Audit of accounts

2 Required audit of accounts.

- (1) The accounts to which this section applies—
 - (a) shall be made up each year to 31st March or such other date as the Secretary of State may generally or in any special case direct, and
 - (b) shall be audited in accordance with this Act by an auditor or auditors appointed by the Commission.
- (2) This section applies to the accounts mentioned in Schedule 2.

3 Appointment of auditors.

- (1) An auditor appointed by the Commission to audit the accounts of a body whose accounts are required to be audited in accordance with this Act (“a body subject to audit”) may be—
 - (a) an officer of the Commission,
 - (b) an individual who is not an officer of the Commission, or
 - (c) a firm of individuals who are not officers of the Commission.
- (2) Where two or more auditors are appointed in relation to the accounts of a body, some but not others may be officers of the Commission and they may be appointed—
 - (a) to act jointly;
 - (b) to act separately in relation to different parts of the accounts; or
 - (c) to discharge different functions in relation to the audit.
- (3) Before appointing an auditor or auditors to audit the accounts of a body other than a health service body the Commission shall consult that body.
- (4) For the purpose of assisting the Commission in deciding on the appointment of an auditor or auditors in relation to the accounts of a body other than a health service body, the Commission may require the body to make available for inspection by or on behalf of the Commission such documents relating to any accounts of the body as the Commission may reasonably require for that purpose.
- (5) A person shall not be appointed by the Commission as an auditor unless—
 - (a) he is a member of one or more of the bodies mentioned in subsection (7);
 - (b) he has such other qualifications as may be approved for the purposes of this section by the Secretary of State; or
 - (c) he was approved before 1st April 1996 by the Secretary of State under section 13(5) of the ^{M1}Local Government Finance Act 1982, and the approval has not been withdrawn.
- (6) A firm shall not be appointed by the Commission as an auditor unless each of its members is a member of one or more of the bodies mentioned in subsection (7).
- (7) The bodies referred to in subsections (5) and (6) are—
 - (a) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales;

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

Changes to legislation: Audit Commission Act 1998 (repealed) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland;
 - (c) the Association of Certified Accountants;
 - (d) the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy;
 - (e) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland; and
 - (f) any other body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being approved by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section.
- (8) The appointment by the Commission of an auditor who is not an officer of the Commission shall be on such terms and for such period as the Commission may determine.
- (9) Arrangements may be approved by the Commission, either generally or in a particular case, for a person or persons to assist an auditor appointed by the Commission (whether the auditor is an officer of the Commission or not) by carrying out such of the auditor's functions under this Act as may be specified in the arrangements.
- (10) Subsection (9) does not apply to functions under section 19.
- (11) References in the following provisions of this Act to an auditor include, in relation to any function of an auditor, a reference to any person carrying out that function under arrangements approved under subsection (9).

4 Code of audit practice.

- (1) The Commission shall prepare, and keep under review, a code of audit practice prescribing the way in which auditors are to carry out their functions under this Act.
- (2) A different code may be prepared with respect to the audit of the accounts of health service bodies as compared with the code applicable to the accounts of other bodies.
- (3) A code prepared under this section shall embody what appears to the Commission to be the best professional practice with respect to the standards, procedures and techniques to be adopted by auditors.
- (4) A code does not come into force until approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, and its continuation in force is subject to its being so approved at intervals of not more than five years.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not preclude alterations to a code being made by the Commission in the intervals between its being approved in accordance with that subsection.
- (6) The Commission shall send copies of any code prepared under this section, and of any alterations made to such a code, to the Secretary of State who shall lay them before Parliament; and the Commission shall from time to time publish any such code as for the time being in force.

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

5 General duties of auditors.

- (1) In auditing accounts required to be audited in accordance with this Act, an auditor shall by examination of the accounts and otherwise satisfy himself—
- (a) if they are accounts of a health service body, that they are prepared in accordance with directions under subsection (2), [^{F1}or (2B)] of section 98 of the ^{M2}National Health Service Act 1977;
 - (b) in any other case, that they are prepared in accordance with regulations under section 27;
 - (c) that they comply with the requirements of all other statutory provisions applicable to the accounts;
 - (d) that proper practices have been observed in the compilation of the accounts;
 - (e) that the body whose accounts are being audited has made proper arrangements for securing economy, efficiency and effectiveness in its use of resources; and
 - (f) that that body, if required to publish information in pursuance of a direction under section 44 (performance information), has made such arrangements for collecting and recording the information and for publishing it as are required for the performance of its duties under that section.
- (2) The auditor shall comply with the code of audit practice applicable to the accounts being audited as that code is for the time being in force.

6 Auditors' right to documents and information.

- (1) An auditor has a right of access at all reasonable times to every document relating to a body subject to audit which appears to him necessary for the purposes of his functions under this Act.
- (2) An auditor may—
 - (a) require a person holding or accountable for any such document to give him such information and explanation as he thinks necessary for the purposes of his functions under this Act; and
 - (b) if he thinks it necessary, require the person to attend before him in person to give the information or explanation or to produce the document.
- ^{F2}(3)
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (2), the auditor may—
 - (a) require any officer or member of a body subject to audit to give him such information or explanation as he thinks necessary for the purposes of his functions under this Act; and
 - (b) if he thinks it necessary, require the officer or member to attend before him in person to give the information or explanation.
- (5) Without prejudice to subsections (1) to (4), every body subject to audit shall provide the auditor with every facility and all information which he may reasonably require for the purposes of his functions under this Act.
- (6) A person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any requirement of an auditor under subsection (1), (2) or (4) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale, and
 - (b) to an additional fine not exceeding £20 for each day on which the offence continues after conviction for that offence.
- (7) Any expenses incurred by an auditor in connection with proceedings for an offence under subsection (6) alleged to have been committed in relation to the audit of the accounts of any body, so far as not recovered from any other source, are recoverable from that body.

7 Fees for audit.

- (1) The Commission shall prescribe a scale or scales of fees in respect of the audit of accounts which are required to be audited in accordance with this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

Changes to legislation: Audit Commission Act 1998 (repealed) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Before prescribing any scale of fees under subsection (1) the Commission shall consult—
- (a) if the scale relates to the audit of accounts of a health service body, such organisations connected with the health service as appear to the Commission to be concerned;
 - (b) if the scale relates to the audit of accounts of any other body, such associations of local authorities as appear to the Commission to be concerned; and
 - (c) in any case, such bodies of accountants as appear to the Commission to be appropriate.
- (3) A body subject to audit shall, subject to subsection (4), pay to the Commission the fee applicable to the audit in accordance with the appropriate scale.
- (4) If it appears to the Commission that the work involved in a particular audit was substantially more or less than that envisaged by the appropriate scale, the Commission may charge a fee which is larger or smaller than that referred to in subsection (3).
- (5) For the purpose of determining the fee payable for an audit, a body whose accounts are being audited or (if it is a parish meeting) its chairman shall—
- (a) complete a statement containing such information as the Commission may require and submit it to the auditor, and
 - (b) provide the Commission with such further information as it may at any time require.
- (6) The auditor shall send the statement mentioned in subsection (5)(a) to the Commission on the conclusion of the audit with a certificate that the statement is correct to the best of his knowledge and belief.
- (7) The fee payable for an audit shall be the same whether the auditor who carries it out is an officer of the Commission or not.
- (8) If the Secretary of State considers it necessary or desirable to do so, he may by regulations prescribe a scale or scales of fees to have effect, for such period as is specified in the regulations, in place of any scale or scales prescribed by the Commission; and, if he does so, references in subsections (3) and (4) to the appropriate scale are to be read as respects that period as references to the appropriate scale prescribed by the Secretary of State.
- (9) Before making any regulations under subsection (8) the Secretary of State shall consult—
- (a) the Commission,
 - (b) such associations of local authorities as appear to him to be concerned, and
 - (c) such bodies of accountants as appear to him to be appropriate.

Auditors' reports and recommendations

8 Immediate and other reports in public interest.

In auditing accounts required to be audited in accordance with this Act, the auditor shall consider—

- (a) whether, in the public interest, he should make a report on any matter coming to his notice in the course of the audit, in order for it to be considered by the body concerned or brought to the attention of the public, and
- (b) whether the public interest requires any such matter to be made the subject of an immediate report rather than of a report to be made at the conclusion of the audit.

9 General report.

(1) When an auditor has concluded his audit of the accounts of any body under this Act he shall, subject to subsection (2), enter on the relevant statement of accounts prepared pursuant to regulations under section 27 (or, where no such statement is required to be prepared, on the accounts)—

- (a) a certificate that he has completed the audit in accordance with this Act, and
- (b) his opinion on the statement (or, as the case may be, on the accounts).

(2) Where an auditor makes a report to the body concerned under section 8 at the conclusion of the audit, he may include the certificate and opinion referred to in subsection (1) in that report instead of making an entry on the statement or accounts.

10 Transmission and consideration of section 8 reports.

(1) Any report under section 8 shall be sent by the auditor to the body concerned or (if it is a parish meeting) to its chairman—

- (a) forthwith if it is an immediate report;
- (b) otherwise not later than 14 days after conclusion of the audit.

(2) A copy of the report shall be sent by the auditor to the Commission and (in the case of a health service body) to the Secretary of State ^[F3]and (in the case of a functional body or the London Pensions Fund Authority) to the Mayor of London—

- (a) forthwith if it is an immediate report;
- (b) otherwise not later than 14 days after conclusion of the audit.

(3) The body concerned ^[F4](and, in the case of the Greater London Authority, the London Assembly)] shall take the report into consideration—

- (a) in accordance with sections 11 ^[F5], 11A] and 12, or
- (b) if section 11 does not apply to the body, as soon as practicable after receiving it.

(4) The agenda supplied to the members for the meeting of the body at which the report is considered shall be accompanied by the report.

^F6 In the case of a report relating to the Greater London Authority, subsection (4) shall apply in relation to the meeting of the London Assembly under section 11A(3) (taking the reference to the body as a reference to that Assembly).]

(5) The report shall not be excluded—

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

Changes to legislation: Audit Commission Act 1998 (repealed) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) from the matter supplied under section 1(4)(b) of the ^{M3}Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings) Act 1960 or section 100B(7) of the 1972 Act (supply of agenda etc. to newspapers); or
 - (b) from the documents open to inspection under section 100B(1) of the 1972 Act (public access to agenda and reports before meetings).
- (6) Part VA of the 1972 Act has effect in relation to the report as if section 100C(1)(d) of that Act (public access to copies of reports for six years after meeting) were not limited to so much of the report as relates to an item during which the meeting was open to the public.

11 Consideration of reports or recommendations.

- (1) A body to which this section applies shall consider in accordance with this section and section 12 [^{F7}(and, in the case of a report or recommendations sent to the Greater London Authority, section 11A)]—
- (a) any report under section 8, and
 - (b) any written recommendation within subsection (3),
- sent to the body or (if a parish meeting) its chairman in connection with the audit of its accounts.
- (2) This section applies to every body subject to audit except—
- (a) charter trustees constituted under section 246 of the 1972 Act;
 - (b) health service bodies;
 - (c) port health authorities;
 - (d) licensing planning committees;
 - (e) internal drainage boards;

- (3) A written recommendation is within this subsection if it is made to the body concerned by an auditor and is stated in the document containing it to be one which in the auditor's opinion should be considered under this section.
- [^{F10}(3A) In relation to the Greater London Authority, subsections (4) to (7) shall not apply (but section 11A has effect in place of them).]
- (4) The body concerned shall consider the report or recommendation at a meeting held before the end of [^{F11}one month] beginning with the day on which the report or recommendation was sent to the body or its chairman (as the case may be).
- (5) At that meeting the body shall decide—
- whether the report requires the body to take any action or whether the recommendation is to be accepted; and
 - what, if any, action to take in response to the report or recommendation.
- (6) If an auditor is satisfied that it is reasonable to allow more time for the body to comply with its duties under subsections (4) and (5) in relation to a report or recommendation, the auditor may, in relation to that report or recommendation, extend the period of [^{F12}one month] mentioned in subsection (4).
- (7) A period may be extended under subsection (6) whether or not it has already been extended under that subsection once or more than once.

[^{F15}11A Greater London Authority: consideration of reports and recommendations.

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a report under section 8, or
 - (b) any written recommendation within subsection (3) of section 11, is sent to the Greater London Authority in connection with the audit of its accounts.
- (2) The Mayor shall consider the report or recommendation preparatory to making the decisions under subsection (6).
- (3) The Assembly shall consider the report or recommendation at a meeting.
- (4) At that meeting the Assembly shall decide what recommendations to make to the Mayor as to the decisions to be made under subsection (6).
- (5) The Mayor must attend the meeting.
- (6) After the meeting, the Mayor shall decide—
 - (a) whether the report requires the Authority to take any action or whether the recommendation is to be accepted; and
 - (b) what (if any) action to take in response to the report or recommendation.
- (7) In making any decision under subsection (6), the Mayor shall take account of any recommendations made by the Assembly pursuant to subsection (4).
- (8) The duties imposed on the Mayor and Assembly by subsections (2) to (6) must be performed before the end of the period of [^{F16}one month] beginning with the day on which the report or recommendation was sent to the Authority.
- (9) If an auditor is satisfied that it is reasonable to allow more time for the performance of those duties in relation to a report or recommendation, he may, in relation to that report or recommendation, extend the period of [^{F17}one month] mentioned in subsection (8).

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

Changes to legislation: Audit Commission Act 1998 (repealed) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (10) A period may be extended under subsection (9) whether or not it has already been extended under that subsection once or more than once.
- (11) Any functions of the Mayor under this section must be exercised by the Mayor personally.
- (12) Section 54 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999 (discharge of Assembly functions by committees etc) shall not apply in relation to any function of the Assembly under this section.
- (13) Subsection (9) of section 11 applies in relation to this section as it applies in relation to that section.
- (14) In this section—
 - “the Assembly” means the London Assembly;
 - “the Authority” means the Greater London Authority;
 - “the Mayor” means the Mayor of London.]

[^{F33}18 Recovery of amount not accounted for etc.

- (1) Where it appears to the auditor carrying out an audit under this Act, other than an audit of accounts of a health service body—
- that any person has failed to bring into account a sum which should have been brought into account and that the failure has not been sanctioned by the Secretary of State, or
 - that a loss has been incurred or deficiency caused by the wilful misconduct of any person,
- the auditor shall certify that the sum, or the amount of the loss or deficiency, is due from that person.
- (2) Subject to subsections (4) and (8), both the auditor and the body concerned (or, if it is a parish meeting, its chairman) may recover for the benefit of the body a sum or amount certified under this section as due; and if the sum or amount is certified to be due from two or more persons, they shall be jointly and severally liable for it.
- (3) A person aggrieved by a decision of an auditor to certify under this section that a sum or amount is due from him may—
- not later than six weeks after being notified of the decision, require the auditor to state in writing the reasons for his decision, and
 - appeal against the decision to the court.

[^{F35}19A Other bodies: advisory notices.

(1) The auditor for the time being of the accounts of a body subject to audit other than a health service body may issue a notice under this section (“an advisory notice”) if he has reason to believe that the body or an officer of the body—

- (a) is about to make or has made a decision which involves or would involve the body incurring expenditure which is unlawful,
- (b) is about to take or has begun to take a course of action which, if pursued to its conclusion, would be unlawful and likely to cause a loss or deficiency, or
- (c) is about to enter an item of account, the entry of which is unlawful.

(2) For the purposes of this section and section 19B the actions of—

- (a) a committee or sub-committee of a body, or
 - (b) any other person (other than an officer) authorised to act on behalf of the body,
- are to be treated as the actions of the body itself.

(3) An advisory notice is a notice which—

- (a) is addressed to the body or officer concerned,
- (b) specifies the paragraph of subsection (1) which is relevant and the decision, course of action or item of account to which the notice relates,

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

Changes to legislation: Audit Commission Act 1998 (repealed) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) specifies that the notice will take effect on the day a copy of the notice is served on the person to whom it is addressed, and
 - (d) requires the body or officer before—
 - (i) making or implementing the decision,
 - (ii) taking or continuing to take the course of action, or
 - (iii) entering the item of account,
 (as the case may be) to give the person who is for the time being the auditor of the accounts of the body not less than the specified number of days' notice in writing of the intention of the body or officer to do that thing,
- and in paragraph (d) the reference to the specified number is to such number not exceeding 21 as is specified in the notice.
- (4) Where two or more auditors are appointed in relation to the accounts of any body—
 - (a) the power to issue an advisory notice may be exercised by the auditors acting jointly or by such one of them as they may determine, and
 - (b) in relation to such a notice, references in subsections (5) and (6) to the auditor are references to the auditor or auditors by whom the notice is issued.
 - (5) A copy of an advisory notice—
 - (a) shall be served on the body to which, or to an officer of which, it is addressed,
 - (b) in the case of a notice addressed to an officer, shall also be served on him, and
 - (c) may be served on such other person or persons as the auditor considers appropriate.
 - (6) The auditor shall serve a statement of his reasons for the belief referred to in subsection (1) on the body concerned, and on any officer on whom a copy of the notice was served under subsection (5)(b), before the end of the period of 7 days beginning on the day on which a copy of the notice was served on the person to whom it is addressed.
 - (7) Where this section requires any document to be served on an officer of a body, it shall be served on him by addressing it to him and delivering it to him or leaving it at, or sending it by post to, the office at which he is employed.
 - (8) An advisory notice may at any time be withdrawn by the person who is for the time being the auditor in relation to the accounts of the body to which, or to an officer of which, the notice was addressed, and the auditor shall give notice in writing of the withdrawal to any body or person on whom a copy of the advisory notice was served under subsection (5).]

F35 S. 19A inserted (19.12.2000 (E.) and for specified purposes (W.) and otherwise^{prosp.}) by 2000 c. 22, ss. 91(1), 108(3); S.I. 2000/3335, art. 2

[^{F36}19B Effect of an advisory notice.

- (1) While an advisory notice has effect, it is not lawful for the body concerned or any officer of that body—
 - (a) where the notice relates to a decision, to make or implement the decision,
 - (b) where the notice relates to a course of action, to take or continue to take the course of action, or

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

Changes to legislation: Audit Commission Act 1998 (repealed) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. - (c) where the notice relates to an item of account, to enter the item of account, unless and until the conditions set out in subsection (2) are satisfied.
- (2) The conditions are—
- (a) that the body has considered, in the light of the advisory notice and the statement under section 19A(6), the consequences of doing the thing mentioned in the paragraph of subsection (1) which is relevant,
 - (b) that the body or officer has given the person who is for the time being the auditor of the accounts of the body the period of notice in writing required by the advisory notice under section 19A(3)(d), and
 - (c) that that period has expired.
- (3) An advisory notice takes effect on the day on which a copy of the notice is served on the person to whom it is addressed, and ceases to have effect—
- (a) where a statement of reasons is not served in accordance with subsection (6) of section 19A, at the end of the period specified in that subsection, or
 - (b) when it is withdrawn under section 19A(8).
- (4) Any expenses reasonably incurred by an auditor in or in connection with the issue of an advisory notice are recoverable by him from the body concerned.
- (5) In this section “the body concerned”, in relation to an advisory notice, means the body to which, or to any officer of which, the notice is addressed.
- 19C.—(1) Where—
- (a) before an advisory notice is served, a body enters into a contract to dispose of or acquire an interest in land, and
 - (b) before the disposal or acquisition is completed, an advisory notice takes effect as a result of which it is unlawful for the body to complete the disposal or acquisition,
- the existence of the advisory notice does not prejudice any remedy in damages which may be available to any person by reason of the body’s failure to complete the contract.
- (2) No action lies against an auditor in respect of loss or damage alleged to have been caused by reason of the issue of an advisory notice which was issued in good faith.]

- (a) a committee or sub-committee of a body, or
 - (b) any other person (other than an officer) authorised to act on behalf of the body,
- are to be treated as the actions of the body itself.
- (3) A prohibition order is an order which—
- (a) is addressed to the body or officer concerned;
 - (b) specifies the paragraph of subsection (1) which is relevant and the decision, course of action or item of account to which the order relates;
 - (c) specifies the date on which (subject to subsection (6)) the order is to take effect, which must not be earlier than the date of service of a copy of the order in accordance with paragraph (a) or (as the case may be) paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (5); and
 - (d) requires the body or officer concerned to desist from making or implementing the decision, taking or continuing to take the course of action or entering the item of account in question (as the case may be).
- (4) Where two or more auditors are appointed in relation to the accounts of any body—
- (a) the power to issue a prohibition order may be exercised by the auditors acting jointly or by such one of them as they may determine; and

Miscellaneous

25 Extraordinary audit.

- (1) The Commission may direct an auditor or auditors appointed by it to hold an extraordinary audit of the accounts of a body subject to audit—
- (a) if it appears to the Commission to be desirable to do so in consequence of a report made under this Act by an auditor or for any other reason; or
 - (b) where the accounts are not those of a health service body, if an application for such an audit is made by a local government elector for the area of the body in question.
- (2) If it appears to the Secretary of State that it is desirable in the public interest that there should be an extraordinary audit of the accounts of a body subject to audit he may require the Commission to direct such an audit by an auditor or auditors appointed by it.
- (3) The following provisions apply to an extraordinary audit under this section as they apply to an ordinary audit under this Act—
- (a) in relation to the accounts of a body other than a health service body, sections 3, 5, 6, 8 to 13 and 16 to 18; and
 - (b) in relation to the accounts of a health service body, sections 3, 5, 6 and 8 to 10.
- (4) An extraordinary audit under this section may be held after three clear days' notice in writing to be given to the body whose accounts are to be audited or (if it is a parish meeting) to be given to its chairman.
- (5) The expenditure incurred in holding an extraordinary audit of the accounts of any body—
- (a) shall be defrayed in the first instance by the Commission, but
 - (b) may be recovered by the Commission, if it thinks fit, in whole or part from the body concerned.

26 Audit of accounts of officers.

- (1) Where an officer of a body subject to audit receives money or other property—
- (a) on behalf of that body, or
 - (b) for which he ought to account to that body,

Status: Point in time view as at 27/11/2003.

Changes to legislation: Audit Commission Act 1998 (repealed) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the accounts of the officer shall be audited by the auditor of the accounts of that body, and the provisions mentioned in subsection (2) apply with the necessary modifications to the accounts and audit.

- (2) Those provisions are—
- (a) in the case of an officer of a health service body, sections 2(1), 5 to 10 and 25;
 - (b) in any other case, sections 2(1), 5 to 10, 13 to 18, 25 and 27.

27 Accounts and audit regulations.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations applying to bodies subject to audit other than health service bodies make provision with respect to—
 - (a) the keeping of accounts;
 - (b) the form, preparation and certification of accounts and of statements of accounts;
 - (c) the deposit of the accounts of any body at the offices of the body or at any other place;
 - (d) the publication of information relating to accounts and the publication of statements of accounts;
 - (e) the exercise of any rights of objection or inspection conferred by section 14, 15 or 16 and the steps to be taken by any body for informing local government electors for the area of that body of those rights.
- (2) Regulations under this section may make different provision in relation to bodies of different descriptions.
- (3) Before making any regulations under this section the Secretary of State shall consult—
 - (a) the Commission,
 - (b) such associations of local authorities as appear to him to be concerned, and
 - (c) such bodies of accountants as appear to him to be appropriate.
- (4) If a person without reasonable excuse contravenes a provision of regulations under this section and the regulations declare that contravention of the provision is an offence, that person is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (5) Any expenses incurred by an auditor in connection with proceedings in respect of an offence under subsection (4) alleged to have been committed in relation to the accounts of any body, so far as not recovered from any other source, are recoverable from that body.

Performance standards of local authorities etc.

44 Publication of information as to standards of performance.

- (1) The Commission shall give such directions as it thinks fit for requiring relevant bodies to publish such information relating to their activities in any financial year as will, in the Commission’s opinion, facilitate the making of appropriate comparisons (by reference to the criteria of cost, economy, efficiency and effectiveness) between—
 - (a) the standards of performance achieved by different relevant bodies in that financial year; and
 - (b) the standards of performance achieved by such bodies in different financial years.
- (2) Where a relevant body is required by a direction under this section to publish information in relation to any financial year, it shall—
 - (a) make such arrangements for collecting and recording the information as secure that the information is available for publication and, so far as practicable, that everything published in pursuance of the direction is accurate and complete;
 - (b) within the period of nine months [^{F64}or, in the case of a relevant body in England, seven months] beginning with the end of that financial year, publish the information in accordance with the direction and by one of the methods permitted by section 45; and
