

Education Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 44

PART VII

CAREERS EDUCATION AND GUIDANCE

[^{F1}42A Provision of careers guidance in schools in England

- (1) The responsible authorities for a school in England within subsection (2) must secure that all registered pupils at the school are provided with independent careers guidance during [^{F2}their secondary education].
- (2) A school is within this subsection if it provides secondary education and is one of the following—
 - (a) a community, foundation or voluntary school;
 - (b) a community or foundation special school (other than one established in a hospital);
 - (c) a pupil referral unit;
 - [an Academy school;
 - ^{F3}(d)
 - (e) an alternative provision Academy.]
- (3) The responsible authorities for a school within subsection (2) are—
 - (a) in the case of a school within subsection (2)(a) or (b), its governing body;
 - (b) in the case of a pupil referral unit, the local authority that maintain it;
 - [in the case of an Academy school or an alternative provision Academy, the
 - ^{F4}(c) proprietor.]
- (4) The responsible authorities must secure that careers guidance provided under subsection (1)—
 - (a) is presented in an impartial manner,
 - (b) includes information on options available in respect of 16 to 18 education or training, including apprenticeships, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/2023.

Changes to legislation: Education Act 1997, Part VII is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) is guidance that the person giving it considers will promote the best interests of the pupils to whom it is given.

[Subsection (4)(b) does not apply in relation to pupils over compulsory school age.]
F5(4A)

- (5) Careers guidance provided to pupils at a school is independent for the purposes of this section if it is provided other than by—
- a teacher employed or engaged at the school, or
 - any other person employed at the school.

F6(6)

(7) In this section—

...

“career” includes undertaking any training, education, employment or occupation;

“careers guidance” means guidance about careers;

“16 to 18 education or training” means education or training suitable to the requirements of persons who have ceased to be of compulsory school age but have not attained the age of 18;

“training” includes a voluntary or other placement apt to enable the development of any skill or competency (whether or not taking place at a time when the person concerned is still a registered pupil at a school in England).]

[^{F9}42B Information about technical education: access to English schools

(1) The proprietor of a school in England within subsection (2) must ensure that there [^{F10}are opportunities] for a range of education and training providers to access registered pupils during the relevant phase of their education for the purpose of informing them about approved technical education qualifications or apprenticeships.

[In complying with subsection (1), the proprietor must give access to registered pupils ^{F11}(1A) on at least two occasions during each of the first, second and third key phase of their education.]

(2) A school is within this subsection if it provides secondary education and is one of the following—

- (a) an Academy;
- (b) an alternative provision Academy;
- (c) a community, foundation or voluntary school;
- (d) a community or foundation special school (other than one established in a hospital);
- (e) a pupil referral unit.

[The proprietor of a school in England within subsection (2) must— ^{F12}(2A) (a) ensure that, during each of the first and second key phases of the education of each registered pupil—

- (i) on at least two occasions the pupil meets at least one provider to whom access is given (or any other number of such providers that may be specified for the purposes of that key phase by regulations under subsection (8)), and
- (ii) the pupil does not meet exactly the same provider or providers on each of those occasions, and

- (b) ask providers to whom access is given to provide information that includes the following—
 - (i) information about the provider and the approved technical education qualifications or apprenticeships that the provider offers,
 - (ii) information about the careers to which those technical education qualifications or apprenticeships might lead,
 - (iii) a description of what learning or training with the provider is like, and
 - (iv) responses to questions from the pupils about the provider or approved technical education qualifications and apprenticeships.

(2B) Access given under subsection (1) must be for a reasonable period of time during the standard school day.]

(3) The proprietor of a school in England within subsection (2) must prepare a policy statement setting out the circumstances in which education and training providers will be given access to registered pupils for the purpose of informing them about approved technical education qualifications or apprenticeships.

(4) The proprietor must ensure that the policy statement is followed.

(5) The policy statement must include—

- (a) any procedural requirements in relation to requests for access;
- (b) grounds for granting and refusing requests for access;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/2023.

Changes to legislation: Education Act 1997, Part VII is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 29 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) details of premises or facilities to be provided to a person who is given access [F13 and the times at which the access is to be given;]
- [an explanation of how the proprietor proposes to comply with the obligations F14(d) imposed under subsection (2A).]
- (6) The proprietor may revise the policy statement from time to time.
- (7) The proprietor must publish the policy statement and any revised statement.
- (8) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision supplementing subsection (1) [F15 or (2A)], for example provision about who is to be given access to pupils, to which pupils they are to be given access and how and when.
- (9) For the purposes of this section the relevant phase of a pupil's education is the period—
- beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil's class attain the age of 13, and
 - ending with the expiry of the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil's class attain the age of 18.
- [For the purposes of this section—
- F16(9A) (a) the first key phase of a pupil's education is the period—
- beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil's class attain the age of 13, and
 - ending with 28 February in the following school year;
- (b) the second key phase of a pupil's education is the period—
- beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil's class attain the age of 15, and
 - ending with 28 February in the following school year;
- (c) the third key phase of a pupil's education is the period—
- beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in the pupil's class attain the age of 17, and
 - ending with 28 February in the following school year.]

(10) In this section “approved technical education qualification” means a qualification approved under section [F17 A2D3 or A2D5] of the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009.]

- (b) any information in the institution's possession about any such pupil or student which the careers adviser needs in order to be able to provide him with advice and guidance on decisions about his career or with other information relevant to such decisions.
- (2) If the registered address of a parent of any such pupil is different from the pupil's registered address, subsection (1)(a) requires the parent's address to be provided as well.
- (3) Paragraph (a) or (as the case may be) paragraph (b) of subsection (1) does not, however, apply to any pupil or student to the extent that—
- (a) (where he is under [^{F34}the age of 16]) a parent of his, or
- (b) (where he has attained that age) he himself,
- has indicated that any information falling within that paragraph should not be provided to the careers adviser.
- (4) Where a careers adviser has responsibilities in relation to persons attending an educational institution to which this section applies, he shall on request be permitted to have, in the case of any relevant pupil or student specified by him, access to that person—
- (a) on the institution's premises, and
- (b) at a reasonable time agreed by or on behalf of the head teacher, principal or other head of the institution,
- for the purpose of enabling him to provide that person with advice and guidance on decisions about his career and with any other information relevant to such decisions.
- (5) Such access shall include an opportunity for the careers adviser to interview that person about his career, if he agrees to be so interviewed.
- (6) Where a careers adviser has responsibilities in relation to persons attending an educational institution to which this section applies, he shall on request be permitted to have, in the case of any group of relevant pupils or students specified by him, access—
- (a) to that group of persons in the manner specified in subsection (4)(a) and (b), and
- (b) to such of the institution's facilities as can conveniently be made available for his use,
- for the purpose of enabling him to provide those persons with group sessions on any matters relating to careers or to advice or guidance about careers.
- (7) Any request made for the purposes of subsection (1), (4) or (6) must be made in writing to the head teacher, principal or other head of the institution in question.
- (8) This section applies to—
- (a) the schools [^{F35}in Wales listed in section 43(2) [^{F36}(a) and (c)]]; [^{F37}and]
- [^{F38}(aa) pupil referral units maintained by local authorities in Wales, and]
- (b) institutions [^{F39}in Wales] within the further education sector.
- [^{F40}(9) It is the duty of the each of the following to secure that subsections (1), (4) and (6) are complied with—
- (a) the governing body of the school or institution;
- (b) its head teacher, principal or other head.]
- (10) For the purposes of this section—
