- (ii) give a direction under this section providing for the measure or measures so determined to apply to evidence given by the witness.
- (3) In determining for the purposes of this Chapter whether any special measure or measures would or would not be likely to improve, or to maximise so far as practicable, the quality of evidence given by the witness, the court must consider all the circumstances of the case, including in particular—
  - (a) any views expressed by the witness; and
  - (b) whether the measure or measures might tend to inhibit such evidence being effectively tested by a party to the proceedings.
