

Employment Relations Act 1999

1999 CHAPTER 26

Other rights of individuals

19 Part-time work: discrimination.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make regulations for the purpose of securing that persons in part-time employment are treated, for such purposes and to such extent as the regulations may specify, no less favourably than persons in full-time employment.
- (2) The regulations may—
 - (a) specify classes of person who are to be taken to be, or not to be, in part-time employment;
 - (b) specify classes of person who are to be taken to be, or not to be, in full-time employment;
 - (c) specify circumstances in which persons in part-time employment are to be taken to be, or not to be, treated less favourably than persons in full-time employment;
 - (d) make provision which has effect in relation to persons in part-time employment generally or provision which has effect only in relation to specified classes of persons in part-time employment.
- (3) The regulations may—
 - (a) confer jurisdiction (including exclusive jurisdiction) on employment tribunals and on the Employment Appeal Tribunal;
 - (b) create criminal offences in relation to specified acts or omissions by an employer, by an organisation of employers, by an organisation of workers or by an organisation existing for the purposes of a profession or trade carried on by the organisation's members;
 - (c) in specified cases or circumstances, extend liability for a criminal offence created under paragraph (b) to a person who aids the commission of the offence or to a person who is an agent, principal, employee, employer or officer of a person who commits the offence;
 - (d) provide for specified obligations or offences not to apply in specified circumstances;
