by order prescribe—
 - (a) forms by which the person aggrieved may question the respondent on his reasons for doing any relevant act, or on any other matter which is or may be relevant; and
 - (b) forms by which the respondent may if he so wishes reply to any questions.
- (3) Where the person aggrieved questions the respondent in accordance with forms prescribed by an order under subsection (2)—
 - (a) the question, and any reply by the respondent (whether in accordance with such an order or not), shall be admissible as evidence in any proceedings under Part 2 or 3;
 - (b) if it appears to the court or tribunal in any such proceedings—
 - (i) that the respondent deliberately, and without reasonable excuse, omitted to reply within the period of eight weeks beginning with the day on which the question was served on him, or
 - (ii) that the respondent’s reply is evasive or equivocal,

it may draw any inference which it considers it just and equitable to draw, including an inference that the respondent committed an unlawful act.

- (4) The Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) prescribe the period within which questions must be duly served in order to be admissible under subsection (3)(a); and
 - (b) prescribe the manner in which a question, and any reply by the respondent, may be duly served.
- (5) Rules of court may enable a court entertaining a claim under section 25 to determine, before the date fixed for the hearing of the claim, whether a question or reply is admissible under this section or not.
- (6) In proceedings in respect of a section 21B claim, subsection (3)(b) does not apply in relation to a failure to reply, or a particular reply, if the following conditions are met—
- (a) that, at the time of doing any relevant act, the respondent was carrying out public investigator functions or was a public prosecutor; and
 - (b) that the respondent reasonably believes that a reply or (as the case may be) a different reply would be likely to prejudice any criminal investigation, any decision to institute criminal proceedings or any criminal proceedings or would reveal the reasons behind a decision not to institute, or a decision not to continue, criminal proceedings.
- (7) Regulations may provide for this section not to have effect, or to have effect with prescribed modifications, in relation to section 21B claims of a prescribed description.
- (8) This section is without prejudice to any other enactment or rule of law regulating interlocutory and preliminary matters in proceedings before a county court, the sheriff or an employment tribunal, and has effect subject to any enactment or rule of law regulating the admissibility of evidence in such proceedings.
- (9) In this section “section 21B claim” means a claim under section 25 by virtue of section 21B.]
