

Employment Rights Act 1996

1996 CHAPTER 18

PART VI

TIME OFF WORK

Occupational pension scheme trustees

58 Right to time off for pension scheme trustees.

- (1) The employer in relation to a relevant occupational pension scheme shall permit an employee of his who is a trustee of the scheme to take time off during the employee's working hours for the purpose of—
 - (a) performing any of his duties as such a trustee, or
 - (b) undergoing training relevant to the performance of those duties.
- (2) The amount of time off which an employee is to be permitted to take under this section and the purposes for which, the occasions on which and any conditions subject to which time off may be so taken are those that are reasonable in all the circumstances having regard, in particular, to—
 - (a) how much time off is required for the performance of the duties of a trustee of the scheme and the undergoing of relevant training, and how much time off is required for performing the particular duty or for undergoing the particular training, and
 - (b) the circumstances of the employer's business and the effect of the employee's absence on the running of that business.
- [^{F1}(2A) This section applies to an employee who is a director of a company which is a trustee of a relevant occupational pension scheme as it applies to an employee who is a trustee of such a scheme (references to such a trustee being read for this purpose as references to such a director).]
- (3) In this section—

59 Right to payment for time off under section 58.

- (1) An employer who permits an employee to take time off under section 58 shall pay him for the time taken off pursuant to the permission.
- (2) Where the employee’s remuneration for the work he would ordinarily have been doing during that time does not vary with the amount of work done, he must be paid as if he had worked at that work for the whole of that time.
- (3) Where the employee’s remuneration for the work he would ordinarily have been doing during that time varies with the amount of work done, he must be paid an amount calculated by reference to the average hourly earnings for that work.
- (4) The average hourly earnings mentioned in subsection (3) are—
 - (a) those of the employee concerned, or
 - (b) if no fair estimate can be made of those earnings, the average hourly earnings for work of that description of persons in comparable employment with the same employer or, if there are no such persons, a figure of average hourly earnings which is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (5) A right to be paid an amount under subsection (1) does not affect any right of an employee in relation to remuneration under his contract of employment (“contractual remuneration”).

60 Complaints to [^{F3}employment tribunals].

- (1) An employee may present a complaint to an [^{F3}employment tribunal] that his employer—
- (a) has failed to permit him to take time off as required by section 58, or
 - (b) has failed to pay him in accordance with section 59.
- (2) An [^{F3}employment tribunal] shall not consider a complaint under this section unless it is presented—
- (a) before the end of the period of three months beginning with the date when the failure occurred, or
 - (b) within such further period as the tribunal considers reasonable in a case where it is satisfied that it was not reasonably practicable for the complaint to be presented before the end of that period of three months.
- [^{F4}(2A) Section 207A(3) (extension because of mediation in certain European cross-border disputes) [^{F5}and section 207B (extension of time limits to facilitate conciliation before institution of proceedings) apply] for the purposes of subsection (2)(a).]
- (3) Where an [^{F3}employment tribunal] finds a complaint under subsection (1)(a) well-founded, the tribunal—
- (a) shall make a declaration to that effect, and
 - (b) may make an award of compensation to be paid by the employer to the employee.
- (4) The amount of the compensation shall be such as the tribunal considers just and equitable in all the circumstances having regard to—
- (a) the employer's default in failing to permit time off to be taken by the employee, and
 - (b) any loss sustained by the employee which is attributable to the matters complained of.
- (5) Where on a complaint under subsection (1)(b) an [^{F3}employment tribunal] finds that an employer has failed to pay an employee in accordance with section 59, it shall order the employer to pay the amount which it finds to be due.
