 - (b) the circumstances are exceptional and make it appropriate [^{F10}for the appeal to be heard].
- [Where a person gives notice of application for leave to appeal after the end of the ^{F11}(7A) permitted period (whether or not the application is for leave to appeal on human rights grounds), the High Court must not for that reason refuse to entertain the application if the person did everything reasonably possible to ensure that the notice was given as soon as it could be given.]
- (8) In this section [^{F12}“to appeal on human rights grounds” means to appeal] against the order for the person's extradition on the grounds (and only on the grounds) that the extradition would not be compatible with the Convention rights within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998.]
