SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 29

Section 358.

THE SCHOOL CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY

Status

- 1 The Authority shall not be regarded as a servant or agent of the Crown or as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown; and the Authority's property shall not be regarded as property of, or property held on behalf of, the Crown.

Powers

- 2 (1) The Authority may do anything which is calculated to facilitate, or is incidental or conducive to, the carrying out of any of their functions.
- (2) In particular, the Authority may—
- (a) acquire or dispose of land or other property,
 - (b) enter into contracts,
 - (c) form bodies corporate or subscribe for shares or stock,
 - (d) invest any sums not immediately required for the purpose of carrying out their functions,
 - (e) accept gifts of money, land or other property, and
 - (f) borrow money.
- 3 (1) The Authority may also give to any person or body (whether or not in the United Kingdom) such assistance, other than financial assistance, as they may determine.
- (2) Assistance may be provided on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as the Authority may determine.
- (3) In particular, assistance may be provided free of charge or on such terms as to payment as the Authority may determine.
- (4) The consent of the Secretary of State is required for the exercise of any power conferred by this paragraph.

Chief officer

- 4 The Authority shall have a chief officer who shall be appointed by the Authority with the approval of the Secretary of State on such terms and conditions as the Authority may with the approval of the Secretary of State determine.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1997.

Changes to legislation: Education Act 1996, SCHEDULE 29 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Chairman and chief officer: division of functions

- 5 (1) The Secretary of State may, on appointing a person to be the chairman of the Authority, confer on him such additional functions in relation to the Authority as may be specified in the appointment.
- (2) The functions for the time being conferred by virtue of appointment as chief officer of the Authority shall not include any function for the time being conferred under sub-paragraph (1) on the chairman of the Authority.

Tenure of office

- 6 (1) A person shall hold and vacate office as a member or as chairman or deputy chairman of the Authority in accordance with the terms of his appointment and shall, on ceasing to be a member, be eligible for re-appointment.
- (2) A person may at any time by notice in writing to the Secretary of State resign his office as a member or as chairman or deputy chairman of the Authority.

- 7 The Secretary of State may, if satisfied that a member of the Authority—
- (a) has been absent from meetings of the Authority for a continuous period of more than six months without the permission of the Authority, or
 - (b) is unable or unfit to discharge the functions of a member,
- remove him from office by giving him notice in writing and thereupon the office shall become vacant.

- 8 If the chairman or deputy chairman of the Authority ceases to be a member of the Authority, he shall also cease to be chairman or deputy chairman.

Payments to members

- 9 (1) The Authority shall pay to their members such salaries or fees, and such travelling, subsistence or other allowances, as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (2) The Authority shall, as regards any member in whose case the Secretary of State may so determine, pay, or make provision for the payment of, such sums by way of pension, allowances and gratuities to or in respect of him as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (3) If a person ceases to be a member of the Authority and it appears to the Secretary of State that there are special circumstances which make it right that he should receive compensation, the Secretary of State may direct the Authority to make to that person a payment of such amount as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (4) A determination or direction of the Secretary of State under this paragraph requires the approval of the Treasury.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/1997.

Changes to legislation: Education Act 1996, SCHEDULE 29 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 30 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Staff

- 10 Subject to the approval of the Secretary of State, given with the consent of the Treasury, the Authority—
- (a) may appoint such number of employees, on such terms and conditions, as they may determine; and
 - (b) shall pay to their employees such remuneration and allowances as they may determine.
- 11 (1) Employment with the Authority shall continue to be included among the kinds of employment to which a scheme under section 1 of the ^{M1}Superannuation Act 1972 can apply.
- (2) The Authority shall pay to the Treasury, at such times as the Treasury may direct, such sums as the Treasury may determine in respect of the increase attributable to this paragraph in the sums payable under the Superannuation Act 1972 out of money provided by Parliament.
- (3) Where an employee of the Authority is (by reference to that employment) a participant in a scheme under section 1 of that Act and is also a member of the Authority, the Treasury may determine that his service as such a member shall be treated for the purposes of the scheme as service as an employee of the Authority (whether or not any benefits are payable to or in respect of him by virtue of paragraph 9).
