

Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 41

PART III

ACCOUNTING REQUIREMENTS FOR REGISTERED PARTIES

Statements of accounts

42 Annual statements of accounts.

- (1) The treasurer of a registered party shall prepare a statement of accounts in respect of each financial year of the party.
- (2) A statement of accounts under this section must—
 - (a) comply with such requirements as to its form and contents as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Commission; and
 - (b) be approved—
 - (i) by the management committee of the party, if there is one, and
 - (ii) otherwise by the registered leader of the party.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2)(a) may in particular—
 - (a) require any such statement to be prepared in accordance with such methods and principles as are specified or referred to in the regulations;
 - (b) specify information which is to be provided by way of notes to the accounts.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 22(7) of Schedule 1 (power to make different provision for different cases), regulations under subsection (2)(a) may impose different requirements—
 - (a) according to whether the gross income or total expenditure of a party—
 - (i) does not exceed £5,000,
 - (ii) exceeds £5,000 but not £250,000, or

- (iii) exceeds £250,000;
- (b) in respect of (on the one hand) parties registered in the Great Britain register and (on the other) those registered in the Northern Ireland register.
- (5) Any special provision made by regulations under subsection (2)(a) in respect of parties registered in the Northern Ireland register shall, however, only have effect in relation to any financial year of a party so registered during any part of which there is an order in force under section 70(1); and, in the case of any other financial year of a party so registered, any provision made by such regulations in respect of parties registered in the Great Britain register shall have effect in relation to that financial year of the party as if it were registered in that register.
- (6) The treasurer of a registered party shall ensure that any statement of accounts prepared under this section in respect of the party is preserved for at least six years from the end of the financial year to which the statement relates.
- (7) Subsection (5) of section 41 shall apply in relation to the preservation of any such statement as it applies in relation to the preservation of any accounting records (the references to subsection (4) of that section being read as references to subsection (6) above).
- (8) In this Part “gross income” means gross recorded income from all sources.

43 Annual audits.

- (1) Where a registered party’s gross income or total expenditure in any financial year exceeds £250,000, the accounts of the party for that year must be audited by a qualified auditor.
- (2) Where—
- (a) a registered party’s gross income or total expenditure in any financial year does not exceed £250,000, but
 - (b) the Commission consider it desirable that the accounts of the party for that year should be audited,
- the Commission may (at any time) give the treasurer of the party a direction requiring those accounts to be audited by a qualified auditor.
- (3) An audit under this section must be carried out—
- (a) by the end of the period of six months from the end of the financial year in question, if the audit is required by subsection (1), or
 - (b) by the later of—
 - (i) the end of the period of six months from the end of the financial year in question, and
 - (ii) the end of the period of three months from the date of the direction under subsection (2), if the audit is required by such a direction.

- (4) If it appears to the Commission that any accounts required to be audited by virtue of—
- (a) subsection (1), or
 - (b) a direction under subsection (2),
- have not been duly audited by the time mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b) (as the case may be), the Commission may appoint a qualified auditor to audit those accounts.
- (5) The expenses of any audit carried out by an auditor appointed by the Commission, including the auditor's remuneration, may be recovered by the Commission from the funds of the party concerned as a debt due to the Commission.
- (6) The Commission may by regulations make provision with respect to—
- (a) the appointment of auditors to carry out audits under this section;
 - (b) the duties of auditors so appointed; and
 - (c) the removal or resignation of such auditors and matters connected with their removal or resignation.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (6)(c) may make provision requiring such person as is specified in the regulations to deliver to the Commission, in a case where such an auditor is removed or resigns, a copy of such document relating to the auditor's removal or resignation as is so specified; and any such person commits an offence if he fails to comply with any such requirement.
- (8) Subsection (6)(a) does not apply in relation to the appointment of auditors by the Commission under subsection (4).

47 Criminal penalty for failure to submit proper statement of accounts.

- (1) If in the case of a registered party—
 - (a) any requirements of regulations under section 42(2)(a) are not complied with in relation to any statement of accounts delivered to the Commission under section 45, or
 - (b) any statement of accounts, notification or auditor’s report required to be delivered to the Commission under that section is not delivered to them before the end of the relevant period,the person who was the treasurer of the party immediately before the end of that period is guilty of an offence.
- (2) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that he took all reasonable steps, and exercised all due diligence, to ensure (as the case may be)—
 - (a) that the requirements mentioned in subsection (1)(a) were complied with in relation to the statement of accounts, or
 - (b) that the document mentioned in subsection (1)(b) would be delivered to the Commission before the end of the relevant period.
- (3) It is also a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove—
 - (a) that any failure to comply with the requirements mentioned in subsection (1) (a) was attributable to things done or omitted to be done at a time before he became the treasurer of the party, and
 - (b) that he took all reasonable steps, and exercised all due diligence, to overcome the consequences of the acts or omissions.
- (4) In this section “the relevant period” means the period allowed by section 45(1) or (2) for delivering the statement, notification or report to the Commission or, if that period has been extended (or further extended) under section 45(3), that period as so extended.
