

Private Security Industry Act 2001

2001 CHAPTER 12

Licence requirement

4 Exemptions from licensing requirement

(1) If—

- (a) it appears to the Secretary of State that there are circumstances in which licensable conduct is engaged in only by persons to whom suitable alternative arrangements will apply, and
- (b) the Secretary of State is satisfied that, as a consequence, it is unnecessary for persons engaging in any such conduct in those circumstances to be required to be licensed under this Act, then he may by regulations prescribing those circumstances provide that a person shall not be guilty of an offence under section 3 in respect of any conduct engaged in by him in those circumstances.

(2) The provision that may be made by regulations under subsection (1) includes provision that a person is not to be guilty of an offence in respect of any conduct which is engaged in by him in the course of his employment by, or otherwise under the direction of, a person who is certified by the Authority in accordance with the regulations to be a person who the Authority is satisfied will secure that suitable alternative arrangements apply.

(3) In subsections (1) and (2) references to suitable alternative arrangements are references to arrangements that the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the Authority is satisfied are equivalent, for all practical purposes so far as the protection of the public is concerned, to those applying to persons applying for and granted licences.

[^{F1}(3A) In the application of this section to Northern Ireland—

- (a) the reference in subsection (2)(c) to the Secretary of State must be construed as a reference to the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland; but
- (b) before making any order under subsection (2)(c) the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland must consult the Secretary of State.]

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/2012.

Changes to legislation: Private Security Industry Act 2001, Section 4 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under section 3 in respect of any activities of his as a security operative if—
- (a) he carries out those activities in his capacity as the director of a body corporate, the partner of any firm or the employee of any person;
 - (b) he has applied to the Authority for the grant of a licence and that application is pending;
 - (c) the licence applied for would authorise him to carry out those activities and is not one he has previously been refused;
 - (d) the body, firm or, as the case may be, the employer is a person who is for the time being registered under section 14 as an approved provider of security industry services; and
 - (e) the Authority has given notice to the body, firm or employer that it has authorised that body, firm or employer to use directors, partners or employees whose applications are pending to carry out activities that consist in or include those activities.
- (5) Subsection (4) shall apply in the case of a person who carries out activities under directions given by or on behalf of another person in pursuance of a contract for the supply of the services of the first person as if the first person were an employee of the other one.
- [^{F2}(6) A relevant employee who engages in licensable conduct shall not be guilty of an offence under section 3 in respect of that conduct if it is carried out in connection with the use of a certified sports ground or certified sports stand for purposes for which its safety certificate has effect.
- (7) An employee for a visiting team who engages in licensable conduct shall not be guilty of an offence under section 3 in respect of that conduct if—
- (a) it is carried out in connection with the use of a certified sports ground or certified sports stand for purposes for which its safety certificate has effect; and
 - (b) that visiting team is involved in the activities for which the ground is being used, or which the stand is being used to view.
- (8) In subsection (7) a reference to a person being an employee for a visiting team is a reference to his being a relevant employee in relation to the visitors' ground, or in relation to a certified sports stand contained in the visitors' premises.
- (9) In this section “a relevant employee”, in relation to a certified sports ground or certified sports stand, means a person employed by—
- (a) the holder of its safety certificate;
 - (b) a person who manages the ground or stand or occupies the premises where it is or owns an interest in those premises;
 - (c) a company which is in the same group as a company falling within paragraph (b).
- (10) In this section a reference to the use of a certified sports ground for purposes for which the safety certificate has effect is a reference to—
- (a) the use of the ground for activities specified in a general safety certificate in force in respect of the use of that ground; or
 - (b) the use of the ground, on an occasion specified in a special safety certificate which is so in force, for activities specified in that certificate.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/2012.
