330 Failure to disclose: regulated sector

- (1) A person commits an offence if [<sup>F7</sup>the conditions in subsections (2) to (4) are satisfied ].
- (2) The first condition is that he—
  - (a) knows or suspects, or
  - (b) has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that another person is engaged in money laundering.
- (3) The second condition is that the information or other matter—
  - (a) on which his knowledge or suspicion is based, or
  - (b) which gives reasonable grounds for such knowledge or suspicion, came to him in the course of a business in the regulated sector.

Status: Point in time view as at 21/02/2009.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 7 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- [<sup>F8</sup>(3A) The third condition is—
- (a) that he can identify the other person mentioned in subsection (2) or the whereabouts of any of the laundered property, or
  - (b) that he believes, or it is reasonable to expect him to believe, that the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) will or may assist in identifying that other person or the whereabouts of any of the laundered property.
- (4) The fourth condition is that he does not make the required disclosure to—
- (a) a nominated officer, or
  - (b) a person authorised for the purposes of this Part by the Director General of [<sup>F9</sup>SOCA],
- as soon as is practicable after the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) comes to him.
- (5) The required disclosure is a disclosure of—
- (a) the identity of the other person mentioned in subsection (2), if he knows it,
  - (b) the whereabouts of the laundered property, so far as he knows it, and
  - (c) the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3).
- (5A) The laundered property is the property forming the subject-matter of the money laundering that he knows or suspects, or has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that other person to be engaged in.
- (6) But he does not commit an offence under this section if—
- (a) he has a reasonable excuse for not making the required disclosure,
  - (b) he is a professional legal adviser [<sup>F10</sup>or <sup>F11</sup>... relevant professional adviser]and—
    - (i) if he knows either of the things mentioned in subsection (5)(a) and (b), he knows the thing because of information or other matter that came to him in privileged circumstances, or
    - (ii) the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) came to him in privileged circumstances, or
  - (c) subsection (7) [<sup>F12</sup>or (7B)]applies to him.]
- (7) This subsection applies to a person if—
- (a) he does not know or suspect that another person is engaged in money laundering, and
  - (b) he has not been provided by his employer with such training as is specified by the Secretary of State by order for the purposes of this section.
- [<sup>F13</sup>(7A) Nor does a person commit an offence under this section if—
- (a) he knows, or believes on reasonable grounds, that the money laundering is occurring in a particular country or territory outside the United Kingdom, and
  - (b) the money laundering—
    - (i) is not unlawful under the criminal law applying in that country or territory, and
    - (ii) is not of a description prescribed in an order made by the Secretary of State.]
- [<sup>F14</sup>(7B) This subsection applies to a person if—

Status: Point in time view as at 21/02/2009.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 7 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) he is employed by, or is in partnership with, a professional legal adviser or a relevant professional adviser to provide the adviser with assistance or support,
  - (b) the information or other matter mentioned in subsection (3) comes to the person in connection with the provision of such assistance or support, and
  - (c) the information or other matter came to the adviser in privileged circumstances.]
- (8) In deciding whether a person committed an offence under this section the court must consider whether he followed any relevant guidance which was at the time concerned—
- (a) issued by a supervisory authority or any other appropriate body,
  - (b) approved by the Treasury, and
  - (c) published in a manner it approved as appropriate in its opinion to bring the guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.
- (9) A disclosure to a nominated officer is a disclosure which—
- (a) is made to a person nominated by the alleged offender’s employer to receive disclosures under this section, and
  - (b) is made in the course of the alleged offender’s employment <sup>F15</sup>....
- [<sup>F16</sup>(9A) But a disclosure which satisfies paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (9) is not to be taken as a disclosure to a nominated officer if the person making the disclosure—
- (a) is a professional legal adviser [<sup>F17</sup> or <sup>F18</sup>... relevant professional adviser],
  - (b) makes it for the purpose of obtaining advice about making a disclosure under this section, and
  - (c) does not intend it to be a disclosure under this section.]
- (10) Information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser [<sup>F19</sup> or <sup>F20</sup>... relevant professional adviser] in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to him—
- (a) by (or by a representative of) a client of his in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client,
  - (b) by (or by a representative of) a person seeking legal advice from the adviser, or
  - (c) by a person in connection with legal proceedings or contemplated legal proceedings.
- (11) But subsection (10) does not apply to information or other matter which is communicated or given with the intention of furthering a criminal purpose.
- (12) Schedule 9 has effect for the purpose of determining what is—
- (a) a business in the regulated sector;
  - (b) a supervisory authority.
- (13) An appropriate body is any body which regulates or is representative of any trade, profession, business or employment carried on by the alleged offender.
- [<sup>F21</sup>(14) A relevant professional adviser is an accountant, auditor or tax adviser who is a member of a professional body which is established for accountants, auditors or tax advisers (as the case may be) and which makes provision for—
- (a) testing the competence of those seeking admission to membership of such a body as a condition for such admission; and

Status: Point in time view as at 21/02/2009.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 7 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) imposing and maintaining professional and ethical standards for its members, as well as imposing sanctions for non-compliance with those standards .]

339 Form and manner of disclosures

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order prescribe the form and manner in which a disclosure under section 330, 331, 332 or 338 must be made.

[<sup>F48</sup>(1A) A person commits an offence if he makes a disclosure under section 330, 331, 332 or 338 otherwise than in the form prescribed under subsection (1) or otherwise than in the manner so prescribed.

(1B) But a person does not commit an offence under subsection (1A) if he has a reasonable excuse for making the disclosure otherwise than in the form prescribed under subsection (1) or (as the case may be) otherwise than in the manner so prescribed.

- (2) The power under subsection (1) to prescribe the form in which a disclosure must be made includes power to provide for the form to include a request to a person making a disclosure that the person provide information specified or described in the form if he has not provided it in making the disclosure.

- (3) Where under subsection (2) a request is included in a form prescribed under subsection (1), the form must—

- (a) state that there is no obligation to comply with the request, and
(b) explain the protection conferred by subsection (4) on a person who complies with the request.]

- (4) A disclosure made in pursuance of a request under subsection (2) is not to be taken to breach any restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
