SCHEDULE 4 U.K.

Section 23.

FORFEITURE ORDERS

ENGLAND AND WALES

Interpretation

In this Part of this Schedule—

"forfeiture order" means an order made by a court in England and Wales under section 23, and

"forfeited property" means the money or other property to which a forfeiture order applies.

Implementation of forfeiture orders

- 2 (1) Where a court in England and Wales makes a forfeiture order it may make such other provision as appears to it to be necessary for giving effect to the order, and in particular it may—
  - (a) require any of the forfeited property to be paid or handed over to the proper officer or to a constable designated for the purpose by the chief officer of police of a police force specified in the order;
  - (b) direct any of the forfeited property other than money or land to be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the court may direct and the proceeds (if any) to be paid to the proper officer;
  - (c) appoint a receiver to take possession, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified by the court, of any of the forfeited property, to realise it in such manner as the court may direct and to pay the proceeds to the proper officer;
  - (d) direct a specified part of any forfeited money, or of the proceeds of the sale, disposal or realisation of any forfeited property, to be paid by the proper officer to a specified person falling within section 23(7).
  - (2) A forfeiture order shall not come into force until there is no further possibility of it being varied, or set aside, on appeal (disregarding any power of a court to grant leave to appeal out of time).

- (3) In sub-paragraph (1)(b) and (d) a reference to the proceeds of the sale, disposal or realisation of property is a reference to the proceeds after deduction of the costs of sale, disposal or realisation.
- (4) Section 140 of the <sup>M1</sup>Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (disposal of non-pecuniary forfeitures) shall not apply.

- 3 (1) A receiver appointed under paragraph 2 shall be entitled to be paid his remuneration and expenses by the proper officer out of the proceeds of the property realised by the receiver and paid to the proper officer under paragraph 2(1)(c).
  - (2) If and so far as those proceeds are insufficient, the receiver shall be entitled to be paid his remuneration and expenses by the prosecutor.
  - (3) A receiver appointed under paragraph 2 shall not be liable to any person in respect of any loss or damage resulting from action—
    - (a) which he takes in relation to property which is not forfeited property, but which he reasonably believes to be forfeited property,
    - (b) which he would be entitled to take if the property were forfeited property, and
    - (c) which he reasonably believes that he is entitled to take because of his belief that the property is forfeited property.
  - (4) Sub-paragraph (3) does not apply in so far as the loss or damage is caused by the receiver's negligence.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C2 Sch. 4 para. 3 applied (13.12.2001) by S.I. 2001/3927, art. 11(1)

- 4 (1) In paragraphs 2 and 3 "the proper officer" means—
  - (a) where the forfeiture order is made by a magistrates' court, the [<sup>F1</sup>designated officer] for that court,
  - (b) where the forfeiture order is made by the Crown Court and the defendant was committed to the Crown Court by a magistrates' court, the [<sup>F1</sup>designated officer] for the magistrates' court, and
  - (c) where the forfeiture order is made by the Crown Court and the proceedings were instituted by a bill of indictment preferred by virtue of section 2(2)(b) of the <sup>M2</sup>Administration of Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1933, the [<sup>F1</sup>designated officer] for the magistrates' court for the place where the trial took place.
  - (2) The proper officer shall issue a certificate in respect of a forfeiture order if an application is made by—

(2) For this purpose the proceeds of the forfeiture means the aggregate amount of any forfeited money, and (a) the proceeds of the sale, disposal or realisation of any forfeited property, (b) after deduction of the costs of the sale, disposal or realisation, reduced by the amount of any payment under paragraph 2(1)(d) or 3(1). (3) The court may make an order under this paragraph only if it is satisfied that but for the inadequacy of the offender's means it would have made a compensation order under section 130 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 under which the offender would have been required to pay compensation of an amount not less than the specified amount.]

Restraint orders

5 (1) The High Court may make a restraint order under this paragraph where—

- (3) A restraint order prohibits a person to whom notice of it is given, subject to any conditions and exceptions specified in the order, from dealing with property in respect of which a forfeiture order has been or could be made in [<sup>F4</sup>any proceedings] referred to in sub-paragraph (1) or (2).
- (4) An application for a restraint order may be made to a judge in chambers without notice.
- (5) In this paragraph a reference to dealing with property includes a reference to removing the property from Great Britain.
- [<sup>F5</sup>(6) In this paragraph "criminal investigation" means an investigation which police officers or other persons have a duty to conduct with a view to it being ascertained whether a person should be charged with an offence.]

Compensation

- (1) This paragraph applies where a restraint order is discharged under [<sup>F10</sup>paragraph 6(4) (a)].
  - (2) This paragraph also applies where a forfeiture order or a restraint order is made in or in relation to proceedings for an offence under any of sections 15 to 18 which—
    - (a) do not result in conviction for an offence under any of those sections,
    - (b) result in conviction for an offence under any of those sections in respect of which the person convicted is subsequently pardoned by Her Majesty, or
    - (c) result in conviction for an offence under any of those sections which is subsequently quashed.
  - (3) A person who had an interest in any property which was subject to the order may apply to the High Court for compensation.
  - (4) The High Court may order compensation to be paid to the applicant if satisfied—
    - (a) that there was a serious default on the part of a person concerned in the investigation or prosecution of the offence,
    - (b) that the person in default was or was acting as a member of a police force, or was a member of the Crown Prosecution Service or was acting on behalf of the Service,
    - (c) that the applicant has suffered loss in consequence of anything done in relation to the property by or in pursuance of the forfeiture order or restraint order, and
    - (d) that, having regard to all the circumstances, it is appropriate to order compensation to be paid.
  - (5) The High Court shall not order compensation to be paid where it appears to it that proceedings for the offence would have been instituted even if the serious default had not occurred.
  - (6) Compensation payable under this paragraph shall be paid—
    - (a) where the person in default was or was acting as a member of a police force, out of the police fund out of which the expenses of that police force are met, and
    - (b) where the person in default was a member of the Crown Prosecution Service, or was acting on behalf of the Service, by the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Editorial Information

X1 The omission of the cross-heading "Compensation" on 18.6.2009 gives rise to a change in the structure of this legislation on SLD which breaks the continuity of historical versions of the existing provisions which are now brought under "Restraint Orders" cross-heading.

Proceedings for an offence: timing

- 11 (1) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule proceedings for an offence are instituted—
  - (a) when a justice of the peace issues a summons or warrant under section 1 of the <sup>M4</sup>Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 in respect of the offence;
  - (b) when a person is charged with the offence after being taken into custody without a warrant;
  - (c) when a bill of indictment charging a person with the offence is preferred by virtue of section 2(2)(b) of the <sup>M5</sup>Administration of Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1933.
  - (2) Where the application of sub-paragraph (1) would result in there being more than one time for the institution of proceedings they shall be taken to be instituted at the earliest of those times.
  - (3) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule proceedings are concluded—
    - (a) when a forfeiture order has been made in those proceedings and effect has been given to it in respect of all the forfeited property, or
    - (b) when no forfeiture order has been made in those proceedings and there is no further possibility of one being made as a result of an appeal (disregarding any power of a court to grant leave to appeal out of time).

- (a) section 23 ("an Islands forfeiture order"),
- (b) paragraph 5 ("an Islands restraint order"), or
- (c) any other provision of this Part of this Schedule.
- 13 (1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands order shall have effect in the law of England and Wales.
  - (2) But such an order shall be enforced in England and Wales only in accordance with-
    - (a) the provisions of this paragraph, and
    - (b) any provision made by rules of court as to the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, such orders are to be enforced there.
  - (3) On an application made to it in accordance with rules of court for registration of a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands order, the High Court shall direct that the order shall, in accordance with such rules, be registered in that court.
  - (4) Rules of court shall also make provision—
    - (a) for cancelling or varying the registration of a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands forfeiture order when effect has been given to it, whether in England and Wales or elsewhere, in respect of all or, as the case may be, part of the money or other property to which the order applies;
    - (b) for cancelling or varying the registration of a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands restraint order which has been discharged or varied by the court by which it was made.
  - (5) If a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands forfeiture order is registered under this paragraph the High Court shall have, in relation to that order, the same powers as a court has under paragraph 2(1) to give effect to a forfeiture order made by it and—
    - (a) paragraph 3 shall apply accordingly,
    - (b) any functions of [<sup>F13</sup>the designated officer for a magistrates' court] shall be exercised by the appropriate officer of the High Court, and

- (c) after making any payment required by virtue of paragraph 2(1)(d) or 3, the balance of any sums received by the appropriate officer of the High Court by virtue of an order made under this sub-paragraph shall be paid by him to the Secretary of State.
- (6) If a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands restraint order is registered under this paragraph—
  - (a) paragraphs 7 and 8 shall apply as they apply to a restraint order under paragraph 5, and
  - (b) the High Court shall have power to make an order under section 33 of the <sup>M6</sup>Supreme Court Act 1981 (extended power to order inspection of property, &c.) in relation to proceedings brought or likely to be brought for a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands restraint order as if those proceedings had been brought or were likely to be brought in the High Court.
- (7) In addition, if a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands order is registered under this paragraph—
  - (a) the High Court shall have, in relation to its enforcement, the same power as if the order had originally been made in the High Court,
  - (b) proceedings for or with respect to its enforcement may be taken as if the order had originally been made in the High Court, and
  - (c) proceedings for or with respect to contravention of such an order, whether before or after such registration, may be taken as if the order had originally been made in the High Court.
- (8) The High Court may also make such orders or do otherwise as seems to it appropriate for the purpose of—
  - (a) assisting the achievement in England and Wales of the purposes of a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands order, or
  - (b) assisting a receiver or other person directed by a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands order to sell or otherwise dispose of property.
- (9) The following documents shall be received in evidence in England and Wales without further proof—
  - (a) a document purporting to be a copy of a Scottish, Northern Ireland or Islands order and to be certified as such by a proper officer of the court by which it was made, and
  - (b) a document purporting to be a certificate for purposes corresponding to those of paragraph 4(2) and (3) and to be certified by a proper officer of the court concerned.

Enforcement of orders made in designated countries

- (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make provision for the purpose of enabling 14 the enforcement in England and Wales of external orders.
  - (2) An "external order" means an order
    - which is made in a country or territory designated for the purposes of this (a) paragraph by the Order in Council, and
    - which makes relevant provision. (b)

(3) "Relevant provision" means—

- (a) provision for the forfeiture of terrorist property ("an external forfeiture order"), or
- (b) provision prohibiting dealing with property which is subject to an external forfeiture order or in respect of which such an order could be made in proceedings which have been or are to be instituted in the designated country or territory ("an external restraint order").

(4) An Order in Council under this paragraph may, in particular, include provision—

- which, for the purpose of facilitating the enforcement of any external order (a) that may be made, has effect at times before there is an external order to be enforced:
- for matters corresponding to those for which provision is made by, or can (b) be made under, paragraph 13(1) to (8) in relation to the orders to which that paragraph applies;
- for the proof of any matter relevant for the purposes of anything falling to (c) be done in pursuance of the Order in Council.
- (5) An Order in Council under this paragraph may also make provision with respect to anything falling to be done on behalf of the United Kingdom in a designated country or territory in relation to proceedings in that country or territory for or in connection with the making of an external order.

(6) An Order in Council under this paragraph—

- may make different provision for different cases, and (a)
- shall not be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by (b) resolution of each House of Parliament.

SCOTLAND

Implementation of forfeiture orders

In this Part of this Schedule—

15

"forfeiture order" means an order made by a court in Scotland under section 23, and

"forfeited property" means the money or other property to which a forfeiture order applies.

- 16 (1) Where a court in Scotland makes a forfeiture order it may make such other provision as appears to it to be necessary for giving effect to the order, and in particular it may—
  - (a) direct any of the forfeited property other than money or land to be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the court may direct;
  - (b) appoint an administrator to take possession, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified by the court, of any of the forfeited property and to realise it in such manner as the court may direct;
  - (c) direct a specified part of any forfeited money, or of the proceeds of the sale, disposal or realisation of any forfeited property, to be paid to a specified person falling within section 23(7).
  - (2) A forfeiture order shall not come into force so long as an appeal is pending against the order or against the conviction on which it was made; and for this purpose where an appeal is competent but has not been brought it shall be treated as pending until the expiry of a period of fourteen days from the date when the order was made.
  - (3) Any balance remaining after making any payment required under sub-paragraph (1) (c) or paragraph 17 shall be treated for the purposes of section 211(5) of the <sup>M7</sup>Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 (fines payable to the Treasury) as if it were a fine imposed in the High Court of Justiciary.
  - (4) The clerk of court shall, on the application of—
    - (a) the prosecutor in the proceedings in which a forfeiture order is made,
    - (b) the accused in those proceedings, or
    - (c) a person whom the court heard under section 23(7) before making the order, certify in writing the extent (if any) to which, at the date of the certificate, effect has been given to the order in respect of the money or other property to which it applies.
  - (5) In sub-paragraph (1) references to the proceeds of the sale, disposal or realisation of property are references to the proceeds after deduction of the costs of sale, disposal or realisation.

Administrators

17 (1) The Court of Session may by rules of court prescribe the powers and duties of an administrator appointed under paragraph 16.

- (2) An administrator appointed under paragraph 16 shall be entitled to be paid his remuneration and expenses out of the proceeds of the property realised by him or, if and so far as those proceeds are insufficient, by the Lord Advocate.
- (3) The accountant of court shall supervise an administrator appointed under paragraph 16 in the exercise of the powers conferred, and discharge of the duties imposed, on him under or by virtue of that paragraph.
- (4) An administrator appointed under paragraph 16 shall not be liable to any person in respect of any loss or damage resulting from action—
  - (a) which he takes in relation to property which is not forfeited property, but which he reasonably believes to be forfeited property,
  - (b) which he would be entitled to take if the property were forfeited property, and
  - (c) which he takes reasonably believing that he is entitled to take because of his belief that the property is forfeited property.
- (5) Sub-paragraph (4) does not apply in so far as the loss or damage is caused by the administrator's negligence.

Compensation

- x<sup>3</sup>23 (1) This paragraph applies where a restraint order is recalled under paragraph [<sup>F19</sup>19(3A) (a)].
  - (2) This paragraph also applies where a forfeiture order or a restraint order is made in or in relation to proceedings for an offence under any of sections 15 to 18 which—
    - (a) do not result in conviction for an offence under any of those sections,
    - (b) result in conviction for an offence under any of those sections in respect of which the person convicted is subsequently pardoned by Her Majesty, or
    - (c) result in conviction for an offence under any of those sections which is subsequently quashed.
  - (3) A person who had an interest in any property which was subject to the order may apply to the Court of Session for compensation.
  - (4) The Court of Session may order compensation to be paid to the applicant if it is satisfied—
    - (a) that there was a serious default on the part of a person concerned in the investigation or prosecution of the offence,

- (b) that the person in default was a constable of a police force or a constable acting with the powers of such a constable, or was a procurator fiscal or was acting on behalf of the Lord Advocate,
- (c) that the applicant has suffered loss in consequence of anything done in relation to the property by or in pursuance of the forfeiture order or the restraint order, and
- (d) having regard to all the circumstances, it is appropriate to order compensation to be paid.
- (5) The Court of Session shall not order compensation to be paid where it appears to it that the proceedings for the offence would have been instituted even if the serious default had not occurred.

(6) Compensation payable under this paragraph shall be paid—

- (a) where the person in default was a constable of a police force, out of the police fund out of which the expenses of that police force are met;
- (b) where the person in default was a constable other than is mentioned in paragraph (a) above, but with the powers of such a constable, by the body under whose authority he acts; and
- (c) where the person in default was a procurator fiscal or was acting on behalf of the Lord Advocate, by the Lord Advocate.
- (7) This paragraph is without prejudice to any right which may otherwise exist to institute proceedings in respect of delictual liability disclosed by such circumstances as are mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of sub-paragraph (2).

Enforcement of orders made elsewhere in the British Islands

In the following provisions of this Part of this Schedule—

"an England and Wales order" means—

- (a) an order made in England and Wales under section 23 ("an England and Wales forfeiture order"),
- (b) an order made under paragraph 5 ("an England and Wales restraint order"), or
- (c) an order made under any other provision of Part I of this Schedule in relation to an England and Wales forfeiture or restraint order;
  - "a Northern Ireland order" means-
- (a) an order made in Northern Ireland under section 23 ("a Northern Ireland forfeiture order"),
- (b) an order made under paragraph 33 ("a Northern Ireland restraint order"), or
- (c) an order made under any other provision of Part III of this Schedule in relation to a Northern Ireland forfeiture or restraint order;

"an Islands order" means an order made in any of the Islands under a provision of the law of that Island corresponding to—

- (a) section 23 ("an Islands forfeiture order"),
- (b) paragraph 18 ("an Islands restraint order"), or
- (c) any other provision of this Part of this Schedule.
- 27 (1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an England and Wales order, Northern Ireland order or Islands order shall have effect in the law of Scotland.
  - (2) But such an order shall be enforced in Scotland only in accordance with-
    - (a) the provisions of this paragraph, and
    - (b) any provision made by rules of court as to the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, such orders are to be enforced there.
  - (3) On an application made to it in accordance with rules of court for registration of an England and Wales order, Northern Ireland order or Islands order, the Court of Session shall direct that the order shall, in accordance with such rules, be registered in that court.
  - (4) Rules of court shall also make provision—
    - (a) for cancelling or varying the registration of an England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Islands forfeiture order when effect has been given to it, whether in Scotland or elsewhere, in respect of all or, as the case may be, part of the money or other property to which the order applies,
    - (b) for cancelling or varying the registration of an England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Islands restraint order which has been discharged or varied by the court by which it was made.
  - (5) If an England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Islands forfeiture order is registered under this paragraph the Court of Session shall have, in relation to that order, the same powers as a court has under paragraph 16(1) above in relation to a forfeiture order made by it and paragraphs 16(3) to (5) and 17 apply accordingly.
  - (6) If an England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Islands forfeiture order is registered under this paragraph—
    - (a) paragraphs 20 and 21 above shall apply as they apply to a restraint order, and
    - (b) the Court of Session shall have the like power to make an order under section 1 of the <sup>M9</sup>Administration of Justice (Scotland) Act 1972 (extended power to order inspection of documents, &c.) in relation to proceedings brought or likely to be brought for an England and Wales, Northern Ireland or Islands restraint order as if those proceedings had been brought or were likely to be brought in the Court of Session.
  - (7) In addition, if an England and Wales order, Northern Ireland order or Islands order is registered under this paragraph—
    - (a) the Court of Session shall have, in relation to its enforcement, the same power,
    - (b) proceedings for or with respect to its enforcement may be taken, and
    - (c) proceedings for or with respect to any contravention of such an order (whether before or after such registration) may be taken,
    - as if the order had originally been made in the Court of Session.

- (8) The Court of Session may also make such orders or do otherwise as seems to it appropriate for the purpose of—
  - (a) assisting the achievement in Scotland of the purposes of an England and Wales order, Northern Ireland order or Islands order, or
  - (b) assisting any receiver or other person directed by any such order to sell or otherwise dispose of property.
- (9) The following documents shall, in Scotland, be sufficient evidence of their contents—
  - (a) a document purporting to be a copy of an England and Wales order, Northern Ireland order or Islands order and to be certified as such by a proper officer of the court by which it was made, and
  - (b) a document purporting to be a certificate for purposes corresponding to those of paragraph 16(4) and to be certified by a proper officer of the court concerned.
- (10) Nothing in any England and Wales order, Northern Ireland order or Islands order prejudices any enactment or rule of law in respect of the recording of deeds relating to heritable property in Scotland or the registration of interests in such property.

Enforcement of orders made in designated countries

- 28 (1) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make provision for the purpose of enabling the enforcement in Scotland of external orders.
  - (2) An "external order" means an order—
    - (a) which is made in a country or territory designated for the purposes of this paragraph by the Order in Council, and
    - (b) which makes relevant provision.

(3) "Relevant provision" means—

- (a) provision for the forfeiture of terrorist property ("an external forfeiture order"); or
- (b) provision prohibiting dealing with property which is subject to an external forfeiture order or in respect of which such an order could be made in proceedings which have been or are to be instituted in the designated country or territory ("an external restraint order").
- (4) An Order in Council under this paragraph may, in particular, include provision—
  - (a) which, for the purpose of facilitating the enforcement of any external order that may be made, has effect at times before there is an external order to be enforced,

- (b) for matters corresponding to those for which provision is made by, or can be made under, paragraph 27(1) to (8) in relation to the orders to which that paragraph applies, and
- (c) for the proof of any matter relevant for the purposes of anything falling to be done in pursuance of the Order in Council.
- (5) An Order in Council under this paragraph may also make provision with respect to anything falling to be done on behalf of the United Kingdom in a designated country or territory in relation to proceedings in that country or territory for or in connection with the making of an external order.
- (6) An Order under this paragraph—
  - (a) may make different provision for different cases, and
  - (b) shall not be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.

NORTHERN IRELAND

Interpretation

29 In this Part of this Schedule—

"forfeiture order" means an order made by a court in Northern Ireland under section 23, and

"forfeited property" means the money or other property to which a forfeiture order applies.

Implementation of forfeiture orders

- 30 (1) Where a court in Northern Ireland makes a forfeiture order it may make such other provision as appears to it to be necessary for giving effect to the order, and in particular it may—
  - (a) require any of the forfeited property to be paid or handed over to the proper officer or to a member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary designated for the purpose by the Chief Constable;
  - (b) direct any of the forfeited property other than money or land to be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the court may direct and the proceeds (if any) to be paid to the proper officer;
  - (c) appoint a receiver to take possession, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified by the court, of any of the forfeited property, to realise it in such manner as the court may direct and to pay the proceeds to the proper officer;
  - (d) direct a specified part of any forfeited money, or of the proceeds of the sale, disposal or realisation of any forfeited property, to be paid by the proper officer to a specified person falling within section 23(7).

Status: Point in time view as at 14/10/2005. This version of this schedule contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Terrorism Act 2000, SCHEDULE 4 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A forfeiture order shall not come into force until there is no further possibility of it being varied, or set aside, on appeal (disregarding any power of a court to grant leave to appeal out of time).
- (3) In sub-paragraph (1)(b) and (d) a reference to the proceeds of the sale, disposal or realisation of property is a reference to the proceeds after deduction of the costs of sale, disposal or realisation.
- (4) Article 58 of the <sup>M10</sup>Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (disposal of non-pecuniary forfeitures) shall not apply.

- (5) If an England and Wales, Scottish or Islands forfeiture order is registered under this paragraph the High Court shall have, in relation to that order, the same powers as a court has under paragraph 30(1) to give effect to a forfeiture order made by it and—
  - (a) paragraph 31 shall apply accordingly,
  - (b) any functions of the clerk of petty sessions or the appropriate officer of the Crown Court shall be exercised by the appropriate officer of the High Court, and
  - (c) after making any payment required by virtue of paragraph 30(1)(d) or 31, the balance of any sums received by the appropriate officer of the High Court by virtue of an order made under this sub-paragraph shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
- (6) If an England and Wales, Scottish or Islands restraint order is registered under this paragraph—
  - (a) paragraphs 35 and 38 shall apply as they apply to a restraint order under paragraph 33, and
  - (b) the High Court shall have the like power to make an order under section 21 of the <sup>M19</sup>Administration of Justice Act 1969 (extended power to order inspection of property, &c.) in relation to proceedings brought or likely to be brought for an England and Wales, Scottish or Islands restraint order as if those proceedings had been brought or were likely to be brought in the High Court.
- (7) In addition, if an England and Wales, Scottish or Islands order is registered under this paragraph—
  - (a) the High Court shall have, in relation to its enforcement, the same power as if the order had originally been made in the High Court,
  - (b) proceedings for or with respect to its enforcement may be taken as if the order had originally been made in the High Court, and
  - (c) proceedings for or with respect to any contravention of such an order, whether before or after such registration, may be taken as if the order had originally been made in the High Court.
- (8) The High Court may also make such orders or do otherwise as seems to it appropriate for the purpose of—
  - (a) assisting the achievement in Northern Ireland of the purposes of an England and Wales, Scottish or Islands order, or
  - (b) assisting any receiver or other person directed by any such order to sell or otherwise dispose of property.
- (9) The following documents shall be received in evidence in Northern Ireland without further proof—
  - (a) a document purporting to be a copy of an England and Wales, Scottish or Islands order and to be certified as such by a proper officer of the court by which it was made, and
  - (b) a document purporting to be a certificate for purposes corresponding to those of paragraph 32(2) and (3) and to be certified by a proper officer of the court concerned.
