- the school year in which the majority of pupils in his class attain the age of fourteen (“the third key stage”), and
- (d) the period beginning at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in his class attain the age of fifteen and ending at the same time as the school year in which the majority of pupils in his class cease to be of compulsory school age (“the fourth key stage”).
- (2) The head teacher of a school may elect, in relation to a particular pupil and a particular subject, that subsection (1) shall have effect as if any reference to the school year in which the majority of pupils in that pupil’s class attain a particular age were a reference to the school year in which that pupil attains that age.
- (3) If at any time, in the case of a pupil of compulsory school age, subsection (1) does not, apart from this subsection, apply to determine the period within which that time falls, that subsection shall have effect as if—
- (a) in the case of paragraphs (a) to (c), any reference to the school year in which the majority of pupils in that pupil’s class attain a particular age were a reference to the school year in which that pupil attains that age, and
- (b) in the case of paragraph (d), the period were a period beginning at the same time as the school year in which he attains the age of fifteen and ending when he ceases to be of compulsory school age.
- (4) The [F2Welsh Ministers] may by order—
- (a) provide that, in relation to any subject specified in the order, subsection (1) shall have effect as if for the ages of seven and eight there specified there were substituted such other ages (less than eleven and twelve respectively) as may be specified in the order, or
- (b) amend subsections (1) to (3).
- (5) In this section “class”, in relation to a particular pupil and a particular subject, means—
- (a) the teaching group in which he is regularly taught in that subject, or
- (b) where there are two or more such groups, such one of them as may be designated by the head teacher of the school.

108 Establishment of the National Curriculum for Wales by order

- (1) The [^{F11}Welsh Ministers] shall so exercise the powers conferred by subsections (2) and (3) as to—
- establish a complete National Curriculum for Wales for the foundation stage as soon as is reasonably practicable, and
 - revise the National Curriculum for Wales for the foundation stage and the key stages whenever [^{F12}the Welsh Ministers consider] it necessary or expedient to do so.
- (2) In respect of the foundation stage, the [^{F11}Welsh Ministers]—
- shall by order specify the areas of learning, and
 - may by order specify in relation to each of those areas—
 - such desirable outcomes,
 - such educational programmes, and
 - such assessment arrangements,as the Assembly considers appropriate for that area.
- (3) In respect of the first, second and third key stages and (subject to section 107) the fourth key stage, the [^{F11}Welsh Ministers] may by order specify in relation to each of the foundation subjects—
- such attainment targets,
 - such programmes of study, and
 - such assessment arrangements,
- as [^{F13}the Welsh Ministers consider] appropriate for that subject.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) or (3) may not require—
- the allocation of any particular period or periods of time during the foundation stage or any key stage to the teaching of any educational programme or programme of study or any matter, skill or process forming part of it, or
 - the making in school timetables (or the timetables of any person providing funded nursery education) of provision of any particular kind for the periods to be allocated to such teaching during any such stage.
- (5) An order under subsection (2) or (3) may, instead of containing the provisions to be made, refer to provisions in a document published as specified in the order and direct that those provisions are to have effect or, as the case may be, are to have effect as amended by the order.
- (6) An order under subsection (2)(b)(iii) may confer or impose such functions on—
