

National Minimum Wage Act 1998

1998 CHAPTER 39

Regulations relating to the national minimum wage

2 Determination of hourly rate of remuneration

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for determining what is the hourly rate at which a person is to be regarded for the purposes of this Act as remunerated by his employer in respect of his work in any pay reference period.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for determining the hourly rate in cases where—
 - (a) the remuneration, to the extent that it is at a periodic rate, is at a single rate;
 - (b) the remuneration is, in whole or in part, at different rates applicable at different times or in different circumstances;
 - (c) the remuneration is, in whole or in part, otherwise than at a periodic rate or rates;
 - (d) the remuneration consists, in whole or in part, of benefits in kind.
- (3) The regulations may make provision with respect to—
 - (a) circumstances in which, times at which, or the time for which, a person is to be treated as, or as not, working, and the extent to which a person is to be so treated;
 - (b) the treatment of periods of paid or unpaid absence from, or lack of, work and of remuneration in respect of such periods.
- (4) The provision that may be made by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (3) above includes provision for or in connection with—
 - (a) treating a person as, or as not, working for a maximum or minimum time, or for a proportion of the time, in any period;
 - (b) determining any matter to which that paragraph relates by reference to the terms of an agreement.
- (5) The regulations may make provision with respect to—
 - (a) what is to be treated as, or as not, forming part of a person's remuneration, and the extent to which it is to be so treated;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) the valuation of benefits in kind;
 - (c) the treatment of deductions from earnings;
 - (d) the treatment of any charges or expenses which a person is required to bear.
- (6) The regulations may make provision with respect to—
- (a) the attribution to a period, or the apportionment between two or more periods, of the whole or any part of any remuneration or work, whether or not the remuneration is received or the work is done within the period or periods in question;
 - (b) the aggregation of the whole or any part of the remuneration for different periods;
 - (c) the time at which remuneration is to be treated as received or accruing.
- (7) Subsections (2) to (6) above are without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above.
- (8) No provision shall be made under this section which treats the same circumstances differently in relation to—
- (a) different areas;
 - (b) different sectors of employment;
 - (c) undertakings of different sizes;
 - (d) persons of different ages; or
 - (e) persons of different occupations.

3 Exclusion of, and modifications for, certain classes of person

- (1) This section applies to persons who have not attained the age of 26.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision in relation to any of the persons to whom this section applies—
- (a) preventing them being persons who qualify for the national minimum wage; or
 - (b) prescribing an hourly rate for the national minimum wage other than the single hourly rate for the time being prescribed under section 1(3) above.
- (3) No provision shall be made under subsection (2) above which treats persons differently in relation to—
- (a) different areas;
 - (b) different sectors of employment;
 - (c) undertakings of different sizes; or
 - (d) different occupations.
- (4) If any description of persons who have attained the age of 26 is added by regulations under section 4 below to the descriptions of person to whom this section applies, no provision shall be made under subsection (2) above which treats persons of that description differently in relation to different ages over 26.

4 Power to add to the persons to whom section 3 applies

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend section 3 above by adding descriptions of persons who have attained the age of 26 to the descriptions of person to whom that section applies.

- (2) No amendment shall be made under subsection (1) above which treats persons differently in relation to—
- (a) different areas;
 - (b) different sectors of employment;
 - (c) undertakings of different sizes;
 - (d) different ages over 26; or
 - (e) different occupations.
