

Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 8

PART XI

INFORMATION GATHERING AND INVESTIGATIONS

Assistance to overseas regulators

169 Investigations etc. in support of overseas regulator.

- (1) At the request of an overseas regulator, [<sup>F1</sup>a regulator] may—
  - (a) exercise the power conferred by section 165; or
  - (b) appoint one or more competent persons to investigate any matter.
- (2) An investigator has the same powers as an investigator appointed under section 168(3) (as a result of subsection (1) of that section).

- (a) appointed by the FCA, and
- (b) the appointment is in response to a request to the FCA to investigate a possible contravention by a person of Article 14 (prohibition of insider dealing and of unlawful disclosure of inside information) or Article 15 (prohibition of market manipulation) of the market abuse regulation, the investigator has the same powers as an investigator appointed under section 168(3) (as a result of subsection (2) of that section).]

- (3) If the request has been made by a competent authority in pursuance of any [<sup>F3</sup>EU] obligation the [<sup>F4</sup>regulator] must, in deciding whether or not to exercise its investigative power, consider whether its exercise is necessary to comply with any such obligation.
- (4) In deciding whether or not to exercise its investigative power, the [<sup>F5</sup>regulator] may take into account in particular—

Status: Point in time view as at 04/01/2018. This version of this provision has been superseded.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Section 169 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 03 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) whether in the country or territory of the overseas regulator concerned, corresponding assistance would be given to a United Kingdom regulatory authority;
  - (b) whether the case concerns the breach of a law, or other requirement, which has no close parallel in the United Kingdom or involves the assertion of a jurisdiction not recognised by the United Kingdom;
  - (c) the seriousness of the case and its importance to persons in the United Kingdom;
  - (d) whether it is otherwise appropriate in the public interest to give the assistance sought.
- (5) The [F<sup>6</sup>regulator] may decide that it will not exercise its investigative power unless the overseas regulator undertakes to make such contribution towards the cost of its exercise as the [F<sup>6</sup>regulator] considers appropriate.
- (6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply if the [F<sup>7</sup>regulator] considers that the exercise of its investigative power is necessary to comply with [F<sup>3</sup>an EU] obligation.
- (7) If [F<sup>8</sup>a regulator] has appointed an investigator in response to a request from an overseas regulator, it may direct the investigator to permit a representative of that regulator to attend, and take part in, any interview conducted for the purposes of the investigation.
- (8) A direction under subsection (7) is not to be given unless the [F<sup>9</sup>regulator] is satisfied that any information obtained by an overseas regulator as a result of the interview will be subject to safeguards equivalent to those contained in Part XXIII.
- (9) [F<sup>10</sup>Each regulator] must prepare a statement of its policy with respect to the conduct of interviews in relation to which a direction under subsection (7) has been given.
- (10) The statement requires the approval of the Treasury.
- (11) If the Treasury approve the statement, the [F<sup>11</sup>regulator] must publish it.
- (12) No direction may be given under subsection (7) before the statement has been published.
- (13) “Overseas regulator” has the same meaning as in section 195.
- (14) “Investigative power” means one of the powers mentioned in subsection (1).
- (15) “Investigator” means a person appointed under subsection (1)(b).
