 - (b) for the receipt by the Secretary of State of the amount of the overpayment to be treated as the recovery of that amount.
- (3) Regulations made by virtue of subsection (2)(b) are to have effect in spite of anything in section 71 of the ^{M1}Social Security Administration Act 1992 (overpayments—general).
- (4) The regulations may also (among other things) provide—

21 Compensation payments to be disregarded.

- (1) If, when a compensation payment is made, the first and second conditions are met, the payment is to be disregarded for the purposes of sections 6 and 8.
- (2) The first condition is that the person making the payment—
 - (a) has made an application for a certificate of recoverable benefits which complies with subsection (3), and
 - (b) has in his possession a written acknowledgment of the receipt of his application.
- (3) An application complies with this subsection if it—
 - (a) accurately states the prescribed particulars relating to the injured person and the accident, injury or disease in question, and
 - (b) specifies the name and address of the person to whom the certificate is to be sent.
- (4) The second condition is that the Secretary of State has not sent the certificate to the person, at the address, specified in the application, before the end of the period allowed under section 4.
- (5) In any case where—
 - (a) by virtue of subsection (1), a compensation payment is disregarded for the purposes of sections 6 and 8, but
 - (b) the person who made the compensation payment nevertheless makes a payment to the Secretary of State for which (but for subsection (1)) he would be liable under section 6, subsection (1) is to cease to apply in relation to the compensation payment.
- (6) If, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, circumstances have arisen which adversely affect normal methods of communication—
 - (a) he may by order provide that subsection (1) is not to apply during a specified period not exceeding three months, and
 - (b) he may continue any such order in force for further periods not exceeding three months at a time.
