122A Sexual risk orders: applications, grounds and effect

^{F2}(1) A person mentioned in subsection (1A) (“the applicant”) may by complaint to a magistrates’ court apply for an order under this section (a “sexual risk order”) in respect of a person (“the defendant”) if it appears to the applicant that the condition in subsection (2) is met.

(1A) Those persons are—

- (a) a chief officer of police;
- (b) the Director General of the National Crime Agency (“the Director General”);
- (c) the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force;
- (d) the chief constable of the Ministry of Defence Police.]

(2) The condition is that the defendant has, whether before or after the commencement of this Part, done an act of a sexual nature as a result of which there is reasonable cause to believe that it is necessary for a sexual risk order to be made.

[If a list has been published under section 172 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing ^{F3}(2A) and Courts Act 2022 (list of countries where children are at high risk of sexual

- abuse or sexual exploitation) and has not been withdrawn, a person mentioned in subsection (1A) must have regard to the list in considering—
- (a) whether as a result of the act mentioned in subsection (2) there is reasonable cause to believe that it is necessary for a sexual risk order to be made for the purpose of protecting children generally, or any particular children, from harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) whether to apply for a prohibition on foreign travel (see section 122C) to be included in any such order for that purpose.]
- (3) A chief officer of police may make an application under subsection (1) only in respect of a person—
- (a) who resides in the chief officer's police area, or
 - (b) who the chief officer believes is in that area or is intending to come to it.
- (4) An application under subsection (1) may be made to any magistrates' court acting for a local justice area that includes—
- (a) any part of a relevant police area, or
 - (b) any place where it is alleged that the person acted in a way mentioned in subsection (2).
- [^{F4}(5) If the Director General, the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force or the chief constable of the Ministry of Defence Police makes an application under subsection (1), that person must as soon as practicable notify the chief officer of police for a relevant police area of that application.]
- [^{F5}(6) On an application under subsection (1), the court may make a sexual risk order if—
- (a) the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the defendant has, whether before or after the commencement of this Part, done one or more of the acts of a sexual nature alleged by the person making the application, and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that as a result of the defendant acting in such a way it is necessary to make such an order for the purpose of—
 - (i) protecting the public or any particular members of the public from harm from the defendant, or
 - (ii) protecting children or vulnerable adults generally, or any particular children or vulnerable adults, from harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom.]

[If a list has been published under section 172 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and
^{F6}(6A) Courts Act 2022 and has not been withdrawn, the court must have regard to the list in considering—

 - (a) whether a sexual risk order is necessary for the purpose of protecting children generally, or any particular children, from harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) in particular, whether a prohibition on foreign travel (see section 122C) is necessary for that purpose.]

[^{F7}(7) A sexual risk order may—

 - (a) prohibit the defendant from doing anything described in the order;
 - (b) require the defendant to do anything described in the order.]

(8) A sexual risk order may specify [^{F8}—

 - (a) has effect for a fixed period (not less than 2 years) specified in the order or until further order, and

- (b) may specify different periods for different prohibitions or requirements].
- (9) The only prohibitions [^{F9}or requirements] that may be imposed are those necessary for the purpose of—
- (a) protecting the public or any particular members of the public from harm from the defendant, or
 - (b) protecting children or vulnerable adults generally, or any particular children or vulnerable adults, from harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom.
- [The prohibitions or requirements which are imposed on the defendant by a sexual risk ^{F10}(9A) order must, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid—
- (a) any conflict with the defendant’s religious beliefs,
 - (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the defendant normally works or attends any educational establishment, and
 - (c) any conflict with any other court order or injunction to which the defendant may be subject (but see subsection (10)).]

(10) Where a court makes a sexual risk order in relation to a person who is already subject to such an order (whether made by that court or another), the earlier order ceases to have effect.

^[F13] 122BA Sexual risk orders: requirements included in order etc.

- (1) A sexual risk order that imposes a requirement to do something on a defendant must specify a person who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with the requirement.
- The person may be an individual or an organisation.
- (2) Before including such a requirement in a sexual risk order, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from—
- (a) the individual to be specified under subsection (1), if an individual is to be specified;
 - (b) an individual representing the organisation to be specified under subsection (1), if an organisation is to be specified.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to electronic monitoring requirements (see instead section 122EA(5) and (6)).
- (4) It is the duty of a person specified under subsection (1)—
- (a) to make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the person has responsibility (“the relevant requirements”);
 - (b) to promote the defendant’s compliance with the relevant requirements;
 - (c) if the person considers that—
 - (i) the defendant has complied with all the relevant requirements, or
 - (ii) the defendant has failed to comply with a relevant requirement, to inform the appropriate chief officer of police.
- (5) In subsection (4)(c) the “appropriate chief officer of police means—

- (a) the chief officer of police for the police area in which it appears to the person specified under subsection (1) that the defendant resides, or
 - (b) if it appears to that person that the defendant resides in more than one police area, whichever of the chief officers of police of those areas the person thinks it is most appropriate to inform.
- (6) A defendant subject to a requirement imposed by a sexual risk order must—
- (a) keep in touch with the person specified under subsection (1) in relation to that requirement, in accordance with any instructions given by that person from time to time, and
 - (b) notify that person of any change of the defendant’s home address.

These obligations have effect as requirements of the order.]

F13 S. 122BA inserted (29.11.2022) by Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 \(c. 32\), ss. 176\(3\), 208\(1\); S.I. 2022/1227, reg. 3\(i\)

122C Sexual risk orders: prohibitions on foreign travel

- (1) A prohibition on foreign travel contained in a sexual risk order must not be for a period of more than 5 years.
- (2) A “prohibition on foreign travel” means—
 - (a) a prohibition on travelling to any country outside the United Kingdom named or described in the order,
 - (b) a prohibition on travelling to any country outside the United Kingdom other than a country named or described in the order, or
 - (c) a prohibition on travelling to any country outside the United Kingdom.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prevent a prohibition on foreign travel from being extended for a further period (of no more than 5 years each time) under section 122D.
- (4) A sexual risk order that contains a prohibition within subsection (2)(c) must require the defendant to surrender all of the defendant's passports at a police station specified in the order—
 - (a) on or before the date when the prohibition takes effect, or
 - (b) within a period specified in the order.
- (5) Any passports surrendered must be returned as soon as reasonably practicable after the person ceases to be subject to a sexual risk order containing such a prohibition (unless the person is subject to an equivalent prohibition under another order).
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply in relation to—
 - (a) a passport issued by or on behalf of the authorities of a country outside the United Kingdom if the passport has been returned to those authorities;
 - (b) a passport issued by or on behalf of an international organisation if the passport has been returned to that organisation.
- (7) In this section “passport” means—
 - (a) a United Kingdom passport within the meaning of the Immigration Act 1971;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2023.

Changes to legislation: Sexual Offences Act 2003, Cross Heading: Sexual risk orders (England and Wales) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 June 2024. - (b) a passport issued by or on behalf of the authorities of a country outside the United Kingdom, or by or on behalf of an international organisation;
- (c) a document that can be used (in some or all circumstances) instead of a passport.

122D Sexual risk order: variations, renewals and discharges

(1) A person within subsection (2) may by complaint to the appropriate court apply for an order varying, renewing or discharging a sexual risk order.

(2) The persons are—

- (a) the defendant;
- (b) the chief officer of police for the area in which the defendant resides;
- (c) a chief officer of police who believes that the defendant is in, or is intending to come to, that officer's police area;

[If a list has been published under section 172 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and ^{F14}(2A) Courts Act 2022 (list of countries where children are at high risk of sexual abuse or sexual exploitation) and has not been withdrawn, a person mentioned in subsection (2) (b) to (d) must have regard to the list in considering—

- (a) whether to apply for an order varying or renewing a sexual risk order for the purpose of protecting children generally, or any particular children, from harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom, and
- (b) in particular, whether to apply for an order imposing, varying or renewing a prohibition on foreign travel for that purpose.]
- (d) where the order was made on an application by a chief officer of police, that officer.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), on [^{F15}an application made under this section] the court, after hearing the person making the application and (if they wish to be heard) the other persons mentioned in subsection (2), may make any order, varying, renewing or discharging the sexual risk order, that the court considers appropriate.

(4) An order may be renewed, or varied so as to impose additional prohibitions [^{F16}or requirements] on the defendant, only if it is necessary to do so for the purpose of—

- (a) protecting the public or any particular members of the public from harm from the defendant, or
- (b) protecting children or vulnerable adults generally, or any particular children or vulnerable adults, from harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom.

Any renewed or varied order may contain only such prohibitions [^{F17}and requirements] as are necessary for this purpose.

[Any additional prohibitions or requirements that are imposed on the defendant must,
^{F18}(4A) so far as practicable, be such as to avoid—

- (a) any conflict with the defendant's religious beliefs,
- (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the defendant normally works or attends any educational establishment, and
- (c) any conflict with any other court order or injunction to which the defendant may be subject.]

Status: Point in time view as at 31/03/2023.

Changes to legislation: Sexual Offences Act 2003, Cross Heading: Sexual risk orders (England and Wales) is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 June 2024. - [If a list has been published under section 172 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and F19(4B) Courts Act 2022 and has not been withdrawn, the court must have regard to the list in considering—
- (a) whether any order varying or renewing the sexual risk order is necessary for the purposes of protecting children generally, or any particular children, from harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) in particular, whether an order imposing, varying or renewing a prohibition on foreign travel is necessary for that purpose.]
- (5) The court must not discharge an order before the end of 2 years beginning with the day on which the order was made, without the consent of the defendant—
- (a) where the application is made by a chief officer of police, that chief officer, or
 - (b) in any other case, the chief officer of police for the area in which the defendant resides.
- (6) Section 122B(1) applies for the purposes of this section.
- (7) In this section “the appropriate court” means—
- (a) where an adult magistrates' court made the sexual risk order, that court, any adult magistrates' court for the area in which the defendant resides or, where the application is made by a chief officer of police, any adult magistrates' court acting for a local justice area that includes any part of the chief officer's police area;
 - (b) where a youth court made the order and the defendant is under the age of 18, that court, a youth court for the area in which the defendant resides or, where the application is made by a chief officer of police, any youth court acting for a local justice area that includes any part of the chief officer's police area;
 - (c) where a youth court made the order and the defendant is aged 18 or over, an adult magistrates' court for the area in which the defendant resides or, where the application is made by a chief officer of police, any adult magistrates' court acting for a local justice area that includes any part of the chief officer's police area.

In this subsection “adult magistrates' court” means a magistrates' court that is not a youth court.

122F Sexual risk orders and interim sexual risk orders: notification requirements

- (1) A person in respect of whom a court makes—
- a sexual risk order (other than one that replaces an interim sexual risk order), or
 - an interim sexual risk order,
- must, within the period of 3 days beginning with the date of service of the order, notify to the police the information set out in subsection (2) (unless the person is subject to the notification requirements of this Part on that date).
- (2) The information is—
- the person's name and, where the person uses one or more other names, each of those names;
 - the person's home address.
- (3) A person who—
- is subject to a sexual risk order or an interim sexual risk order (but is not subject to the notification requirements of this Part), and
 - uses a name which has not been notified under this section (or under any other provision of this Part), or changes home address,
- must, within the period of 3 days beginning with the date on which that happens, notify to the police that name or (as the case may be) the new home address.
- (4) Sections 87 (method of notification and related matters) and 91 (offences relating to notification) apply for the purposes of this section—
- with references to section 83(1) being read as references to subsection (1) above,
 - with references to section 84(1) being read as references to subsection (3) above, and
 - with the omission of section 87(2)(b).

122G Sexual risk orders and interim sexual risk orders: appeals

- (1) A defendant may appeal to the Crown Court—
- against the making of a sexual risk order;
