2 Appropriation in aid. U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may, subject to any relevant limit set by an Appropriation Act, direct that resources may be applied as an appropriation in aid of resources authorised by Parliament to be used for the service of a particular year.
- (2) A direction under subsection (1) shall be—
- (a) made by minute, and
 - (b) laid before Parliament.
- (3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply where money is received in connection with an appropriation in aid which has been or is expected to be directed under subsection (1).

Changes to legislation: Government Resources and Accounts Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. - (4) Where the money is received in the year for the service of which the appropriation in aid is authorised—
 - (a) the appropriation in aid is authority for the money to be used in accordance with the Treasury’s direction, and
 - (b) in so far as it is not used for that purpose it shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
- (5) Where the money is received in a year other than that for the service of which the appropriation in aid is or is to be authorised, it shall be—
 - (a) retained and applied as a use of resources authorised by Appropriation Act for the service of the year in which the money is received, or
 - (b) paid into the Consolidated Fund.

4A Inclusion in departmental estimates of resources used by designated bodies U.K.

- (1) An estimate for a government department for approval by the House of Commons in respect of a financial year must be prepared in accordance with directions issued by the Treasury.

Changes to legislation: Government Resources and Accounts Act 2000 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (2) The Treasury may direct that the estimate is to include information relating to resources expected to be used by any body that is a designated body in relation to the department.
- (3) For the purposes of this section a body is a “designated” body in relation to a government department if—
 - (a) it is designated in relation to the department by an order made by the Treasury, or
 - (b) it falls within a description of body designated in relation to the department by such an order.
- (4) A body, or a description of body, may be designated in relation to a government department for a particular financial year or generally.
- (5) Subsections (6) and (7) apply if the Treasury—
 - (a) expect the use of resources by a body in a financial year to involve payments out of a devolved Consolidated Fund to or for the benefit of the body, but
 - (b) do not expect the use of resources by the body in the year to involve payments out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom to or for the benefit of the body.
- (6) If an order is in force under which the body would (but for this subsection) be a designated body for the year in relation to a government department—
 - (a) the Treasury must notify the department that the conditions in subsection (5) are met in the case of the body for the year, and
 - (b) the body is to be treated as if it were not designated for the year in relation to the department.
- (7) If no such order is in force, the Treasury may not make one.
- (8) Before designating a body, or a description of body, the Treasury must, where they think it appropriate, consult—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) the Department of Finance and Personnel for Northern Ireland, or
 - (c) the Welsh Ministers.
- (9) In determining for any purpose whether a body has a particular relationship with a government department (for example, whether it is controlled by, or otherwise dependent on, the department), the following must be disregarded—
 - (a) the fact that an estimate for the department in respect of a financial year includes information relating to the body, and
 - (b) the fact that the department's resource accounts for a financial year prepared under section 5 include information relating to the body.
- (10) An order under subsection (3) is to be made by statutory instrument.
- (11) A statutory instrument containing an order under that subsection is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (12) In this section “ a devolved Consolidated Fund ” means—
 - (a) the Scottish Consolidated Fund,
 - (b) the Consolidated Fund of Northern Ireland, or
 - (c) the Welsh Consolidated Fund.]

Departmental accounts

5 Resource accounts: preparation. U.K.

- (1) A government department for which an estimate is approved by the House of Commons in respect of a financial year shall prepare accounts (to be known as resource accounts) for that year detailing—
 - ^F5 resources acquired, held or disposed of during the year by—
 - (i) the department, or
 - (ii) any body that is a designated body under section 4A in relation to the department for the year, and
 - (b) the use of resources during the year by the department or any such body.]
- (2) Resource accounts shall be prepared in accordance with directions issued by the Treasury.
- (3) The Treasury shall exercise the power to issue directions under subsection (2) with a view to ensuring that resource accounts—
 - (a) present a true and fair view,
 - (b) conform to generally accepted accounting practice subject to such adaptations as are necessary in the context of departmental accounts, and
 - (c) accord with guidance issued by the Treasury about the inclusion of an explanation of the difference between an item appearing in a department's estimate and a corresponding item appearing in or reflected in the department's resource accounts.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (3)(a) and (b) the Treasury shall in particular—
 - (a) have regard to any relevant guidance issued by the Accounting Standards Board Limited or any other body prescribed for the purposes of ^[F6]section 464 of the Companies Act 2006] (accounting standards) ^[F7]or to ^[F8]UK-adopted international accounting standards, within the meaning given by section 474(1) of the Companies Act 2006]], and
 - (b) require resource accounts to include, subject to paragraph (a), a statement of financial performance, a statement of financial position and a cash flow statement.
- (5) A department which prepares resource accounts shall send them to the Comptroller and Auditor General not later than 30th November of the financial year following that to which the accounts relate.
- (6) The Treasury shall, in the case of each department which is obliged to prepare accounts in accordance with subsection (1), appoint an official of the department as its accounting officer.
- (7) While a person holds appointment as a department's accounting officer he shall be responsible for—
 - (a) the preparation of the department's resource accounts, and
 - (b) their transmission to the Comptroller and Auditor General.
- (8) The Treasury may appoint an official of a department as accounting officer in respect of a particular part of the department's resource accounts; and that person shall be responsible for the preparation of that part of the accounts.

17 Section 16: interpretation. U.K.

- (1) In section 16 “public-private partnership business” means participation in public-private partnerships whether as an investor, a consultant or otherwise.
- (2) In particular, “public-private partnership business” includes the provision of advisory or financial services in connection with specific public-private partnerships or public-private partnerships generally—
 - (a) whether the services are provided to public bodies or to private persons, and
 - (b) whether or not the services are provided on terms and conditions about payment, consideration or other matters.
- (3) In this section “public-private partnerships” means projects and undertakings the resources for which are provided partly by public bodies and partly by private persons.
- (4) In subsection (3) “resources” includes funds, assets, professional skills and any other kind of commercial resource.
- (5) In this section “public body” means a government department or a body exercising public functions.
- (6) In this section—
 - (a) “projects and undertakings” includes projects and undertakings carried on wholly or partly outside the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) a reference to public functions is not confined to public functions of the United Kingdom.
- (7) In section 16 a reference to a body includes a reference to—
 - (a) a group of bodies,
 - (b) a partnership or enterprise carried on by one or more persons or bodies, and
 - (c) a body (including a body within the meaning of paragraph (a) or (b)) which is substantially the same as, or which is a successor to, another body.

18 Investment: limit. U.K.
