7 [F5Employment tribunal] procedure regulations.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations (“ [F5employment tribunal] procedure regulations”) make such provision as appears to him to be necessary or expedient with respect to proceedings before [F5employment tribunals].
- (2) Proceedings before [F5employment tribunals] shall be instituted in accordance with [F5employment tribunal] procedure regulations.
- (3) [F5Employment tribunal] procedure regulations may, in particular, include provision—
 - (a) for determining by which tribunal any proceedings are to be determined,
 - (b) for enabling an [F5employment tribunal] to hear and determine proceedings brought by virtue of section 3 concurrently with proceedings brought before the tribunal otherwise than by virtue of that section,
 - (c) for treating the Secretary of State (either generally or in such circumstances as may be prescribed by the regulations) as a party to any proceedings before an [F5employment tribunal] (where he would not otherwise be a party to them) and entitling him to appear and to be heard accordingly,
 - (d) for requiring persons to attend to give evidence and produce documents and for authorising the administration of oaths to witnesses,
 - (e) for enabling an [F5employment tribunal], on the application of any party to the proceedings before it or of its own motion, to order—
 - (i) in England and Wales, such discovery or inspection of documents, or the furnishing of such further particulars, as might be ordered by [F6the county court] on application by a party to proceedings before it, or
 - (ii) in Scotland, such recovery or inspection of documents as might be ordered by a sheriff,
 - (f) for prescribing the procedure to be followed in any proceedings before an [F5employment tribunal], including provision—
 - [F7(i)]
 - [F8(ia) for postponing fixing a time and place for a hearing, or postponing a time fixed for a hearing, for such period as may be determined in accordance with the regulations for the purpose of giving an opportunity for the proceedings to be settled by way of conciliation and withdrawn, and]
 - (ii) for enabling an [F5employment tribunal] to review its decisions, and revoke or vary its orders and awards, in such circumstances as may be determined in accordance with the regulations,
 - (g) for the appointment of one or more assessors for the purposes of any proceedings before an [F5employment tribunal], where the proceedings are brought under an enactment which provides for one or more assessors to be appointed,
 - (h) for authorising an [F5employment tribunal] to require persons to furnish information and produce documents to a person required for the purposes of section [F9131(2) of the Equality Act 2010] to prepare a report, and
 - (j) for the registration and proof of decisions, orders and awards of [F5employment tribunals].

[F10(3ZA) Employment tribunal procedure regulations may—

- (a) authorise the Secretary of State to prescribe, or prescribe requirements in relation to, any form which is required by such regulations to be used for [^{F12}(3ZB) Provision in employment tribunal procedure regulations about postponement of hearings may include provision for limiting the number of relevant postponements available to a party to proceedings.

(3ZC) For the purposes of subsection (3ZB)—

- (a) “relevant postponement”, in relation to a party to proceedings, means the postponement of a hearing granted on the application of that party in—
 - (i) the proceedings, or
 - (ii) any other proceedings identified in accordance with the regulations, except in circumstances determined in accordance with the regulations, and
- (b) “postponement” includes adjournment.]

[^{F13} Employment tribunal procedure regulations may authorise the determination of [^{F14}(3A) proceedings without any hearing in such circumstances as the regulations may prescribe.]]

[^{F15}(3AA) Employment tribunal procedure regulations under subsection (3A) may only authorise the determination of proceedings without any hearing in circumstances where—

- (a) all the parties to the proceedings consent in writing to the determination without a hearing, or
- (b) the person (or, where more than one, each of the persons) against whom the proceedings are brought—
 - (i) has presented no response in the proceedings, or
 - (ii) does not contest the case.

(3AB) For the purposes of subsection (3AA)(b), a person does not present a response in the proceedings if he presents a response but, in accordance with provision made by the regulations, it is not accepted.]

[^{F13}(3B) Employment tribunal procedure regulations may authorise the determination of proceedings without hearing anyone other than the person or persons by whom the proceedings are brought (or his or their representatives) where—

- (a) the person (or, where more than one, each of the persons) against whom the proceedings are brought has done nothing to contest the case, or
- (b) it appears from the application made by the person (or, where more than one, each of the persons) bringing the proceedings that he is not (or they are not) seeking any relief which an employment tribunal has power to give or that he is not (or they are not) entitled to any such relief.

[^{F13}(3C) Employment tribunal procedure regulations may authorise the determination of proceedings without hearing anyone other than the person or persons by whom, and the person or persons against whom, the proceedings are brought (or his or their representatives) where—

[^{F17}7A Practice directions

[The Senior President of Tribunals may make directions about the procedure of ^{F18}(A1) employment tribunals.]

- (1) Employment tribunal procedure regulations may include provision—
 - (a) enabling the [^{F19}territorial] President to make directions about the procedure of employment tribunals, including directions about the exercise by tribunals of powers under such regulations,
 - (b) for securing compliance with [^{F20}directions under subsection (A1) or paragraph (a)], and
 - (c) about the publication of [^{F21}directions under subsection (A1) or paragraph (a)].
- (2) Employment tribunal procedure regulations may, instead of providing for any matter, refer to provision made or to be made about that matter by directions made [^{F22}under subsection (A1) or (1)(a)].

[The power under subsection (A1) includes—
^{F23}(2A) (a) power to vary or revoke directions made in exercise of the power, and
(b) power to make different provision for different purposes (including different provision for different areas).

(2B) Directions under subsection (A1) may not be made without the approval of the Lord Chancellor.

(2C) Directions under subsection (1)(a) may not be made without the approval of—

- (a) the Senior President of Tribunals, and
- (b) the Lord Chancellor.

(2D) Subsections (2B) and (2C)(b) do not apply to directions to the extent that they consist of guidance about any of the following—

- (a) the application or interpretation of the law;
- (b) the making of decisions by members of an employment tribunal.

(2E) Subsections (2B) and (2C)(b) do not apply to directions to the extent that they consist of criteria for determining which members of employment tribunals may be selected to decide particular categories of matter; but the directions may, to that extent, be made only after consulting the Lord Chancellor.]
