1999 CHAPTER 33

PART IV

APPEALS

Leave to enter

59 Leave to enter the United Kingdom

- (1) A person who is refused leave to enter the United Kingdom under any provision of the 1971 Act may appeal to an adjudicator against—
 - (a) the decision that he requires leave; or
 - (b) the refusal.
- (2) A person who, on an application duly made, is refused a certificate of entitlement or an entry clearance may appeal to an adjudicator against the refusal.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a person appeals under this section on being refused leave to enter the United Kingdom and—
 - (a) before he appeals, directions have been given for his removal from the United Kingdom; or
 - (b) before or after he appeals, the Secretary of State or an immigration officer serves on him notice that any directions which may be given for his removal as a result of the refusal will be for his removal to a country or one of several countries specified in the notice.
- (4) The appellant may—
 - (a) object to the country to which he would be removed in accordance with the directions, or
 - (b) object to the country specified in the notice (or to one or more of those specified),and claim that he ought to be removed (if at all) to a different country specified by him.
