2000 CHAPTER 17

PART III

INCOME TAX, CORPORATION TAX AND CAPITAL GAINS TAX

CHAPTER I

CHARGE AND RATES

Income tax

31 Charge and rates for 2000-01.

Income tax shall be charged for the year 2000-01, and for that year—

- (a) the starting rate shall be 10%,
- (b) the basic rate shall be 22%, and
- (c) the higher rate shall be 40%.

32 Extension of starting rate to savings income of individuals.

- (1) Section 1A of the Taxes Act 1988 (application of lower rate or Schedule F ordinary rate to income from savings and distributions) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1)(b) (income of individuals to which those rates do not apply), after the words “is not” insert “—
 - (i) savings income falling within section 1(2)(aa), or
 - (ii)”.
- (3) After subsection (1) insert—

“(1AA) In subsection (1)(b)(i) above “savings income” means income to which this section applies other than—

OTHER PROVISIONS

Giving to charity

38 Payroll deduction scheme.

- (1) Where in accordance with a scheme approved [^{F3}for the purposes of section 714 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003] (donations to charity: payroll deduction scheme) an agent is to pay to a charity any sum which—
- (a) is withheld by [^{F4}a person] from a payment which an [^{F5}individual] is entitled to receive; and
- (b) is paid by the [^{F6}person] to the agent,
- the agent shall, within a period prescribed by regulations made by the Treasury, pay a supplement equal to 10% of that sum to the charity.
- (2) On a claim made by an agent in such form as the Board may prescribe, the Board shall pay to the agent out of money provided by Parliament—
- (a) such amounts as are required—
- (i) to fund the payment of supplements falling to be paid by him; or
- (ii) to reimburse him for supplements paid by him the payment of which has not been so funded; and
- (b) in the case of an agent which is a charity, an amount which is equal to 10% of the aggregate of sums which—
- (i) are withheld and paid as mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) above; and
- (ii) are sums to which the agent is itself entitled in its capacity as a charity.
- (3) The Treasury may by regulations make provision—
- (a) requiring agents to notify the Board of any failures of theirs to comply with subsection (1) above, and of the reasons for those failures;

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects

- (b) requiring agents to keep records of supplements paid by them under that subsection; and
- (c) for the assessment and recovery under the Taxes Acts of amounts paid to agents under subsection (2) above which ought not to have been so paid.

The regulations may contain such supplementary and incidental provision as appears to the Treasury necessary or expedient.

(4) In this section—

[^{F7}“agent” means an agent approved for the purposes of section 714 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003;]

“charity” has the same meaning as in section 506 of that Act and includes each of the bodies mentioned in section 507 of that Act;

“the Taxes Acts” has the same meaning as in the ^{M2}Taxes Management Act 1970.

^{F8}(5)

- (6) Subsections (1) to (4) above shall have effect in relation to supplements or other amounts payable in respect of sums withheld on or after 6th April 2000 and before [^{F9}6th April 2004]; and no claim under subsection (2) above shall be entertained if made on or after [^{F10}6th April 2005].

39 Gift aid payments by individuals.

- (1) Section 25 of the ^{M3}Finance Act 1990 (donations to charity by individuals) shall be amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (7) below.

- (2) In subsection (1)(c), for “an appropriate certificate” there shall be substituted “an appropriate declaration”.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

(3) In subsection (2)—

- (a) paragraphs (c) and (g) shall cease to have effect;
- (b) in paragraph (e), for “two and a half per cent of the amount of the gift” there shall be substituted “the limit imposed by subsection (5A) below”; and
- (c) for paragraph (i) there shall be substituted—
 - “(i) either—
 - (i) at the time the gift is made, the donor is resident in the United Kingdom or performs duties which by virtue of section 132(4)(a) of the Taxes Act 1988 (Crown employees serving overseas) are treated as being performed in the United Kingdom; or
 - (ii) the grossed up amount of the gift would, if in fact made, be payable out of profits or gains brought into charge to income tax or capital gains tax.”.

(4) For subsection (3) there shall be substituted—

“(3) The reference in subsection (1)(c) above to an appropriate declaration is a reference to a declaration which—

- (a) is given in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Board; and
- (b) contains such information and such statements as may be so prescribed.

(3A) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (3) above may—

- (a) provide for declarations to have effect, to cease to have effect or to be deemed never to have had effect in such circumstances and for such purposes as may be prescribed by the regulations;
- (b) require charities to keep records with respect to declarations given to them by donors; and
- (c) make different provision for declarations made in a different manner.”.

(5) After subsection (5) there shall be inserted—

“(5A) The limit imposed by this subsection is—

- (a) where the amount of the gift does not exceed £100, 25 per cent of the amount of the gift;
- (b) where the amount of the gift exceeds £100 but does not exceed £1,000, £25;
- (c) where the amount of the gift exceeds £1,000, 2.5 per cent of the amount of the gift.

(5B) Where a benefit received in consequence of making a gift—

- (a) consists of the right to receive benefits at intervals over a period of less than twelve months;
- (b) relates to a period of less than twelve months; or
- (c) is one of a series of benefits received at intervals in consequence of making a series of gifts at intervals of less than twelve months,

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)*

the value of the benefit shall be adjusted for the purposes of subsection (4) above and the amount of the gift shall be adjusted for the purposes of subsection (5A) above.

(5C) Where a benefit, other than a benefit which is one of a series of benefits received at intervals, is received in consequence of making a gift which is one of a series of gifts made at intervals of less than twelve months, the amount of the gift shall be adjusted for the purposes of subsection (5A) above.

(5D) Where the value of a benefit, or the amount of a gift, falls to be adjusted under subsection (5B) or (5C) above, the value or amount shall be multiplied by 365 and the result shall be divided by—

- (a) in a case falling within subsection (5B)(a) or (b) above, the number of days in the period of less than twelve months;
- (b) in a case falling within subsection (5B)(c) or (5C) above, the average number of days in the intervals of less than twelve months; and the reference in subsection (5B) above to subsection (4) above is a reference to that subsection as it applies for the purposes of subsection (2) (e) above.

(5E) In determining whether a gift to a charity falling within subsection (5F) below is a qualifying donation, there shall be disregarded the benefit of any right of admission received in consequence of the making of the gift—

- (a) to view property the preservation of which is the sole or main purpose of the charity; or
- (b) to observe wildlife the conservation of which is the sole or main purpose of the charity;

but this subsection shall not apply unless the opportunity to make gifts which attract such a right is available to members of the public.

(5F) A charity falls within this subsection if its sole or main purpose is the preservation of property, or the conservation of wildlife, for the public benefit.

(5G) In subsection (5E) above “right of admission” refers to admission of the person making the gift (or any member of his family who may be admitted because of the gift) either free of the charges normally payable for admission by members of the public, or on payment of a reduced charge.”.

(6) For subsections (6) to (9) there shall be substituted—

“(6) Where any gift made by the donor in a year of assessment is a qualifying donation, then, for that year—

- (a) the Income Tax Acts and the ^{M4}Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 shall have effect, in their application to him, as if—
 - (i) the gift had been made after deduction of income tax at the basic rate; and
 - (ii) the basic rate limit were increased by an amount equal to the grossed up amount of the gift;
- (b) the provisions mentioned in subsection (7) below shall have effect, in their application to him, as if any reference to income tax which he is entitled to charge against any person included a reference to the tax treated as deducted from the gift; and

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) to the extent, if any, necessary to ensure that he is charged to an amount of income tax and capital gains tax equal to the tax treated as deducted from the gift, he shall not be entitled to relief under Chapter I of Part VII of the Taxes Act 1988;

but paragraph (a)(ii) above shall not apply for the purposes of any computation under section 550(2)(a) or (b) of that Act (relief where gain charged at a higher rate).

- (7) The provisions referred to in subsection (6)(b) above are—
 - (a) section 289A(5)(e) of the Taxes Act 1988 (relief under enterprise investment scheme);
 - (b) section 796(3) of that Act (credit for foreign tax); and
 - (c) paragraph 1(6)(f) of Schedule 15B to that Act (venture capital trusts).
- (8) Where the tax treated as deducted from a gift by virtue of subsection (6) above exceeds the amount of income tax and capital gains tax with which the donor is charged for the year of assessment, the donor shall be assessable and chargeable with income tax at the basic rate on so much of the gift as is necessary to recover an amount of tax equal to the excess.
- (9) In determining for the purposes of subsection (8) above the total amount of income tax and capital gains tax with which the donor is charged for the year of assessment, there shall be disregarded—
 - (a) any tax charged at the basic rate by virtue of—
 - (i) section 348 of the Taxes Act 1988 (read with section 3 of that Act); or
 - (ii) section 349 of that Act (read with section 350 of that Act);
 - (b) any tax treated as having been paid under—
 - (i) section 233(1)(a) of that Act (taxation of certain recipients of distributions);
 - (ii) section 249(4)(a) of that Act (stock dividends treated as income); or
 - (iii) section 547(5)(a) of that Act (method of charging life policy gain to tax);
 - (c) any relief to which section 256(2) of that Act applies (relief by way of income tax reduction);
 - (d) any relief under—
 - (i) section 347B of that Act (relief for maintenance payments);
 - (ii) section 788 of that Act (relief by agreement with other countries); or
 - (iii) section 790(1) of that Act (unilateral relief);
 - (e) any set off of tax deducted, or treated as deducted, from income other than—
 - (i) tax treated as deducted from income by virtue of section 421(1)(a) of that Act (taxation of borrower when loan released etc); or
 - (ii) tax treated as deducted from a relevant amount within the meaning of section 699A of that Act (untaxed sums comprised in the income of an estate) except to the extent that the relevant amount is or would be paid in respect of a distribution chargeable under Schedule F; and

(f) any set off of tax credits.

(9A) For the purposes of sections 257(5) and 257A(5) of the Taxes Act 1988 (age related allowances), the donor's total income shall be treated as reduced by the aggregate amount of gifts from which tax is treated as deducted by virtue of subsection (6) above."

(7) In subsection (12), paragraphs (b) and (e) and the word "and" immediately preceding paragraph (e) shall cease to have effect.

(8) In subsections (1)(b) and (3)(b) of section 257BB of the Taxes Act 1988 (transfer of relief under section 257A where relief exceeds income), after "section 256(2)(b)" there shall be inserted " (read with section 25(6)(c) of the ^{M5}Finance Act 1990 where applicable) "

(9) In paragraph 4(1)(b) of Schedule 13B to that Act (children's tax credit), after "section 256(2)(b)" there shall be inserted " (read with section 25(6)(c) of the ^{M6}Finance Act 1990 where applicable) "

(10) This section has effect in relation to—

(a) gifts made on or after 6th April 2000 which are not covenanted payments; and

(b) covenanted payments falling to be made on or after that date;

and any regulations made under subsection (3) of section 25 of the ^{M7}Finance Act 1990 (as substituted by subsection (4) above) within three months of the passing of this Act may be so made as to apply to any payments in relation to which this section has effect.

- (3) The consideration for which the charity’s acquisition of the qualifying investment is treated by virtue of section 257(2) of the 1992 Act as having been made—
 - (a) shall be reduced by the relevant amount; or
 - (b) where that consideration is less than that amount, shall be reduced to nil.
- (4) Subject to subsections (5) to (7) below, the relevant amount is an amount equal to—
 - (a) where the disposal is a gift, the market value of the qualifying investment at the time when the disposal is made;
 - (b) where the disposal is at an undervalue, the difference between that market value and the amount or value of the consideration for the disposal.
- (5) Where there are one or more benefits received in consequence of making the disposal which are received by the person making the disposal or a person connected with him, the relevant amount shall be reduced by the value of that benefit or, as the case may be, the aggregate value of those benefits; and section 839 applies for the purposes of this subsection.
- (6) Where the disposal is a gift, the relevant amount shall be increased by the amount of the incidental costs of making the disposal to the person making it.
- (7) Where the disposal is at an undervalue—
 - (a) to the extent that the consideration for the disposal is less than that for which the disposal is treated as made by virtue of section 257(2)(a) of the 1992 Act, the relevant amount shall be increased by the amount of the incidental costs of making the disposal to the person making it; and

- (b) section 48 of that Act (consideration due after time of disposal) shall apply in relation to the computation of the relevant amount as it applies in relation to the computation of a gain.
- (8) In the case of a disposal by a company which is carrying on life assurance business—
- (a) if the company is charged to tax under Case I of Schedule D in respect of such business, subsections (2) and (3) above shall not apply;
- (b) if the company is not so charged to tax in respect of such business—
- (i) subsection (2)(a)(ii) above shall have effect as if for “a charge on income” there were substituted “an expense of management”; and
- (ii) the relevant amount given by subsection (4) above shall be reduced by so much (if any) of that amount as is not referable to basic life assurance and general annuity business;
- and for the purpose of determining how much (if any) of that amount is not so referable, section 432A shall have effect as if that amount were a gain accruing on the disposal of the qualifying investment to the company.
- (9) In this section—
- “authorised unit trust” and “open-ended investment company” have the meanings given by section 468;
- “charity” has the same meaning as in section 506 and includes each of the bodies mentioned in section 507(1);
- “the incidental costs of making the disposal to the person making it” shall be construed in accordance with section 38(2) of the 1992 Act;
- “life assurance business” and related expressions have the same meaning as in Chapter I of Part XII;
- “offshore fund” means a collective investment scheme (within the meaning of the ^{M13}Financial Services Act 1986) which is constituted by any company, unit trust scheme or other arrangement falling within paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of section 759(1);
- “qualifying investment” means any of the following—
- (a) shares or securities which are listed or dealt in on a recognised stock exchange;
- (b) units in an authorised unit trust;
- (c) shares in an open-ended investment company; and
- (d) an interest in an offshore fund.
- (10) Subject to subsection (11) below, the market value of any qualifying investment shall be determined for the purposes of this section as for the purposes of the 1992 Act.
- (11) In the case of an interest in an offshore fund for which there are separate published buying and selling prices, section 272(5) of the 1992 Act (meaning of “market value” in relation to rights of unit holders in a unit trust scheme) shall apply with any necessary modifications for determining the market value of the interest for the purposes of this section.”

(i) the trustees make a qualifying transfer within subsection (3AA) below for a consideration, and
(ii) they do not, during the period specified in subsection (5A) below, expend a sum of not less than the amount of that consideration for one or more qualifying purposes, the expiry of that period.”.

(3) After subsection (3) insert—

“(3AA) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) above a transfer is also a qualifying transfer if—

- (a) it is a transfer of relevant shares made to the trustees of the plan trust of an employee share ownership plan,
- (b) the plan is approved under Schedule 8 to the Finance Act 2000 when the transfer is made, and
- (c) the consideration (if any) for which the transfer is made does not exceed the market value of the shares.

(3AB) For the purpose of determining whether a transfer by the trustees is a qualifying transfer within subsection (3AA) above, where on or after 21st March 2000—

- (a) the trustees transfer or dispose of part of a holding of shares (whether by way of a qualifying transfer or otherwise), and
- (b) the holding includes any relevant shares, the relevant shares shall be treated as transferred or disposed of before any other shares included in that holding.

For this purpose “holding” means any number of shares of the same class held by the trustees, growing or diminishing as shares of that class are acquired or disposed of.

(3AC) For the purposes of subsections (3AA) and (3AB) above—

“market value” has the same meaning as in Schedule 8 to the Finance Act 2000; and

“relevant shares” means—

- (i) shares that are held by the trustees of the employee share ownership trust at midnight on 20th March 2000, and
- (ii) shares purchased by those trustees with original funds after that time.

(3AD) For the purposes of subsection (3AC) above—

- (a) “original funds” means any money held by the trustees of the employee share ownership trust in a bank or building society account at midnight on 20th March 2000, and
- (b) any payment made by the trustees after that time (whether to acquire shares or otherwise) shall be treated as made out of original funds (and not out of money received after that time) until those funds are exhausted.”.

(4) In subsection (5) after “(1)(d)” insert “ or (e) ”.

(5) After that subsection insert—

“23 Qualifying shareholdings in joint venture companies

- (1) This Schedule has effect subject to the following provisions where a company (“the investing company”) has a qualifying shareholding in a joint venture company.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph a company is a “joint venture company” if, and only if—
 - (a) it is a trading company or the holding company of a trading group, and
 - (b) 75% or more of its ordinary share capital (in aggregate) is held by not more than five companies.

For the purposes of paragraph (b) above the shareholdings of members of a group of companies shall be treated as held by a single company.

- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph a company has a “qualifying shareholding” in a joint venture company if—
 - (a) it holds more than 30% of the ordinary share capital of the joint venture company, or
 - (b) it is a member of a group of companies, it holds ordinary share capital of the joint venture company and the members of the group between them hold more than 30% of that share capital.
- (4) For the purpose of determining whether the investing company is a trading company—
 - (a) any holding by it of shares in the joint venture company shall be disregarded, and
 - (b) it shall be treated as carrying on an appropriate proportion—
 - (i) of the activities of the joint venture company, or
 - (ii) where the joint venture company is the holding company of a trading group, of the activities of that group.

This sub-paragraph does not apply if the investing company is a holding company.

- (5) For the purpose of determining whether the investing company is a holding company—
 - (a) any holding by it of shares in the joint venture company shall be disregarded, and
 - (b) it shall be treated as carrying on an appropriate proportion of the activities—
 - (i) of the joint venture company, or
 - (ii) where the joint venture company is the holding company of a trading group, of that group.

This sub-paragraph does not apply if the joint venture company is a 51 per cent subsidiary of the investing company.

- (6) For the purpose of determining whether a group of companies is a trading group—

- (a) every holding of shares in the joint venture company by a member of the group having a qualifying shareholding in that company shall be disregarded, and
- (b) each member of the group having such a qualifying shareholding shall be treated as carrying on an appropriate proportion of the activities—
 - (i) of the joint venture company, or
 - (ii) where the joint venture company is the holding company of a trading group, of that group.

This sub-paragraph does not apply if the joint venture company is a member of the group.

- (7) In sub-paragraphs (4)(b), (5)(b) and (6)(b) above “an appropriate proportion” means a proportion corresponding to the percentage of the ordinary share capital of the joint venture company held by the investing company or, as the case may be, by the group member concerned.
- (8) The following shall be treated as having a relevant connection with each other—
 - (a) the investing company;
 - (b) the joint venture company;
 - (c) any company having a relevant connection with the investing company;
 - (d) any company having a relevant connection with the joint venture company by virtue of being—
 - (i) a 51 per cent subsidiary of that company, or
 - (ii) a member of the same commercial association of companies.
- (9) The acquisition by the investing company of the qualifying shareholding shall not be treated as a relevant change of activity for the purposes of paragraph 11 above.
- (10) For the purposes of this paragraph “ordinary share capital” has the meaning given by section 832(1) of the Taxes Act.”.

- (7) This section has effect for determining whether an asset is a business asset at any time on or after 6th April 2000.

It does not affect the determination on or after that date whether an asset was a business asset at a time before that date.

93 Restriction on set-off of trust losses.

(1) After section 79 of the ^{M31}Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, insert—

“79A Restriction on set-off of trust losses.

- (1) This section applies to a chargeable gain accruing to the trustees of a settlement where—
- (a) in computing the gain, the allowable expenditure is reduced in consequence, directly or indirectly, of a claim to gifts relief in relation to an earlier disposal to the trustees;
 - (b) the transferor on that earlier disposal, or any person connected with the transferor, has at any time—
 - (i) acquired an interest in the settled property, or
 - (ii) entered into an arrangement to acquire such an interest; and
 - (c) in connection with that acquisition or arrangement any person has at any time received, or become entitled to receive, any consideration.
- (2) Where this section applies to a chargeable gain, no allowable losses accruing to the trustees (in the year in which the gain accrues or any earlier year) may be set against the gain.

This applies to the whole of the chargeable gain (and not just the element deferred as a result of the claim to gifts relief).

- (3) In this section—
- (a) “gifts relief” means relief under section 165 or 260; and
 - (b) references to losses not being allowed to be set against a chargeable gain are to the losses not being allowed as a deduction against chargeable gains to the extent that they include that gain.
- (4) The references in subsection (1)(b) above to an interest in settled property have the same meaning as in Schedule 4A.”.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

“79B Attribution to trustees of gains of non-resident companies.

- (1) This section applies where trustees of a settlement are participators—
 - (a) in a close company, or
 - (b) in a company that is not resident in the United Kingdom but would be a close company if it were resident in the United Kingdom.

For this purpose “participator” has the same meaning as in section 13.

- (2) Where this section applies, nothing in any double taxation relief arrangements shall be read as preventing a charge to tax arising by virtue of the attribution to the trustees under section 13, by reason of their participation in the company mentioned in subsection (1) above, of any part of a chargeable gain accruing to a company that is not resident in the United Kingdom.

- (3) Where this section applies and—
 - (a) a chargeable gain accrues to a company that is not resident in the United Kingdom but would be a close company if it were resident in the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) all or part of the chargeable gain is treated under section 13(2) as accruing to a close company which is not chargeable to corporation tax in respect of the gain by reason of double taxation relief arrangements, and
 - (c) had the company mentioned in paragraph (b) (and any other relevant company) not been resident in the United Kingdom, all or part of the chargeable gain would have been attributed to the trustees by reason of their participation in the company mentioned in subsection (1) above, section 13(9) shall apply as if the company mentioned in paragraph (b) above (and any other relevant company) were not resident in the United Kingdom.

- (4) The references in subsection (3) above to “any other relevant company” are to any other company which if it were not resident in the United Kingdom would be a company in relation to which section 13(9) applied with the result that all or part of the chargeable gain was attributed to the trustees as mentioned in that subsection.”.

- (3) In subsection (5) (market value uplift for interest where trustees become treaty non-resident), at the beginning insert “ Subject to subsection (10) below, ”.
- (4) After subsection (9) add—
- “(10) Subsection (3) or (7) above does not apply to the disposal of an interest created by or arising under a settlement which has relevant offshore gains at the material time.
- The material time is—
- (a) in relation to subsection (3) above, the relevant time within the meaning of section 80;
- (b) in relation to subsection (7) above, the time found under subsection (8) above.
- (11) For the purposes of subsection (10) above, a settlement has relevant offshore gains at any time if, were the year of assessment to end at that time, there would be an amount of trust gains which by virtue of section 89(2) or paragraph 8(3) of Schedule 4C would be available to be treated as chargeable gains accruing to any beneficiaries of the settlement receiving capital payments in the following year of assessment.”.
- (5) This section applies where the material time (within the meaning of section 85(10) of the ^{M34}Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, inserted by subsection (4) above) falls on or after 21st March 2000.

 - (b) A disposes of an asset to a person who is not a member of the group (“C”).
 - (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) below, A and B may, by notice in writing to an officer of the Board, jointly elect that, for the purposes of corporation tax on chargeable gains—
 - (a) the asset, or any part of it, shall be deemed to have been transferred by A to B immediately before the disposal to C;
 - (b) section 171(1) shall be deemed to have applied to that transfer; and
 - (c) the disposal of the asset or part to C shall be deemed to have been made by B.
 - (3) No election may be made under subsection (2) above unless section 171(1) would have applied to an actual transfer of the asset or part from A to B.
 - (4) An election under that subsection must be made before the second anniversary of the end of the accounting period of A in which the disposal to C was made.
 - (5) Any payment by A to B, or by B to A, in pursuance of an agreement between them in connection with the election—
 - (a) shall not be taken into account in computing profits or losses of either company for corporation tax purposes, and
 - (b) shall not for any purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts be regarded as a distribution or a charge on income,provided it does not exceed the amount of the chargeable gain or allowable loss that is treated, as a result of the disposal, as accruing to B.”.

105 Corporation tax: use of currencies other than sterling.

(1) For sections 92 to 95 of the ^{M39}Finance Act 1993 there shall be substituted—

“92 The basic rule: sterling to be used.

(1) Where a company carries on a business, the profits or losses of the business for an accounting period shall for the purposes of corporation tax be computed and expressed in sterling; but this is subject to section 93 below.

(2) In this section—

“losses” includes management expenses and any allowances falling to be made under section 28 or 61(1) of the ^{M40}Capital Allowances Act 1990;

“profits” includes gains, income and any charges falling to be made under section 28 or 61(1) of that Act.

93 Use of currency other than sterling.

(1) This section applies where in an accounting period a company carries on a business and either the first condition or the second condition is fulfilled.

(2) The first condition is that—

(a) the accounts of the company as a whole are prepared in a currency other than sterling in accordance with normal accounting practice; and

(b) in the case of a company which is not resident in the United Kingdom, the company makes a return of accounts for its branch in the United Kingdom prepared in such a currency in accordance with such practice.

(3) The second condition is that—

(a) the accounts of the company as a whole are prepared in sterling but, so far as relating to the business, they are prepared, using the closing

- rate/net investment method, from financial statements prepared in a currency other than sterling; or
- (b) in the case of a company which is not resident in the United Kingdom, the company makes a return of accounts for its branch in the United Kingdom prepared in sterling but, so far as relating to the business, it is prepared, using that method, from financial statements prepared in such a currency.
- (4) The profits or losses of the business for an accounting period shall for the purposes of corporation tax be found by—
- (a) taking the amount of all the profits and losses of the business for the period computed and expressed in the relevant foreign currency;
- (b) taking account of any of the following which are so computed and expressed—
- (i) any management expenses brought forward under section 75(3) of the Taxes Act 1988 from an earlier accounting period;
- (ii) any losses of the business brought forward under section 392B or 393 of that Act from such a period; and
- (iii) any non-trading deficits on loan relationships brought forward under section 83 of the ^{M41}Finance Act 1996 from the previous accounting period; and
- (c) taking the sterling equivalent of the amount found by applying paragraphs (a) and (b) above.
- (5) In the application of section 22B, 34, 35, 38C, 38D or 79A of the ^{M42}Capital Allowances Act 1990 for the purposes of subsection (4)(a) or (b) above, it shall be assumed that any sterling amount mentioned in any of those sections is its equivalent expressed in the relevant foreign currency.
- (6) Where in an accounting period—
- (a) a company carries on different parts of a business through different branches (whether within or outside the United Kingdom); and
- (b) this section would apply differently in relation to different parts if they were separate businesses,
- those parts shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if they were separate businesses for that period.
- (7) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires—
- “accounts”, in relation to a company, means—
- (a) the annual accounts of the company prepared in accordance with Part VII of the ^{M43}Companies Act 1985 or Part VIII of the ^{M44}Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986; or
- (b) if the company is not required to prepare such accounts, the accounts which it is required to keep under the law of its home State; or
- (c) if the company is not so required to keep accounts, such of its accounts as most closely correspond to accounts which it would have been required to prepare if the provisions of that Part applied to it;
- “branch” includes any collection of assets and liabilities;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

“the closing rate/net investment method” means the method so called as described under the title “Foreign currency translation” in the Statement of Standard Accounting Practice issued in April 1983 by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales;

“home State”, in relation to a company, means the country or territory under whose laws the company is incorporated;

“losses” has the same meaning as in section 92 above except that it does not include allowable losses within the meaning of the ^{M45}Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992;

“profits” has the same meaning as in section 92 above except that it does not include chargeable gains within the meaning of that Act;

“the relevant foreign currency” means the currency other than sterling or, where the first condition is fulfilled and two different such currencies are involved, the currency in which the return of accounts is prepared;

“return of accounts”, in relation to a branch in the United Kingdom, means a return of such accounts of the branch as may be required by the Inland Revenue under paragraph 3 of Schedule 18 to the Finance Act 1998 (company tax returns, assessments and related matters).

94 Rules for ascertaining currency equivalents.

- (1) Any receipt or expense which is to be taken into account in making a computation under subsection (1) of section 92 above for an accounting period, and is denominated in a currency other than sterling, shall be translated into its sterling equivalent—
 - (a) if either of the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) below is fulfilled, by reference to the rate used in the preparation of the accounts of the company as a whole for that period;
 - (b) if neither of those conditions is fulfilled, by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the relevant day.
- (2) The conditions are—
 - (a) that the rate is an arm’s length exchange rate for the relevant day;
 - (b) that the rate is an average arm’s length exchange rate for a period ending with that day, or for a period not exceeding three months which includes that day, and the arm’s length exchange rate for any day in that period (except the first) is not significantly different from that for the preceding day.
- (3) Subject to subsections (5) and (7) below, any amount found by applying paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4) of section 93 above shall be translated into its sterling equivalent by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the relevant day.
- (4) The following—
 - (a) any receipt or expense which is to be taken into account in making a calculation for the purposes of subsection (4)(a) or (b) of section 93 above, and is denominated in a currency other than the relevant foreign currency; and
 - (b) any such sterling amount as is referred to in subsection (5) of that section, shall be translated into its equivalent expressed in the relevant foreign currency by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the relevant day.

- (5) Where section 93 above applies by virtue of the first condition mentioned in that section, then, as regards the business or part of the business, the company—
- (a) may elect, by a notice given to an officer of the Board, that as from the first day of the accounting period in which the notice is given, an average arm's length exchange rate shall be used for the purposes of subsection (3) above instead of the rate there mentioned; and
 - (b) may withdraw such an election, by a notice so given, as from the first day of the first accounting period beginning on or after the date of the notice.
- (6) Where an election under subsection (5) above is withdrawn, no further election may be made under that subsection so as to take effect before the third anniversary of the day on which the withdrawal takes effect.
- (7) Where—
- (a) section 93 above applies by virtue of the second condition mentioned in that section; and
 - (b) the accounts of the company, so far as relating to the business or part of the business, are prepared by reference to an average arm's length exchange rate,
- that exchange rate shall be used for the purposes of subsection (3) above instead of the rate there mentioned.
- (8) In this section—
- “accounts” has the same meaning as in section 93 above;
 - “arm's length exchange rate” means such exchange rate as might reasonably be expected to be agreed between persons dealing at arm's length;
 - “average arm's length exchange rate”, in relation to a period, means the rate which represents an appropriate average of arm's length exchange rates for the period;
 - “the relevant day” means—
- (a) for the purposes of subsections (1), (2) and (4)(a) above, the day on which the company becomes entitled to the receipt or incurs (or is treated as incurring) the expense;
 - (b) for the purposes of subsection (3) above, the last day of the accounting period in question;
 - (c) for the purposes of subsection (4)(b) above, the day on which the company incurs the capital expenditure.
- (9) Nothing in this section affects the operation of Chapter IV of Part VII of the Taxes Act 1988 (controlled foreign companies) or Chapter II of this Part.
- (10) Nothing in paragraph 88 of Schedule 18 to the ^{M46}Finance Act 1998 (company tax returns, assessments and related matters) shall be taken to prevent any amount which is taken to be conclusively determined for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts from being translated under this section by reference to an exchange rate which was not used to determine the amount which can no longer be altered.”.

- (2) Where any of the items referred to in section 93(4)(b) of the ^{M47}Finance Act 1993 (as substituted by subsection (1) above) fall to be taken into account in the first accounting period in relation to which this section has effect, the amounts of those items shall be computed and expressed in the relevant currency by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the last day of the immediately preceding accounting period.
- (3) Where [^{F41}any amount falls to be taken into account under Chapter 5 of Part 2 of the Capital Allowances Act as available qualifying expenditure] for the first accounting period in relation to which this section has effect relate to expenditure which was incurred before the beginning of that period, the amounts of those items shall be computed and expressed in the relevant currency by reference to the London closing exchange rate for the last day of the immediately preceding accounting period.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, this section has effect for accounting periods beginning on or after 1st January 2000 and ending on or after 21st March 2000.
- (5) Any company which did not, for the accounting period immediately preceding the first accounting period falling within subsection (4) above, make an election in respect of a trade or part of a trade under the Local Currency Elections Regulations 1994 may, by notice given to an officer of the Board on or before 31st August 2000, elect that this section shall not have effect in relation to it until the first accounting period beginning on or after 1st July 2000.

107 General insurance reserves.

- (1) Where an amount representing the whole or any part of the technical provisions which are made by a general insurer for a period of account is taken into account in computing for tax purposes the profits of his trade for that period—
 - (a) subsection (2) below applies if it becomes apparent in a later period of account that the amount taken into account was excessive; and
 - (b) subsection (3) below applies if it becomes apparent in such a period that that amount was insufficient.
- (2) For the purpose of making good to the Exchequer the loss occasioned by the excess, an amount calculated by applying, for a prescribed period, a prescribed rate of interest to the amount of the excess shall be treated as a receipt of the general insurer's trade in computing for tax purposes the profits of that trade for the later period of account.
- (3) For the purpose of making good to the general insurer the loss occasioned by the deficiency, an amount calculated by applying, for a prescribed period, a prescribed rate of interest to the amount of the deficiency shall be treated as an expense of the general insurer's trade in computing for tax purposes the profits of that trade for the later period of account.
- (4) A general insurer may, before the end of a prescribed period, elect that any part of the technical provisions made by him for a period of account shall not be taken into account in computing for tax purposes the profits of his trade for that period; and where he does so, the profits of his trade for the next period of account shall be adjusted accordingly for the purposes of any computation for tax purposes.
- (5) The Board may by regulations make provision for giving effect to subsections (1) to (4) above.
- (6) The regulations may, in particular—
 - (a) exclude from the operation of subsections (1) to (4) above such descriptions of general insurer as may be prescribed;
 - (b) make such provision as appears to the Board to be appropriate for determining for the purposes of subsections (1) to (3) above whether any amount taken into account was excessive or insufficient and, if so, the amount of the excess or deficiency, including—
 - (i) provision requiring discounting at a prescribed rate; and
 - (ii) provision allowing a prescribed margin for error;
 - (c) make provision for applying subsections (1) to (3) above, to such extent and with such modifications as appear to the Board to be appropriate, to cases where it becomes apparent—
 - (i) that any amount taken into account was or has become insufficient; or
 - (ii) that any amount treated as a receipt or expense of a trade was excessive;
 - (d) make such provision as appears to the Board to be appropriate for dealing with cases where a general insurer transfers his general business to, or enters into a qualifying contract with, another person; and

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)*

- (e) in the event of any changes in the rules or practice of Lloyd’s, make such amendments of this section as appear to the Board to be expedient having regard to those changes.

(7) In this section—

“closing year”, in relation to a syndicate, has the same meaning as in Chapter III of Part II of the ^{M48}Finance Act 1993 or Chapter V of Part IV of the ^{M49}Finance Act 1994;

[^{F43} “general business” means business which consists of the effecting or carrying out of contracts that fall within Part I of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001;]

“general insurer” means any of the following which carries on general business—

- (a) a person (other than a friendly society) who has permission under Part 4 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to effect or carry out contracts that fall within Part I of Schedule 1 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001;
- (b) an EEA firm of the kind mentioned in paragraph 5(d) of Schedule 3 to that Act which has permission under paragraph 15 of Schedule 3 to that Act (as a result of qualifying for authorisation under paragraph 12(1) of that Schedule) to effect or carry out such contracts;
- (ba) [^{F44}a firm which has permission under paragraph 4 of Schedule 4 to that Act (as a result of qualifying for authorisation under paragraph 2 of that Schedule) to effect or carry out such contracts;]
- (c) a controlled foreign company within the meaning of Chapter IV of Part XVII of the Taxes Act 1988; and
- (d) an underwriting member of Lloyd’s (“an underwriting member”);

“period of account”—

- (a) except in relation to an underwriting member, means a period for which an account is made up;
- (b) in relation to such a member, means an underwriting year in which profits or losses are declared for an earlier underwriting year;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations under this section;

“qualifying contract”, in relation to a general insurer, means a contract for reinsuring the liabilities to which any technical provisions of his relate;

“reinsurance to close contract” means a contract where, in accordance with the rules or practice of Lloyd’s and in consideration of the payment of a premium, one underwriting member agrees with another to meet liabilities arising from the latter’s underwriting business for an underwriting year so that the accounts of the business for that year may be closed;

“syndicate” means a syndicate of underwriting members of Lloyd’s formed for an underwriting year;

“technical provisions”, except in relation to an underwriting member, means any of the following—

- (a) provisions for claims outstanding;
- (b) provisions for unearned premiums;
- (c) provisions for unexpired risks;

and in this definition expressions which are used in Schedule 9A to the ^{M50}Companies Act 1985 have the same meanings as in that Schedule;

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

“technical provisions”, in relation to an underwriting member, means—

- (a) so much of the premiums paid, or treated (in accordance with the rules or practice of Lloyd’s) as paid, by him under reinsurance to close contracts; and
- (b) so much of any provisions made for the unpaid liabilities of an open syndicate of which he is a member,

as may be determined by or under regulations made by the Board;

“underwriting year” means the calendar year;

and for the purposes of this section a syndicate is an open syndicate at any time after the end of its closing year if, at that time, the accounts of its business for the underwriting year for which it was formed have not been closed.

- (8) Regulations under this section may—
 - (a) make different provision for different cases or descriptions of case, including different provision for different entitlements to participate in the general business carried on by syndicates; and
 - (b) make such supplementary, incidental, consequential and transitional provision as appears to the Board to be appropriate.
- (9) An amount which under subsection (2) or (3) above is treated as a receipt or expense of an underwriting member’s trade—
 - (a) shall not be included in the aggregate amount mentioned in paragraph 1 of Schedule 19 to the ^{M51}Finance Act 1993; but
 - (b) shall be regarded as arising directly from his membership of one or more syndicates for the purposes of section 172(1)(a) of the Finance Act 1993 or section 220(2)(a) of the ^{M52}Finance Act 1994.
- (10) Nothing in paragraph 7 of Schedule 19 to the Finance Act 1993 shall be taken to affect the operation of subsection (2) or (3) above or the exercise of the power conferred by subsection (4) above.
- (11) Section 177 of the ^{M53}Finance Act 1993 and section 224 of the ^{M54}Finance Act 1994 (which are superseded by this section) shall cease to have effect.
- (12) In this section—
 - (a) subsections (1) to (3), subsections (5) to (8) and (10) so far as relating to those subsections and subsection (9) have effect where—
 - (i) the first period of account mentioned in subsection (1) begins on or after 1st January 2000; and
 - (ii) the later period of account mentioned in that subsection begins on or after 1st January 2001;
 - (b) subsection (4), and subsections (5) to (8) and (10) so far as relating to that subsection, have effect in relation to periods of account beginning on or after 1st January 2000;
 - (c) subsection (11) has effect in relation to profits of underwriting members’ trades which are declared in periods of account beginning on or after that date.

108 Overseas life assurance business.

- (1) In subsection (1) of section 431D of the Taxes Act 1988 (meaning of “overseas life assurance business”), for “or life reinsurance business” there shall be substituted “, life reinsurance business or business of any description excluded from this section by regulations made by the Board ”.
- (2) For subsections (2) to (8) of that section there shall be substituted—
 - “(2) Regulations under subsection (1) above may describe the excluded business by reference to any circumstances appearing to the Board to be relevant.
 - (3) The Board may by regulations—
 - (a) make provision as to the circumstances in which a trustee who is a policy holder or annuitant residing in the United Kingdom is to be treated for the purposes of this section as not so residing; and
 - (b) provide that nothing in Chapter II of Part XIII shall apply to a policy or contract which constitutes overseas life assurance business by virtue of any such provision as is mentioned in paragraph (a) above.
 - (4) Regulations under subsection (1) or (3) above may contain such supplementary, incidental, consequential or transitional provision as appears to the Board to be appropriate.”.
- (3) Where the policy or contract for any life assurance business was made before such day as the Treasury may by order appoint, the amendments made by this section (and any regulations made under them) shall not have effect for determining whether the business is overseas life assurance business.

109 Insurance business: apportionment rules.

- (1) In subsection (4)(b) of section 432ZA of the Taxes Act 1988 (linked assets), for the words from “the proportion which” to the end there shall be substituted—

“the proportion A/B where—

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

A is the total of the linked liabilities of the company which are liabilities of the internal linked fund in which the asset is held and are referable to that category of business;

B is the total of the linked liabilities of the company which are liabilities of that fund.”.

(2) For subsection (6) of that section there shall be substituted—

“(6) In this section—

“internal linked fund”, in relation to an insurance company, means an account—

- (a) to which linked assets are appropriated by the company; and
- (b) which may be divided into units the value of which is determined by the company by reference to the value of those assets; “linked liabilities” means liabilities in respect of benefits to be determined by reference to the value of linked assets.”.

(3) In the subsections mentioned in subsection (4) below—

(a) in paragraph (a), after “reduced” there shall be inserted “ (but not below nil) ” and for “values” there shall be substituted “ net values ”; and

(b) for paragraph (b) there shall be substituted—

“(b) the denominator is the aggregate of—

- (i) the numerator given by paragraph (a) above; and
- (ii) the numerators given by that paragraph in relation to the other categories of business.”.

(4) The subsections are—

(a) subsection (6) of section 432A of the Taxes Act 1988 (apportionment of income and gains);

(b) subsection (4) of section 432C of that Act (section 432B apportionment: income of non-participating funds); and

(c) subsection (3) of section 432D of that Act (section 432B apportionment: value of non-participating funds).

(5) For subsection (8) of section 432A there shall be substituted—

“(8) In subsection (6) above “appropriate part”, in relation to the investment reserve, means—

- (a) where none (or none but an insignificant proportion) of the liabilities of the long term business are with-profits liabilities, the part of that reserve which bears to the whole the proportion A/B where—

A is the amount of the liabilities of the category of business in question;

B is the whole amount of the liabilities of the long term business; and

- (b) in any other case, the part of that reserve which bears to the whole the proportion C/D where—

C is the amount of the with-profits liabilities of the category of business in question;

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

*Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects
for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)*

D is the whole amount of the with-profits liabilities of the long term business.”.

(6) After subsection (9) of that section there shall be inserted—

“(9A) In this section and sections 432C and 432D “net value”, in relation to any assets, means the excess of the value of the assets over any liabilities which—

- (a) represent a money debt; and
 - (b) are liabilities of an internal linked fund in which the assets are held;
- and in this subsection “internal linked fund” has the same meaning as in section 432ZA.

(9B) In this section—

“investment reserve”, in relation to an insurance company, means the excess of the value of the assets of the company’s long term business over the aggregate of—

- (a) the liabilities of that business; and
- (b) any liabilities of the long term business fund which represent a money debt;

“money debt” has the same meaning as in Chapter II of Part IV of the ^{M55}Finance Act 1996.”.

(7) In subsection (5)(b) of section 432C, after “subsection (1)” there shall be inserted “or (2)”.

(8) In Schedule 11 to the ^{M56}Finance Act 1996 (loan relationships: special provisions for insurers), after paragraph 3 there shall be inserted—

“3A (1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) any money debt of an insurance company is represented by a liability which is a liability of the long term business fund of the company; and
- (b) any question arises for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts as to the extent to which any debits or credits given for the purposes of this Chapter in respect of that debt or liability are referable to any category of the company’s long term business.

(2) If any debits relate to interest payable in respect of the late payment of any benefits, they are referable to the category of long term business which comprises the effecting and carrying out of the policies or contracts under which the benefits are payable.

(3) If the liability is a liability of an internal linked fund of the company, any debits or credits are referable—

- (a) to the category of long term business to which the fund relates; or
- (b) where the fund relates to two or more categories of such business, to those categories in the same proportion as the linked assets in the fund are apportioned to them under section 432ZA(4) of the Taxes Act 1988 (linked assets).

Status: Point in time view as at 19/07/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 2000, Part III. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In any case not falling within sub-paragraph (2) or (3) above, there shall be referable to any category of long term business the relevant fraction of any debits or credits.
- (5) For the purpose of determining that fraction, subsections (6) and (8) of section 432A of the Taxes Act 1988 (apportionment of income and gains) shall have effect as if—
- (a) the debits or credits were income not directly referable to any category of business;
 - (b) the reference in subsection (6)(a) to assets directly referable to a category of business were a reference to assets linked to that category of business; and
 - (c) subsection (9) of that section were omitted.
- (6) In this paragraph “internal linked fund” has the same meaning as in section 432ZA of the Taxes Act 1988 (linked assets).”.
- (9) In consequence of the preceding provisions of this section—
- (a) in section 431(2) of the Taxes Act 1988 (interpretative provisions in relation to insurance companies), the definition of “investment reserve” shall cease to have effect;
 - (b) in paragraph 4(2) of Schedule 19AA to that Act (overseas life assurance fund), after “investment reserve” there shall be inserted “ (within the meaning of section 432A) ”; and
 - (c) in paragraph 7(3) of Schedule 19AC to that Act (modification of Act in relation to overseas life insurance companies)—
 - (i) in paragraph (b), for “value” there shall be substituted “ net value ”; and
 - (ii) paragraph (c) shall cease to have effect.
- (10) This section shall have effect in relation to accounting periods beginning on or after 1st January 2000 and ending on or after 21st March 2000.
