115 Complaints regulations: supplementary

- (1) Regulations under subsection (1) or (2) of section 113 or under subsection (1) or (3) of section 114 (“the regulations”) may, without prejudice to the generality of the subsection under which they are made, make the following provision.
- (2) The regulations may make provision about—
- (a) the persons who may make a complaint;
  - (b) the complaints which may, or may not, be made under the regulations;
  - (c) the persons to whom complaints may be made;
  - (d) complaints which need not be considered;
  - (e) the period within which complaints must be made;
  - (f) the procedure to be followed in making, handling and considering a complaint;
  - (g) matters which are excluded from consideration;
  - (h) the making of a report or recommendations about a complaint;
  - (i) the action to be taken as a result of the complaint.
- (3) The regulations may require—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003, Chapter 9. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the making of a payment, in relation to the consideration of a complaint under the regulations, by any person or body in respect of whom the complaint is made;
  - (b) any such payment to be—
    - (i) made to such person or body as may be specified in the regulations; and
    - (ii) of such amount as may be specified in, or calculated or determined under, the regulations;
  - (c) an independent panel to review the amount chargeable under paragraph (a) in any particular case and, if the panel thinks fit, to substitute a lesser amount.
- (4) The regulations may require any person or body who handles or considers complaints under the regulations to make information available to the public about the procedures to be followed under the regulations.
- (5) The regulations may also—
- (a) provide for different parts or aspects of a complaint to be treated differently;
  - (b) require the production of information or documents in order to enable a complaint to be properly considered;
  - (c) authorise the disclosure of information or documents relevant to a complaint to a person or body—
    - (i) who is considering a complaint under the regulations; or
    - (ii) to whom a complaint has been referred;
 and any such disclosure may be authorised notwithstanding any rule of common law that would otherwise prohibit or restrict the disclosure.
- (6) The regulations may make provision about complaints which raise both matters falling to be considered under the regulations and matters falling to be considered under other statutory complaints procedures, including in particular provision for—
- (a) enabling such a complaint to be made under the regulations; and
  - (b) securing that matters falling to be considered under other statutory complaints procedures are treated as if they had been raised in a complaint made under the appropriate procedures;
- and in this subsection “statutory complaints procedures” means procedures established by or under any enactment.

- (2) The regulations may in particular make provision—
- (a) for the further consideration of a representation by the Commission for Social Care Inspection (“the CSCI”);
  - (b) for a representation to be referred by the CSCI for further consideration by an independent panel established under the regulations;
  - (c) about the procedure to be followed on the further consideration of a representation;
  - (d) for the making of recommendations about the action to be taken as the result of a representation;
  - (e) about the making of reports about a representation;
  - (f) about the action to be taken by the local authority concerned as a result of the further consideration of a representation;
  - (g) for a representation to be referred by the CSCI back to the local authority concerned for reconsideration by the authority;
  - (h) for a representation or any matter raised by the representation to be referred by the CSCI—
    - (i) to a Local Commissioner in England for him to consider whether to investigate the representation or matter under Part 3 of the Local Government Act 1974 as if it were a complaint duly made under section 26 of that Act; or
    - (ii) to any other person or body for him or it to consider whether to take any action otherwise than under the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may require—
- (a) the making of a payment, in relation to the further consideration of a representation under this section, by any local authority in respect of whose functions the representation is made;
  - (b) any such payment to be—
    - (i) made to such person or body as may be specified in the regulations;
    - (ii) of such amount as may be specified in, or calculated or determined under, the regulations;
  - (c) an independent panel to review the amount chargeable under paragraph (a) in any particular case and, if the panel thinks fit, to substitute a lesser amount.
- (4) The regulations may also—
- (a) provide for different parts or aspects of a representation to be treated differently;
  - (b) require the production of information or documents in order to enable a representation to be properly considered;
  - (c) authorise the disclosure of information or documents relevant to a representation—
    - (i) to a person or body who is further considering a representation under the regulations; or
    - (ii) to a Local Commissioner in England (when a representation is referred to him under the regulations);

and any such disclosure may be authorised notwithstanding any rule of common law that would otherwise prohibit or restrict the disclosure.

(5) In this section, “Local Commissioner in England” means a Local Commissioner under Part 3 of the Local Government Act 1974 (c. 7), who is a member of the Commission for Local Administration in England.”

(2) After section 26ZA of that Act (as inserted by subsection (1)) insert—

“26ZB Representations: further consideration (Wales)

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the further consideration of representations which have been considered by a local authority in Wales under section 24D or section 26.

(2) The regulations may in particular make provision—

- (a) for the further consideration of a representation by an independent panel established under the regulations;
- (b) about the procedure to be followed on the further consideration of a representation;
- (c) for the making of recommendations about the action to be taken as the result of a representation;
- (d) about the making of reports about a representation;
- (e) about the action to be taken by the local authority concerned as a result of the further consideration of a representation;
- (f) for a representation to be referred back to the local authority concerned for reconsideration by the authority.

(3) The regulations may require—

- (a) the making of a payment, in relation to the further consideration of a representation under this section, by any local authority in respect of whose functions the representation is made;
- (b) any such payment to be—
  - (i) made to such person or body as may be specified in the regulations;
  - (ii) of such amount as may be specified in, or calculated or determined under, the regulations; and
- (c) for an independent panel to review the amount chargeable under paragraph (a) in any particular case and, if the panel thinks fit, to substitute a lesser amount.

(4) The regulations may also—

- (a) provide for different parts or aspects of a representation to be treated differently;
- (b) require the production of information or documents in order to enable a representation to be properly considered;
- (c) authorise the disclosure of information or documents relevant to a representation to a person or body who is further considering a representation under the regulations;
