

Immigration and Asylum Act 1999

1999 CHAPTER 33

PART II

CARRIERS' LIABILITY

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Pt. II (ss. 32-43) modified (7.2.2001 for certain purposes and otherwise 1.3.2001) by S.I. 2001/280, arts. 1, 2 (with art. 5)

Clandestine entrants

32 Penalty for carrying clandestine entrants.

- (1) A person is a clandestine entrant if—
- (a) he arrives in the United Kingdom concealed in a vehicle, ship or aircraft,
 - (b) he passes, or attempts to pass, through immigration control concealed in a vehicle, or
 - (c) he arrives in the United Kingdom on a ship or aircraft, having embarked—
 - (i) concealed in a vehicle; and
 - (ii) at a time when the ship or aircraft was outside the United Kingdom, and claims, or indicates that he intends to seek, asylum in the United Kingdom or evades, or attempts to evade, immigration control.
- (2) The person (or persons) responsible for a clandestine entrant is (or are together) liable to—
- (a) a penalty of the prescribed amount in respect of the clandestine entrant; and
 - (b) an additional penalty of that amount in respect of each person who was concealed with the clandestine entrant in the same transporter.
- (3) A penalty imposed under this section must be paid to the Secretary of State before the end of the prescribed period.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2000. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Immigration and Asylum Act 1999, Part II is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 20 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Payment of the full amount of a penalty by one or more of the persons responsible for the clandestine entrant discharges the liability of each of the persons responsible for that entrant.
- (5) In the case of a clandestine entrant to whom subsection (1)(a) applies, each of the following is a responsible person—
 - (a) if the transporter is a ship or aircraft, the owner or captain;
 - (b) if it is a vehicle (but not a detached trailer), the owner, hirer or driver of the vehicle;
 - (c) if it is a detached trailer, the owner, hirer or operator of the trailer.
- (6) In the case of a clandestine entrant to whom subsection (1)(b) or (c) applies, each of the following is a responsible person—
 - (a) if the transporter is a detached trailer, the owner, hirer or operator of the trailer;
 - (b) if it is not, the owner, hirer or driver of the vehicle.
- (7) Subject to any defence provided by section 34, it is immaterial whether a responsible person knew or suspected—
 - (a) that the clandestine entrant was concealed in the transporter; or
 - (b) that there were one or more other persons concealed with the clandestine entrant in the same transporter.
- (8) Subsection (9) applies if a transporter (“the carried transporter”) is itself being carried in or on another transporter.
- (9) If a person is concealed in the carried transporter, the question whether any other person is concealed with that person in the same transporter is to be determined by reference to the carried transporter and not by reference to the transporter in or on which it is carried.
- (10) “Immigration control” means United Kingdom immigration control and includes any United Kingdom immigration control operated in a prescribed control zone outside the United Kingdom.

[^{F1}32A Level of penalty: code of practice

- (1) The Secretary of State shall issue a code of practice specifying matters to be considered in determining the amount of a penalty under section 32.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2000. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Immigration and Asylum Act 1999, Part II is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 20 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Secretary of State shall have regard to the code (in addition to any other matters he thinks relevant)—
 - (a) when imposing a penalty under section 32, and
 - (b) when considering a notice of objection under section 35(4).
- (3) Before issuing the code the Secretary of State shall lay a draft before Parliament.
- (4) After laying the draft code before Parliament the Secretary of State may bring the code into operation by order.
- (5) The Secretary of State may from time to time revise the whole or any part of the code and issue the code as revised.
- (6) Subsections (3) and (4) also apply to a revision or proposed revision of the code.]

Textual Amendments

33 Code of practice.

- (1) The Secretary of State must issue a code of practice to be followed by any person operating a system for preventing the carriage of clandestine entrants.
- (2) Before issuing the code, the Secretary of State must—
 - (a) consult such persons as he considers appropriate; and
 - (b) lay a draft before both Houses of Parliament.
- (3) The requirement of subsection (2)(a) may be satisfied by consultation before the passing of this Act.
- (4) After laying the draft code before Parliament, the Secretary of State may bring the code into operation by an order.
- (5) The Secretary of State may from time to time revise the whole or any part of the code and issue the code as revised.
- (6) Subsections (2) and (4) also apply to any revision, or proposed revision, of the code.

VALID FROM 03/04/2000

34 Defences to claim that penalty is due under section 32.

- (1) This section applies if it is alleged that a person (“the carrier”) is liable to a penalty under section 32.
- (2) It is a defence for the carrier to show that he, or an employee of his who was directly responsible for allowing the clandestine entrant to be concealed, was acting under duress.
- (3) It is also a defence for the carrier to show that—
 - (a) he did not know, and had no reasonable grounds for suspecting, that a clandestine entrant was, or might be, concealed in the transporter;
 - (b) an effective system for preventing the carriage of clandestine entrants was in operation in relation to the transporter; and
 - (c) that on the occasion in question the person or persons responsible for operating that system did so properly.
- (4) In determining, for the purposes of this section, whether a particular system is effective, regard is to be had to the code of practice issued by the Secretary of State under section 33.
- (5) If there are two or more persons responsible for a clandestine entrant, the fact that one or more of them has a defence under subsection (3) does not affect the liability of the others.
- (6) But if a person responsible for a clandestine entrant has a defence under subsection (2), the liability of any other person responsible for that entrant is discharged.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C4 S. 34 applied (with modifications) (7.2.2001 for certain purposes and otherwise 1.3.2001) by S.I. 2001/280, arts. 1-4 (with art. 5)

Commencement Information

35 Procedure.

- (1) If the Secretary of State decides that a person (“P”) is liable to one or more penalties under section 32, he must notify P of his decision.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) (a “penalty notice”) must—
 - (a) state the Secretary of State’s reasons for deciding that P is liable to the penalty (or penalties);
 - (b) state the amount of the penalty (or penalties) to which P is liable;

- (c) specify the date before which, and the manner in which, the penalty (or penalties) must be paid; and
- (d) include an explanation of the steps—
 - (i) that P must take if he objects to the penalty;
 - (ii) that the Secretary of State may take under this Part to recover any unpaid penalty.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if more than one person is responsible for a clandestine entrant.
- (4) If a penalty notice is served on one of the responsible persons, the Secretary of State is to be taken to have served the required penalty notice on each of them.
- (5) The Secretary of State must nevertheless take reasonable steps, while the penalty remains unpaid, to secure that the penalty notice is actually served on each of those responsible persons.
- (6) If a person on whom a penalty notice is served, or who is treated as having had a penalty notice served on him, alleges that he is not liable for one or more, or all, of the penalties specified in the penalty notice, he may give written notice of his allegation to the Secretary of State.
- (7) Notice under subsection (6) (“a notice of objection”) must—
 - (a) give reasons for the allegation; and
 - (b) be given before the end of such period as may be prescribed.
- (8) If a notice of objection is given before the end of the prescribed period, the Secretary of State must consider it and determine whether or not any penalty to which it relates is payable.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide, in relation to detached trailers, for a penalty notice which is served in such manner as may be prescribed to have effect as a penalty notice properly served on the responsible person or persons concerned under this section.
- (10) Any sum payable to the Secretary of State as a penalty under section 32 may be recovered by the Secretary of State as a debt due to him.

[^{F2}35A Appeal

- (1) A person may appeal to the court against a penalty imposed on him under section 32 on the ground that—
 - (a) he is not liable to the imposition of a penalty, or
 - (b) the amount of the penalty is too high.
- (2) On an appeal under this section the court may—
 - (a) allow the appeal and cancel the penalty,
 - (b) allow the appeal and reduce the penalty, or
 - (c) dismiss the appeal.
- (3) An appeal under this section shall be a re-hearing of the Secretary of State’s decision to impose a penalty and shall be determined having regard to—
 - (a) any code of practice under section 32A which has effect at the time of the appeal,
 - (b) the code of practice under section 33 which had effect at the time of the events to which the penalty relates, and
 - (c) any other matters which the court thinks relevant (which may include matters of which the Secretary of State was unaware).
- (4) Subsection (3) has effect despite any provision of Civil Procedure Rules.
- (5) An appeal may be brought by a person under this section against a penalty whether or not—
 - (a) he has given notice of objection under section 35(4);
 - (b) the penalty has been increased or reduced under section 35(6).]

[^{F3}36A Detention in default of payment

- (1) This section applies where a person to whom a penalty notice has been issued under section 35 fails to pay the penalty before the date specified in accordance with section 35(2)(c).
- (2) The Secretary of State may make arrangements for the detention of any vehicle, small ship, small aircraft or rail freight wagon which the person to whom the penalty notice was issued uses in the course of a business.
- (3) A vehicle, ship, aircraft or wagon may be detained under subsection (2) whether or not the person to whom the penalty notice was issued owns it.
- (4) But a vehicle may be detained under subsection (2) only if the person to whom the penalty notice was issued—
- is the owner or hirer of the vehicle, or
 - was an employee of the owner or hirer of the vehicle when the penalty notice was issued.
- (5) The power under subsection (2) may not be exercised while an appeal against the penalty under section 35A is pending or could be brought (ignoring the possibility of an appeal out of time with permission).

37 Effect of detention.

- (1) This section applies if a transporter is detained under section 36.
- (2) The person to whom the penalty notice was addressed, or the owner or any other person claiming an interest in the transporter, may apply to the court for the transporter to be released.
- (3) The court may release the transporter if it considers that—
 - (a) satisfactory security has been tendered in place of the transporter for the payment of the penalty alleged to be due and connected expenses;
 - (b) there is no significant risk that the penalty (or one or more of the penalties) and any connected expenses will not be paid; or
 - (c) there is a significant doubt as to whether the penalty is payable and the applicant has a compelling need to have the transporter released.
- (4) If the court has not ordered the release of the transporter, the Secretary of State may sell it if the penalty in question and connected expenses are not paid before the end of the period of 84 days beginning with the date on which the detention began.
- (5) “Connected expenses” means expenses reasonably incurred by the Secretary of State in connection with the detention.
- (6) Schedule 1 applies to the sale of transporters under this section.

39 Rail freight.

(1) The Secretary of State may make regulations applying (with or without modification) any provision of this Part for the purpose of enabling penalties to be imposed in respect of a person (“a clandestine entrant”) who—

(a) arrives in the United Kingdom concealed in a rail freight wagon; and

(b) claims, or indicates that he intends to seek, asylum in the United Kingdom or evades, or attempts to evade, immigration control.

(2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision—

(a) enabling additional penalties to be imposed in respect of persons concealed with the clandestine entrant;

- (b) as to which person is (or which persons are together) liable to penalties in respect of the clandestine entrant;
 - (c) for conferring on a senior officer a power to detain any relevant rail freight wagon in prescribed circumstances;
 - (d) for conferring on the Secretary of State a power to sell in prescribed circumstances a rail freight wagon which has been detained.
- (3) Before making any regulations under this section, the Secretary of State must consult, in the way he considers appropriate, persons appearing to him to be likely to be affected by the imposition of penalties under the regulations.

Passengers without proper documents

40 Charges in respect of passengers without proper documents.

- (1) This section applies if a person requiring leave to enter the United Kingdom arrives in the United Kingdom by ship, aircraft, road passenger vehicle or train and, on being required to do so by an immigration officer, fails to produce—
- (a) a valid passport with photograph or some other document satisfactorily establishing his identity and nationality or citizenship; and
 - (b) if he requires a visa, a valid visa of the required kind.
- (2) The Secretary of State may charge the owner of the ship, aircraft or vehicle or the train operator, in respect of that person, the sum of £2,000 or such other sum as may be prescribed.
- (3) The charge is payable to the Secretary of State on demand.
- (4) No charge is payable in respect of any person who is shown by the owner or train operator to have produced the required document or documents to him or his representative when embarking—
- (a) on the ship or aircraft for the voyage or flight to the United Kingdom; or
 - (b) on the vehicle or train for the journey to the United Kingdom.
- (5) No charge is payable by a train operator, or by the owner of a road passenger vehicle, in respect of a person (“A”), if he shows that—
- (a) neither he nor his representative was permitted, under the law applicable to the place where A embarked on the journey to the United Kingdom, to require A to produce to him when embarking the required document or documents;
 - (b) he had in place satisfactory arrangements (including, where appropriate, arrangements with other persons) designed to ensure that he did not carry passengers who did not, or might not, have documents of the required kind;
 - (c) all such steps as were practicable were taken in accordance with the arrangements to establish whether A had the required document or documents; and
 - (d) all such steps as were practicable were taken in accordance with the arrangements to prevent A’s arrival in the United Kingdom where—
 - (i) A refused to produce the required document or documents to a person acting in accordance with the arrangements; or
 - (ii) for other reasons it appeared to that person that A did not, or might not, have the required document or documents.

- (6) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (5), a document—
- (a) is to be regarded as being what it purports to be unless its falsity is reasonably apparent; and
 - (b) is to be regarded as relating to the person producing it unless it is reasonably apparent that it relates to another person.
- (7) Subsection (8) applies if—
- (a) a person arrives in the United Kingdom in circumstances in which the Secretary of State is entitled to impose on the owner of a road passenger vehicle a charge under this section in respect of that person; and
 - (b) the vehicle arrived in the United Kingdom in a ship or aircraft.
- (8) The Secretary of State may impose a charge in respect of the arrival of the vehicle, or a charge in respect of the arrival of the ship or aircraft, but not in respect of both.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by order provide that this section is not to apply in relation to passengers arriving in the United Kingdom on a train who embarked on the journey to the United Kingdom—
- (a) in a country specified in the order; or
 - (b) at places so specified within a country so specified.
- (10) The Secretary of State may make an order under subsection (9) only if he is satisfied that there is in force between the United Kingdom and the country concerned an agreement providing for the operation of United Kingdom immigration control in that country or for the checking of passports and visas there.
- (11) “Road passenger vehicle” means a vehicle—
- (a) which is adapted to carry more than eight passengers and is being used for carrying passengers for hire or reward; or
 - (b) which is not so adapted but is being used for carrying passengers for hire or reward at separate fares in the course of a business of carrying passengers.
- (12) For the purposes of this section a person requires a visa if—
- (a) under the immigration rules he requires a visa for entry into the United Kingdom; or
 - (b) as a result of section 41 he requires a visa for passing through the United Kingdom.
- (13) “Representative”, in relation to a person, means an employee or agent of his.

41 Visas for transit passengers.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order require transit passengers to hold a transit visa.
- (2) “Transit passengers” means persons of any description specified in the order who on arrival in the United Kingdom pass through to another country without entering the United Kingdom; and “transit visa” means a visa for that purpose.
- (3) The order—
 - (a) may specify a description of persons by reference to nationality, citizenship, origin or other connection with any particular country but not by reference to race, colour or religion;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2000. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

C11 Ss. 40-43: power to apply (with modifications) or amend conferred (prosp.) by Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 \(c. 41\), ss. 124\(6\)\(7\), 162\(1\) (with s. 159)

42 Power to detain vehicles etc. in connection with charges under section 40.

- (1) A senior officer may, pending payment of any charge imposed under section 40, detain—
 - (a) the transporter in which the person in respect of whom the charge was imposed was carried; or
 - (b) any other transporter used (on any route) in the course of providing a service of carriage of passengers by sea, air or land by the person on whom the charge was imposed.
- (2) If a transporter is detained under subsection (1) it may continue to be detained pending payment of any connected expenses.
- (3) The court may release the transporter if it considers that—
 - (a) satisfactory security has been tendered in place of the transporter for the payment of the charge alleged to be due and connected expenses;
 - (b) there is no significant risk that the charge and any connected expenses will not be paid; or
 - (c) there is a significant doubt as to whether the charge is payable and the applicant has a compelling need to have the transporter released.
- (4) If the court has not ordered the release of the transporter, the Secretary of State may sell it if the charge in question and connected expenses are not paid before the end of the period of 84 days beginning with the date on which the detention began.
- (5) The detention of a transporter under this section is lawful even though it is subsequently established that the imposition of the charge on which the detention was based was ill-founded.
- (6) But subsection (5) does not apply if the Secretary of State was acting unreasonably in imposing the charge.
- (7) “Connected expenses” means expenses reasonably incurred by the Secretary of State in connection with the detention.
- (8) Schedule 1 applies to the sale of transporters under this section.
