

*These notes refer to the Licensing (Young Persons) Act 2000
(c.30) which received Royal Assent on 23 November 2000*

LICENSING (YOUNG PERSONS) ACT 2000

EXPLANATORY NOTES

THE ACT

6. The Act substitutes new provisions for section 169 of the 1964 Act. The new provisions:
 - redefine who may commit the offences of:
 - selling or knowingly allowing the sale of alcohol to a person under 18;
 - knowingly allowing the consumption of alcohol by a person under 18 in a bar;
and
 - knowingly delivering or allowing the delivery to a person under 18 of alcohol sold in licensed premises for off-premise consumption.
 - create a new offence of purchasing alcohol on behalf of a person under 18.