14 Fiscal marks on tobacco products. U.K.

After section 8 of the ^{M17}Tobacco Products Duty Act 1979 insert the following sections—

“8A Fiscal marks: introductory.

Fiscal marking applies to tobacco products that are—

- (a) cigarettes, or
- (b) hand-rolling tobacco.

8B Power to alter range of products to which fiscal marking applies.

- (1) The Commissioners may by order made by statutory instrument amend section 8A above for the purpose of causing fiscal marking—
 - (a) to apply to any description of tobacco products to which it does not apply, or
 - (b) to cease to apply to any description of tobacco products to which it does apply.
- (2) Where fiscal marking applies to any description of tobacco products, the Commissioners may by regulations provide that fiscal marking does not apply to such products of that description as are of a description specified in the regulations.
- (3) A statutory instrument containing (whether alone or with other provisions) an order under subsection (1)(a) above shall not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (4) A statutory instrument that—
 - (a) contains (whether alone or with other provisions) an order under subsection (1) above, and
 - (b) is not subject to any requirement that a draft of the instrument be laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament,shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

8C Fiscal mark regulations.

- (1) The Commissioners may make provision by regulations—
 - (a) requiring the carrying of fiscal marks by tobacco products to which fiscal marking applies, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) as to such matters relating to fiscal marks as appear to the Commissioners to be necessary or expedient.
- (2) In this Act “fiscal mark” means a mark carried by tobacco products indicating all or any of the following—
 - (a) that excise duty has been paid on the products;
 - (b) the rate at which excise duty was paid on the products;
 - (c) the amount of excise duty paid on the products;
 - (d) when excise duty was paid on the products;
 - (e) that sale of the products—
 - (i) is only permissible on dates ascertainable from the mark;
 - (ii) is not permissible after (or on or after) a date so ascertainable;
 - (iii) is not permissible before (or before or on) a date so ascertainable.
- (3) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make provision about—
 - (a) the contents of a fiscal mark;
 - (b) the appearance of a fiscal mark;
 - (c) in the case of tobacco products that have more than one layer of packaging, which of the layers is (or are) to carry a fiscal mark;
 - (d) the positioning of a fiscal mark on the packaging of any tobacco products;
 - (e) when tobacco products are required to carry a fiscal mark.
- (4) Regulations under this section may make different provision for different cases.

8D Fiscal marks: public notices.

- (1) The Commissioners may by notices published by them regulate any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 8C(3) above.
- (2) A notice under this section may provide for provision made by regulations under section 8C above to have effect subject to provisions of the notice.
- (3) A notice under this section may make different provision for different cases.

8E Failure to comply with fiscal mark regulations and public notices.

- (1) This section applies if a person fails to comply with any requirement imposed by or under—
 - (a) regulations made under section 8C above, or
 - (b) a notice published under section 8D above.
- (2) Any article in respect of which the person fails to comply with the requirement shall be liable to forfeiture.
- (3) The person’s failure to comply shall attract a penalty under section 9 of the ^{M18}Finance Act 1994 (civil penalties).
- (4) The Commissioners may by regulations make such provision as is mentioned in subsection (5) below about the calculation of the penalty in a case where the failure involves post-dating of any tobacco products.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

For this purpose “post-dating” means that the products carry a fiscal mark (“the later period mark”) that—

- (a) is not one they are required to carry by virtue of this Act, and
 - (b) is one they would be required to carry by virtue of this Act if the requirement to pay the duty charged on them under section 2 above took effect at a time later than that at which it in fact takes effect.
- (5) The provision that may be made by regulations under subsection (4) above is for the penalty to be calculated by reference to the duty currently charged on the products.

For this purpose “the duty currently charged” on the products is the amount of the duty charged under section 2 above that would be payable on the products if the requirement to pay the duty took effect at the time of the failure.

8F Sale of marked tobacco when not permitted: penalties.

- (1) This section applies if provision made by or under—
 - (a) regulations made under section 8C above, or
 - (b) a notice published under section 8D above,provides for any tobacco products to carry a period of sale mark.
- (2) In this section—

“a period of sale mark” means a fiscal mark indicating any of the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(e) of section 8C above; and “prohibited time”, in relation to tobacco products that carry a period of sale mark, means a time when, according to the mark, sale of the products is not permissible.

- (3) If—
 - (a) a person sells by way of retail sale, or exposes for retail sale, any tobacco products that carry a period of sale mark, and
 - (b) he so sells or exposes the products at a prohibited time,his so selling or exposing the products shall attract a penalty under section 9 of the ^{M19}Finance Act 1994 (civil penalties) and the products are liable to forfeiture.

8G Offences: possession and sale etc. of unmarked tobacco.

- (1) In this section “unmarked products” means tobacco products that are subject to fiscal marking but do not carry a compliant duty-paid fiscal mark.
- (2) For the purposes of this section “duty-paid fiscal mark” means a fiscal mark carried by tobacco products indicating that excise duty has been paid on the products.
- (3) For the purposes of this section a duty-paid fiscal mark carried by tobacco products of any description is “compliant” if it complies with all relevant requirements for any duty-paid fiscal mark that by virtue of this Act is required to be carried by such tobacco products of that description as are by virtue of this Act required to carry such a mark.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

For this purpose “relevant requirement” means a requirement, imposed by virtue of this Act, as to any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 8C(3) above (contents, appearance and positioning etc. of fiscal marks).

- (4) If a person—
- (a) is in possession of, transports or displays, or
 - (b) sells, offers for sale or otherwise deals in,
- unmarked products then, except in such cases as may be prescribed in regulations made by the Commissioners, that person commits an offence and the products are liable to forfeiture.
- (5) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (4) above to prove that the unmarked products were not required by virtue of this Act to carry a duty paid fiscal mark.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (4) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

8H Offences: use of premises for sale of unmarked tobacco.

- (1) A manager of premises commits an offence if he suffers the premises to be used for the sale of unmarked products.
- In this section “unmarked products” has the same meaning as in section 8G above.
- (2) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) above to prove that the unmarked products were not required by virtue of this Act to carry a duty-paid fiscal mark.
- For this purpose “duty-paid fiscal mark” has the same meaning as in section 8G above.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (4) A court by or before which a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) above may make an order prohibiting the use of the premises in question for the sale of tobacco products during a period specified in the order.
- (5) The period specified in an order under subsection (4) above shall not exceed six months; and the first day of the period shall be the day specified as such in the order.
- (6) A manager of premises commits an offence if he suffers the premises to be used in breach of an order under subsection (4) above.
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (6) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (8) For the purposes of this section a person is a manager of premises if he—
- (a) is entitled to control their use,
 - (b) is entrusted with their management, or
 - (c) is in charge of them.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

8J Interfering with fiscal marks: penalties.

- (1) This section applies where a person—
 - (a) alters or overprints any fiscal mark carried by any tobacco products in compliance with any provision made under this Act, or
 - (b) causes any such mark to be altered or overprinted.
- (2) His altering or overprinting of the mark, or his causing it to be altered or overprinted, shall attract a penalty under section 9 of the ^{M20}Finance Act 1994 (civil penalties).
- (3) The products that carried the mark shall be liable to forfeiture.
- (4) The penalty under subsection (2) above shall be calculated by reference to the duty currently charged on the products.

For this purpose “the duty currently charged” on the products is the amount of the duty charged under section 2 above that would be payable on the products if the requirement to pay the duty took effect at the time of the conduct attracting the penalty.”

- (b) £27.50 for a 6 month licence.
- (4) The person entitled to the refund is—
- (a) in the case of a licence in force on 28th February 2001, the keeper of the vehicle on that date;
 - (b) in the case of a licence that has ceased to be in force before that date, the keeper of the vehicle when the licence expired.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4) the keeper of the vehicle shall be taken to be—
- (a) the person registered as keeper of the vehicle on the date in question, or
 - (b) if the Secretary of State has received notification of a change of ownership of the vehicle as a result of which another person is on that date entitled to be registered as the new keeper of the vehicle, that person.
- (6) A refund shall only be made if an application is made for it in such form, and containing such particulars and supported by such documents, as the Secretary of State may require.
- (7) The Secretary of State shall give notice in writing to any person appearing to him to be entitled to a refund—
- (a) informing him that he appears to be entitled to a refund,
 - (b) enclosing an application form, and
 - (c) specifying the particulars and supporting documents to be provided.
- (8) An application for, or the making of, a refund under this section in respect of a licence does not affect the validity of the licence.
- (9) For the purposes of section 19 of the ^{M29}Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (surrender of licences) as it applies to the surrender on or after 1st March 2001 of a licence in respect of which a refund under this section has been made, or applied for, the annual rate of duty chargeable on the licence shall be taken to be that which would have been chargeable if the amendment in subsection (1) above had applied.
- (10) Section 45 of that Act (offence of false or misleading declaration) applies to a declaration in connection with an application for a refund under this section as it applies to a declaration in connection with an application for a vehicle licence.
- (11) In the application of this section to Northern Ireland, references to registration as the keeper of a vehicle shall be read as references to registration as the owner of the vehicle.

OTHER PROVISIONS

Giving to charity

38 Payroll deduction scheme. U.K.

- (1) Where in accordance with a scheme approved under section 202 of the Taxes Act 1988 (donations to charity: payroll deduction scheme) an agent is to pay to a charity any sum which—
- (a) is withheld by an employer from a payment which an employee is entitled to receive; and
 - (b) is paid by the employer to the agent,
- the agent shall, within a period prescribed by regulations made by the Treasury, pay a supplement equal to 10% of that sum to the charity.
- (2) On a claim made by an agent in such form as the Board may prescribe, the Board shall pay to the agent out of money provided by Parliament—
- (a) such amounts as are required—
 - (i) to fund the payment of supplements falling to be paid by him; or
 - (ii) to reimburse him for supplements paid by him the payment of which has not been so funded; and
 - (b) in the case of an agent which is a charity, an amount which is equal to 10% of the aggregate of sums which—
 - (i) are withheld and paid as mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) above; and
 - (ii) are sums to which the agent is itself entitled in its capacity as a charity.
- (3) The Treasury may by regulations make provision—
- (a) requiring agents to notify the Board of any failures of theirs to comply with subsection (1) above, and of the reasons for those failures;
 - (b) requiring agents to keep records of supplements paid by them under that subsection; and
 - (c) for the assessment and recovery under the Taxes Acts of amounts paid to agents under subsection (2) above which ought not to have been so paid.

The regulations may contain such supplementary and incidental provision as appears to the Treasury necessary or expedient.

(4) In this section—

“agent” means any such person or charity as is mentioned in subsection (4) of section 202 of the Taxes Act 1988;

“(3) The reference in subsection (1)(c) above to an appropriate declaration is a reference to a declaration which—

- (a) is given in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Board; and
- (b) contains such information and such statements as may be so prescribed.

(3A) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (3) above may—

- (a) provide for declarations to have effect, to cease to have effect or to be deemed never to have had effect in such circumstances and for such purposes as may be prescribed by the regulations;
- (b) require charities to keep records with respect to declarations given to them by donors; and
- (c) make different provision for declarations made in a different manner.”.

(5) After subsection (5) there shall be inserted—

“(5A) The limit imposed by this subsection is—

- (a) where the amount of the gift does not exceed £100, 25 per cent of the amount of the gift;
- (b) where the amount of the gift exceeds £100 but does not exceed £1,000, £25;
- (c) where the amount of the gift exceeds £1,000, 2.5 per cent of the amount of the gift.

(5B) Where a benefit received in consequence of making a gift—

- (a) consists of the right to receive benefits at intervals over a period of less than twelve months;
- (b) relates to a period of less than twelve months; or
- (c) is one of a series of benefits received at intervals in consequence of making a series of gifts at intervals of less than twelve months, the value of the benefit shall be adjusted for the purposes of subsection (4) above and the amount of the gift shall be adjusted for the purposes of subsection (5A) above.

(5C) Where a benefit, other than a benefit which is one of a series of benefits received at intervals, is received in consequence of making a gift which is one of a series of gifts made at intervals of less than twelve months, the amount of the gift shall be adjusted for the purposes of subsection (5A) above.

(5D) Where the value of a benefit, or the amount of a gift, falls to be adjusted under subsection (5B) or (5C) above, the value or amount shall be multiplied by 365 and the result shall be divided by—

- (5E) In determining whether a gift to a charity falling within subsection (5F) below is a qualifying donation, there shall be disregarded the benefit of any right of admission received in consequence of the making of the gift—
- (a) to view property the preservation of which is the sole or main purpose of the charity; or
 - (b) to observe wildlife the conservation of which is the sole or main purpose of the charity;
- but this subsection shall not apply unless the opportunity to make gifts which attract such a right is available to members of the public.
- (5F) A charity falls within this subsection if its sole or main purpose is the preservation of property, or the conservation of wildlife, for the public benefit.
- (5G) In subsection (5E) above “right of admission” refers to admission of the person making the gift (or any member of his family who may be admitted because of the gift) either free of the charges normally payable for admission by members of the public, or on payment of a reduced charge.”.
- (6) For subsections (6) to (9) there shall be substituted—
- “(6) Where any gift made by the donor in a year of assessment is a qualifying donation, then, for that year—
- (a) the Income Tax Acts and the ^{M40}Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 shall have effect, in their application to him, as if—
 - (i) the gift had been made after deduction of income tax at the basic rate; and
 - (ii) the basic rate limit were increased by an amount equal to the grossed up amount of the gift;
 - (b) the provisions mentioned in subsection (7) below shall have effect, in their application to him, as if any reference to income tax which he is entitled to charge against any person included a reference to the tax treated as deducted from the gift; and
 - (c) to the extent, if any, necessary to ensure that he is charged to an amount of income tax and capital gains tax equal to the tax treated as deducted from the gift, he shall not be entitled to relief under Chapter I of Part VII of the Taxes Act 1988;
- but paragraph (a)(ii) above shall not apply for the purposes of any computation under section 550(2)(a) or (b) of that Act (relief where gain charged at a higher rate).
- (7) The provisions referred to in subsection (6)(b) above are—
- (a) section 289A(5)(e) of the Taxes Act 1988 (relief under enterprise investment scheme);
 - (b) section 796(3) of that Act (credit for foreign tax); and
 - (c) paragraph 1(6)(f) of Schedule 15B to that Act (venture capital trusts).
- (8) Where the tax treated as deducted from a gift by virtue of subsection (6) above exceeds the amount of income tax and capital gains tax with which the donor is charged for the year of assessment, the donor shall be assessable and chargeable with income tax at the basic rate on so much of the gift as is necessary to recover an amount of tax equal to the excess.

- (b) where that consideration is less than that amount, shall be reduced to nil.
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) to (7) below, the relevant amount is an amount equal to—
- (a) where the disposal is a gift, the market value of the qualifying investment at the time when the disposal is made;
- (b) where the disposal is at an undervalue, the difference between that market value and the amount or value of the consideration for the disposal.
- (5) Where there are one or more benefits received in consequence of making the disposal which are received by the person making the disposal or a person connected with him, the relevant amount shall be reduced by the value of that benefit or, as the case may be, the aggregate value of those benefits; and section 839 applies for the purposes of this subsection.
- (6) Where the disposal is a gift, the relevant amount shall be increased by the amount of the incidental costs of making the disposal to the person making it.
- (7) Where the disposal is at an undervalue—
- (a) to the extent that the consideration for the disposal is less than that for which the disposal is treated as made by virtue of section 257(2)(a) of the 1992 Act, the relevant amount shall be increased by the amount of the incidental costs of making the disposal to the person making it; and
- (b) section 48 of that Act (consideration due after time of disposal) shall apply in relation to the computation of the relevant amount as it applies in relation to the computation of a gain.
- (8) In the case of a disposal by a company which is carrying on life assurance business—
- (a) if the company is charged to tax under Case I of Schedule D in respect of such business, subsections (2) and (3) above shall not apply;
- (b) if the company is not so charged to tax in respect of such business—
- (i) subsection (2)(a)(ii) above shall have effect as if for “a charge on income” there were substituted “an expense of management”; and
- (ii) the relevant amount given by subsection (4) above shall be reduced by so much (if any) of that amount as is not referable to basic life assurance and general annuity business;

55 Shares transferred from employee share ownership trust. U.K.

(1) Section 69 of the ^{M56}Finance Act 1989 (chargeable events in relation to employee share ownership trusts) is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (5).

(2) In subsection (1) (definition of “chargeable event”), after paragraph (d) insert—

“(e) where—

- (i) the trustees make a qualifying transfer within subsection (3AA) below for a consideration, and
- (ii) they do not, during the period specified in subsection (5A) below, expend a sum of not less than the amount of that consideration for one or more qualifying purposes, the expiry of that period.”.

(3) After subsection (3) insert—

“(3AA) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) above a transfer is also a qualifying transfer if—

- (a) it is a transfer of relevant shares made to the trustees of the plan trust of an employee share ownership plan,
- (b) the plan is approved under Schedule 8 to the Finance Act 2000 when the transfer is made, and
- (c) the consideration (if any) for which the transfer is made does not exceed the market value of the shares.

(3AB) For the purpose of determining whether a transfer by the trustees is a qualifying transfer within subsection (3AA) above, where on or after 21st March 2000—

- (a) the trustees transfer or dispose of part of a holding of shares (whether by way of a qualifying transfer or otherwise), and
- (b) the holding includes any relevant shares, the relevant shares shall be treated as transferred or disposed of before any other shares included in that holding.

For this purpose “holding” means any number of shares of the same class held by the trustees, growing or diminishing as shares of that class are acquired or disposed of.

(3AC) For the purposes of subsections (3AA) and (3AB) above—

“market value” has the same meaning as in Schedule 8 to the Finance Act 2000; and

“relevant shares” means—

- (i) shares that are held by the trustees of the employee share ownership trust at midnight on 20th March 2000, and
- (ii) shares purchased by those trustees with original funds after that time.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

(3AD) For the purposes of subsection (3AC) above—

- (a) “original funds” means any money held by the trustees of the employee share ownership trust in a bank or building society account at midnight on 20th March 2000, and
- (b) any payment made by the trustees after that time (whether to acquire shares or otherwise) shall be treated as made out of original funds (and not out of money received after that time) until those funds are exhausted.”.

(4) In subsection (5) after “(1)(d)” insert “ or (e) ”.

(5) After that subsection insert—

“(5A) The period referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) above is the period—

- (a) beginning with the qualifying transfer mentioned in that paragraph, and
- (b) ending nine months after the end of the period of account in which that qualifying transfer took place.

For this purpose the period of account means the period of account of the company that established the employee share ownership trust.”.

(6) In section 70 of the ^{M57}Finance Act 1989 (chargeable amounts), after subsection (3) insert—

“(4) If the chargeable event falls within section 69(1)(e) above the chargeable amount is an amount equal to—

- (a) the amount of the consideration received for the qualifying transfer mentioned in section 69(1)(e) above, less
- (b) the amount of any expenditure by the trustees for a qualifying purpose during the period mentioned in section 69(5A) above.”.

- (b) an election is in force which has the effect of transferring to the earner the whole or part of the liability to pay secondary Class 1 contributions in respect of the gain.
- (2) The amount of the relief is the total of—
- (a) any amount that, in pursuance of any such agreement as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a), is recovered in respect of the gain by the secondary contributor not later than 60 days after the end of the year of assessment in which occurred the event giving rise to the charge to tax under section 135; and
 - (b) the amount of any liability in respect of that gain that, by virtue of any such election as is mentioned in subsection (1)(b), has become the earner’s liability.
- (3) Where notice of withdrawal of approval of any such election is given, relief under subsection (2)(b) is limited to so much of the earner’s liability in respect of the gain as is met before the end of the 60th day after the end of the year of assessment in which occurred the event giving rise to the charge under section 135.
- (4) Relief under this section shall be given by way of deduction from the amount of the gain on which the earner is chargeable to tax under section 135.
- (5) Any such deduction does not affect the amount of the gain for the purposes of—
- (a) section 120(4) of the ^{M58}Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 (amount treated as consideration for acquisition of shares), or
 - (b) section 4(4)(a) of the Contributions and Benefits Act (amount treated as remuneration for contributions purposes).
- (6) The agreements and elections referred to in this section are those having effect under paragraph 3A or 3B of Schedule 1 to the Contributions and Benefits Act.

References to approval in relation to an election are to approval by the Inland Revenue under paragraph 3B of that Schedule.

- (7) In this section—
- “the Contributions and Benefits Act” means the ^{M59}Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 or the ^{M60}Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992; and
 - “secondary Class 1 contributions” and “secondary contributor” have the same meaning as in that Act.”

Section 187A inserted by this subsection applies to any agreement or election having effect as mentioned in subsection (6) of that section, whether made before or after the passing of this Act.

- (2) Section 203FB of the Taxes Act 1988 (PAYE: gains from share options) is amended as follows—
- (a) in subsections (2) and (3), for “subsection (7)” substitute “ subsection (6A) ”;
 - (b) after subsection (6) insert—
- “(6A) Where section 203F has effect in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) above, subsection (3) of section 203F shall apply as if the reference in that subsection to the amount of income likely to be chargeable to

- (c) in subsection (7), for “any of the preceding provisions of this section” substitute “subsection (4) or (5) above” and for “section 135, 140A or 140D” substitute “section 140A or 140D”.

These amendments apply where the event giving rise to the charge to tax occurs after the passing of this Act.

- (3) In section 136(6) of the Taxes Act 1988 and section 85(1) of the ^{M61}Finance Act 1988 (duty to deliver particulars relating to share options, etc. within 30 days after end of year of assessment), for “30 days” substitute “92 days”.

These amendments apply where the event giving rise to the duty to deliver particulars occurs on or after 6th April 2000.

- (4) After section 136(6) of the Taxes Act 1988 add—

“(7) A body corporate is not obliged to deliver particulars under subsection (6) above which it has already given in a notice under paragraph 2 of Schedule 14 to the Finance Act 2000 (enterprise management incentives: notice required for option to be qualifying option).

In other respects the obligations imposed by that subsection and that paragraph are independent of each other.

- (8) The duty of a body corporate under subsection (6) above to deliver particulars of any matter includes a duty to deliver particulars of any secondary Class 1 contributions payable in connection with that matter that—
- (a) are recovered as mentioned in section 187A(2)(a), or

 - (ii) where the employee no longer holds an office or employment under the employer, the last office or employment that he did hold under the employer; and
 - (b) incurred those expenses out of the emoluments of that office or employment.
- (3) Section 200E shall not apply in the case of any expenditure incurred in paying or reimbursing the cost of providing the employee with, or with the use of, any asset except where—
 - (a) the asset is provided or made available for use only in the course of the education or training;
 - (b) the asset is provided or made available for use in the course of the education or training and in the performance of the duties of the employee's office or employment but not to any significant extent for any other use;
 - (c) the asset consists in training materials provided in the course of the education or training; or
 - (d) the asset consists in something made by the employee in the course of the education or training or incorporated into something so made.
- (4) In subsection (1) above the reference to enjoying facilities or benefits for entertainment or recreational purposes includes a reference to enjoying them in the course of any leisure activity.
- (5) In this section—
 - “subsistence” includes food and drink and temporary living accommodation; and 200G Section 200E: exclusion of expenditure if contributions not generally available to staff.

- (1) Section 200E shall not apply to any expenditure incurred in respect of—
- (a) the costs of any education or training provided to the employee, or
 - (b) any related costs,
- unless the expenditure is incurred in giving effect to fair-opportunity arrangements that were in place at the time when the employer agreed to incur the expenditure.

In this subsection “related costs”, in relation to any education or training provided to the employee, has the meaning given by section 200E(3).

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above “fair-opportunity arrangements” are in place at any time if at that time arrangements are in place that provide—
- (a) for the making of contributions by the employer to costs arising from qualifying education or training being undertaken by persons who hold, or have held, an office or employment under the employer, and
 - (b) for such contributions to be generally available, on similar terms, to the persons who at that time hold an office or employment under the employer.

In this subsection “qualifying education or training” has the same meaning as in section 200E.

- (3) The Treasury may by regulations make provision specifying the persons or other entities under whom Crown servants are to be treated for the purposes of this section as holding office or employment; and such regulations may—
- (a) deem a description of Crown servants (or two or more such descriptions taken together) to be an entity for the purposes of the regulations;
 - (b) make different provision for different descriptions of Crown servants.

In this subsection “Crown servant” means a person holding an office or employment under the Crown.

200H Section 200E: exclusion of expenditure otherwise relieved.

Section 200E does not apply to expenditure to the extent that—

- (a) section 200B (expenditure on work-related training) applies to it, or
- (b) section 588(1) (expenditure on retraining courses) has effect in respect of it.

200J Education or training funded by third parties.

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) any person (“the employee”) who holds, or has at any time held, an office or employment under another (“the employer”) is provided by reason of that office or employment with any benefit,
 - (b) that benefit consists in any qualifying education or training or is provided in connection with any such education or training, and

(6) After paragraph 22 insert—

“23 Qualifying shareholdings in joint venture companies

- (1) This Schedule has effect subject to the following provisions where a company (“the investing company”) has a qualifying shareholding in a joint venture company.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph a company is a “joint venture company” if, and only if—
- (a) it is a trading company or the holding company of a trading group, and
 - (b) 75% or more of its ordinary share capital (in aggregate) is held by not more than five companies.

For the purposes of paragraph (b) above the shareholdings of members of a group of companies shall be treated as held by a single company.

- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph a company has a “qualifying shareholding” in a joint venture company if—
- (a) it holds more than 30% of the ordinary share capital of the joint venture company, or
 - (b) it is a member of a group of companies, it holds ordinary share capital of the joint venture company and the members of the group between them hold more than 30% of that share capital.
- (4) For the purpose of determining whether the investing company is a trading company—
- (a) any holding by it of shares in the joint venture company shall be disregarded, and
 - (b) it shall be treated as carrying on an appropriate proportion—
 - (i) of the activities of the joint venture company, or
 - (ii) where the joint venture company is the holding company of a trading group, of the activities of that group.

This sub-paragraph does not apply if the investing company is a holding company.

- (5) For the purpose of determining whether the investing company is a holding company—
- (a) any holding by it of shares in the joint venture company shall be disregarded, and
 - (b) it shall be treated as carrying on an appropriate proportion of the activities—
 - (i) of the joint venture company, or
 - (ii) where the joint venture company is the holding company of a trading group, of that group.

This sub-paragraph does not apply if the joint venture company is a 51 per cent subsidiary of the investing company.

- (6) For the purpose of determining whether a group of companies is a trading group—
- (a) every holding of shares in the joint venture company by a member of the group having a qualifying shareholding in that company shall be disregarded, and
 - (b) each member of the group having such a qualifying shareholding shall be treated as carrying on an appropriate proportion of the activities—
 - (i) of the joint venture company, or
 - (ii) where the joint venture company is the holding company of a trading group, of that group.

This sub-paragraph does not apply if the joint venture company is a member of the group.

- (7) In sub-paragraphs (4)(b), (5)(b) and (6)(b) above “an appropriate proportion” means a proportion corresponding to the percentage of the ordinary share capital of the joint venture company held by the investing company or, as the case may be, by the group member concerned.
- (8) The following shall be treated as having a relevant connection with each other—
- (a) the investing company;
 - (b) the joint venture company;
 - (c) any company having a relevant connection with the investing company;
 - (d) any company having a relevant connection with the joint venture company by virtue of being—
 - (i) a 51 per cent subsidiary of that company, or
 - (ii) a member of the same commercial association of companies.
- (9) The acquisition by the investing company of the qualifying shareholding shall not be treated as a relevant change of activity for the purposes of paragraph 11 above.
- (10) For the purposes of this paragraph “ordinary share capital” has the meaning given by section 832(1) of the Taxes Act.”
- (7) This section has effect for determining whether an asset is a business asset at any time on or after 6th April 2000.

It does not affect the determination on or after that date whether an asset was a business asset at a time before that date.

89 Waste disposal: entitlement of successor to allowances. U.K.

In Chapter V of Part IV of the Taxes Act 1988 (provisions relating to the Schedule D charge: deductions), after section 91B (waste disposal: site preparation), insert—“91BA Waste disposal: entitlement of successor to allowances.

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) site preparation expenditure has been incurred in relation to a waste disposal site,
 - (b) that expenditure was incurred by a person in the course of carrying on a trade, and
 - (c) on or after 21st March 2000—
 - (i) that person (“the predecessor”) ceases to carry on that trade, or ceases to carry it on so far as it relates to that site, and
 - (ii) another person (“the successor”) begins to carry on that trade, or to carry on in the course of a trade the activities formerly carried on by the predecessor in relation to that site.
- (2) If the conditions specified in the following provisions of this section are met, then, for the purposes of section 91B above—
 - (a) the trade carried on by the successor shall be treated as the same trade as that carried on by the predecessor, and
 - (b) allowances shall be made to the successor (and not to the predecessor) as if everything done to or by the predecessor had been done to or by the successor.
- (3) The first condition is that the whole of the site in question is transferred to the successor.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

- (a) in computing the gain, the allowable expenditure is reduced in consequence, directly or indirectly, of a claim to gifts relief in relation to an earlier disposal to the trustees;
 - (b) the transferor on that earlier disposal, or any person connected with the transferor, has at any time—
 - (i) acquired an interest in the settled property, or
 - (ii) entered into an arrangement to acquire such an interest; and
 - (c) in connection with that acquisition or arrangement any person has at any time received, or become entitled to receive, any consideration.
- (2) Where this section applies to a chargeable gain, no allowable losses accruing to the trustees (in the year in which the gain accrues or any earlier year) may be set against the gain.
- This applies to the whole of the chargeable gain (and not just the element deferred as a result of the claim to gifts relief).
- (3) In this section—
- (a) “gifts relief” means relief under section 165 or 260; and
 - (b) references to losses not being allowed to be set against a chargeable gain are to the losses not being allowed as a deduction against chargeable gains to the extent that they include that gain.
- (4) The references in subsection (1)(b) above to an interest in settled property have the same meaning as in Schedule 4A.”

105 Corporation tax: use of currencies other than sterling. U.K.

(1) For sections 92 to 95 of the ^{M90}Finance Act 1993 there shall be substituted—

“92 The basic rule: sterling to be used.

(1) Where a company carries on a business, the profits or losses of the business for an accounting period shall for the purposes of corporation tax be computed and expressed in sterling; but this is subject to section 93 below.

(2) In this section—

“losses” includes management expenses and any allowances falling to be made under section 28 or 61(1) of the ^{M91}Capital Allowances Act 1990;

“profits” includes gains, income and any charges falling to be made under section 28 or 61(1) of that Act.

93 Use of currency other than sterling.

(1) This section applies where in an accounting period a company carries on a business and either the first condition or the second condition is fulfilled.

(2) The first condition is that—

(a) the accounts of the company as a whole are prepared in a currency other than sterling in accordance with normal accounting practice; and

(b) in the case of a company which is not resident in the United Kingdom, the company makes a return of accounts for its branch in the United Kingdom prepared in such a currency in accordance with such practice.

(3) The second condition is that—

(a) the accounts of the company as a whole are prepared in sterling but, so far as relating to the business, they are prepared, using the closing rate/net investment method, from financial statements prepared in a currency other than sterling; or

(b) in the case of a company which is not resident in the United Kingdom, the company makes a return of accounts for its branch in the United Kingdom prepared in sterling but, so far as relating to the business, it is prepared, using that method, from financial statements prepared in such a currency.

(4) The profits or losses of the business for an accounting period shall for the purposes of corporation tax be found by—

(a) taking the amount of all the profits and losses of the business for the period computed and expressed in the relevant foreign currency;

(b) taking account of any of the following which are so computed and expressed—

(i) any management expenses brought forward under section 75(3) of the Taxes Act 1988 from an earlier accounting period;

- (ii) any losses of the business brought forward under section 392B or 393 of that Act from such a period; and
 - (iii) any non-trading deficits on loan relationships brought forward under section 83 of the ^{M92}Finance Act 1996 from the previous accounting period; and
 - (c) taking the sterling equivalent of the amount found by applying paragraphs (a) and (b) above.
- (5) In the application of section 22B, 34, 35, 38C, 38D or 79A of the ^{M93}Capital Allowances Act 1990 for the purposes of subsection (4)(a) or (b) above, it shall be assumed that any sterling amount mentioned in any of those sections is its equivalent expressed in the relevant foreign currency.
- (6) Where in an accounting period—
- (a) a company carries on different parts of a business through different branches (whether within or outside the United Kingdom); and
 - (b) this section would apply differently in relation to different parts if they were separate businesses,
- those parts shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if they were separate businesses for that period.
- (7) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires—
- “accounts”, in relation to a company, means—
 - (a) the annual accounts of the company prepared in accordance with Part VII of the ^{M94}Companies Act 1985 or Part VIII of the ^{M95}Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986; or
 - (b) if the company is not required to prepare such accounts, the accounts which it is required to keep under the law of its home State; or
 - (c) if the company is not so required to keep accounts, such of its accounts as most closely correspond to accounts which it would have been required to prepare if the provisions of that Part applied to it;
 - “branch” includes any collection of assets and liabilities;
 - “the closing rate/net investment method” means the method so called as described under the title “Foreign currency translation” in the Statement of Standard Accounting Practice issued in April 1983 by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales;

the Inland Revenue under paragraph 3 of Schedule 18 to the Finance Act 1998 (company tax returns, assessments and related matters).

94 Rules for ascertaining currency equivalents.

- (1) Any receipt or expense which is to be taken into account in making a computation under subsection (1) of section 92 above for an accounting period, and is denominated in a currency other than sterling, shall be translated into its sterling equivalent—
 - (a) if either of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) below is fulfilled, by reference to the rate used in the preparation of the accounts of the company as a whole for that period;
 - (b) if neither of those conditions is fulfilled, by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the relevant day.
- (2) The conditions are—
 - (a) that the rate is an arm's length exchange rate for the relevant day;
 - (b) that the rate is an average arm's length exchange rate for a period ending with that day, or for a period not exceeding three months which includes that day, and the arm's length exchange rate for any day in that period (except the first) is not significantly different from that for the preceding day.
- (3) Subject to subsections (5) and (7) below, any amount found by applying paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4) of section 93 above shall be translated into its sterling equivalent by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the relevant day.
- (4) The following—
 - (a) any receipt or expense which is to be taken into account in making a calculation for the purposes of subsection (4)(a) or (b) of section 93 above, and is denominated in a currency other than the relevant foreign currency; and
 - (b) any such sterling amount as is referred to in subsection (5) of that section,shall be translated into its equivalent expressed in the relevant foreign currency by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the relevant day.
- (5) Where section 93 above applies by virtue of the first condition mentioned in that section, then, as regards the business or part of the business, the company—
 - (a) may elect, by a notice given to an officer of the Board, that as from the first day of the accounting period in which the notice is given, an average arm's length exchange rate shall be used for the purposes of subsection (3) above instead of the rate there mentioned; and
 - (b) may withdraw such an election, by a notice so given, as from the first day of the first accounting period beginning on or after the date of the notice.
- (6) Where an election under subsection (5) above is withdrawn, no further election may be made under that subsection so as to take effect before the third anniversary of the day on which the withdrawal takes effect.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(7) Where—

- (a) section 93 above applies by virtue of the second condition mentioned in that section; and
- (b) the accounts of the company, so far as relating to the business or part of the business, are prepared by reference to an average arm's length exchange rate, that exchange rate shall be used for the purposes of subsection (3) above instead of the rate there mentioned.

(8) In this section—

“accounts” has the same meaning as in section 93 above;

“arm's length exchange rate” means such exchange rate as might reasonably be expected to be agreed between persons dealing at arm's length;

“average arm's length exchange rate”, in relation to a period, means the rate which represents an appropriate average of arm's length exchange rates for the period;

“the relevant day” means—

- (a) for the purposes of subsections (1), (2) and (4)(a) above, the day on which the company becomes entitled to the receipt or incurs (or is treated as incurring) the expense;
- (b) for the purposes of subsection (3) above, the last day of the accounting period in question;
- (c) for the purposes of subsection (4)(b) above, the day on which the company incurs the capital expenditure.

(9) Nothing in this section affects the operation of Chapter IV of Part VII of the Taxes Act 1988 (controlled foreign companies) or Chapter II of this Part.

(10) Nothing in paragraph 88 of Schedule 18 to the ^{M97}Finance Act 1998 (company tax returns, assessments and related matters) shall be taken to prevent any amount which is taken to be conclusively determined for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts from being translated under this section by reference to an exchange rate which was not used to determine the amount which can no longer be altered.”.

(2) Where any of the items referred to in section 93(4)(b) of the ^{M98}Finance Act 1993 (as substituted by subsection (1) above) fall to be taken into account in the first accounting period in relation to which this section has effect, the amounts of those items shall be computed and expressed in the relevant currency by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the last day of the immediately preceding accounting period.

(3) Where [^{F11}any amount falls to be taken into account under Chapter 5 of Part 2 of the Capital Allowances Act as available qualifying expenditure] for the first accounting period in relation to which this section has effect relate to expenditure which was incurred before the beginning of that period, the amounts of those items shall be computed and expressed in the relevant currency by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the last day of the immediately preceding accounting period.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) below, this section has effect for accounting periods beginning on or after 1st January 2000 and ending on or after 21st March 2000.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

business or part for the relevant accounting period (whether sterling or otherwise).”.

(5) For subsection (7) of that section there shall be substituted—

“(7) For the purposes of this section a part of a business is any part of a business which is treated for the purposes of section 93 above as if it were a separate business for the relevant accounting period.”.

(6) For subsection (9) of section 128 of the ^{M100}Finance Act 1993 (trading gains and losses) there shall be substituted—

“(9) For the purposes of this section a part of a trade is any part of a trade which is treated for the purposes of section 93 above as if it were a separate business for the relevant accounting period; and the relevant accounting period is the accounting period which constitutes the accrual period concerned or in which that accrual period falls.”.

(7) After section 135 of that Act there shall be inserted—

“135A Sterling used if avoidance of gain is the main benefit.

(1) This section applies where, as regards qualifying assets and liabilities of a company—

- (a) a currency other than sterling would (apart from this section) be the local currency for the purposes of sections 125 to 129 above; and
- (b) the main benefit that might be expected to accrue from that currency being the local currency is that no net exchange gain would accrue to the company for those purposes.

(2) If a net exchange gain would accrue to the company if sterling were the local currency for the purposes of sections 125 to 129 above, then, as regards the assets and liabilities concerned, sterling shall be the local currency for those purposes.

(3) For the purposes of this section a net exchange gain accrues to a company if its initial exchange gains (as determined in accordance with this Chapter) exceed its initial exchange losses (as so determined).”.

(8) For subsection (12) of section 140 of that Act (deferral of unrealised gains) there shall be substituted—

“(12) For the purposes of this section a part of a trade is any part of a trade which is treated for the purposes of section 93 above as if it were a separate business for the relevant accounting period; and the relevant accounting period is the accounting period which constitutes the second accrual period or in which that accrual period falls.”.

(9) For subsection (2) of section 142 of that Act (deferral non-sterling trades) there shall be substituted—

“(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) above the sterling equivalent of an amount is the sterling equivalent calculated by reference to such rate of exchange as applies by virtue of section 94 above in the case of the profits or losses for the accounting period concerned of the business or part of which the gain or loss is a gain or loss (or would be apart from section 139 above).”.

Insurance

107 General insurance reserves. U.K.

- (1) Where an amount representing the whole or any part of the technical provisions which are made by a general insurer for a period of account is taken into account in computing for tax purposes the profits of his trade for that period—
 - (a) subsection (2) below applies if it becomes apparent in a later period of account that the amount taken into account was excessive; and
 - (b) subsection (3) below applies if it becomes apparent in such a period that that amount was insufficient.
- (2) For the purpose of making good to the Exchequer the loss occasioned by the excess, an amount calculated by applying, for a prescribed period, a prescribed rate of interest to the amount of the excess shall be treated as a receipt of the general insurer's trade in computing for tax purposes the profits of that trade for the later period of account.
- (3) For the purpose of making good to the general insurer the loss occasioned by the deficiency, an amount calculated by applying, for a prescribed period, a prescribed rate of interest to the amount of the deficiency shall be treated as an expense of the general insurer's trade in computing for tax purposes the profits of that trade for the later period of account.
- (4) A general insurer may, before the end of a prescribed period, elect that any part of the technical provisions made by him for a period of account shall not be taken into account in computing for tax purposes the profits of his trade for that period; and where he does so, the profits of his trade for the next period of account shall be adjusted accordingly for the purposes of any computation for tax purposes.
- (5) The Board may by regulations make provision for giving effect to subsections (1) to (4) above.
- (6) The regulations may, in particular—
 - (a) exclude from the operation of subsections (1) to (4) above such descriptions of general insurer as may be prescribed;
 - (b) make such provision as appears to the Board to be appropriate for determining for the purposes of subsections (1) to (3) above whether any amount taken into account was excessive or insufficient and, if so, the amount of the excess or deficiency, including—
 - (i) provision requiring discounting at a prescribed rate; and
 - (ii) provision allowing a prescribed margin for error;
 - (c) make provision for applying subsections (1) to (3) above, to such extent and with such modifications as appear to the Board to be appropriate, to cases where it becomes apparent—
 - (i) that any amount taken into account was or has become insufficient; or
 - (ii) that any amount treated as a receipt or expense of a trade was excessive;
 - (d) make such provision as appears to the Board to be appropriate for dealing with cases where a general insurer transfers his general business to, or enters into a qualifying contract with, another person; and “technical provisions”, in relation to an underwriting member, means—

- (a) so much of the premiums paid, or treated (in accordance with the rules or practice of Lloyd’s) as paid, by him under reinsurance to close contracts; and
- (b) so much of any provisions made for the unpaid liabilities of an open syndicate of which he is a member,

as may be determined by or under regulations made by the Board;

“underwriting year” means the calendar year;

and for the purposes of this section a syndicate is an open syndicate at any time after the end of its closing year if, at that time, the accounts of its business for the underwriting year for which it was formed have not been closed.

- (8) Regulations under this section may—
 - (a) make different provision for different cases or descriptions of case, including different provision for different entitlements to participate in the general business carried on by syndicates; and
 - (b) make such supplementary, incidental, consequential and transitional provision as appears to the Board to be appropriate.
- (9) An amount which under subsection (2) or (3) above is treated as a receipt or expense of an underwriting member’s trade—
 - (a) shall not be included in the aggregate amount mentioned in paragraph 1 of Schedule 19 to the ^{M107}Finance Act 1993; but
 - (b) shall be regarded as arising directly from his membership of one or more syndicates for the purposes of section 172(1)(a) of the Finance Act 1993 or section 220(2)(a) of the ^{M108}Finance Act 1994.
- (10) Nothing in paragraph 7 of Schedule 19 to the Finance Act 1993 shall be taken to affect the operation of subsection (2) or (3) above or the exercise of the power conferred by subsection (4) above.
- (11) Section 177 of the ^{M109}Finance Act 1993 and section 224 of the ^{M110}Finance Act 1994 (which are superseded by this section) shall cease to have effect.
- (12) In this section—
 - (a) subsections (1) to (3), subsections (5) to (8) and (10) so far as relating to those subsections and subsection (9) have effect where—
 - (i) the first period of account mentioned in subsection (1) begins on or after 1st January 2000; and
 - (ii) the later period of account mentioned in that subsection begins on or after 1st January 2001;
 - (b) subsection (4), and subsections (5) to (8) and (10) so far as relating to that subsection, have effect in relation to periods of account beginning on or after 1st January 2000;
 - (c) subsection (11) has effect in relation to profits of underwriting members’ trades which are declared in periods of account beginning on or after that date.

A is the total of the linked liabilities of the company which are liabilities of the internal linked fund in which the asset is held and are referable to that category of business;

B is the total of the linked liabilities of the company which are liabilities of that fund.”.

(2) For subsection (6) of that section there shall be substituted—

“(6) In this section—

“internal linked fund”, in relation to an insurance company, means an account—

- (a) to which linked assets are appropriated by the company; and
- (b) which may be divided into units the value of which is determined by the company by reference to the value of those assets; “linked liabilities” means liabilities in respect of benefits to be determined by reference to the value of linked assets.”.

(3) In the subsections mentioned in subsection (4) below—

(a) in paragraph (a), after “reduced” there shall be inserted “ (but not below nil) ” and for “values” there shall be substituted “ net values ”; and

(b) for paragraph (b) there shall be substituted—

“(b) the denominator is the aggregate of—

- (i) the numerator given by paragraph (a) above; and
- (ii) the numerators given by that paragraph in relation to the other categories of business.”.

(4) The subsections are—

- (a) subsection (6) of section 432A of the Taxes Act 1988 (apportionment of income and gains);
- (b) subsection (4) of section 432C of that Act (section 432B apportionment: income of non-participating funds); and
- (c) subsection (3) of section 432D of that Act (section 432B apportionment: value of non-participating funds).

(5) For subsection (8) of section 432A there shall be substituted—

“(8) In subsection (6) above “appropriate part”, in relation to the investment reserve, means—

- (a) where none (or none but an insignificant proportion) of the liabilities of the long term business are with-profits liabilities, the part of that reserve which bears to the whole the proportion A/B where—

A is the amount of the liabilities of the category of business in question;

B is the whole amount of the liabilities of the long term business; and

- (b) in any other case, the part of that reserve which bears to the whole the proportion C/D where—

C is the amount of the with-profits liabilities of the category of business in question;

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

D is the whole amount of the with-profits liabilities of the long term business.”.

(6) After subsection (9) of that section there shall be inserted—

“(9A) In this section and sections 432C and 432D “net value”, in relation to any assets, means the excess of the value of the assets over any liabilities which—

- (a) represent a money debt; and
 - (b) are liabilities of an internal linked fund in which the assets are held;
- and in this subsection “internal linked fund” has the same meaning as in section 432ZA.

(9B) In this section—

“investment reserve”, in relation to an insurance company, means the excess of the value of the assets of the company’s long term business over the aggregate of—

- (a) the liabilities of that business; and
- (b) any liabilities of the long term business fund which represent a money debt;

“money debt” has the same meaning as in Chapter II of Part IV of the ^{M111}Finance Act 1996.”.

(7) In subsection (5)(b) of section 432C, after “subsection (1)” there shall be inserted “or (2)”.

(8) In Schedule 11 to the ^{M112}Finance Act 1996 (loan relationships: special provisions for insurers), after paragraph 3 there shall be inserted—

“3A (1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) any money debt of an insurance company is represented by a liability which is a liability of the long term business fund of the company; and
- (b) any question arises for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts as to the extent to which any debits or credits given for the purposes of this Chapter in respect of that debt or liability are referable to any category of the company’s long term business.

(2) If any debits relate to interest payable in respect of the late payment of any benefits, they are referable to the category of long term business which comprises the effecting and carrying out of the policies or contracts under which the benefits are payable.

(3) If the liability is a liability of an internal linked fund of the company, any debits or credits are referable—

- (a) to the category of long term business to which the fund relates; or
- (b) where the fund relates to two or more categories of such business, to those categories in the same proportion as the linked assets in the fund are apportioned to them under section 432ZA(4) of the Taxes Act 1988 (linked assets).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

- (4) In any case not falling within sub-paragraph (2) or (3) above, there shall be referable to any category of long term business the relevant fraction of any debits or credits.
- (5) For the purpose of determining that fraction, subsections (6) and (8) of section 432A of the Taxes Act 1988 (apportionment of income and gains) shall have effect as if—
- (a) the debits or credits were income not directly referable to any category of business;
 - (b) the reference in subsection (6)(a) to assets directly referable to a category of business were a reference to assets linked to that category of business; and
 - (c) subsection (9) of that section were omitted.
- (6) In this paragraph “internal linked fund” has the same meaning as in section 432ZA of the Taxes Act 1988 (linked assets).”.
- (9) In consequence of the preceding provisions of this section—
- (a) in section 431(2) of the Taxes Act 1988 (interpretative provisions in relation to insurance companies), the definition of “investment reserve” shall cease to have effect;
 - (b) in paragraph 4(2) of Schedule 19AA to that Act (overseas life assurance fund), after “investment reserve” there shall be inserted “ (within the meaning of section 432A) ”; and
 - (c) in paragraph 7(3) of Schedule 19AC to that Act (modification of Act in relation to overseas life insurance companies)—
 - (i) in paragraph (b), for “value” there shall be substituted “ net value ”; and
 - (ii) paragraph (c) shall cease to have effect.
- (10) This section shall have effect in relation to accounting periods beginning on or after 1st January 2000 and ending on or after 21st March 2000.

43A Finance agreement: interpretation.

- (1) A transaction is a finance agreement for the purposes of sections 43B to 43F if in accordance with normal accounting practice the accounts of a company which receives money under the transaction would record a financial obligation (whether in respect of a lease creditor or otherwise) in relation to that receipt.
- (2) In subsection (1) “normal accounting practice” in relation to a company means normal accounting practice for a company incorporated in a part of the United Kingdom (irrespective of where the company is in fact incorporated).
- (3) The reference to a company’s accounts in subsection (1) shall be taken to include a reference to the consolidated group accounts of a group of companies of which it is a member; and—
 - (a) “group of companies” means a set of companies which, if each were incorporated in Great Britain, would form a group within the meaning given by section 262(1) of the ^{M113}Companies Act 1985, and
 - (b) “consolidated group accounts” means accounts of a kind which would satisfy the requirements of section 227 of the Companies Act 1985.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) a company shall be treated as receiving any money which—
 - (a) falls to be taken into account as a receipt for the purpose of calculating the company’s liability to corporation tax, or
 - (b) would fall to be taken into account as a receipt for that purpose if the company were resident in the United Kingdom.

43B Transfer of rent.

- (1) This section applies to a finance agreement if it transfers a right to receive rent in respect of land in the United Kingdom from one person to another, otherwise than by means of the grant of a lease of land in the United Kingdom.
- (2) A person who receives a finance amount shall be treated for the purposes of the Tax Acts as receiving it—
 - (a) by way of rent,
 - (b) in the course of a business falling within paragraph 1(1) of Schedule A, and
 - (c) in the chargeable period in which the agreement is made;and the finance amount shall be taken into account in computing the profits of the Schedule A business for the chargeable period in which the agreement is made.
- (3) In subsection (2) “finance amount” means a receipt in respect of which section 43A(1) is satisfied.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

43C Transfer of rent: exceptions, &c.

- (1) Section 43B shall not apply to a finance agreement if the term over which the financial obligation is to be reduced exceeds 15 years.
- (2) Section 43B shall not apply to a finance agreement if—
 - (a) the arrangements for the reduction of the financial obligation substantially depend on a person's entitlement to an allowance under the Capital Allowances Acts, and
 - (b) that person is not connected to the person from whom the right to receive rent is transferred.
- (3) Section 43B shall not apply to a finance agreement if—
 - (a) section 36(1) applies (without reference to section 36(3)), or
 - (b) section 36(1) would apply (without reference to section 36(3)) if the price at which an estate or interest is sold were to exceed the price at which it is to be reconveyed.
- (4) If—
 - (a) section 36(1) would apply in relation to a finance agreement by virtue only of section 36(3), and
 - (b) section 43B applies in relation to the agreement, section 36(1) shall not apply.
- (5) Section 43B shall not apply to a finance agreement if section 780 applies.
- (6) Section 43B(2) shall not apply to a finance amount which is brought into account in computing the profits of a trade for the purposes of Case I of Schedule D (otherwise than by virtue of section 83 of the ^{M114}Finance Act 1989 (life assurance)).

43D Interposed lease.

- (1) This section applies to a finance agreement under which—
 - (a) a lease is granted in respect of land in the United Kingdom,
 - (b) a premium is payable in respect of the lease, and
 - (c) section 43A(1) is satisfied by reference to the receipt of the premium.
- (2) Where this section applies, the person to whom the premium is payable shall be treated for the purposes of the Tax Acts as receiving it—
 - (a) by way of rent,
 - (b) in the course of a business falling within paragraph 1(1) of Schedule A, and
 - (c) in the chargeable period in which the agreement is made;
 and the premium shall be taken into account in computing the profits of the Schedule A business for the chargeable period in which the agreement is made.

43E Interposed lease: exceptions, &c.

- (1) Section 43D shall not apply to a finance agreement if—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the term over which the financial obligation is to be reduced exceeds 15 years, or
 - (b) the length of the lease does not exceed 15 years, or
 - (c) the length of the lease is not significantly different from the term over which the financial obligation is to be reduced.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1) the length of a lease shall be calculated in accordance with section 38.
- (3) Section 43D shall not apply to a finance agreement if—
 - (a) the arrangements for the reduction of the financial obligation substantially depend on a person's entitlement to an allowance under the Capital Allowances Acts, and
 - (b) that person is not connected to the person who grants the lease in respect of which the premium is payable.
- (4) Section 43D(2) shall not apply where all or part of the premium is brought into account in computing the profits of a trade for the purposes of Case I of Schedule D (otherwise than by virtue of section 83 of the ^{M115}Finance Act 1989 (life assurance)).
- (5) Section 34 shall not apply in relation to a premium to which section 43D(2) applies.

43F Insurance business.

- (1) In the application of sections 43A to 43E to companies carrying on insurance business a reference to accounts does not include a reference to accounts required to be prepared under Part II of the ^{M116}Insurance Companies Act 1982.
- (2) Neither section 43B(2) nor section 43D(2) shall require any amount to be brought into account in a computation of profits of life assurance business, or any category of life assurance business, carried on by a company where the computation is made in accordance with the provisions of this Act applicable to Case I of Schedule D.
- (3) Section 432A shall have effect in relation to any sum which is or would be treated as received by virtue of section 43B(2) or 43D(2) of this Act.
- (4) Expressions used in this section and in Chapter I of Part XII have the same meaning in this section as in that Chapter.

43G Interpretation.

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of sections 43A to 43F.
- (2) In those sections—
 - “connected” in relation to persons has the meaning given by section 839,
 - “rent” includes any sum which is chargeable to tax under Schedule A,
 - “lease” includes an underlease, sublease, tenancy or licence and an agreement for any of those things, but does not include a mortgage or heritable security,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“premium” has the meaning given by section 24(1) (and, in relation to Scotland, section 24(5)), and subsections (4) and (5) of section 34 shall have effect in relation to sections 43A to 43F as they have effect in relation to section 34, and “sum” has the meaning given by section 24(4).

- (3) A reference to a transfer of a right to receive rent from one person to another includes a reference to any arrangement under which rent ceases to form part of the receipts taken into account for the purposes of calculating a company’s liability to corporation tax or income tax.
- (4) In calculating the term over which a financial obligation is to be reduced no account shall be taken of any period during which the arrangements for reduction differ from the arrangements which apply in a previous period if—
 - (a) the period begins after the financial obligation has been substantially reduced, and
 - (b) the different arrangements for reduction are not the result of a provision for periodic review, on commercial terms, of rent under a lease.”.
- (2) The provisions inserted by subsection (1) have effect in relation to transactions entered into on or after 21st March 2000.

118 Land transferred etc for other property. U.K.

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
 - (a) an instrument transferring or vesting an estate or interest in land would not, apart from this section, be or fall to be treated as a conveyance or transfer on sale for the purposes of stamp duty; but
 - (b) the transfer or vesting of the estate or interest is for consideration; and
 - (c) the consideration is or includes any property (“the other property”).
- (2) For the purposes of Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (stamp duty on conveyance or transfer on sale) the instrument transferring or vesting the estate or interest shall be taken to be a transfer on sale of the estate or interest.
- (3) If—
 - (a) the other property is or includes one or more estates or interests in land, and
 - (b) ad valorem duty is chargeable on the conveyance or transfer of all or any of those estates or interests, the amount of duty that would (apart from this subsection) be chargeable in consequence of subsection (2) on the transfer on sale there mentioned shall be reduced (but not below nil) by the total of the ad valorem duty chargeable as mentioned in paragraph (b).
- (4) If, for the purposes of Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999, the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer on sale mentioned in subsection (2) would (apart from this subsection) exceed the market value of the estate or interest immediately before the execution of the instrument transferring or vesting it, the amount or value of the consideration shall be taken for those purposes to be equal to that market value.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, the market value of property at any time is the price which that property might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale at that time in the open market.
- (6) Subsection (2) has effect even though—
 - (a) the transfer or vesting of the estate or interest is the whole or part of the consideration for a sale of the other property; or
 - (b) the transaction is by way of exchange.

119 Transfer of land to connected company. U.K.

- (1) This section applies where an estate or interest in land is transferred to or vested in a company (“A”) and—
 - (a) the person transferring or vesting the estate or interest (“B”) is connected with A; or
 - (b) some or all of the consideration for the transfer or vesting consists of the issue or transfer of shares in a company with which B is connected.
- (2) For the purposes of Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (stamp duty on conveyance or transfer on sale) an instrument transferring or vesting the estate or interest shall be taken to be a transfer on sale of the estate or interest.
- (3) If for those purposes the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer on sale of the estate or interest would, apart from this subsection, be less than the value determined under subsection (4), the consideration shall be taken for those purposes to be the value determined under subsection (4).
- (4) That value is—
 - (a) the market value of the estate or interest immediately before the execution of the instrument transferring or vesting it; but
 - (b) reduced by the value of so much of any actual consideration as does not consist of property.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) apart from this section, an instrument would be chargeable to stamp duty in accordance with section 118, and
 - (b) apart from that section, the instrument would be chargeable to stamp duty in accordance with this section,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/12/2001.

Changes to legislation: Finance Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the stamp duty chargeable on the instrument shall be determined in accordance with this section (instead of that section).

- (6) This section applies only if, in consequence of its application, the instrument transferring or vesting the estate or interest is chargeable with a greater amount of stamp duty than it would be apart from this section and section 118.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, the market value of property at any time is the price which that property might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale at that time in the open market.
- (8) In this section—
 - “company” means any body corporate;
 - “shares” includes stock and the reference to shares in a company includes a reference to securities issued by a company.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, the question whether any person is connected with another shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 839 of the Taxes Act 1988.
- (10) This section shall be construed as one with the ^{M122}Stamp Act 1891.
- (11) This section applies to instruments executed on or after 28th March 2000.
- (12) But this section does not apply to an instrument giving effect to a contract made on or before 21st March 2000, unless—
 - (a) the instrument is made in consequence of the exercise after that date of any option, right of pre-emption or similar right; or
 - (b) the instrument transfers the property in question to, or vests it in, a person other than the purchaser under the contract, because of an assignment (or, in Scotland, assignation) or further contract made after that date.
- (13) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on 28th March 2000.

120 Exceptions from section 119. U.K.

- (1) Section 119 does not apply by virtue of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of that section in any of the following cases (any reference in this section to A or B being taken as a reference to the person referred to as A or B, as the case may be, in that subsection).
- (2) Case 1 is where B holds the estate or interest as nominee or bare trustee for A.
- (3) Case 2 is where A is to hold the estate or interest as nominee or bare trustee for B.
- (4) Case 3 is where B holds the estate or interest as nominee or bare trustee for some other person and A is to hold it as nominee or bare trustee for that other person.
- (5) Case 4 is where (in a case not falling within subsection (2) or (4) above)—
 - (a) the transfer or vesting is a conveyance or transfer out of a settlement in or towards satisfaction of a beneficiary’s interest;

- (b) the beneficiary's interest is not an interest acquired for money or money's worth; and
 - (c) the conveyance or transfer is a distribution of property in accordance with the provisions of the settlement.
- (6) Case 5 is where (in a case not falling within subsection (3) above) A—
- (a) is a person carrying on a business which consists of or includes the management of trusts; and
 - (b) is to hold the estate or interest as trustee acting in the course of that business.
- (7) Case 6 is where (in a case not falling within subsection (3) above) A is to hold the estate or interest as trustee and, apart from section 839(3) of the Taxes Act 1988 (trustees as connected persons), would not be connected with B.
- (8) Case 7 is where—
- (a) B is a company;
 - (b) the transfer or vesting is, or is part of, a distribution of assets (whether or not in connection with the winding up of the company); and
 - (c) the estate or interest was acquired by B by virtue of an instrument which is duly stamped.
- (9) This section shall be construed as one with the ^{M123}Stamp Act 1891.
- (10) This section applies to instruments executed after the day on which this Act is passed.

121 Grant of lease to connected company. U.K.

- (1) This section applies where a lease is granted to a company (“A”) and—
- (a) the person granting the lease (“B”) is connected with A; or
 - (b) some or all of the consideration for the grant of the lease consists of the issue or transfer of shares in a company with which B is connected.
- (2) Subsection (3) has effect for the purposes of stamp duty chargeable under Part II of Schedule 13 to the ^{M124}Finance Act 1999 (stamp duty on a lease) by reference to Part I of that Schedule (conveyance or transfer on sale).
- (3) If, apart from this subsection, the amount or value of the consideration for the grant would be less than the value determined under subsection (4), the consideration shall be taken to be the value determined under subsection (4).
- (4) That value is—
- (a) the market value, immediately before the instrument granting the lease is executed, of the lease granted; but
 - (b) reduced by the value of so much of any actual consideration as does not consist of property.
- (5) This section applies only if, in consequence of its application, the lease is chargeable with a greater amount of stamp duty than it would be apart from this section.

122 Marketable securities transferred etc for exempt property. U.K.

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
 (a) an instrument transferring marketable securities would not, apart from this section, be or fall to be treated as a transfer on sale for the purposes of stamp duty; but
 (b) the transfer of the marketable securities is for consideration; and
 (c) the consideration is or includes any qualifying property (“the other property”).
- (2) For the purposes of Part I of Schedule 13 to the Finance Act 1999 (stamp duty on conveyance or transfer on sale) the instrument transferring the marketable securities shall be taken to be a transfer on sale of those securities.
- (3) If the amount or value of the consideration for that transfer on sale would (apart from this subsection) exceed the market value of the marketable securities immediately before the execution of the instrument transferring them, the amount or value of the consideration shall be taken to be equal to that market value.

For this purpose the market value of property at any time is the price which that property might reasonably be expected to fetch on a sale at that time in the open market.

- (1) This section applies to a national savings certificate issued under section 12 of the ^{M188}National Loans Act 1968 if—
- (a) it was purchased on or before 7th October 1999, and
 - (b) the fifth anniversary of its purchase falls after the day on which this Act is passed.
- (2) The power of the Treasury (under the prospectus under which the certificate was issued) to alter or end the extension terms for the certificate shall have effect as if it included power for the Treasury to decide before the fifth anniversary of the certificate’s purchase that the extension terms for the certificate are to involve it (so far as not cashed in) undergoing automatic roll-over on that anniversary.
- (3) Where a certificate undergoes automatic roll-over on any occasion, the Treasury has power to decide before the fifth anniversary of that occasion that the extension terms for the certificate are to involve it (so far as not cashed in) undergoing automatic roll-over on that anniversary.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a certificate undergoes “automatic roll-over” on an occasion if during the period of 5 years beginning with that occasion the certificate (so far as not cashed in) will earn interest as though it were a national savings certificate—
- (a) purchased on that occasion for a term of 5 years at a price equal to the value (rounded, if necessary, to the nearest penny) of the certificate on that occasion, and
 - (b) earning such interest (whether at fixed rates or at rates that give effect to indexing or partly one and partly the other) as has been decided by the Treasury before that occasion.
