Appointment and dismissal of teachers of religious education

58 Appointment and dismissal of certain teachers at schools with a religious character.

- (1) In this section—
 - (a) subsections (2) to (6) apply to a foundation or voluntary controlled school which has a religious character; and
 - (b) subsection (7) applies (subject to subsection (8)) to a voluntary aided school which has a religious character; and references in this Chapter to a school which has (or does not have) a religious character shall be construed in accordance with section 69(3).

- (2) Where the number of [^{F2}teachers at] a school to which this subsection applies is more than two, [^{F3}the teachers shall] include persons who—
 - (a) are selected for their fitness and competence to give such religious education as is required in accordance with arrangements under paragraph 3(3) of Schedule 19 (arrangements for religious education in accordance with the school’s trust deed or with the tenets of the school’s specified religion or religious denomination), and
 - (b) are specifically appointed to do so.

Status: Point in time view as at 02/01/2008.

Changes to legislation: School Standards and Framework Act 1998, Chapter V is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The number of reserved teachers in such a school shall not exceed one-fifth of [^{F4}the total number of teachers], including the head teacher (and for this purpose, where [^{F4}the total number of teachers] is not a multiple of five, it shall be treated as if it were the next higher multiple of five).
- (4) The head teacher of such a school shall not, [^{F5}while he remains] head teacher of the school, be a reserved teacher.
- (5) Where the appropriate body propose to appoint a person to be a reserved teacher in such a school, that body—
 - (a) shall consult the foundation governors, and
 - (b) shall not so appoint that person unless the foundation governors are satisfied as to his fitness and competence to give such religious education as is mentioned in subsection (2)(a).
- (6) If the foundation governors of such a school consider that a reserved teacher has failed to give such religious education efficiently and suitably, they [^{F6}may—
 - (a) in the case of a teacher who is an employee, require the appropriate body to dismiss him from employment as a reserved teacher at the school, and
 - (b) in the case of a teacher who is engaged otherwise than under a contract of employment, require the governing body to terminate his engagement.]
- (7) If a teacher appointed to give religious education in a school to which this subsection applies fails to give such education efficiently and suitably, he may be dismissed on that ground by the governing body without the consent of the local education authority.
- (8) Subsection (7) does not apply—
 - (a) where the school has a delegated budget, or
 - (b) to religious education in accordance with an agreed syllabus.
- (9) In this section—

“the appropriate body” means—

 - (a) in relation to a foundation school, the governing body, and
 - (b) in relation to a voluntary controlled school, the local education authority;

“reserved teacher”, in relation to a foundation or voluntary controlled school, means a person employed [^{F7}or engaged] at the school in pursuance of subsection (2).

60 Staff at foundation or voluntary school with religious character.

- (1) This section applies to a foundation or voluntary school which has a religious character.
- (2) If the school is a foundation or voluntary controlled school, then (subject to subsections (3) and (4) below) section 59(2) to (4) shall apply to the school as they apply to a foundation or voluntary controlled school which does not have a religious character.
- (3) Section 59(2) to (4) shall not so apply in relation to a reserved teacher at the school; and instead subsection (5) below shall apply in relation to such a teacher as it applies in relation to a teacher at a voluntary aided school.
- (4) In connection with the appointment of a person to be head teacher of the school (whether foundation or voluntary controlled) regard may be had to that person's ability and fitness to preserve and develop the religious character of the school.
- (5) If the school is a voluntary aided school—
 - (a) preference may be given, in connection with the appointment, remuneration or promotion of teachers at the school, to persons—
 - (i) whose religious opinions are in accordance with the tenets of the religion or religious denomination specified in relation to the school under section 69(4), or
 - (ii) who attend religious worship in accordance with those tenets, or
 - (iii) who give, or are willing to give, religious education at the school in accordance with those tenets; and
 - (b) regard may be had, in connection with the termination of the employment [^{F9}or engagement] of any teacher at the school, to any conduct on his part which is incompatible with the precepts, or with the upholding of the tenets, of the religion or religious denomination so specified.
- (6) If the school is a voluntary aided school, no person shall be disqualified by reason of his religious opinions, or of his attending or omitting to attend religious worship, from being employed [^{F10}or engaged] for the purposes of the school otherwise than as a teacher.
- (7) Where immediately before the appointed day a teacher at a school which on that day becomes a school to which this section applies enjoyed, by virtue of section 304 or 305 of the ^{M1}Education Act 1996 (religious opinions of staff etc.), any rights not conferred on him by this section as a teacher at a school to which it applies, he shall continue to enjoy those rights (in addition to those conferred by this section) until he ceases to be employed as a teacher at the school.
- (8) In this section “reserved teacher”, in relation to a foundation or voluntary controlled school, means a person employed at the school in pursuance of section 58(2).

Discipline: general

61 Responsibility of governing body and head teacher for discipline.

- [^{F11}(1) The governing body of a maintained school shall ensure that policies designed to promote good behaviour and discipline on the part of its pupils are pursued at the school.
- (2) In particular, the governing body—
- (a) shall make, and from time to time review, a written statement of general principles to which the head teacher is to have regard in determining any measures under subsection (4); and
 - (b) where they consider it desirable that any particular measures should be so determined by the head teacher or that he should have regard to any particular matters—
 - (i) shall notify him of those measures or matters, and
 - (ii) may give him such guidance as they consider appropriate;
 and in exercising their functions under this subsection the governing body shall have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State.
- (3) Before making or revising the statement required by subsection (2)(a) the governing body shall consult (in such manner as appears to them to be appropriate)—
- (a) the head teacher; and
 - (b) parents of registered pupils at the school.
- (4) The head teacher shall determine measures (which may include the making of rules and provision for enforcing them) to be taken with a view to—
- (a) promoting, among pupils, self-discipline and proper regard for authority;
 - (b) encouraging good behaviour and respect for others on the part of pupils and, in particular, preventing all forms of bullying among pupils;
 - (c) securing that the standard of behaviour of pupils is acceptable; and
 - (d) otherwise regulating the conduct of pupils.
- (5) The head teacher shall in determining such measures—

- (a) act in accordance with the current statement made by the governing body under subsection (2)(a); and
 - (b) have regard to any notification or guidance given to him under subsection (2)(b).
- (6) The standard of behaviour which is to be regarded as acceptable at the school shall be determined by the head teacher, so far as it is not determined by the governing body.
- (7) The measures determined by the head teacher under subsection (4) shall be publicised by him in the form of a written document as follows—
- (a) he shall make the measures generally known within the school and to parents of registered pupils at the school; and
 - (b) he shall in particular, at least once in every school year, take steps to bring them to the attention of all such pupils and parents and all persons employed, or otherwise engaged to provide their services, at the school.

School attendance targets

63 School attendance targets.

- (1) Regulations may make provision for and in connection with—
- requiring, or
 - enabling the Secretary of State to require, governing bodies of maintained schools to secure that annual targets are set for reducing the level of ^{F17}... absences on the part of relevant day pupils at their schools.
- (2) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision—
- for the Secretary of State to impose such a requirement on the governing body of a maintained school where—
 - the specified condition is for the time being satisfied in relation to the school, and
 - he considers it appropriate to impose the requirement;
 - for such a requirement to be imposed by the Secretary of State in such manner, and for such period, as may be specified in or determined in accordance with the regulations;
 - for the Secretary of State, where he considers it appropriate to do so, to exempt the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to any school year, from a requirement imposed by virtue of subsection (1)(a) or (b).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a)(i) the specified condition is for the time being satisfied in relation to a maintained school if in the previous school year the level of ^{F18}... absences on the part of relevant day pupils at the school (as determined in accordance with the regulations) exceeded such level as may for that year be specified in or determined in accordance with the regulations.

- [^{F19}(3A) Provision made by regulations under this section may relate to—
- absences which are authorised pursuant to regulations under section 434 of the Education Act 1996, or
 - absences which are not so authorised, or
 - both.]

- (4) In this section—
- “relevant day pupil” means a pupil registered at a maintained school who is of compulsory school age and is not a boarder;
