Introductory

- 1 This Schedule applies in relation to such orders, and to such extent, as is provided by this Part and Part 4 and any other enactment; and references in this Schedule to an order shall be construed accordingly.

General restrictions on conduct

- 2 (1) An order may—
 - (a) prohibit the making or performance of an agreement;
 - (b) require any party to an agreement to terminate the agreement.
- (2) An order made by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) shall not—
 - (a) prohibit the making or performance of; or
 - (b) require any person to terminate, an agreement so far as, if made, the agreement would relate, or (as the case may be) so far as the agreement relates, to the terms and conditions of employment of any workers or to the physical conditions in which any workers are required to work.
- 3 (1) An order may prohibit the withholding from any person of—

Changes to legislation: Enterprise Act 2002, SCHEDULE 8 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 October 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) any goods or services;
 - (b) any orders for any such goods or services.
- (2) References in sub-paragraph (1) to withholding include references to—
- (a) agreeing or threatening to withhold; and
 - (b) procuring others to withhold or to agree or threaten to withhold.
- 4 An order may prohibit requiring as a condition of the supply of goods or services to any person—
- (a) the buying of any goods;
 - (b) the making of any payment in respect of services other than the goods or services supplied;
 - (c) the doing of any other such matter or the refraining from doing anything mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) or any other such matter.
- 5 An order may prohibit—
- (a) discrimination between persons in the prices charged for goods or services;
 - (b) anything which the relevant authority considers to be such discrimination;
 - (c) procuring others to do anything which is such discrimination or which the relevant authority considers to be such discrimination.
- 6 An order may prohibit—
- (a) giving, or agreeing to give in other ways, any preference in respect of the supply of goods or services or in respect of the giving of orders for goods or services;
 - (b) giving, or agreeing to give in other ways, anything which the relevant authority considers to be a preference in respect of the supply of goods or services or in respect of the giving of orders for goods or services;
 - (c) procuring others to do anything mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).
- 7 An order may prohibit—
- (a) charging, for goods or services supplied, prices differing from those in any published list or notification;
 - (b) doing anything which the relevant authority considers to be charging such prices.
- 8 (1) An order may regulate the prices to be charged for any goods or services.
- (2) No order shall be made by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) unless the relevant report in relation to the matter concerned identifies the prices charged for the goods or services as requiring remedial action.
- (3) In this paragraph “the relevant report” means the report of the ^{F1}CMA] which is required by the enactment concerned before an order can be made under this Schedule.
