

Crime and Punishment (Scotland) Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 48

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Miscellaneous

60 Grants for forensic medical services.

The Lord Advocate may out of money provided by Parliament make grants of such amount and on such conditions as he considers appropriate to any person for the provision to him by that person of forensic medical services.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Crime and Punishment (Scotland) Act 1997, Section 60.