138P. Technical standards

- (1) This Chapter applies where a power for the FCA, the PRA, the Bank of England, or any combination of them to make technical standards is substituted for the power of an EU entity to make EU tertiary legislation (“the original EU power”) by regulations made under section 8 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.
- (2) The power to make technical standards includes power to modify, amend or revoke—
 - (a) any technical standards made by the regulator under that power;
 - (b) any EU tertiary legislation made by an EU entity under the original EU power which forms part of retained EU law.
- (3) Where power to make a technical standard for the same purposes (as set out in the provision creating the power) and applying to the same persons or class of persons has been given to more than one regulator, no regulator may exercise the power without the consent of the other regulator or regulators.
- (4) Before a regulator makes a technical standard in which another regulator has an interest, it must consult the other regulator.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)—
 - (a) the PRA has an interest in a technical standard which—
 - (i) applies to PRA-authorised persons or other persons connected to them, or
 - (ii) may affect the exercise of the PRA’s functions under or by virtue of this Act or under retained EU law;
 - (b) the FCA has an interest in all technical standards which a regulator or the Payment Systems Regulator has power to amend;
 - (c) the Bank of England has an interest in technical standards which—
 - (i) apply to central counterparties, to financial counterparties or non-financial counterparties within the meaning of the EMIR regulation or to central securities depositories, or
 - (ii) may affect the exercise of the Bank’s functions under or by virtue of this Act, the Banking Act 2009 or retained EU law.
- (6) For the purposes of this Chapter—
 - (a) “EU tertiary legislation” has the meaning given in section 20 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018;
 - (b) “regulator” means the FCA, the PRA or the Bank of England;
 - (c) a person is connected with another person in the circumstances set out in section 165(11).

138Q. Standards instruments

- (1) The power to make technical standards is to be exercised by the regulator by making an instrument under this section (a “standards instrument”).
- (2) A standards instrument must specify the provision under which the instrument is being made.
- (3) To the extent that a standards instrument does not comply with subsection (2), it is void.
- (4) A standards instrument must be published by the regulator making the instrument in the way appearing to the regulator to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

- (2) The Treasury may refuse to approve a standards instrument if subsection (3) or (5) applies.
- (3) This subsection applies if it appears to the Treasury that the instrument would—
 - (a) have implications for public funds (within the meaning of section 78(2) of the Banking Act 2009); or
 - (b) prejudice any current or proposed negotiations for an international agreement between the United Kingdom and one or more other countries, international organisations or institutions.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), “international organisations” includes the European Union.
- (5) This subsection applies if it appears to the Treasury that they may direct the regulator not to make the standards instrument under section 410 (international obligations).
- (6) The Treasury must notify the regulator in writing whether or not they approve a standards instrument within four weeks after the day on which that instrument is submitted to the Treasury for approval (“the relevant period”).
- (7) Provision of a draft standards instrument to the Treasury for consultation does not amount to submission of the instrument for approval.
- (8) If the Treasury do not approve the instrument, they must—
 - (a) set out in the notice given under subsection (6) the Treasury’s reasons for not approving the instrument;
 - (b) lay before Parliament—
