2002 CHAPTER 38

VALID FROM 01/02/2003

PART 1

ADOPTION

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTORY

1 Considerations applying to the exercise of powers

- (1) This section applies whenever a court or adoption agency is coming to a decision relating to the adoption of a child.
- (2) The paramount consideration of the court or adoption agency must be the child's welfare, throughout his life.
- (3) The court or adoption agency must at all times bear in mind that, in general, any delay in coming to the decision is likely to prejudice the child's welfare.
- (4) The court or adoption agency must have regard to the following matters (among others)—
 - (a) the child's ascertainable wishes and feelings regarding the decision (considered in the light of the child's age and understanding),
 - (b) the child's particular needs,
 - (c) the likely effect on the child (throughout his life) of having ceased to be a member of the original family and become an adopted person,

Status: Point in time view as at 07/11/2002. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Adoption and Children Act 2002, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 31 August 2024. - (d) the child’s age, sex, background and any of the child’s characteristics which the court or agency considers relevant,
 - (e) any harm (within the meaning of the Children Act 1989 (c. 41)) which the child has suffered or is at risk of suffering,
 - (f) the relationship which the child has with relatives, and with any other person in relation to whom the court or agency considers the relationship to be relevant, including—
 - (i) the likelihood of any such relationship continuing and the value to the child of its doing so,
 - (ii) the ability and willingness of any of the child’s relatives, or of any such person, to provide the child with a secure environment in which the child can develop, and otherwise to meet the child’s needs,
 - (iii) the wishes and feelings of any of the child’s relatives, or of any such person, regarding the child.
- (5) In placing the child for adoption, the adoption agency must give due consideration to the child’s religious persuasion, racial origin and cultural and linguistic background.
- (6) The court or adoption agency must always consider the whole range of powers available to it in the child’s case (whether under this Act or the Children Act 1989); and the court must not make any order under this Act unless it considers that making the order would be better for the child than not doing so.
- (7) In this section, “coming to a decision relating to the adoption of a child”, in relation to a court, includes—
- (a) coming to a decision in any proceedings where the orders that might be made by the court include an adoption order (or the revocation of such an order), a placement order (or the revocation of such an order) or an order under section 26 (or the revocation or variation of such an order),
 - (b) coming to a decision about granting leave in respect of any action (other than the initiation of proceedings in any court) which may be taken by an adoption agency or individual under this Act,
- but does not include coming to a decision about granting leave in any other circumstances.
- (8) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) references to relationships are not confined to legal relationships,
 - (b) references to a relative, in relation to a child, include the child’s mother and father.

 - (d) an overseas adoption, or

and related expressions are to be interpreted accordingly.

- (2) But references in this Chapter to adoption do not include an adoption effected before the day on which this Chapter comes into force (referred to in this Chapter as “the appointed day”).
- (3) Any reference in an enactment to an adopted person within the meaning of this Chapter includes a reference to an adopted child within the meaning of Part 4 of the Adoption Act 1976 (c. 36).

67 Status conferred by adoption

- (1) An adopted person is to be treated in law as if born as the child of the adopters or adopter.
- (2) An adopted person is the legitimate child of the adopters or adopter and, if adopted by—
- (a) a couple, or
 - (b) one of a couple under section 51(2),
- is to be treated as the child of the relationship of the couple in question.
- (3) An adopted person—
- (a) if adopted by one of a couple under section 51(2), is to be treated in law as not being the child of any person other than the adopter and the other one of the couple, and
 - (b) in any other case, is to be treated in law, subject to subsection (4), as not being the child of any person other than the adopters or adopter;
- but this subsection does not affect any reference in this Act to a person’s natural parent or to any other natural relationship.
- (4) In the case of a person adopted by one of the person’s natural parents as sole adoptive parent, subsection (3)(b) has no effect as respects entitlement to property

Status: Point in time view as at 07/11/2002. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Adoption and Children Act 2002, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 31 August 2024. depending on relationship to that parent, or as respects anything else depending on that relationship.

- (5) This section has effect from the date of the adoption.
- (6) Subject to the provisions of this Chapter and Schedule 4, this section—
- (a) applies for the interpretation of enactments or instruments passed or made before as well as after the adoption, and so applies subject to any contrary indication, and
 - (b) has effect as respects things done, or events occurring, on or after the adoption.

68 Adoptive relatives

- (1) A relationship existing by virtue of section 67 may be referred to as an adoptive relationship, and—
- (a) an adopter may be referred to as an adoptive parent or (as the case may be) as an adoptive father or adoptive mother,
 - (b) any other relative of any degree under an adoptive relationship may be referred to as an adoptive relative of that degree.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the interpretation of any reference, not qualified by the word “adoptive”, to a relationship.
- (3) A reference (however expressed) to the adoptive mother and father of a child adopted by—
- (a) a couple of the same sex, or
 - (b) a partner of the child’s parent, where the couple are of the same sex,
- is to be read as a reference to the child’s adoptive parents.

69 Rules of interpretation for instruments concerning property

- (1) The rules of interpretation contained in this section apply (subject to any contrary indication and to Schedule 4) to any instrument so far as it contains a disposition of property.
- (2) In applying section 67(1) and (2) to a disposition which depends on the date of birth of a child or children of the adoptive parent or parents, the disposition is to be interpreted as if—
- (a) the adopted person had been born on the date of adoption,
 - (b) two or more people adopted on the same date had been born on that date in the order of their actual births;
- but this does not affect any reference to a person’s age.
- (3) Examples of phrases in wills on which subsection (2) can operate are—
1. Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards”.
 2. Children of A “living at my death or born afterwards before any one of such children for the time being in existence attains a vested interest and who attain the age of 21 years”.
 3. As in example 1 or 2, but referring to grandchildren of A instead of children of A.
 4. A for life “until he has a child”, and then to his child or children.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/11/2002. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

“Qualifying interest” means an interest vested in possession in the adopted person before the adoption.

- (5) Where it is necessary to determine for the purposes of a disposition of property effected by an instrument whether a woman can have a child—

 - (b) if she does so, then (in spite of section 67) that person is not to be treated as her child or (if she does so as one of a couple) as the child of the other one of the couple for the purposes of the instrument.
- (6) In this section, “instrument” includes a private Act settling property, but not any other enactment.

70 Dispositions depending on date of birth

- (1) Where a disposition depends on the date of birth of a person who was born illegitimate and who is adopted by one of the natural parents as sole adoptive parent, section 69(2) does not affect entitlement by virtue of Part 3 of the Family Law Reform Act 1987 (c. 42) (dispositions of property).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies for example where—
- (a) a testator dies in 2001 bequeathing a legacy to his eldest grandchild living at a specified time,
 - (b) his unmarried daughter has a child in 2002 who is the first grandchild,
 - (c) his married son has a child in 2003,
 - (d) subsequently his unmarried daughter adopts her child as sole adoptive parent.

In that example the status of the daughter’s child as the eldest grandchild of the testator is not affected by the events described in paragraphs (c) and (d).

71 Property devolving with peerages etc.

- (1) An adoption does not affect the descent of any peerage or dignity or title of honour.
- (2) An adoption does not affect the devolution of any property limited (expressly or not) to devolve (as nearly as the law permits) along with any peerage or dignity or title of honour.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies only if and so far as a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument, and has effect subject to the terms of the instrument.
