3 Powers of Commission.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the Commission may do anything which it considers—
  - (a) is necessary or appropriate for, or for facilitating, the discharge of its functions, or
  - (b) is incidental or conducive to the discharge of its functions.
- (2) In particular, the Commission shall have power—
  - (a) to enter into any contract,
  - (b) to make grants (with or without conditions),
  - (c) to make loans,
  - (d) to invest money,
  - (e) to promote or assist in the promotion of publicity relating to its functions,
  - (f) to undertake any inquiry or investigation which it may consider appropriate in relation to the discharge of any of its functions, and
  - (g) to give the <sup>F6</sup>Lord Chancellor] any advice which it may consider appropriate in relation to matters concerning any of its functions.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not confer on the Commission power to borrow money.
- (4) The Commission may make such arrangements as it considers appropriate for the discharge of its functions, including the delegation of any of its functions.
- (5) The <sup>F6</sup>Lord Chancellor] may by order require the Commission—
  - (a) to delegate any function specified in the order or to delegate any function so specified to a person (or person of a description) so specified,
  - (b) not to delegate any function so specified or not to delegate any function so specified to a person (or person of a description) so specified, or
  - (c) to make arrangements such as are specified in the order in relation to the delegation of any function so specified.

- (b) the provision of help by the giving of advice as to how the law applies in particular circumstances,
  - (c) the provision of help in preventing, or settling or otherwise resolving, disputes about legal rights and duties,
  - (d) the provision of help in enforcing decisions by which such disputes are resolved, and
  - (e) the provision of help in relation to legal proceedings not relating to disputes.
- (3) Services which the Commission is required to fund as part of the Criminal Defence Service do not fall within subsection (2).
- (4) Every person who exercises any function relating to the Community Legal Service shall have regard to the desirability of exercising it, so far as is reasonably practicable, so as to—
  - (a) promote improvements in the range and quality of services provided as part of the Community Legal Service and in the ways in which they are made accessible to those who need them,
  - (b) secure that the services provided in relation to any matter are appropriate having regard to its nature and importance, and
  - (c) achieve the swift and fair resolution of disputes without unnecessary or unduly protracted proceedings in court.
- (5) The Commission shall fund services of the descriptions specified in subsection (2) as part of the Community Legal Service in accordance with the following sections.
- (6) The Commission shall also inform itself about the need for, and the provision of, services of the descriptions specified in subsection (2) and about the quality of the services provided and, in co-operation with such authorities and other bodies and persons as it considers appropriate—
  - (a) plan what can be done towards meeting that need by the performance by the Commission of its functions, and
  - (b) facilitate the planning by other authorities, bodies and persons of what can be done by them to meet that need by the use of any resources available to them;and the Commission shall notify the [<sup>F7</sup>Lord Chancellor] of what it has done under this subsection.
- (7) The Commission may set and monitor standards in relation to services of the descriptions specified in subsection (2).
- (8) In particular, the Commission may accredit, or authorise others to accredit, persons or bodies providing services of the descriptions specified in subsection (2); and any system of accreditation shall include provision for the monitoring of the services provided by accredited persons and bodies and for the withdrawal of accreditation from any providing services of unsatisfactory quality.
- (9) The Commission may charge—
  - (a) for accreditation,
  - (b) for monitoring the services provided by accredited persons and bodies, and
  - (c) for authorising accreditation by others;and persons or bodies authorised to accredit may charge for accreditation, and for such monitoring, in accordance with the terms of their authorisation.

- (10) The [<sup>F7</sup>Lord Chancellor] may by order require the Commission to discharge the functions in subsections (6) to (9) in accordance with the order.

Textual Amendments

- F7 Words in s. 4 substituted (12.1.2006) by The Transfer of Functions \(Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State\) Order 2005 \(S.I. 2005/3429\), art. 8, Sch. para. 4(a)

5 Funding of services.

- (1) The Commission shall establish and maintain a fund known as the Community Legal Service Fund from which it shall fund services as part of the Community Legal Service.
- (2) The [<sup>F8</sup>Lord Chancellor]—
- (a) shall pay to the Commission the sums which he determines are appropriate for the funding of services by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service, and
  - (b) may determine the manner in which and times at which the sums are to be paid to the Commission and may impose conditions on the payment of the sums.
- (3) In making any determination under subsection (2) the [<sup>F8</sup>Lord Chancellor] shall take into account (in addition to such other factors as he considers relevant) the need for services of the descriptions specified in subsection (2) of section 4 as notified to him by the Commission under subsection (6) of that section.
- (4) The [<sup>F8</sup>Lord Chancellor] shall lay before each House of Parliament a copy of every determination under subsection (2)(a).
- (5) The Commission shall pay into the Community Legal Service Fund—
- (a) sums received from the [<sup>F8</sup>Lord Chancellor] under subsection (2), and
  - (b) sums received by the Commission by virtue of regulations under section 10 or 11.
- (6) The [<sup>F8</sup>Lord Chancellor] may by direction impose requirements on the Commission as to the descriptions of services to be funded from any specified amount paid into the Community Legal Service Fund.
- (7) In funding services as part of the Community Legal Service the Commission shall aim to obtain the best possible value for money.

Textual Amendments

- (b) after taking into account the need for services of the descriptions specified in section 4(2).
- (2) Subject to that (and to subsection (6)), the services which the Commission may fund as part of the Community Legal Service are those which the Commission considers appropriate.
- (3) The Commission may fund services as part of the Community Legal Service by—
- (a) entering into contracts with persons or bodies for the provision of services by them,
  - (b) making payments to persons or bodies in respect of the provision of services by them,
  - (c) making grants or loans to persons or bodies to enable them to provide, or facilitate the provision of, services,
  - (d) establishing and maintaining bodies to provide, or facilitate the provision of, services,
  - (e) making grants or loans to individuals to enable them to obtain services,
  - (f) itself providing services, or
  - (g) doing anything else which it considers appropriate for funding services.
- (4) The [<sup>F9</sup>Lord Chancellor] may by order require the Commission to discharge the function in subsection (3) in accordance with the order.
- (5) The Commission may fund as part of the Community Legal Service different descriptions of services or services provided by different means—
- (a) in relation to different areas or communities in England and Wales, and
  - (b) in relation to different descriptions of cases.
- (6) The Commission may not fund as part of the Community Legal Service any of the services specified in Schedule 2.
- (7) Regulations may amend that Schedule by adding new services or omitting or varying any services.
- (8) The [<sup>F9</sup>Lord Chancellor]—
- (a) may by direction require the Commission to fund the provision of any of the services specified in Schedule 2 in circumstances specified in the direction, and
  - (b) may authorise the Commission to fund the provision of any of those services in specified circumstances or, if the Commission request him to do so, in an individual case.
- [<sup>F10</sup>(8A) The circumstances specified in a direction or authorisation under subsection (8) may be circumstances described by reference to—
- (a) one or more areas or localities;
  - (b) one or more descriptions of court or tribunal.
- (8B) A direction or authorisation under subsection (8) may provide that it requires or authorises the Commission to fund the provision of services only for—
- (a) one or more specified classes of person;
  - (b) persons selected—
    - (i) by reference to specified criteria; or
    - (ii) on a sampling basis.]

7 Individuals for whom services may be funded.

- (1) The Commission may only fund services for an individual as part of the Community Legal Service if his financial resources are such that, under regulations, he is an individual for whom they may be so funded.
- (2) Regulations may provide that, in prescribed circumstances and subject to any prescribed conditions, services of a prescribed description may be so funded for individuals without reference to their financial resources.
- (3) Regulations under this section may include provision requiring the furnishing of information.

8 Code about provision of funded services.

- (1) The Commission shall prepare a code setting out the criteria according to which it is to decide whether to fund (or continue to fund) services as part of the Community Legal Service for an individual for whom they may be so funded and, if so, what services are to be funded for him.
- (2) In settling the criteria to be set out in the code the Commission shall consider the extent to which they ought to reflect the following factors—
  - (a) the likely cost of funding the services and the benefit which may be obtained by their being provided,
  - (b) the availability of sums in the Community Legal Service Fund for funding the services and (having regard to present and likely future demands on that Fund) the appropriateness of applying them to fund the services,
  - (c) the importance of the matters in relation to which the services would be provided for the individual,
  - (d) the availability to the individual of services not funded by the Commission and the likelihood of his being able to avail himself of them,
  - (e) if the services are sought by the individual in relation to a dispute, the prospects of his success in the dispute,
  - (f) the conduct of the individual in connection with services funded as part of the Community Legal Service (or an application for funding) or in, or in connection with, any proceedings,
  - (g) the public interest, and

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (h) such other factors as the [<sup>F11</sup>Lord Chancellor] may by order require the Commission to consider.
- (3) The criteria set out in the code shall reflect the principle that in many family disputes mediation will be more appropriate than court proceedings.
- (4) The code shall seek to secure that, where more than one description of service is available, the service funded is that which (in all the circumstances) is the most appropriate having regard to the criteria set out in the code.
- (5) The code shall also specify procedures for the making of decisions about the funding of services by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service, including—
  - (a) provision about the form and content of applications for funding,
  - (b) provision imposing conditions which must be satisfied by an individual applying for funding,
  - (c) provision requiring applicants to be informed of the reasons for any decision to refuse an application,
  - (d) provision for the giving of information to individuals whose applications are refused about alternative ways of obtaining or funding services, and
  - (e) provision establishing procedures for appeals against decisions about funding and for the giving of information about those procedures.
- (6) The code may make different provision for different purposes.
- (7) The Commission may from time to time prepare a revised version of the code.
- (8) Before preparing the code the Commission shall undertake such consultation as appears to it to be appropriate; and before revising the code the Commission shall undertake such consultation as appears to it to be appropriate unless it considers that it is desirable for the revised version to come into force without delay.
- (9) The [<sup>F11</sup>Lord Chancellor] may by order require the Commission to discharge its functions relating to the code in accordance with the order.

[<sup>F12</sup>8A Funding code: pilot provisions

- (1) The code may contain provisions (“pilot provisions”) which are to have effect for a specified period not exceeding 3 years.
- (2) Pilot provisions may be expressed so as to apply only in relation to—
  - (a) one or more specified areas or localities;
  - (b) one or more specified descriptions of court or tribunal;
  - (c) one or more specified descriptions of service that may be provided as part of the Community Legal Service;
  - (d) one or more specified classes of person;
  - (e) persons selected—

- (ii) on a sampling basis.
- (3) Pilot provisions may disapply any other provision of the code in relation to any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (2).
- (4) The period for the time being specified in relation to pilot provisions may be revised—
  - (a) if the period is one of less than 3 years, so that it becomes a longer period not exceeding 3 years;
  - (b) so that it becomes a period which exceeds 3 years by such amount as the Commission thinks necessary for the purpose of securing that the pilot provisions remain in operation until the coming into force of a revised code that contains similar provisions that will have effect—
    - (i) generally, or
    - (ii) for purposes wider than those for which the pilot provisions have effect.
- (5) If the code contains pilot provisions, the code may also contain consequential or transitional provision with respect to the cessation of the pilot provisions on the expiry of the specified period (or that period as revised under subsection (4)).]

9 Procedure relating to funding code.

- (1) After preparing the code or a revised version of the code the Commission shall send a copy to the [<sup>F13</sup>Lord Chancellor] .
- (2) If he approves it he shall lay it before each House of Parliament.
- (3) The Commission shall publish—
  - (a) the code as first approved by the [<sup>F13</sup>Lord Chancellor] , and
  - (b) where he approves a revised version, either the revisions or the revised code as appropriate.
- (4) The code as first approved by the [<sup>F13</sup>Lord Chancellor] shall not come into force until it has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) A revised version of the code which does not contain changes in the criteria set out in the code [<sup>F14</sup>or changes made in pursuance of section 8A] shall not come into force until it has been laid before each House of Parliament.
- (6) Subject as follows, a revised version of the code which does contain such changes shall not come into force until it has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (7) Where the [<sup>F13</sup>Lord Chancellor] considers that it is desirable for a revised version of the code containing such changes to come into force without delay, he may (when laying the revised version before Parliament) also lay before each House a statement of his reasons for so considering.
- (8) In that event the revised version of the code—

10 Terms of provision of funded services.

- (1) An individual for whom services are funded by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service shall not be required to make any payment in respect of the services except where regulations otherwise provide.
- (2) Regulations may provide that, in prescribed circumstances, an individual for whom services are so funded shall—
  - (a) pay a fee of such amount as is fixed by or determined under the regulations,
  - (b) if his financial resources are, or relevant conduct is, such as to make him liable to do so under the regulations, pay the cost of the services or make a contribution in respect of the cost of the services of such amount as is so fixed or determined, or
  - (c) if the services relate to a dispute and he has agreed to make a payment (which may exceed the cost of the services) only in specified circumstances, make in those circumstances a payment of the amount agreed, or determined in the manner agreed, by him; and in paragraph (b) “relevant conduct” means conduct in connection with the services (or any application for their funding) or in, or in connection with, any proceedings in relation to which they are provided.

- (3) The regulations may include provision for any amount payable in accordance with the regulations to be payable by periodical payments or one or more capital sums, or both.
- (4) The regulations may also include provision for the payment by an individual of interest (on such terms as may be prescribed) in respect of—
  - (a) any loan made to him by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service,
  - (b) any payment in respect of the cost of services required by the regulations to be made by him later than the time when the services are provided, or
  - (c) so much of any payment required by the regulations to be made by him which remains unpaid after the time when it is required to be paid.
- (5) The regulations shall include provision for the repayment to an individual of any payment made by him in excess of his liability under the regulations.
- (6) The regulations may—
  - (a) include provision requiring the furnishing of information, and

- (b) make provision for the determination of the cost of services for the purposes of the regulations.
- (7) Except so far as regulations otherwise provide, where services have been funded by the Commission for an individual as part of the Community Legal Service—
- (a) sums expended by the Commission in funding the services (except to the extent that they are recovered under section 11), and
  - (b) other sums payable by the individual by virtue of regulations under this section,
- shall constitute a first charge on any property recovered or preserved by him (whether for himself or any other person) in any proceedings or in any compromise or settlement of any dispute in connection with which the services were provided.
- (8) Regulations may make provision about the charge, including—
- (a) provision as to whether it is in favour of the Commission or the body or person by whom the services were provided, and
  - (b) provision about its enforcement.

- (1) Except in prescribed circumstances, costs ordered against an individual in relation to any proceedings or part of proceedings funded for him shall not exceed the amount (if any) which is a reasonable one for him to pay having regard to all the circumstances including—
- (a) the financial resources of all the parties to the proceedings, and
  - (b) their conduct in connection with the dispute to which the proceedings relate;
- and for this purpose proceedings, or a part of proceedings, are funded for an individual if services relating to the proceedings or part are funded for him by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service.
- (2) In assessing for the purposes of subsection (1) the financial resources of an individual for whom services are funded by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service, his clothes and household furniture and the tools and implements of his trade shall not be taken into account, except so far as may be prescribed.
- (3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), regulations may make provision about costs in relation to proceedings in which services are funded by the Commission for any of the parties as part of the Community Legal Service.
- (4) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) specifying the principles to be applied in determining the amount of any costs which may be awarded against a party for whom services are funded by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service,

- (b) limiting the circumstances in which, or extent to which, an order for costs may be enforced against such a party,
- (c) as to the cases in which, and extent to which, such a party may be required to give security for costs and the manner in which it is to be given,
- (d) requiring the payment by the Commission of the whole or part of any costs incurred by a party for whom services are not funded by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service,
- (e) specifying the principles to be applied in determining the amount of any costs which may be awarded to a party for whom services are so funded,
- (f) requiring the payment to the Commission, or the person or body by which the services were provided, of the whole or part of any sum awarded by way of costs to such a party, and
- (g) as to the court, tribunal or other person or body by whom the amount of any costs is to be determined and the extent to which any determination of that amount is to be final.

<sup>F15</sup>11A Pilot schemes

- (1) This section applies to the following instruments—
  - (a) any order under section 6(4) or 8(9),
  - (b) any regulations under section 6(7), 7, 10 or 11, and
  - (c) any regulations under section 22(5) having effect in relation to the Community Legal Service.
- (2) Any instrument to which this section applies may be made so as to have effect for a specified period not exceeding 3 years.
- (3) In the following provisions of this section—
  - (a) “pilot scheme” means any instrument which, in accordance with subsection (2), is made so as to have effect for a limited period;
  - (b) “connected instrument”, in relation to a pilot scheme, means an instrument made under the same provision as the pilot scheme.
- (4) A pilot scheme may provide that its provisions, or the provisions of a connected instrument, are to apply only in relation to—
  - (a) one or more specified areas or localities;
  - (b) one or more specified descriptions of court or tribunal;
  - (c) one or more specified descriptions of service that may be provided as part of the Community Legal Service;
  - (d) one or more specified classes of person;
  - (e) persons selected—
    - (i) by reference to specified criteria; or
    - (ii) on a sampling basis.
- (5) The period for the time being specified in a pilot scheme may be varied—
  - (a) if the period is one of less than 3 years, so that it becomes a longer period not exceeding 3 years;
  - (b) so that it becomes a period which exceeds 3 years by such amount as the Lord Chancellor thinks necessary for the purpose of securing that the pilot scheme remains in operation until the coming into force of a connected instrument that will have effect—

Status: Point in time view as at 03/12/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

*Changes to legislation: Access to Justice Act 1999 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. ## 17 Terms of provision of funded services.

- (1) An individual for whom services are funded by the Commission as part of the Criminal Defence Service shall not be required to make any payment in respect of the services except where subsection (2) applies [<sup>F26</sup>or regulations under section 17A otherwise provide].
- (2) Where representation for an individual in respect of criminal proceedings in any court other than a magistrates' court is funded by the Commission as part of the Criminal Defence Service, the court may, subject to regulations under subsection (3), make an order requiring him to pay some or all of the cost of any representation so funded for him (in proceedings in that or any other court) [<sup>F27</sup>, except insofar as he has already been ordered under regulations under section 17A to pay that cost].
- (3) Regulations may make provision about—
  - (a) the descriptions of individuals against whom an order under subsection (2) may be made,
  - (b) the circumstances in which such an order may be made and the principles to be applied in deciding whether to make such an order and the amount to be paid,
  - (c) the determination of the cost of representation for the purposes of the making of such an order,
  - (d) the furnishing of information and evidence to the court or the Commission for the purpose of enabling the court to decide whether to make such an order and (if so) the amount to be paid,
  - (e) prohibiting individuals who are required to furnish information or evidence from dealing with property until they have furnished the information or evidence or until a decision whether to make an order, or the amount to be paid, has been made,
  - (f) the person or body to which, and manner in which, payments required by such an order must be made and what that person or body is to do with them, and
  - (g) the enforcement of such an order <sup>F28</sup>. . . .
- [<sup>F29</sup>(4) Regulations under subsection (3)(g) may in particular—
  - (a) make provision for costs incurred in connection with the enforcement of an order under subsection (2) to be recovered from the individual against whom the order is made;
  - (b) provide that any overdue sums are—
    - (i) recoverable summarily as a civil debt;
    - (ii) recoverable, if the High Court or a county court so orders on the application of the person or body to which the sums are due, as if they were payable under an order of the court in question.
- (5) In this section “overdue sum” means—
  - (a) a sum which is unpaid after the time when it is required by an order under subsection (2) to be paid;
  - (b) a sum which is required to be paid under regulations made by virtue of subsection (4)(a).]

[<sup>F30</sup>17A Contribution orders

- (1) Regulations may provide that, in prescribed circumstances, where—
- an individual has been granted a right to representation, and
  - his financial resources are such as to make him liable under the regulations to do so, the relevant authority shall order him to pay the cost of his representation or to make a contribution in respect of that cost of such amount as is fixed by or determined under the regulations.

- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may include—
- provision requiring the furnishing of information;
  - provision for the determination of the cost of representation for the purposes of liability under a contribution order;
  - provision enabling the relevant authority to require that an amount payable under a contribution order be paid by periodical payments or one or more capital sums, or both;
  - provision for the payment by an individual of interest (on such terms as may be prescribed) in respect of—
    - any payment in respect of the cost of representation required by a contribution order to be made by him later than the time when the representation is provided;
    - so much of any payment which he is required by a contribution order [<sup>F31</sup>, or regulations made by virtue of subsection (2A)(a),] to make which remains unpaid after the time when it is required to be made;
  - provision about the enforcement of any liability under a contribution order, <sup>F32</sup> . . .
  - provision for the variation or revocation of contribution orders;
  - provision for an appeal to lie to such court or other person or body as may be prescribed against a contribution order;
  - such transitional provision as the Lord Chancellor may consider appropriate.

[ Enforcement regulations may in particular—

- <sup>F33</sup>(2A)
  - make provision for costs incurred in connection with the enforcement of a contribution order to be recovered from the individual against whom the order is made;
  - provide for the withdrawal of an individual's right to representation in certain circumstances;
  - provide that any overdue sums are—
    - recoverable summarily as a civil debt;
    - recoverable, if the High Court or a county court so orders on the application of the person or body to which the sums are due, as if they were payable under an order of the court in question;

18 Funding.

- (1) The [<sup>F37</sup>Lord Chancellor] shall pay to the Commission such sums as are required to meet the costs of any advice, assistance and representation funded by the Commission as part of the Criminal Defence Service.
- (2) The [<sup>F37</sup>Lord Chancellor] may—
- determine the manner in which and times at which the sums referred to in subsection (1) shall be paid to the Commission, and
  - impose conditions on the payment of the sums.
- (3) In funding services as part of the Criminal Defence Service the Commission shall aim to obtain the best possible value for money.

Textual Amendments

[<sup>F38</sup>18A Pilot schemes

- (1) This section applies to the following instruments—
- any order under section 14 or paragraph 5 of Schedule 3,
  - any regulations under section 12, 13, 15, 17 or 17A or any of paragraphs 1A to 5 of Schedule 3, and
  - any regulations under section 22(5) having effect in relation to the Criminal Defence Service.
- (2) Any instrument to which this section applies may be made so as to have effect for a specified period not exceeding 12 months.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/12/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Access to Justice Act 1999 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (3) But if the Lord Chancellor thinks that it is necessary or expedient for either of the purposes in subsection (4), the period specified in the instrument—
- (a) may in the first instance be a period not exceeding 18 months;
  - (b) may be varied so as to become a period not exceeding 18 months.
- (4) The purposes are—
- (a) ensuring the effective operation of the instrument;
  - (b) co-ordinating the operation of the instrument with the operation of any other provision made under an enactment relating to any aspect of the criminal justice system.
- (5) The period for the time being specified in an instrument to which this section applies may also be varied so that the instrument has effect for such further period as the Lord Chancellor thinks necessary for the purpose of securing that it remains in operation until the coming into force of any order or regulations made under the same provision of this Act that will have effect—
- (a) generally, or
  - (b) for purposes wider than those for which the instrument has effect.
- (6) In the following provisions of this section “pilot scheme” means any instrument which, in accordance with subsections (2) to (5), is to have effect for a limited period.
- (7) A pilot scheme may provide that its provisions are to apply only in relation to—
- (a) one or more specified areas or localities;
  - (b) one or more specified descriptions of court;
  - (c) one or more specified offences or descriptions of offence;
  - (d) one or more specified classes of person;
  - (e) persons selected—
    - (i) by reference to specified criteria; or
    - (ii) on a sampling basis.
- (8) A pilot scheme may make consequential or transitional provision with respect to the cessation of the scheme on the expiry of the specified period (or that period as varied under subsection (3)(b) or (5)).
- (9) A pilot scheme may be replaced by a further pilot scheme making the same or similar provision.]

20 Restriction of disclosure of information.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, information which is furnished—
- (a) to the Commission or any court, tribunal or other person or body on whom functions are imposed or conferred by or under this Part, and
  - (b) in connection with the case of an individual seeking or receiving services funded by the Commission as part of the Community Legal Service or Criminal Defence Service,
- shall not be disclosed except as permitted by subsection (2).
- (2) Such information may be disclosed—
- (a) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Commission to discharge any functions imposed or conferred on it by or under this Part,
  - (b) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the [<sup>F40</sup>Lord Chancellor] to discharge any functions imposed or conferred on him by or under this Part,
  - (c) for the purpose of enabling or assisting any court, tribunal or other person or body to discharge any functions imposed or conferred on it by or under this Part,
  - (d) except where regulations otherwise provide, for the purpose of the investigation or prosecution of any offence (or suspected offence) under the law of England and Wales or any other jurisdiction,
  - (e) in connection with any proceedings relating to the Community Legal Service or Criminal Defence Service, or
  - (f) for the purpose of facilitating the proper performance by any tribunal of disciplinary functions.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not limit the disclosure of—
- (a) information in the form of a summary or collection of information so framed as not to enable information relating to any individual to be ascertained from it, or
  - (b) information about the amount of any grant, loan or other payment made to any person or body by the Commission.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not prevent the disclosure of information for any purpose with the consent of the individual in connection with whose case it was furnished and, where he did not furnish it himself, with that of the person or body who did.

- [<sup>F41</sup>(4A) Subsection (1) does not prevent the disclosure of information after the end of the restricted period, if–
- (a) the disclosure is by a person who is, or is acting on behalf of a person who is, a public authority for the purposes of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, and
  - (b) the information is not held by the authority on behalf of another person.
- (4B) The restricted period is the period of one hundred years starting at the end of the calendar year in which a record containing the information was first created.]
- (5) A person who discloses any information in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.
  - (6) Proceedings for an offence under this section shall not be brought without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
  - (7) Nothing in this section applies to information furnished to a person providing services funded as part of the Community Legal Service or the Criminal Defence Service by or on behalf of an individual seeking or receiving such services.

Conditional fee and litigation funding agreements

27 Conditional fee agreements.

(1) For section 58 of the <sup>M4</sup>Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 substitute—

“58 Conditional fee agreements.

- (1) A conditional fee agreement which satisfies all of the conditions applicable to it by virtue of this section shall not be unenforceable by reason only of its being a conditional fee agreement; but (subject to subsection (5)) any other conditional fee agreement shall be unenforceable.
- (2) For the purposes of this section and section 58A—
  - (a) a conditional fee agreement is an agreement with a person providing advocacy or litigation services which provides for his fees and expenses, or any part of them, to be payable only in specified circumstances; and
  - (b) a conditional fee agreement provides for a success fee if it provides for the amount of any fees to which it applies to be increased, in specified circumstances, above the amount which would be payable if it were not payable only in specified circumstances.
- (3) The following conditions are applicable to every conditional fee agreement—
  - (a) it must be in writing;
  - (b) it must not relate to proceedings which cannot be the subject of an enforceable conditional fee agreement; and
  - (c) it must comply with such requirements (if any) as may be prescribed by the Lord Chancellor.
- (4) The following further conditions are applicable to a conditional fee agreement which provides for a success fee—
  - (a) it must relate to proceedings of a description specified by order made by the Lord Chancellor;
  - (b) it must state the percentage by which the amount of the fees which would be payable if it were not a conditional fee agreement is to be increased; and
  - (c) that percentage must not exceed the percentage specified in relation to the description of proceedings to which the agreement relates by order made by the Lord Chancellor.
- (5) If a conditional fee agreement is an agreement to which section 57 of the <sup>M5</sup>Solicitors Act 1974 (non-contentious business agreements between solicitor and client) applies, subsection (1) shall not make it unenforceable.

58A Conditional fee agreements: supplementary.

- (1) The proceedings which cannot be the subject of an enforceable conditional fee agreement are—
  - (a) criminal proceedings, apart from proceedings under section 82 of the <sup>M6</sup>Environmental Protection Act 1990; and
  - (b) family proceedings.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/12/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (2) In subsection (1) “family proceedings” means proceedings under any one or more of the following—
- (a) the <sup>M7</sup>Matrimonial Causes Act 1973;
  - (b) the <sup>M8</sup>Adoption Act 1976;
  - (c) the <sup>M9</sup>Domestic Proceedings and Magistrates’ Courts Act 1978;
  - (d) Part III of the <sup>M10</sup>Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984;
  - (e) Parts I, II and IV of the <sup>M11</sup>Children Act 1989;
  - (f) Part IV of the <sup>M12</sup>Family Law Act 1996; and
  - (g) the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court in relation to children.
- (3) The requirements which the Lord Chancellor may prescribe under section 58(3)(c)—
- (a) include requirements for the person providing advocacy or litigation services to have provided prescribed information before the agreement is made; and
  - (b) may be different for different descriptions of conditional fee agreements (and, in particular, may be different for those which provide for a success fee and those which do not).

28 Litigation funding agreements.

In the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990, after section 58A (inserted by section 27 above) insert—

“58B Litigation funding agreements.

- (1) A litigation funding agreement which satisfies all of the conditions applicable to it by virtue of this section shall not be unenforceable by reason only of its being a litigation funding agreement.
- (2) For the purposes of this section a litigation funding agreement is an agreement under which—
  - (a) a person (“the funder”) agrees to fund (in whole or in part) the provision of advocacy or litigation services (by someone other than the funder) to another person (“the litigant”); and
  - (b) the litigant agrees to pay a sum to the funder in specified circumstances.
- (3) The following conditions are applicable to a litigation funding agreement—
  - (a) the funder must be a person, or person of a description, prescribed by the [F55]Lord Chancellor];
  - (b) the agreement must be in writing;
  - (c) the agreement must not relate to proceedings which by virtue of section 58A(1) and (2) cannot be the subject of an enforceable conditional fee agreement or to proceedings of any such description as may be prescribed by the [F55]Lord Chancellor];
  - (d) the agreement must comply with such requirements (if any) as may be so prescribed;
  - (e) the sum to be paid by the litigant must consist of any costs payable to him in respect of the proceedings to which the agreement relates together with an amount calculated by reference to the funder’s anticipated expenditure in funding the provision of the services; and
  - (f) that amount must not exceed such percentage of that anticipated expenditure as may be prescribed by the [F55]Lord Chancellor] in relation to proceedings of the description to which the agreement relates.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3)(a) may require a person to be approved by the [F55]Lord Chancellor] or by a prescribed person.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/12/2012. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Access to Justice Act 1999 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The requirements which the [<sup>F55</sup>Lord Chancellor] may prescribe under subsection (3)(d)—
- (a) include requirements for the funder to have provided prescribed information to the litigant before the agreement is made; and
  - (b) may be different for different descriptions of litigation funding agreements.
- (6) In this section (and in the definitions of “advocacy services” and “litigation services” as they apply for its purposes) “proceedings” includes any sort of proceedings for resolving disputes (and not just proceedings in a court), whether commenced or contemplated.
- (7) Before making regulations under this section, the [<sup>F55</sup>Lord Chancellor] shall consult—
- (a) the designated judges;
  - (b) the General Council of the Bar;
  - (c) the Law Society; and
  - (d) such other bodies as he considers appropriate.
- (8) A costs order made in any proceedings may, subject in the case of court proceedings to rules of court, include provision requiring the payment of any amount payable under a litigation funding agreement.
- (9) Rules of court may make provision with respect to the assessment of any costs which include fees payable under a litigation funding agreement.”

the coroner shall, in the absence of any exceptional reason to the contrary, adjourn the inquest and, if a jury has been summoned, may, if he thinks fit, discharge them.

- (2) Where a coroner adjourns an inquest in compliance with subsection (1) above, he shall send to the registrar of deaths a certificate under his hand stating, so far as they have been ascertained at the date of the certificate, the particulars which under the 1953 Act are required to be registered concerning the death.
  - (3) Where a coroner has adjourned an inquest in compliance with subsection (1) above, the Lord Chancellor shall send him the findings of the public inquiry as soon as reasonably practicable after their publication.
  - (4) A coroner may only resume an inquest which has been adjourned in compliance with subsection (1) above if in his opinion there is exceptional reason for doing so; and he shall not do so—
    - (a) before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the findings of the public inquiry are published; or
    - (b) if the Lord Chancellor notifies the coroner that this paragraph applies, before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the public inquiry is concluded.
  - (5) Where a coroner resumes an inquest which has been adjourned in compliance with subsection (1) above—
    - (a) the provisions of section 8(3) above shall not apply in relation to that inquest; and
    - (b) if he summons a jury (but not where he resumes without a jury, or with the same jury as before the adjournment), he shall proceed in all respects as if the inquest had not previously begun and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly as if the resumed inquest were a fresh inquest.
  - (6) Where a coroner does not resume an inquest which he has adjourned in compliance with subsection (1) above, he shall (without prejudice to subsection (2) above) send to the registrar of deaths a certificate under his hand stating any findings of the public inquiry in relation to the death.”
- (2) In section 8(4) of that Act (power to summon jury), for “either before he proceeds to hold an inquest” substitute “before he proceeds to hold an inquest, on resuming an inquest begun with a jury after the inquest has been adjourned and the jury discharged”.
  - (3) In the sidenote to section 16 of that Act (adjournment of inquest in certain cases), for “certain cases” substitute “event of criminal proceedings”.

Coroners

104 Indemnity.

(1) In the <sup>M59</sup>Coroners Act 1988, after section 27 insert—

“27A Indemnity.

- (1) A coroner shall be indemnified by the relevant council (without having to lay before them an account under section 27 above) in respect of—
  - (a) any costs which he reasonably incurs in or in connection with proceedings in respect of anything done or omitted in the exercise (or purported exercise) of his duty as a coroner;
  - (b) any costs which he reasonably incurs in taking steps to dispute any claim which might be made in such proceedings;
  - (c) any damages awarded against him or costs ordered to be paid by him in any such proceedings; and
  - (d) any sums payable by him in connection with a reasonable settlement of any such proceedings or claim.
- (2) Subsection (1) above applies in relation to proceedings by a coroner only if and to the extent that the relevant council agrees in advance to indemnify him.
- (3) A coroner may appeal to the Secretary of State, or to any person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose, from any decision of the relevant council under subsection (2) above.
- (4) Any amount due to a coroner under this section shall be paid—
  - (a) in the case of a metropolitan or non-metropolitan district council or London borough council, out of the general fund;
  - (b) in the case of a non-metropolitan county council in England, out of the county fund;
  - (c) in the case of the council of a Welsh principal area, out of the council fund; and
  - (d) in the case of the Common Council, out of the City fund.
- (5) In the case of a coroner for a coroner’s district which—
  - (a) consists of two or more metropolitan districts, special non-metropolitan districts or London boroughs;
  - (b) lies partly in each of two or more Welsh principal areas; or
  - (c) lies partly in each of two or more non-metropolitan counties in England, any amount due to the coroner under this section shall be apportioned between the councils of those districts, boroughs, areas or counties in such manner as they may agree or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by the Secretary of State.”

(2) In <sup>M60</sup>the Coroners Act (Northern Ireland) 1959, after section 5 insert—

“5A Indemnity.

- (1) A coroner shall be indemnified by the Lord Chancellor in respect of—
