

Asylum and Immigration Act 1996

1996 CHAPTER 49

Persons subject to immigration control

8 Restrictions on employment.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, if any person (“the employer”) employs a person subject to immigration control (“the employee”) who has attained the age of 16, the employer shall be guilty of an offence if—
  - (a) the employee has not been granted leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom; or
  - (b) the employee’s leave is not valid and subsisting, or is subject to a condition precluding him from taking up the employment,and (in either case) the employee does not satisfy such conditions as may be specified in an order made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, in proceedings under this section, it shall be a defence to prove that—
  - (a) before the employment began, there was produced to the employer a document which appeared to him to relate to the employee and to be of a description specified in an order made by the Secretary of State; and
  - (b) either the document was retained by the employer, or a copy or other record of it was made by the employer in a manner specified in the order in relation to documents of that description.
- (3) The defence afforded by subsection (2) above shall not be available in any case where the employer knew that his employment of the employee would constitute an offence under this section.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (5) Where an offence under this section committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of—
