

Social Security (Recovery of Benefits) Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 27

Certificates of recoverable benefits

4 Applications for certificates of recoverable benefits.

- (1) Before a person (“the compensator”) makes a compensation payment he must apply to the Secretary of State for a certificate of recoverable benefits.
- (2) Where the compensator applies for a certificate of recoverable benefits, the Secretary of State must—
 - (a) send to him a written acknowledgement of receipt of his application, and
 - (b) subject to subsection (7), issue the certificate before the end of the following period.
- (3) The period is—
 - (a) the prescribed period, or
 - (b) if there is no prescribed period, the period of four weeks,which begins with the day following the day on which the application is received.
- (4) The certificate is to remain in force until the date specified in it for that purpose.
- (5) The compensator may apply for fresh certificates from time to time.
- (6) Where a certificate of recoverable benefits ceases to be in force, the Secretary of State may issue a fresh certificate without an application for one being made.
- (7) Where the compensator applies for a fresh certificate while a certificate (“the existing certificate”) remains in force, the Secretary of State must issue the fresh certificate before the end of the following period.
- (8) The period is—
 - (a) the prescribed period, or
 - (b) if there is no prescribed period, the period of four weeks,
