330 Failure to disclose: regulated sector U.K.

- (1) A person commits an offence if [<sup>F7</sup>the conditions in subsections (2) to (4) are satisfied ].
- (2) The first condition is that he—
  - (a) knows or suspects, or
  - (b) has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that another person is engaged in money laundering.
- (3) The second condition is that the information or other matter—
  - (a) on which his knowledge or suspicion is based, or
  - (b) which gives reasonable grounds for such knowledge or suspicion, came to him in the course of a business in the regulated sector.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/05/2006.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 7 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- [<sup>F8</sup>(3A) The third condition is—
- (a) that he can identify the other person mentioned in subsection (2) or the whereabouts of any of the laundered property, or
  - (b) that he believes, or it is reasonable to expect him to believe, that the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) will or may assist in identifying that other person or the whereabouts of any of the laundered property.
- (4) The fourth condition is that he does not make the required disclosure to—
- (a) a nominated officer, or
  - (b) a person authorised for the purposes of this Part by the Director General of the Serious Organised Crime Agency,
- as soon as is practicable after the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) comes to him.
- (5) The required disclosure is a disclosure of—
- (a) the identity of the other person mentioned in subsection (2), if he knows it,
  - (b) the whereabouts of the laundered property, so far as he knows it, and
  - (c) the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3).
- (5A) The laundered property is the property forming the subject-matter of the money laundering that he knows or suspects, or has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that other person to be engaged in.
- (6) But he does not commit an offence under this section if—
- (a) he has a reasonable excuse for not making the required disclosure,
  - (b) he is a professional legal adviser [<sup>F9</sup>or other relevant professional adviser] and—
    - (i) if he knows either of the things mentioned in subsection (5)(a) and (b), he knows the thing because of information or other matter that came to him in privileged circumstances, or
    - (ii) the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) came to him in privileged circumstances, or
  - (c) subsection (7) [<sup>F10</sup>or (7B)] applies to him.]
- (7) This subsection applies to a person if—
- (a) he does not know or suspect that another person is engaged in money laundering, and
  - (b) he has not been provided by his employer with such training as is specified by the Secretary of State by order for the purposes of this section.
- [<sup>F11</sup>(7A) Nor does a person commit an offence under this section if—
- (a) he knows, or believes on reasonable grounds, that the money laundering is occurring in a particular country or territory outside the United Kingdom, and
  - (b) the money laundering—
    - (i) is not unlawful under the criminal law applying in that country or territory, and
    - (ii) is not of a description prescribed in an order made by the Secretary of State.]
- [<sup>F12</sup>(7B) This subsection applies to a person if—

Status: Point in time view as at 15/05/2006.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 7 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) he is employed by, or is in partnership with, a professional legal adviser or a relevant professional adviser to provide the adviser with assistance or support,
  - (b) the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) comes to the person in connection with the provision of such assistance or support, and
  - (c) the information or other matter came to the adviser in privileged circumstances.]
- (8) In deciding whether a person committed an offence under this section the court must consider whether he followed any relevant guidance which was at the time concerned—
- (a) issued by a supervisory authority or any other appropriate body,
  - (b) approved by the Treasury, and
  - (c) published in a manner it approved as appropriate in its opinion to bring the guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.
- (9) A disclosure to a nominated officer is a disclosure which—
- (a) is made to a person nominated by the alleged offender’s employer to receive disclosures under this section, and
  - (b) is made in the course of the alleged offender’s employment <sup>F13</sup>....
- [<sup>F14</sup>(9A) But a disclosure which satisfies paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (9) is not to be taken as a disclosure to a nominated officer if the person making the disclosure—
- (a) is a professional legal adviser [<sup>F15</sup>or other relevant professional adviser],
  - (b) makes it for the purpose of obtaining advice about making a disclosure under this section, and
  - (c) does not intend it to be a disclosure under this section.]
- (10) Information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser [<sup>F16</sup>or other relevant professional adviser] in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to him—
- (a) by (or by a representative of) a client of his in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client,
  - (b) by (or by a representative of) a person seeking legal advice from the adviser, or
  - (c) by a person in connection with legal proceedings or contemplated legal proceedings.
- (11) But subsection (10) does not apply to information or other matter which is communicated or given with the intention of furthering a criminal purpose.
- (12) Schedule 9 has effect for the purpose of determining what is—
- (a) a business in the regulated sector;
  - (b) a supervisory authority.
- (13) An appropriate body is any body which regulates or is representative of any trade, profession, business or employment carried on by the alleged offender.
- [<sup>F17</sup>(14) A relevant professional adviser is an accountant, auditor or tax adviser who is a member of a professional body which is established for accountants, auditors or tax advisers (as the case may be) and which makes provision for—
- (a) testing the competence of those seeking admission to membership of such a body as a condition for such admission; and

Status: Point in time view as at 15/05/2006.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 7 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) imposing and maintaining professional and ethical standards for its members, as well as imposing sanctions for non-compliance with those standards .]

- (3) The second condition is that the information or other matter—
- (a) causes the discloser to know or suspect, or
  - (b) gives him reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting,
- that another person is engaged in money laundering.
- (4) The third condition is that the disclosure is made to a constable, a customs officer or a nominated officer as soon as is practicable after the information or other matter comes to the discloser.
- [<sup>F27</sup>(4A) Where a disclosure consists of a disclosure protected under subsection (1) and a disclosure of either or both of—
- (a) the identity of the other person mentioned in subsection (3), and
  - (b) the whereabouts of property forming the subject-matter of the money laundering that the discloser knows or suspects, or has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that other person to be engaged in,
- the disclosure of the thing mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) (as well as the disclosure protected under subsection (1)) is not to be taken to breach any restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).]
- (5) A disclosure to a nominated officer is a disclosure which—
- (a) is made to a person nominated by the discloser's employer to receive disclosures under[<sup>F28</sup>section 330 or ] this section, and

- (a) when he gives consent, or gives notice refusing consent, to the deposit-taking body's doing of an act mentioned in section 327(1), 328(1) or 329(1) in opening, or operating, the account or a related account, or
  - (b) on a request from the deposit-taking body.
- (4) Where the threshold amount for acts done in operating an account is specified under subsection (3) or this subsection, an officer of Revenue and Customs, or a constable, may vary the amount (whether on a request from the deposit-taking body or otherwise) by specifying a different amount.
- (5) Different threshold amounts may be specified under subsections (3) and (4) for different acts done in operating the same account.
- (6) The amount specified under subsection (3) or (4) as the threshold amount for acts done in operating an account must, when specified, not be less than the amount specified in subsection (2).
- (7) The Secretary of State may by order vary the amount for the time being specified in subsection (2).
- (8) For the purposes of this section, an account is related to another if each is maintained with the same deposit-taking body and there is a person who, in relation to each account, is the person or one of the persons entitled to instruct the body as respects the operation of the account.]

Interpretation

340 Interpretation U.K.

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) Criminal conduct is conduct which—
  - (a) constitutes an offence in any part of the United Kingdom, or
  - (b) would constitute an offence in any part of the United Kingdom if it occurred there.
- (3) Property is criminal property if—
  - (a) it constitutes a person's benefit from criminal conduct or it represents such a benefit (in whole or part and whether directly or indirectly), and
  - (b) the alleged offender knows or suspects that it constitutes or represents such a benefit.
- (4) It is immaterial—
  - (a) who carried out the conduct;
  - (b) who benefited from it;
  - (c) whether the conduct occurred before or after the passing of this Act.
- (5) A person benefits from conduct if he obtains property as a result of or in connection with the conduct.
- (6) If a person obtains a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with conduct, he is to be taken to obtain as a result of or in connection with the conduct a sum of money equal to the value of the pecuniary advantage.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/05/2006.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 7 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) References to property or a pecuniary advantage obtained in connection with conduct include references to property or a pecuniary advantage obtained in both that connection and some other.
- (8) If a person benefits from conduct his benefit is the property obtained as a result of or in connection with the conduct.
- (9) Property is all property wherever situated and includes—
- (a) money;
  - (b) all forms of property, real or personal, heritable or moveable;
  - (c) things in action and other intangible or incorporeal property.
- (10) The following rules apply in relation to property—
- (a) property is obtained by a person if he obtains an interest in it;
  - (b) references to an interest, in relation to land in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, are to any legal estate or equitable interest or power;
  - (c) references to an interest, in relation to land in Scotland, are to any estate, interest, servitude or other heritable right in or over land, including a heritable security;
  - (d) references to an interest, in relation to property other than land, include references to a right (including a right to possession).
- (11) Money laundering is an act which—
- (a) constitutes an offence under section 327, 328 or 329,
  - (b) constitutes an attempt, conspiracy or incitement to commit an offence specified in paragraph (a),
  - (c) constitutes aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of an offence specified in paragraph (a), or
  - (d) would constitute an offence specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) if done in the United Kingdom.
- (12) For the purposes of a disclosure to a nominated officer—
- (a) references to a person’s employer include any body, association or organisation (including a voluntary organisation) in connection with whose activities the person exercises a function (whether or not for gain or reward), and
  - (b) references to employment must be construed accordingly.
- (13) References to a constable include references to a person authorised for the purposes of this Part by [<sup>F38</sup>the Director General of the Serious Organised Crime Agency].
- [<sup>F39</sup>(14) “ Deposit-taking body ” means—
- (a) a business which engages in the activity of accepting deposits, or
  - (b) the National Savings Bank.]
