- (b) that it will not thereafter fail to comply with those requirements.

(4) For the purpose of applying the relevant statutory requirements as directed by subsection (3)(a) above—

- (a) in the case of a requirement which operates by reference to a quarter day, the day as at which the requirements are to be applied shall be treated as such a day; and
- (b) the assets and liabilities of the society shall be determined by reference to a balance sheet prepared by the directors by reference to that day and sent to the Commission within the period of three months beginning with that day; and subsection (4) of section 81 shall apply in the event of a default in complying with this provision as it applies in the event of a default in complying with subsection (2) of that section.

(5) A direction by the Commission under this subsection is a direction requiring the society—

- (b) if it appears to it that the plan is, with modifications, likely to secure its purposes and the Commission and the society agree on appropriate modifications within the period of 21 days from the date on which the Commission notifies the society of the modifications it proposes for the society's agreement, the Commission shall approve the plan as modified and direct the society to carry it out;

but otherwise it shall reject the plan.

(9) Where a meeting is held, in pursuance of a direction under subsection (5) or (6) above, for the purpose of voting on the requisite transfer resolutions, then—

- (b) if either resolution is disagreed to, the society shall notify the Commission of that fact as soon as it is practicable to do so.

(10) In the event of the Commission receiving a notice from a society under subsection (9)(b) above, it may, if it thinks fit, serve on the society a direction requiring it, within a specified period, to submit to the Commission for its approval a restructuring plan; and if the Commission does so, subsection (8) above shall apply as if the plan had been submitted under subsection (3) above.

(11) The Commission may, if it thinks fit, extend or further extend any period during which a building society is to take any steps required of it under any of the foregoing provisions of this section and may do so whether or not application is made to it before the expiry of the period in question.

PART II

(12) If a building society which has been directed under subsection (8) above to carry out a restructuring plan fails, within the period allowed to it under the foregoing provisions of this section, to secure the purpose of the plan specified in subsection (3)(a) above, the powers conferred on the Commission by section 36A shall become exercisable in relation to the society.

PART II

(2) After Schedule 7 to the 1986 Act there shall be inserted, as Schedule 7A, the provisions set out in Schedule 3 to this Act (supplementary provisions as to directions).

Power to make prohibition orders.

14. After section 36 of the 1986 Act there shall be inserted the following section—

“Power to make prohibition orders.

36A.—(1) Where by virtue of section 36(12) the powers conferred by this section become exercisable in relation to a building society, the Commission may serve on the society a notice of the Commission’s intention to issue a prohibition order directed to the society.

(2) A prohibition order under this section is an order—

- (a) prohibiting, subject to the saving or transitional provisions of the order, the continuance or, as the case may be, the carrying on of the activity specified in the order after a date so specified, either absolutely or unless conditions so specified are complied with; and
- (b) requiring, subject to the saving or transitional provisions of the order, the disposal within a period specified in the order of all assets acquired or otherwise in its possession by virtue of the activity.

(3) A disposal of assets in pursuance of a prohibition order shall vest the assets in the transferee but without prejudice to any claim against the society by a person who had an interest in the assets.

(4) The saving or transitional provisions which may be included in a prohibition order shall be such as appear to the Commission to be just having regard to—

- (a) the interests of shareholders of and depositors with the society; and
- (b) the interests of other persons who will be affected by the order.

(5) A notice under subsection (1) above of the Commission’s intention to issue a prohibition order shall—

- (a) specify the date on which the order is to be issued, being a date not earlier than the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the date of the notice;
- (b) specify the terms of the order, including any saving or transitional provisions proposed to be included in it; and
- (c) inform the society of its right to make representations to the Commission, not less than 7 days before the date specified in the order, as to the provisions to be included in the order.

PART II

(6) After considering any representations made by the society, the Commission may make the prohibition order with such saving and transitional provisions (if any) as it thinks just; and where it does so, the Commission—

- (a) shall issue the order by causing it to be served on the society; and
- (b) shall direct the central office to keep a copy of it in the public file of the society.

(7) A prohibition order so made and issued shall, subject to subsection (11) below, take effect on the date specified in the order.

(8) A copy of any order issued under subsection (6) above shall also be served on each director and on the chief executive of the society.

(9) The requirement of subsection (8) above, so far as it relates to directors, is satisfied by serving a copy on each director whose appointment has been officially notified and the non-receipt of a copy by a director or the chief executive does not affect the validity of the order.

(10) Subject to subsection (11) below, a prohibition order shall remain in force until revoked by the Commission.

(11) The Commission may suspend or revoke a prohibition order so far as it relates to an asset the disposal of which appears to it, on the application of the society, to be impracticable.

(12) If a society contravenes a prohibition order issued against it under this section—

- (a) the power conferred on the Commission by section 37(1) shall become exercisable in relation to the society; and
- (b) the Commission may exercise that power or certify the contravention in writing to the High Court, or do both of those things; but the contravention shall not invalidate any transaction or other act.

(13) On receiving such a certification, the High Court—

- (a) may inquire into the case; and
- (b) after hearing any witnesses who may be produced against or on behalf of the society and after hearing any statement which may be offered in defence, may punish the society in like manner as if it had been guilty of contempt of the court.

(14) Where a contravention of a prohibition order which is so certified is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any officer of the society he, as well as the society, may be punished in like manner as if he had been guilty of contempt of the court.

(15) In the application of this section to a building society whose principal office is in Scotland, references to the High Court shall be read as references to the Court of Session.”

- (b) by virtue of section 36A(12) the power conferred by this subsection becomes so exercisable; or
- (c) the Commission has reason to believe that a building society has ceased to comply with the requirement imposed by section 5(1)(a) (purpose or principal purpose), the Commission may present a petition to the High Court for the winding up of the society under the applicable winding up legislation; and the power conferred by this subsection is available to the Commission whether or not it has previously presented a petition.

(2) Where by virtue of section 36(13) the powers conferred by this section become exercisable in relation to a building society, the Commission may make an application to the High Court for an order giving directions to the society under subsection (3) below; and the power conferred by this subsection is available to the Commission whether or not it has previously made an application for such an order.

(3) An order under this subsection is an order directing the society to comply with a direction under subsection (3), (5), (6), (7) or (10) of section 36 as directed in the order, or to carry out a restructuring plan as so directed.

(4) Where the High Court makes an order under subsection (3) above, the Commission shall give a copy of it to the central office and the central office shall keep the copy in the public file of the society.

(5) The High Court shall not make an order winding up the society on an application under subsection (1)(c) above unless it is satisfied that the society has ceased to comply with the requirement imposed by section 5(1)(a).

(6) In the application of this section to a building society whose principal office is in Scotland, references to the High Court shall be read as references to the Court of Session.”

PART II

16. After section 42 of the 1986 Act there shall be inserted the following section—

(2) Conditions imposed under section 42 may be varied by the Commission without the agreement of the building society concerned in any case in which the Commission considers that the conditions should be varied as a matter of urgency.

(3) In any such case the Commission may by written notice to the building society concerned impose or vary the conditions.

(4) Any such notice shall state the reasons for which the Commission has acted and particulars of the rights conferred by subsection (6) below and by section 46.

(5) If conditions as imposed or varied by a notice under subsection (3) above include a requirement for the removal from office of any person who is an officer of the society, the Commission shall give that person—

- (a) a copy of that notice; and
- (b) a statement of his rights under subsection (6) below;

but the Commission may omit from a copy notice given to a person by virtue of this subsection any matter which does not relate to him.

(6) A building society to which a notice is given under subsection (3) above of the imposition or variation of conditions, and a person who is given a copy of it by virtue of subsection (5) above, may within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the notice was given make representations to the Commission.

(7) After giving a notice under subsection (3) above imposing or varying conditions and taking into account any representations made in accordance with subsection (6) above the Commission shall decide whether—

- (a) to confirm or rescind its original decision; or
- (b) to impose different conditions or to vary the conditions in a different manner.

(8) The Commission shall within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice was given under subsection (3) above give the building society concerned written notice of its decision under subsection (7) above and, except where the decision is to rescind the original decision, the notice shall state the reasons for the decision.

(9) Where the notice under subsection (8) above is of a decision to take the action specified in subsection (7) (b)

PART II

- (b) direct the society, within a specified period, to transfer its business to an existing company under section 97.

(3) Where the Commission—

- (a) gives a building society a direction under subsection (1)(a) above; or
- (b) does not give a building society such a direction solely because the society is already seeking to transfer all its engagements to one or more other building societies under section 94,

the Commission may, if it considers it expedient to do so in order to protect the investments of shareholders or depositors, direct that, instead of resolving to transfer its engagements by the two resolutions required by section 94(2) (with or without the additional resolution required by section 94(3)), the society may resolve to do so by a resolution of the board of directors.

(4) Where the Commission—

- (a) gives a building society a direction under subsection (1)(b) above; or
- (b) does not give a building society such a direction solely because the society is already seeking to transfer its business to an existing company under section 97,

the Commission may, if it considers it expedient to do so in order to protect the investments of shareholders or depositors, direct that, instead of approving the transfer and the terms of the transfer by the two resolutions required by section 97(4)(c), the society may approve the transfer and those terms by a resolution of the board of directors.

(5) A direction under subsection (3) or (4) above—

- (a) shall be in writing;

PART II

- (b) may be given subject to such limitations or conditions as the Commission may think fit; and
- (c) unless renewed by a further direction, shall cease to have effect at the end of the period of 90 days beginning with the day on which it is given.

(6) Section 45 has effect for the purpose of any determination whether or not it is expedient to exercise the powers conferred by this section.

(2) A direction under section 42B(1), except one varying a previous direction with the agreement of the building society concerned—

- (a) shall state the reasons for which it is given and give particulars of the society’s rights under subsection (3) below and section 46; and

PART II

- (b) shall cease to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which it is given unless before the end of that period it is confirmed by a further written notice given by the Commission to the society concerned.

(3) A building society to which a direction is given which requires confirmation under subsection (2) above may, within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the direction is given, make written representations to the Commission; and the Commission shall take any such representations into account in deciding whether to confirm the direction.”

Revocation:

19. After section 43 of the 1986 Act there shall be inserted the following section—

“Revocation:

directions.

43A.—(1) The Commission may give a building society directions under this section—

- (a) when giving it notice that the Commission proposes to revoke its authorisation;
- (b) at any time after such a notice has been given to the society (whether before or after its authorisation is revoked);
- (c) when giving the society a notice of revocation under subsection (3)(e) of section 43 where the requisite initial step (within the meaning of that section) is the passing of a resolution for voluntary winding up or the execution of an instrument of dissolution; or
- (d) at any time after the society has requested the Commission to revoke its authorisation or the central office to cancel its registration.

(2) Directions under this section—

- (a) shall be such as appear to the Commission to be desirable in the interests of the society’s shareholders or depositors, whether for the purpose of safeguarding its assets or otherwise; and

(b) the Commission's decision to revoke the society's authorisation is reversed on appeal.

(5) No direction shall be given by virtue of paragraph (d) of subsection (1) above, and any direction given by virtue of that paragraph shall cease to have effect, if the society's request to the Commission to revoke its authorisation, or to the central office to cancel its registration, is withdrawn.

(6) No direction shall be given to a building society under this section after it has ceased to have any liability in respect of shares or deposits for which it had a liability at a time when it was authorised; and any such direction which is in force with respect to a building society shall cease to have effect when the society ceases to have any such liability.

45.—(1) If it appears to the Commission that there has been or is, on the part of a building society or its directors, a failure to satisfy any one or more of the following criteria of prudent management, it shall be entitled to assume for the purposes of its relevant prudential powers that the failure is such as to prejudice the security of the investments of shareholders or depositors.

(b) to call a special meeting to be held during the period of four months beginning one month after the end of its financial year.

- (b) subject to sub-paragraph (5) below, that requirement is not complied with within 28 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition, the requisitionists, or any proportion of them exceeding one half, may themselves send a copy of the statement to each such member.

(5) If the rules of the society make such provision as is mentioned in paragraph 20A(9)(b) above, any days falling within the period there mentioned shall be disregarded in determining any period for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) or (4)(b) above.

(6) Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the society to call a meeting, or to comply with such a requirement as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) above, shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the society.

No duty to enquire as to capacity of society etc.

(3) Where, under this paragraph, a society is treated as having by special resolution, altered its purpose or principal purpose, its powers and its rules, the central office shall prepare three copies of a record of the alterations and shall—

- (a) retain and register one copy;
- (b) return another to the secretary of the society, together with a certificate of registration; and
- (c) keep another copy, together with a copy of that certificate, in the public file of the society.

(4) A record of alterations so registered shall have effect for all purposes of the society's memorandum and rules until further alterations are made under paragraph 4 of Schedule 2 to the 1986 Act.

(5) Such fee as is prescribed shall be due from the society to the Chief Registrar for the registration of a record of alterations under this paragraph.

(6) In this paragraph—

“existing building society” means a building society registered under the 1986 Act immediately before the commencement of sections 1 and 2 of this Act;

“prescribed”—

(a) except in sub-paragraph (5) above, means prescribed by the Commission, with the consent of the Treasury, by order made by statutory instrument; and

(b) in that sub-paragraph, means prescribed by the Chief Registrar, with the consent of the Treasury, by order so made;

“the transitional period” means the period beginning with that commencement and expiring with such day as is prescribed.

Existing members to whom advances have been made

4.—(1) Nothing in section 2 of this Act shall affect the operation of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to the 1986 Act in relation to any person who, immediately before the commencement of that section, is the holder of a share on which an advance has been made.

(2) Nothing in that section shall affect the operation of sub-paragraph (3) of that paragraph in relation to any person who, immediately before the commencement of that section, is a member of a building society to whom an advance has been made under rules made in pursuance of paragraph 5(1) or (2) of that Schedule.

Existing borrowing members which are corporations

5. Nothing in section 2 of this Act shall affect the operation of Schedule 2 to the 1986 Act in relation to any body corporate which, immediately before the commencement of that section, is a borrowing member of a building society within the meaning given by paragraph 5(2) of that Schedule (as substituted by that section).

Existing fully secured loans

6.—(1) Subject to subsection (7) of section 6B of the 1986 Act—

- (a) any advance which immediately before the commencement of that section was or was treated as a class 1 advance shall be treated as a loan falling within paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of that section;
- (b) any advance which immediately before that commencement was or was treated as a class 2 advance shall be treated as a loan falling within that paragraph if the building society concerned determines that, on the assumption mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) below, it would have been a class 1 advance;
- (c) any advance not falling within paragraph (b) above which immediately before that commencement was or was treated as a class 2 advance shall be treated as a loan falling within paragraph (b) of that subsection; and
- (d) any advance which immediately before that commencement neither was nor was treated as a class 1 or a class 2 advance shall be treated as a loan falling within paragraph (c) of that subsection.

(2) The assumption is that section 11 of the 1986 Act had effect at all material times—

- (a) with the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of the following paragraph—“(b) the land is for residential use;” and
- (b) with the omission from subsection (3) of the words “by the borrower or a dependant of his of a prescribed description”.

Existing shareholders

7. Unless the contrary is shown, a building society may assume that any shares in the society which are held by an individual at the commencement of section 8 of this Act are held otherwise than as a bare trustee (or, in Scotland, a simple trustee) for a body corporate, or for persons who include a body corporate.

Existing depositors and shareholders

8.—(1) Nothing in section 9 of this Act shall affect the operation of the 1986 Act in relation to—

- (a) any deposit accepted by a building society from an individual before the commencement of that section;
- (b) any deposit accepted by a building society from an individual to whom sub-paragraph (2) below applies which is to be credited to a deposit account opened before that commencement;
- (c) any deposit accepted by a building society from an individual which is to be credited to a tax-exempt special savings account opened before that commencement; or

SCH. 8

(d) any share issued by a building society to a body corporate before that commencement.

(2) This sub-paragraph applies to an individual if—

- (a) a deposit of his is held in a deposit account opened before the commencement of section 9 of this Act;
- (b) he has been notified by the building society that he may transfer the deposit without penalty into an account which, at the date of the notice, was an equivalent share account; and
- (c) he has chosen not to do so.

(3) In this paragraph—

“access period”, in relation to a deposit or share account, means the period of notice required for making withdrawals from the account;

“equivalent share account”, in relation to a deposit account, means a share account—

- (a) whose access period is no longer than that of the deposit account; and
- (b) whose rate of interest is not less than that of each other share account with the society which has the same access period or, where there is no such account, that of any one share account with the society which has a longer access period;

“tax-exempt special savings account” has the meaning given by section 326A(2) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

(4) In relation to anything which, after the commencement of section 9 of this Act, is done by a building society under paragraph (d) of section 8(2) of the 1986 Act, sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above shall have effect as if any reference to that commencement were a reference to the expiry of the period mentioned in that paragraph.

Existing transfer statements referring to the abolition of priority liquidation distribution rights

9.—(1) Where before the commencement of section 40 of this Act, a building society issued a transfer statement which satisfies the requirements of sub-paragraph (2) below and either—

- (a) the transfer of the society’s business to the company which is to be its successor is effected after that commencement; or
- (b) that transfer was effected after the relevant date and before that commencement and the company is not being wound up at that commencement, section 100 of the 1986 Act shall be deemed to have had effect in relation to the transfer as if section 40 of this Act had come into force on that date.

(2) The requirements of this sub-paragraph are that the statement—

- (a) referred to the possibility of provision being made to the like effect as section 40 of this Act; and
- (b) stated that, if such provision were made, either no rights to priority liquidation distributions would be conferred on qualifying members of the society or, if such rights had been so conferred, they would be withdrawn.

(3) In this paragraph—

“the relevant date” means 6th November 1996;

“transfer statement” has the same meaning as in Part I of Schedule 17 to the 1986 Act.

Existing specially formed successor companies

10.—(1) This paragraph applies where before the passing of this Act a company has been specially formed by a building society to be its successor.

(2) Nothing in section 101 of the 1986 Act as substituted by section 41 of this Act shall be taken—

- (a) to impose any requirement which would not be imposed, or to render void any provision, allotment or registration which would not be rendered void, if that section of this Act had not been enacted; or
- (b) to prevent any alterations in the provisions of the company's articles of association which are such as to secure that the company does not contravene, or that those provisions are consistent with, subsection (1) of section 101 of that Act as so substituted.
