1997 CHAPTER 50

PART III U.K.

AUTHORISATION OF ACTION IN RESPECT OF PROPERTY

Authorisations

92 Effect of authorisation under Part III. U.K.

No entry on or interference with property or with wireless telegraphy shall be unlawful if it is authorised by an authorisation having effect under this Part.

93 Authorisations to interfere with property etc. U.K.

(1) Where subsection (2) applies, an authorising officer may authorise—

(a) the taking of such action, in respect of such property in the relevant area, as he may specify,

[<sup>F1</sup>(ab) the taking of such action falling within subsection (1A), in respect of property outside the relevant area, as he may specify, or]

(b) the taking of such action in the relevant area as he may specify, in respect of wireless telegraphy.

[<sup>F2</sup>(1A) The action falling within this subsection is action for maintaining or retrieving any equipment, apparatus or device the placing or use of which in the relevant area has been authorised under this Part [<sup>F3</sup>or the Investigatory Powers Act 2016] or Part II of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 or under any enactment contained in or made under an Act of the Scottish Parliament which makes provision equivalent to that made by Part II of that Act of 2000.

(1B) Subsection (1) applies where the authorising officer is a [<sup>F4</sup>National Crime Agency officer][<sup>F5</sup>giving an authorisation on an application made by virtue of subsection (3)(b) (i)], [<sup>F6</sup>an officer of Revenue and Customs][<sup>F7</sup>, an immigration officer][<sup>F8</sup>or the chair of the Competition and Markets Authority] with the omission of—

- (a) the words “in the relevant area”, in each place where they occur; and
  - (b) paragraph (ab).]
- (2) This subsection applies where the authorising officer believes—
- (a) that it is necessary for the action specified to be taken [<sup>F9</sup>for the purpose of preventing or detecting]]<sup>F10</sup>—
    - (i) serious crime, or
    - (ii) the use of an unmanned aircraft in the commission of a relevant offence], and
  - [<sup>F11</sup>(b) that the taking of the action is proportionate to what the action seeks to achieve.]
- [<sup>F12</sup>(2A) Subsection (2) applies where the authorising officer is the Chief Constable or the Deputy Chief Constable of the [<sup>F13</sup>Police Service of Northern Ireland] as if the reference in subsection (2)(a) to preventing or detecting serious crime included a reference to the interests of national security.
- [ Where the authorising officer is the [<sup>F15</sup>chair of the Competition and Markets
- <sup>F14</sup>(2AA) Authority], the only purpose falling within subsection (2)(a) is the purpose of preventing or detecting an offence under section 188 of the Enterprise Act 2002.]
- [ Where the authorising officer is the Chief Constable of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary,
- <sup>F16</sup>(2AB) the only purpose falling within subsection (2)(a) is the purpose of preventing or detecting the use of an unmanned aircraft in the commission of a relevant offence.]
- [ In the case of an England and Wales prison authorisation, the only purpose falling
- <sup>F17</sup>(2AC) within subsection (2)(a) is the purpose of preventing or detecting the use of an unmanned aircraft in the commission of a relevant offence.]
- [ In the case of a Northern Ireland prison authorisation, the only purpose falling within
- <sup>F18</sup>(2AD) subsection (2)(a) is the purpose of preventing or detecting the use of an unmanned aircraft in the commission of a relevant offence.]
- [ In the case of a Scottish penal institution authorisation, the only purpose falling within
- <sup>F19</sup>(2AE) subsection (2)(a) is the purpose of preventing or detecting the use of an unmanned aircraft in the commission of a relevant offence.]
- (2B) The matters to be taken into account in considering whether the requirements of subsection (2) are satisfied in the case of any authorisation shall include whether what it is thought necessary to achieve by the authorised action could reasonably be achieved by other means.]
- (3) An authorising officer shall not give an authorisation under this section except on an application made—
- [<sup>F20</sup>(za) if the authorising officer is within subsection (5)(a) to (c)—
    - (i) by a member of the officer's police force; <sup>F21</sup>...
    - (ii) in a case where the chief officer of police of that force (“the authorising force”) has made an agreement under [<sup>F22</sup>section 22A] of the Police Act 1996 with the chief officer of police of one or more other police forces, by a member of a collaborative force; [<sup>F23</sup>or
    - (iii) in a case where the chief officer of police of the authorising force has made an agreement under that section with the Director General of the National Crime Agency, by a National Crime Agency officer (but see subsection (3AA));]
